The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-president, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Arkansas, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendments of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF ARKANSAS, are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the by-Laws of this corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.64

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF EAST BAY

A California Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 10, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of California shall be located in the city of Ferment. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of California as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual Meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the fourth Saturday in January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of California or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual Meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said Meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the Meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any Meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of California. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorised Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business;

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTOR

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of California.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof, said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the member by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of California.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the trans action of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

1. To purchase, lease, and acquire, in any lawful manner any and all real or personal property including franchises, stocks, bonds and debentures of other companies, business and good will, patents, trade-marks in contracts, and interests there- under, and other rights and properties which in their judgment may be beneficial for the purpose of this corporation, and to issue shares of stock of this corporation in payment of such property, and in payment for services rendered to this corporation, when they deem it advisable.

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of California, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the California statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4, Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments, and other obligations authorised by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice- President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and certificates and transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of California, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any shares or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorised Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognised by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificate to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorised but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF EAST BAY, are hereby

accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

Save as aforesaid, words and expressions defined in the Act, including "resident Canadian" and "unanimous shareholder agreement", have the same meanings when used herein. Words importing the singular number include the plural and vice versa; and words importing a person include an individual, sole proprietorship, partnership, unincorporated association, unincorporated syndicate, unincorporated organization, trust, body corporate, and a natural person in his capacity as trustee, executor, administrator, or other legal representative.

1.02 Unanimous Shareholder Agreement. - The provisions of the by-laws shall be subject to any unanimous shareholder agreement entered into from time to time.

SECTION TWO

BUSINESS OF THE CORPORATION

2.01 Registered Office. - The registered office of the Corporation shall be in the municipality or geographic township within Ontario initially specified in its articles and thereafter as the shareholders may from time to time determine by special resolution and at such location therein as the board may from time to time determine.

2.02 Corporate Seal. - The Corporation may, but need not have, a corporate seal and if one is adopted it shall be in a form approved from time to time by the board.

2.03 Financial Year. - Until changed by the board, the financial year of the Corporation shall end on the last day of March in each year.

2.04 Execution of Instruments. - Deeds, transfers, assignments, contracts, obligations, certificates and other instruments may be signed on behalf of the Corporation by two persons, one of whom holds the office of chair of the board, managing director, president, vice-president or is a director and the other of whom is a director or holds one of the said offices or the office of secretary, treasurer, assistant secretary or assistant treasurer or any other office created by by-law or by the board. In addition, the board or the said two persons may from time to time direct the manner in which and the person or persons by whom any particular instrument or class of instruments may or shall be signed. Any signing officer may affix the corporate seal to any instrument requiring the same.

2.05 Banking Arrangements. - The banking business of the Corporation including, without limitation, the borrowing of money and the giving of security therefor, shall be transacted with such banks, trust companies or other bodies corporate or organizations as may from time to time be designated by or under the authority of the board. Such banking business or any part thereof shall be transacted under such agreements, instructions and delegations of powers as the board may from time to time prescribe.

2.06 Voting Rights in Other Bodies Corporate. - The signing officers of the Corporation under section 2.04 may execute and deliver proxies and arrange for the issuance of voting certificates or other evidence of the right to exercise the voting rights attaching to any securities held by the Corporation. Such instruments shall be in favour of such persons as may be determined by the officers executing or arranging for the same. In addition, the board may from time to time direct the manner in which and the persons by whom any particular voting rights or class of voting rights may or shall be exercised.

2.07 Divisions. - The board may cause the business and operations of the Corporation or any part thereof to be divided into one or more divisions upon such basis, including without limitation types of business or operations, geographical territories, product lines or goods or services, as may be considered appropriate in each case. In connection with any such division the board or, subject to any direction by the board, the chief executive officer may authorize from time to time, upon such basis as may be considered appropriate in each case:

(a) Subdivision and Consolidation - the further division of the business and operations of any such division into sub-units and the consolidation of the business and operations of any such divisions and sub-units;

(b) Name - the designation of any such division or sub-unit by, and the carrying on of the business and operations of any such division or sub-unit under, a name other than the name of the Corporation; provided that the Corporation shall set out its name in legible characters in all places required by law; and

(c) Officers - the appointment of officers for any such division or sub-unit, the determination of their powers and duties, and the removal of any of such officers so appointed, provided that any such officers shall not, as such, be officers of the Corporation.

SECTION THREE

BORROWING AND SECURITY

3.01 Borrowing Power. - Without limiting the borrowing powers of the Corporation as set forth in the Act, but subject to the articles and any unanimous shareholder agreement, the board may from time to time on behalf of the Corporation, without authorization of the shareholders:

(a) borrow money upon the credit of the Corporation;

(b) issue, reissue, sell or pledge bonds, debentures, notes or other evidences of indebtedness or guarantee of the Corporation, whether secured or unsecured;

(c) to the extent permitted by the Act, give directly or indirectly financial assistance to any person by means of a loan, a guarantee or otherwise on behalf of the Corporation to secure performance of any present or future indebtedness, liability or obligation of any person; and

(d) mortgage, hypothecate, pledge or otherwise create a security interest in all or any currently owned or subsequently acquired real or personal, movable or immovable, property of the Corporation including book debts, rights, powers, franchises and undertakings, to secure any such bonds, debentures, notes or other evidences of indebtedness or guarantee or any other present or future indebtedness, liability or obligation of the Corporation.

Nothing in this section limits or restricts the borrowing of money by the Corporation on bills of exchange or promissory notes made, drawn, accepted or endorsed by or on behalf of the Corporation.

3.02 Delegation. - Unless the articles of, or a unanimous shareholder agreement relating to, the Corporation otherwise provide, the board may from time to time delegate to a director, a committee of the board, or an officer of the Corporation any or all of the powers conferred on the board by section 3.01 to such extent and in such manner as the board may determine at the time of such delegation.

SECTION FOUR

DIRECTORS

4.01 Number of Directors. - Until changed in accordance with the Act, the board shall consist of not fewer than the minimum number and not more than the maximum number of directors provided in the articles.

4.02 Qualification. - No person shall be qualified for election as a director if such person is less than 18 years of age, is of unsound mind and has been so found by a court in Canada or elsewhere, is not an individual, or has the status of a bankrupt. A director need not be a shareholder. No election of a person as a director shall be effective unless the person consents in writing on or within ten days after the date of the election. A majority of the directors shall be resident Canadians, but where the Corporation has only one or two directors, that director or one of the two directors, as the case may be, shall be a resident Canadian.

4.03 Election and Term. - Each director named in the articles shall hold office from the date of incorporation until the first meeting of shareholders. The election of directors shall take place at each annual meeting of shareholders and all the directors then in office shall retire but, if qualified, shall be eligible for re-election. Subject to the Act, the number of directors to be elected at any such meeting shall be the number of directors determined from time to time by special resolution or, if the special resolution empowers the directors to determine the number, by resolution of the board. Where the shareholders adopt an amendment to the articles to increase the number or maximum number of directors, the shareholders may, at the meeting at which they adopt the amendment, elect the additional number of directors authorized by the amendment to take office from the effective date of the endorsement of the articles of amendment with respect thereto. The election shall be by resolution. If an election of directors is not held at the proper time, the incumbent directors shall continue in office until their successors are elected.

4.04 Removal of Directors. - Subject to the Act, the shareholders may by ordinary resolution passed at an annual or special meeting of shareholders remove any director from office and the vacancy created by such removal may be filled at the same meeting, failing which it may be filled by the board.

4.05 Vacation of Office. - A director ceases to hold office on death, on removal from office by the shareholders, on ceasing to be qualified for election as a director, on receipt of a written resignation by the Corporation, or, if a time is specified in such resignation, at the time so specified, whichever is later. Until the first meeting of shareholders, the resignation of a director named in the articles shall not be effective unless at the time the resignation is to become effective a successor has been elected.

4.06 Vacancies. - Subject to the Act, a quorum of the board may appoint a qualified individual to fill a vacancy in the board.

4.07 Action by the Board. - Subject to any unanimous shareholder agreement, the board shall manage or supervise the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. The powers of the board may be exercised at a meeting (subject to sections 4.08 and 4.09) at which a quorum is present or by resolution in writing signed by all the directors entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of the board. Where there is a vacancy in the board, the remaining directors may exercise all the powers of the board so long as a quorum remains in office. Where the Corporation has a board consisting of only one director, that director may constitute a meeting.

4.08 Canadian Majority at Meetings. - The board shall not transact business at a meeting, other than filling a vacancy in the board, unless a majority of the directors present are resident Canadians, except where

(a) a resident Canadian director who is unable to be present approves in writing or by telephone, electronic, or other communications facilities the business transacted at the meeting; and

(b) a majority of resident Canadians would have been present had that director been present at the meeting; or

(c) the Corporation has fewer than three directors, one of the directors present is a resident Canadian.

4.09 Meeting by Telephone. - If all the directors of the Corporation consent thereto generally or in respect of a particular meeting, a director may participate in a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board by means of such telephone, electronic or other communications facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other, simultaneously and instantaneously, and a director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting. Any such consent shall be effective whether given before or after the meeting to which it relates and may be given with respect to all meetings of the board and of committees of the board.

4.10 Place of Meetings. - Meetings of the board may be held at any place within or outside Ontario and in any financial year of the Corporation a majority of the meetings need not be held in Canada.

4.11 Calling of Meetings. - Meetings of the board shall be held from time to time at such time and at such place as the board, the chair of the board, the managing director, the president or any two directors may determine.

4.12 Notice of Meeting. - Notice of the time and place of each meeting of the board shall be given in the manner provided in Section Eleven to each director not less than 48 hours before the time when the meeting is to be held. A notice of a meeting of directors need not specify the purpose of or the business to be transacted at the meeting except where the Act requires such purpose or business or the general nature thereof to be specified.

4.13 First Meeting of New Board. - Provided a quorum of directors is present, each newly elected board may without notice hold its first meeting immediately following the meeting of shareholders at which such board is elected.

4.14 Adjourned Meeting. - Notice of an adjourned meeting of the board is not required if the time and place of the adjourned meeting is announced at the original meeting.

4.15 Regular Meetings. - The board may appoint a day or days in any month or months for regular meetings of the board at a place and hour to be named. A copy of any resolution of the board fixing the place and time of such regular meetings shall be sent to each director forthwith after being passed, but no other notice shall be required for any such regular meeting except where the Act requires the purpose thereof or the business to be transacted thereat to be specified.

4.16 Chair. - The chair of any meeting of the board shall be the first mentioned of such of the following officers as have been appointed and who is a director and is present at the meeting: chair of the board, managing director or president. If no such officer is present, the directors present shall choose one of their number to be chair.

4.17 Quorum. - Subject to section 4.08, the quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the board shall be two-fifths of the number of directors or minimum number of directors, as the case may be, or such greater number of directors as the board may from time to time determine. If the Corporation has fewer than three directors, all the directors shall be present to constitute a quorum.

4.18 Votes to Govern. - At all meetings of the board every question shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast on the question. In case of an equality of votes the chair of the meeting shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.

4.19 Conflict of Interest. - A director who is a party to, or who is a director or officer of or has a material interest in any person who is a party to, a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with the Corporation shall disclose to the Corporation the nature and extent of that interest at the time and in the manner provided by the Act. Such a director shall not vote on any resolution to approve the same except as provided by the Act.

4.20 Remuneration and Expenses. - Subject to any unanimous shareholder agreement, the directors shall be paid such remuneration for their services as the board may from time to time determine. The directors shall also be entitled to be reimbursed for travelling and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending meetings of the board or any committee thereof. Nothing herein contained shall preclude any director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving remuneration therefor.

COMMITTEES

5.01 Committees of the Board. - The board may appoint from their number one or more committees of the board, however designated, and delegate to any such committee any of the powers of the board except those which pertain to items which, under the Act, a committee of the board has no authority to exercise. A majority of the members of any such committee shall be resident Canadians.

5.02 Transaction of Business, - The powers of a committee of the board may be exercised by a meeting at which a quorum is present or by resolution in writing signed by all members of such committee who would have been entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of the committee. Meetings of such committee may be held at any place in or outside Ontario.

5.03 Advisory Bodies. - The board may from time to time appoint such advisory bodies as it may deem advisable.

5.04 Procedure. - Unless otherwise determined by the board, each committee and advisory body shall have power to fix its quorum at not less than a majority of its members, to elect its chair and to regulate its procedure.

OFFICERS

6.01 Appointment. - Subject to any unanimous shareholder agreement, the board may from time to time appoint a president, one or more vice-presidents (to which title may be added words indicating seniority or function), a secretary, a treasurer and such other officers as the board may determine, including one or more assistants to any of the officers so appointed. One person may hold more than one office. The board may specify the duties of and, in accordance with this by-law and subject to the Act, delegate to such officers powers to manage the business and affairs of the Corporation. Subject to sections 6.02 and 6.03, an officer may but need not be a director.

6.02 Chair of the Board. - The board may from time to time also appoint a chair of the board who shall be a director. If appointed, the board may assign to the chair any of the powers and duties that are by any provisions of this by-law assigned to the managing director or to the president. The chair shall have such other powers and duties as the board may specify.

6.03 Managing Director. - The board may from time to time also appoint a managing director who shall be a resident Canadian and a director. If appointed, the managing director shall be the chief executive officer and, subject to the authority of the board, shall have general supervision of the business and affairs of the Corporation and such other powers and duties as the board may specify. During the absence or disability of the president, or if no president has been appointed, the managing director shall also have the powers and duties of that office.

6.04 President. - The president shall be the chief operating officer and, subject to the authority of the board, shall have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and such other powers and duties as the board may specify. During the absence or disability of the managing director, or if no managing director has been appointed, the president shall also have the powers and duties of that office.

6.05 Secretary. - Unless otherwise determined by the board, the secretary shall be the secretary of all meetings of the board, shareholders and committees of the board that the secretary attends. The secretary shall enter or cause to be entered in records kept for that purpose minutes of all proceedings at meetings of the board, shareholders and committees of the board, whether or not in attendance at such meetings. The secretary shall give or cause to be given, as and when instructed, all notices to shareholders, directors, officers, auditors and members of committees of the board. The secretary shall be the custodian of the stamp or mechanical device generally used for affixing the corporate seal of the Corporation and of all books, records and instruments belonging to the Corporation, except when some other officer or agent has been appointed for that purpose, and have such other powers and duties as otherwise may be specified.

6.06 Treasurer. - The treasurer shall keep proper accounting records in compliance with the Act and shall be responsible for the deposit of money, the safekeeping of securities and the disbursement of the funds of the Corporation. The treasurer shall render to the board whenever required an account of all transactions as treasurer and of the financial position of the Corporation and shall have such other powers and duties as otherwise may be specified.

6.07 Powers and Duties of Officers. - The powers and duties of all officers shall be such as the terms of their engagement call for or as the board or (except for those whose powers and duties are to be specified only by the board) the chief executive officer may specify. The board and (except as aforesaid) the chief executive officer may, from time to time and subject to the provisions of the Act, vary, add to or limit the powers and duties of any officer. Any of the powers and duties of an officer to whom an assistant has been appointed may be exercised and performed by such assistant, unless the board or the chief executive officer otherwise directs.

6.08 Term of Office. - The board, in its discretion, may remove any officer of the Corporation. Otherwise each officer appointed by the board shall hold office until a successor is appointed or until the officer resigns.

6.09 Agents and Attorneys. - The Corporation, by or under the authority of the board, shall have power from time to time to appoint agents or attorneys for the Corporation in or outside Canada with such powers (including the power to subdelegate) of management, administration or otherwise as may be thought fit.

6.10 Conflict of Interest. - An officer shall disclose any interest in a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with the Corporation in accordance with section 4.19.

PROTECTION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND OTHERS

7.01 Limitation of Liability. - All directors and officers of the Corporation in exercising their powers and discharging their duties shall act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Corporation and exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. Subject to the foregoing, no director or officer shall be liable for the acts, omissions, failures, neglects or defaults of any other director, officer or employee, or for any loss, damage or expense happening to the Corporation through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired for or on behalf of the Corporation, or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the moneys of the Corporation shall be invested, or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency or tortious acts of any person with whom any of the moneys, securities or effects of the Corporation shall be deposited, or for any loss occasioned by any error of judgment or oversight on the part of such director or officer, or for any other loss, damage or misfortune which shall happen in the execution of the duties of office or in relation thereto; provided that nothing herein shall relieve any director or officer from the duty to act in accordance with the Act and the regulations thereunder or from liability for any breach thereof.

7.02 Indemnity. - Subject to the Act, the Corporation shall indemnify directors or officers, former directors or officers, or persons who act or acted at the Corporation's request as directors or officers of a body corporate of which the Corporation is or was a shareholder or creditor, and their heirs and legal representatives, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by them in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which they are made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the Corporation or such body corporate, if (a) they acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Corporation; and (b) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, they had reasonable grounds for believing that their conduct was lawful. The Corporation shall also indemnify such person in such other circumstances as the Act or law permits or requires. Nothing in this by-law shall limit the right of any person entitled to indemnity to claim indemnity apart from the provisions of this by-law.

7.03 Insurance. - Subject to the Act, the Corporation may purchase and maintain such insurance for the benefit of any person referred to in section 7.02 hereof as the board may from time to time determine.

SHARES

8.01 Allotment of Shares. - Subject to the Act, the articles or any unanimous shareholder agreement, the board may from time to time allot or grant options to purchase the whole or any part of the authorized and unissued shares of the Corporation at such times and to such persons and for such consideration as the board shall determine, provided that no share shall be issued until it is fully paid as provided by the Act.

8.02 Commissions. - The board may from time to time authorize the Corporation to pay a reasonable commission to any person in consideration of such person purchasing or agreeing to purchase shares of the Corporation, whether from the Corporation or from any other person, or procuring or agreeing to procure purchasers for any such shares.

8.03 Registration of Transfers. - Subject to the Act, no transfer of a share shall be registered in a securities register except upon presentation of the certificate representing such share with an endorsement which complies with the Act made thereon or delivered therewith duly executed by an appropriate person as provided by the Act, together with such reasonable assurance that the endorsement is genuine and effective as the board may from time to time prescribe, upon payment of all applicable taxes and any reasonable fees prescribed by the board, upon compliance with such restrictions on issue, transfer or ownership as are authorized by the articles and upon satisfaction of any lien referred to in section 8.09.

8.04 Non-recognition of Trusts. - Subject to the Act, the Corporation may treat the registered holder of any share as the person exclusively entitled to vote, to receive notices, to receive any dividend or other payment in respect of the share, and otherwise to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner of the share.

8.05 Share Certificates. - Every holder of one or more shares of the Corporation shall be entitled, at the holder's option, to a share certificate, or to a non-transferable written certificate of acknowledgement of such right to obtain a share certificate, stating the number and class or series of shares held by such holder as shown on the securities register. Such certificates shall be in such form as the board may from time to time approve. Any such certificate shall be signed in accordance with section 2.04 and need not be under the corporate seal.

8.06 Replacement of Share Certificates. - The board or any officer or agent designated by the board may direct the issue of a new share or other such certificate in lieu of and upon cancellation of a certificate that has been mutilated or in substitution for a certificate claimed to have been lost, apparently destroyed or wrongfully taken on payment of such reasonable fee and on such terms as to indemnity, reimbursement of expenses and evidence of loss and of title as the board may from time to time prescribe, whether generally or in any particular case.

8.07 Joint Shareholders. - If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any share, the Corporation shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate in respect thereof, and delivery of such certificate to one of such persons shall be sufficient delivery to all of them. Any one of such persons may give effectual receipts for the certificate issued in respect thereof or for any dividend, bonus, return of capital or other money payable or warrant issuable in respect of such share.

8.08 Deceased Shareholders. - In the event of the death of a holder, or of one of the joint holders, of any share, the Corporation shall not be required to make any entry in the securities register in respect thereof or to make any dividend or other payments in respect thereof except upon production of all such documents as may be required by law and upon compliance with the reasonable requirements of the Corporation and its transfer agents.

8.09 Lien for Indebtedness. - The Corporation shall have a lien on shares registered in the name of a shareholder indebted to the Corporation and such lien may be enforced, subject to the articles and to any unanimous shareholder agreement, by the sale of the shares thereby affected or by any other action, suit, remedy or proceeding authorized or permitted by law or by equity and, pending such enforcement, the Corporation may refuse to register a transfer of the whole or any part of such shares.

DIVIDENDS AND RIGHTS

9.01 Dividends. - Subject to the Act, the articles and any unanimous shareholder agreement, the board may from time to time declare dividends payable to the shareholders according to their respective rights and interests in the Corporation. Dividends may be paid in money or property or by issuing fully paid shares of the Corporation or options or rights to acquire fully paid shares of the Corporation. Any dividend unclaimed after a period of 6 years from the date on which the same has been declared to be payable shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Corporation.

9.02 Dividend Cheques. - A dividend payable in money shall be paid by cheque to the order of each registered holder of shares of the class or series in respect of which it has been declared and mailed by prepaid ordinary mail to such registered holder at the holder's recorded address, unless such holder otherwise directs. In the case of joint holders the cheque shall, unless such joint holders otherwise direct, be made payable to the order of all of such joint holders and mailed to them at their recorded address. The mailing of such cheque as aforesaid, unless the same is not paid on due presentation, shall satisfy and discharge the liability for the dividend to the extent of the sum represented thereby plus the amount of any tax which the Corporation is required to and does withhold. In the event of non-receipt of any dividend cheque by the person to whom it is sent as aforesaid, the Corporation shall issue to such person a replacement cheque for a like amount on such terms as to indemnity, reimbursement of expenses and evidence of non-receipt and of title as the board may from time to time prescribe, whether generally or in any particular case.

9.03 Record Date for Dividends and Rights. - The board may fix in advance a date, preceding by not more than 50 days the date for the payment of any dividend or the date for the issue of any warrant or other evidence of the right to subscribe for securities of the Corporation, as a record date for the determination of the persons entitled to receive payment of such dividend or to exercise the right to subscribe for such securities, and notice of any such record date shall be given not less than 7 days before such record date in the manner provided by the Act. If no record date is so fixed, the record date for the determination of the persons entitled to receive payment of any dividend or to exercise the right to subscribe for securities of the Corporation shall be at the close of business on the day on which the resolution relating to such dividend or right to subscribe is passed by the board.

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

10.01 Annual Meetings. - The annual meeting of shareholders shall be held at such time in each year and, subject to section 10.03, at such place as the board, the chair of the board, the managing director or the president may from time to time determine, for the purpose of considering the financial statements and reports required by the Act to be placed before the annual meeting, electing directors, appointing auditors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

10.02 Special Meetings. - The board, the chair of the board, the managing director or the president shall have power to call a special meeting of shareholders at any time.

10.03 Place of Meetings. - Meetings of shareholders of the Corporation shall be held at such place in or outside Ontario as the directors determine or, in the absence of such a determination, at the place where the registered office of the Corporation is located.

10.04 Notice of Meetings. - Notice of the time and place of each meeting of shareholders shall be given in the manner provided in Section Eleven not less than 10 nor more than 50 days before the date of the meeting to each director, to the auditor, and to each shareholder who at the close of business on the record date for notice is entered in the securities register as the holder of one or more shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting. Notice of a meeting of shareholders called for any purpose other than consideration of the minutes of an earlier meeting, financial statements and auditor's report, election of directors and reappointment of the incumbent auditor shall state the nature of such business in sufficient detail to permit the shareholder to form a reasoned judgment thereon and shall state the text of any special resolution or by-law to be submitted to the meeting.

10.05 List of Shareholders Entitled to Notice. - For every meeting of shareholders, the Corporation shall prepare a list of shareholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order and showing the number of shares held by each shareholder entitled to vote at the meeting. If a record date for the meeting is fixed pursuant to section 10.06, the shareholders listed shall be those registered at the close of business on such record date. If no record date is fixed, the shareholders listed shall be those registered at the close of business on the day immediately preceding the day on which notice of the meeting is given or, where no such notice is given, on the day on which the meeting is held. The list shall be available for examination by any shareholder during usual business hours at the registered office of the Corporation or at the place where the central securities register is maintained and at the meeting for which the list was prepared. Where a separate list of shareholders has not been prepared, the names of persons appearing in the securities register at the requisite time as the holder of one or more shares carrying the right to vote at such meeting shall be deemed to be a list of shareholders.

10.06 Record Date for Notice. - The board may fix in advance a date, preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders by not more than 50 days and not less than 21 days, as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of the meeting, and notice of any such record date shall be given not less than 7 days before such record date, by newspaper advertisement in the manner provided in the Act. If no such record date is so fixed, the record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting shall be at the close of business on the day immediately preceding the day on which the notice is given or, if no notice is given, shall be the day on which the meeting is held.

10.07 Meetings Without Notice. - A meeting of shareholders may be held without notice at any time and place permitted by the Act (a) if all the shareholders entitled to vote thereat are present in person or duly represented or if those not present or represented waive notice of or otherwise consent to such meeting being held, and (b) if the auditors and the directors are present or waive notice of or otherwise consent to such meeting being held; so long as such shareholders, auditors or directors present are not attending for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called. At such a meeting any business may be transacted which the Corporation at a meeting of shareholders may transact.

10.08 Chair. Secretary and Scrutineers. - The chair of any meeting of shareholders shall be the first mentioned of such of the following officers as have been appointed and who is present at the meeting: managing director, president, chair of the board, or a vice-president who is a shareholder. If no such officer is present within 15 minutes from the time fixed for holding the meeting, the persons present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chair. If the secretary of the Corporation is absent, the chair shall appoint some person, who need not be a shareholder, to act as secretary of the meeting. If desired, one or more scrutineers, who need not be shareholders, may be appointed by a resolution or by the chair with the consent of the meeting.

10.09 Persons Entitled to be Present. - The only persons entitled to be present at a meeting of shareholders shall be those entitled to vote thereat, the directors and auditor of the Corporation and others who, although not entitled to vote, are entitled or required under any provision of the Act or the articles or by-laws to be present at the meeting. Any other person may be admitted only on the invitation of the chair of the meeting or with the consent of the meeting.

10.10 Quorum. - Subject to the Act in respect of a majority shareholder, a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of shareholders shall be two persons present in person, each being a shareholder entitled to vote thereat or a duly appointed proxyholder or representative for a shareholder so entitled. If a quorum is present at the opening of any meeting of shareholders, the shareholders present or represented may proceed with the business of the meeting notwithstanding that a quorum is not present throughout the meeting. If a quorum is not present at the time appointed for the meeting or within a reasonable time thereafter as the shareholders may determine, the shareholders present or represented may adjourn the meeting to a fixed time and place but may not transact any other business.

10.11 Right to Vote. - Every person named in the list referred to in section 10.05 shall be entitled to vote the shares shown thereon opposite such person's name at the meeting to which such list relates, except to the extent that (a) where the Corporation has fixed a record date in respect of such meeting, such person has transferred any shares after such record date or, where the Corporation has not fixed a record date in respect of such meeting, such person has transferred any shares after the date on which such list is prepared, and (b) the transferee, having produced properly endorsed certificates evidencing such shares or having otherwise established ownership of such shares, has demanded not later than 10 days before the meeting that the transferee's name be included in such list. In any such excepted case the transferee shall be entitled to vote the transferred shares at such meeting.

10.12 Proxyholders and Representatives. - Every shareholder entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders may appoint a proxyholder, or one or more alternate proxyholders, as nominee of such shareholder to attend and act at the meeting in the manner and to the extent authorized and with the authority conferred by the proxy. A proxy shall be in writing executed by the shareholder or the shareholder's attorney and shall conform with the requirements of the Act. Alternatively, every such shareholder which is a body corporate or association may authorize by resolution of its directors or governing body an individual to represent it at a meeting of shareholders and such individual may exercise on the shareholder's behalf all the powers it could exercise if it were an individual shareholder. The authority of such an individual shall be established by depositing with the Corporation a certified copy of such resolution, or in such other manner as may be satisfactory to the secretary of the Corporation or the chair of the meeting. Any such proxyholder or representative need not be a shareholder.

10.13 Time for Deposit of Proxies. - The board may fix a time not exceeding 48 hours, excluding Saturdays and holidays, preceding any meeting or adjourned meeting of shareholders before which time proxies to be used at the meeting must be deposited with the Corporation or an agent thereof, and any period of time so fixed shall be specified in the notice calling the meeting. A proxy shall be acted upon only if, prior to the time so specified, it shall have been deposited with the Corporation or an agent thereof specified in such notice or if, no such time having been specified in such notice, it has been received by the secretary of the Corporation or by the chair of the meeting or any adjournment thereof prior to the time of voting.

10.14 Joint Shareholders. - If two or more persons hold shares jointly, any one of them present in person or duly represented at a meeting of shareholders may, in the absence of the other or others, vote the shares; but if two or more of those persons are present in person or represented and vote, they shall vote as one the shares jointly held by them.

10.15 Votes to Govern. - At any meeting of shareholders every question shall, unless otherwise required by the articles or by-laws or by law, be determined by a majority of the votes cast on the question. In case of an equality of votes either upon a show of hands or upon a poll, the chair of the meeting shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.

10.16 Show of Hands. - Subject to the Act, any question at a meeting of shareholders shall be decided by a show of hands, unless a ballot thereon is required or demanded as hereinafter provided, and upon a show of hands every person who is present and entitled to vote shall have one vote. Whenever a vote by show of hands shall have been taken upon a question, unless a ballot thereon is so required or demanded, a declaration by the chair of the meeting that the vote upon the question has been carried or carried by a particular majority or not carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be prima facie evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against any resolution or other proceeding in respect of the said question, and the result of the vote so taken shall be the decision of the shareholders upon the said question.

10.17 Ballots. - On any question proposed for consideration at a meeting of shareholders, and whether or not a show of hands has been taken thereon, the chair may require a ballot or any person who is present and entitled to vote on such question at the meeting may demand a ballot. A ballot so required or demanded shall be taken in such manner as the chair shall direct. A requirement or demand for a ballot may be withdrawn at any time prior to the taking of the ballot. If a ballot is taken each person present shall be entitled, in respect of the shares which such person is entitled to vote at the meeting upon the question, to that number of votes provided by the Act or the articles, and the result of the ballot so taken shall be the decision of the shareholders upon the said question.

10.18 Adjournment. - The chair at a meeting of shareholders may, with the consent of the meeting and subject to such conditions as the meeting may decide, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place. If a meeting of shareholders is adjourned for less than 30 days, it shall not be necessary to give notice of the adjourned meeting, other than by announcement at the earliest meeting that is adjourned. Subject to the Act, if a meeting of shareholders is adjourned by one or more adjournments for an aggregate of 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as for an original meeting.

10.19 Action in Writing by Shareholders. - A resolution in writing signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of shareholders is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the shareholders unless, in accordance with the Act,

(a) in the case of the resignation or removal of a director, or the appointment or election of another person to fill the place of such director, a written statement is submitted to the Corporation by the director giving the reasons for such resignation or the reasons why such director opposes any proposed action or resolution for such removal from office or the election of another person to fill the office of such director, or

10.20 Only One Shareholder. - Where the Corporation has only one shareholder or only one holder of any class or series of shares, the shareholder present in person or duly represented constitutes a meeting.

NOTICES

11.01 Method of Giving Notices. - Any notice (which term includes any communication or document) to be given (which term includes sent, delivered or served) pursuant to the Act, the regulations thereunder, the articles, the by-laws or otherwise to a shareholder, director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the board shall be sufficiently given if delivered personally to the person to whom it is to be given, if mailed to such person at the person's recorded address by prepaid mail, or if transmitted by telephone facsimile or other electronic telecommunication facility. A notice so delivered shall be deemed to have been received when it is delivered personally, a notice so mailed shall be deemed to have been received on the fifth day after it is deposited in a post office or public letter box and a notice so transmitted shall be deemed to have been received on the day it is transmitted. The secretary may change or cause to be changed the recorded address of any shareholder, director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the board in accordance with any information believed by the secretary to be reliable.

11.02 Notice to Joint Shareholders. - If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any share, any notice may be addressed to all such joint holders, but notice addressed to one of such persons shall be sufficient notice to all of them.

11.03 Computation of Time. - In computing the date when notice must be given under any provision requiring a specified number of days' notice of any meeting or other event, the day of giving the notice shall be excluded and the day of the meeting or other event shall be excluded.

11.04 Undelivered Notices. - If any notice given to a shareholder pursuant to section 11.01 is returned on three consecutive occasions because the shareholder cannot be found, the Corporation shall not be required to give any further notices to such shareholder until informed in writing by the shareholder of a new address.

11.05 Omissions and Errors. - The accidental omission to give any notice to any shareholder, director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the board or the non-receipt of any notice by any such person or any error in any notice not affecting the substance thereof shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting held pursuant to such notice or otherwise founded thereon.

11.06 Persons Entitled by Death or Operation of Law. - Every person who, by operation of law, transfer, death of a shareholder or any other means whatsoever, shall become entitled to any share, shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share which shall have been duly given to the shareholder from whom such person derives title to such share prior to the name and address of such person being entered on the securities register (whether such notice was given before or after the happening of the event upon which he became so entitled) and prior to such person furnishing to the Corporation the proof of authority or evidence of entitlement prescribed by the Act.

11.07 Waiver of Notice. - Any shareholder, proxyholder or other person entitled to attend a meeting of shareholders, director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the board may at any time waive any notice, or waive or abridge the time for any notice, required to be given to him under the Act, the regulations thereunder, the articles, the by-laws or otherwise, and such waiver or abridgement, whether given before or after the meeting or other event of which notice is required to be given, shall cure any default in the giving or in the time of such notice, as the case may be. Any such waiver or abridgement shall be in writing except a waiver of notice of a meeting of shareholders or of the board or a committee of the board which may be given in any manner.

11.08 Interpretation. - In the by-laws, "recorded address" means in the case of a shareholder the address as recorded in the securities register; and in the case of joint shareholders the address appearing in the securities register in respect of such joint holding or the first address so appearing if there are more than one; in the case of an officer, auditor or member of a committee of the board, the latest address as recorded in the records of the Corporation; and in the case of a director, the latest address as recorded in the records of the Corporation or in the most recent notice filed under the Corporations Information Act, whichever is the more current.

EFFECTIVE DATE AND REPEAL

12.01 Effective Date. - This by-law shall come into force when made by the board in accordance with the Act.

12.02 Repeal. - All previous by-laws of the Corporation are repealed as of the coming into force of this by-law. Such repeal shall not affect the previous operation of any by-law so repealed or affect the validity of any act done or right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired or incurred under, or the validity of any contract or agreement made pursuant to, or the validity of any articles (as defined in the Act) or predecessor charter documents of the Corporation obtained pursuant to, any such by-law prior to its repeal. All officers and persons acting under any by-law so repealed shall continue to act as if appointed under the provisions of this by-law and all resolutions of the shareholders or the board or a committee of the board with continuing effect passed under any repealed by-law shall continue to be good and valid except to the extent inconsistent with this by-law and until amended or repealed.

The foregoing by-law was made by the directors of the Corporation on the 8th day of May, 2001, and was confirmed without variation by the shareholders of the Corporation on the 8th day of May, 2001.

PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER

This PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER dated this 29th day of June 1988, entered into by U-HAUL CO. OF COLORADO, the Surviving Corporation, and MOVERS WORLD OF COLORADO, INC., the [ILLEGIBLE] Corporation, both corporations of the State of Colorado, and together referred to as the Constituent Corporations hereby witnesseth that:

The respective Boards of Directors and the Sole Shareholder by resolution have determined it to be advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into the Surviving Corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Colorado, which laws permit such merger.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation, unless altered or amended below, following the effective date of the merger.

II

The executed PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER is on file at the Surviving Corporation's principal office. The location that office is 7540 York Street, Denver, CO 80229-6698, c/o John A. Lorentz.

III

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

(1) All issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Constituent Corporation shall be cancelled.

(2) On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

IV

The number of shares outstanding and the number of shares entitled to vote upon such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER, and the number of shares voted for and against such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER as to each corporation was as follows:

COMPANY NAME	NUMBER OF SHARES OUTSTANDING	NUMBER OF SHARES ENTITLED TO VOTE	NUMBER VOTED FOR	NUMBER VOTED AGAINST
U-HAUL CO. OF COLORADO, INC.	500	5,000	5,000	0

V

The Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Colorado, to consummate and make effective this merger, subject, however to the appropriate note or consent to the stockholders of the Constituent Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the State of Colorado.

VI

The Surviving Corporation hereby irrevocable appoints The Corporation Company as its agent to accept service of process in any suit or other proceeding and to enforce against the surviving Corporation any obligation of any Constituent Domestic Corporation or enforce the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any Constituent Domestic Corporation. A copy of any such process may be mailed to John A. Lorentz, P.O. Box 21502, Phoenix, Arizona 85036.

VII

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger, and assumes the responsibility for all tax liabilities of the Absorbed Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the corporate parties hereto execute this PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER this 29st day of June, 1988.

This PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER dated this 31th day of July, 1990, entered into by U-Hual Co. of Colorado, a colorado corporation, the surviving corporation and Creger-Barkley [ILLEGIBLE] (The) Corporation, a Colorado corporation the absorbed Corporation, and together referred to as the Constituent Corporations hereby witnesseth that:

The respective Boards of Directors and the Sole Shareholder by resolution have determined it to be advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into the Surviving Corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the General Corporation law of the States of Colorado which laws permit such mergers.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation, unless altered or amended below, following the effective date of the merger.

II

The executed PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER is on file at the Surviving Corporation's principal office. The location of that office is John A. Lorentz, 2721 N. Central Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona 85004.

III

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

- (1) All issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Absorbed Corporation shall be cancelled.
- (2) On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Surviving Corporation.

IV

The number of shares outstanding and the number of shares entitled to vote upon such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER, and the number of shares voted for and against such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER as to each corporation was as follows:

COMPANY NAME	NUMBER OF SHARES OUTSTANDING	NUMBER OF SHARES ENTITLED TO VOTE	NUMBER VOTED FOR	NUMBER VOTED AGAINST
U-HAUL CO. OF COLORADO	500	500	500	-0-
CREGER-BARKLEY CORPORATION (THE)	50,000	50,000	50,000	-0-

V

The Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Colorado to consummate and make effective this merger, subject, however to the appropriate vote or consent to the stockholders of the Constituent Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the State of Colorado.

VI

The Surviving Corporation hereby irrevocable appoints C. T. Corporation System as its agent to accept service of process in any suit or other proceeding and to enforce against the surviving Corporation any obligation of any Constituent Domestic Corporation or enforce the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any Constituent Domestic Corporation. A copy of any such process may be mailed to John A. Lorentz, P. O. Box 21502, Phoenix, Arizona 85036.

VII

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger, and assumes the responsibility for all tax liabilities of the Absorbed Corporation.

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF COLORADO

A Colorado Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 2, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Colorado shall be located in the city of Colorado Springs. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Colorado as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Monday in January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Colorado or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day end hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Colorado. Notice of the special meeting will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting :

Voting at all shareholders meeting. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, dis-qualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of colorado.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of colorado.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV
POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers :

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Colorado, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Colorado statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Colorado, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF COLORADO, are hereby

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF WESTERN CONNECTICUT

A Connecticut Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: April 13, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Connecticut shall be located in the city of Cheshire. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Connecticut as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Second Monday of March of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Connecticut or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Connecticut. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Connecticut.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, sad notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Connecticut.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Connecticut statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all Meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Connecticut, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF WESTERN CONNECTICUT, are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the State of District of Columbia. Notice of the special meeting will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Office:

A board of one (1) or more Directors, as required by law, shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies of the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the State of District of Columbia.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specifically called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the State of District of Columbia.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or these By-Laws but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may, from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

SECTION 7. Meetings By Telephone:

If all the directors consent, a director may participate in a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board by means of such telephone or other communications facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and a director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers, the express right to exercise the following powers:

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the statues regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President and Secretary, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in the By-Laws of the corporation, the Board may at any time and from time to time direct the manner in which any person or persons by whom any particular contract, document, note or instrument in writing of the corporation may or shall be signed by and may authorize any officer or officers of the corporation to sign such contracts, documents, notes or instruments.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of District of Columbia, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signing of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the name of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefore, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of April of each year and shall close on the 31st day of March of each year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-Haul Co. of District of Columbia, Inc. are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER

This PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER dated this 9th day of May, 1989, entered into by U-HAUL CO. of the West Coast of Florida, a Florida corporation, the surviving corporation and Kar-Go Service Center of Tampa, Inc. a Florida corporation, the Absorbed Corporation, and together referred to as the Constituent Corporations hereby witnesseth that:

The respective Boards of Directors and the Sole Shareholder by resolution have determined it to be advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into the Surviving Corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Florida which laws permit such merger.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation, unless altered or amended below, following the effective date of the merger.

II

The executed PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER is on file at the Surviving Corporation's principal office. The location of that office is C. T. Corporation System, 8751 West Broward Blvd., Plantation, Florida 33324.

III

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

- (1) All issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Constituent Corporation shall be absorbed.
- (2) On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

IV

The number of shares outstanding and the number of shares entitled to vote upon such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER, and the number of shares voted for and against such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER as to each corporation was as follows:

COMPANY NAME	NUMBER OF SHARES OUTSTANDING	NUMBER OF SHARES OF ENTITLED TO VOTE	NUMBER VOTED FOR	NUMBER VOTED AGAINST
U-HAUL CO. OF THE WEST COAST OF FLORIDA	500	500	500	-0-
KAR-GO SERVICE CENTER OF TAMPA, INC.	6,000	6,000	6,000	-0-

V

The Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Florida, to consummate and make effective this merger, subject, however to the appropriate vote or consent to the stockholders of the Constituent Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the State of Florida.

VI

The Surviving Corporation hereby irrevocable appoints C T Corporation System, as its agent to accept service of process in any suit or other proceeding and to enforce against the surviving corporation any obligation of any Constituent Domestic Corporation or enforce the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any Constituent Domestic Corporation. A copy of any such process may be mailed to John A. Lorents, P.O. Box 21502, Phoenix, Arizona, 85036.

VII

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger, and assumes the responsibility for all tax liabilities of the Absorbed Corporation.

This PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER dated this 14th day of January, 1991, entered into by U-Haul Co. of Florida, the Surviving Corporation, and U-Haul Co. of Central Florida, U-Haul Co. of Eastern Florida, U-Haul Co. of Northern Florida and U-Haul Co. of Southern Florida, the Absorbed Corporations, all corporations of the State of Florida and together referred to as the Constituent Corporations hereby witnesseth that:

The respective Boards of Directors and the Sole Shareholder by resolution have determined it to be advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into the Surviving corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Florida, which laws permit such merger. The written adoption by the Shareholder and Directors was January 14, 1991.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation, unless altered or amended below, following the effective date of the merger.

II

The executed PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER is on file at the Surviving Corporations's principal office. The location of that office is 2721 N. Central Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona 85004, c/o John A. Lorentz.

III

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

- (1) All issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Constituent Corporation shall be cancelled.
- (2) On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

IV

The number of shares outstanding and the number of shares entitled to vote upon such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER, and the number of shares voted for and against such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER as to each corporation was as follows:

COMPANY NAME	NUMBER OF SHARES OUTSTANDING	NUMBER OF SHARES ENTITLED TO VOTE	NUMBER VOTED FOR	NUMBER VOTED AGAINST
U-HAUL CO. OF FLORIDA	500	500	500	-0-
U-HAUL CO. OF CENTRAL FLORIDA	500	500	500	-0-
U-HAUL CO. OF EASTERN FLORIDA	500	500	500	-0-
U-HAUL CO. OF NORTHERN FLORIDA	500	500	500	-0-
U-HAUL CO. OF SOUTHERN FLORIDA	500	500	500	-0-

V

The Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Florida, to consummate and make effective this merger, subject, however to the appropriate vote or consent to the stockholders of the Constituent Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the State of Florida.

VI

The Surviving Corporation hereby irrevocable appoints C. T. Corporation System as its agent to accept service of process on any suit or other proceeding and to enforce against the Surviving Corporation any obligation of any Constituent Domestic Corporation or enforce the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any Constituent Domestic Corporation.

VII

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger, and assumes the responsibility for all tax liabilities of the Absorbed Corporation.

VIII

The effective date of the merger shall be January 1, 1991.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the corporate parties hereto executes this PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER this 14th day of January, 1991.

Exhibit 3.74

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF THE WEST COAST OF FLORIDA

A Florida Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 23, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Florida shall be located in the city of Tampa. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Florida as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the third Friday of February of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Florida or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Florida. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Florida.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Florida.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll Call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

3. To issue notes and other obligations or evidences of the debt of this corporation, and to secure the same, If deemed advisable, and endorse and guarantee the notes, bonds, stocks, and other obligations of other corporations with or without compensation for so doing, and from time to time to sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Florida, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Florida statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice- President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-president, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Florida, the number and par value. If any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such preemptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholder are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF THE WEST COAST OF FLORIDA, are hereby

PLAN OF MERGER

THIS PLAN OF MERGER dated this 12th day of September, 1975, entered into by U-Haul Co. of Eastern Georgia, a Georgia corporation, the Absorbed Corporation, and U-Haul Co. of Western Georgia, a Georgia corporation, Surviving Corporation and together with Absorbed Corporation referred to as Constituent Corporations, hereby WITNESSETH THAT:

WHEREAS:

A majority of the respective Boards of Directors and the sole shareholder of the Constituent Corporations have determined it is advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into Surviving Corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the State of Georgia which permit such a merger:

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The provisions for handling the shares of stock at the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

1. All issued and outstanding shares of stock of Absorbed Corporation shall be cancelled.
2. On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

II

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger.

III

If the Surviving Corporation shall consider or be advised that any assignment or assurances in law are necessary or desirable to vest or to perfect or confirm of record in the Surviving Corporation the title to any property or rights of the Absorbed Corporation, or to otherwise carry out the provisions hereof, the proper officers and directors of the Absorbed Corporation as of the effective date of the merger shall execute and deliver any assignments and assurances in law, and do all things necessary or proper

EXHIBIT 3.76

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF WESTERN GEORGIA

A GEORGIA CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

DATE: April 8, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Georgia shall be located in the city of Stone Mountain. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Georgia as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Thursday in January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Georgia or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Georgia. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by [ILLEGIBLE]. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present then to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Georgia.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Georgia.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Georgia, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Georgia statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice- President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Georgia, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF WESTERN GEORGIA, are hereby

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

BE IT KNOWN THAT the undersigned, desiring to form a corporation under the laws of the State of Hawaii, hereby execute(s) the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I.

The name of the corporation shall be:

U-HAUL OF HAWAII, INC.

ARTICLE II.

The location of the principal office of the corporation shall be Honolulu, State of Hawaii, and the specific address of its initial office shall be at 2722 Kilihau Street, Honolulu, Hawaii, 96819, or at such other location in the State of Hawaii as the Board of Directors may designate.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1. The purposes for which this corporation is organized and its powers in connection therewith are as follows:

- (a) To engage in the business of leasing and renting trucks, trailers, vans and automobiles to business enterprises and the general public;

(b) To undertake and carry on any business, investment, transaction, venture or enterprise which may be lawfully undertaken or carried on by a corporation under the law of the State of Hawaii from time to time and the rules and regulations of the regulating board concerned.

Section 2. And in furtherance of said purposes, the corporation shall have all powers, rights, privileges and immunities, and shall be subject to all of the liabilities conferred or imposed by law upon corporations of this nature, and shall be subject to and have all the benefits of all general laws with respect to corporations. Subject to and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the corporation shall have the following powers:

(a) To have succession by its corporate name perpetually;

(b) To sue and be sued in any court;

(c) To make and use a common seal, and alter it at its pleasure;

(d) To hold, purchase, and convey such property as the purposes of the corporation require, without limit, and to mortgage, pledge, and hypothecate the same to secure any debt of the corporation;

(e) To appoint such subordinate officers and agents as the business of the corporation requires;

(f) To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets;

(g) To lend money to its employees, officers, and directors, and otherwise assist its employees, officers, and directors;

(h) To purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, associations, partnerships, or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district or municipality, or of any instrumentality thereof;

(i) To make contracts and guarantees and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises, and income;

(j) To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested;

(k) To conduct its business, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by this section in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States, or in any foreign country;

(l) To elect or appoint officers and agents of the corporation, and define their duties and fix their compensation;

(m) To make and alter bylaws, not inconsistent with these Articles of Incorporation or with the laws of the State of Hawaii; provided, however, that the power to alter, amend, or repeal the bylaws or to adopt new bylaws shall be reserved to the shareholders;

(n) To make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes;

(o) In time of war to transact any lawful business;

(p) To indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or other agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or was a director, officer, employee or agent of a foreign or domestic corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of such person was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful;

(q) To indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or other agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or was a director, officer, employee or agent of a foreign or domestic corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of such person's duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper;

(s) To pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit-sharing plans, stock bonus plans, stock option plans, and other incentive or benefit plans for any of its directors, officers, and employees; and, to the extent permitted by applicable federal law, to indemnify and purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any fiduciary of any employee benefit plan or trust maintained for the benefit of employees of the corporation or another corporation in which it owns shares;

(t) To cease its corporate activities and surrender its corporate franchise;

(u) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all, of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.

ARTICLE IV.

Section 1. The authorized capital stock of the corporation shall be FIFTY THOUSAND AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($50,000.00), divided into FIVE THOUSAND (5,000) shares of common stock of the par value of TEN AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($10.00) a share. The corporation shall have the privilege of subsequent extension of its capital stock from time to time in the manner provided by law by the issuance of either common or preferred stock to an amount not exceeding ONE MILLION AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($1,000,000.00) in the aggregate.

The names of the subscribers for shares, the number of shares subscribed for by each subscriber, the subscription price for the shares subscribed for by each subscriber and the amount of the capital paid in cash by each subscriber are as follows:

Names of Subscriber -----	No. of Shares Subscribed for by Each Subscriber -----	Subscription Price for Each Share Subscribed for by Each Subscriber -----	Amt. of Capital Paid in Cash by Each Sub- scriber -----
AMERCO, a Nevada corporation	100	$10.00	$1,000.00

Section 2. The corporation shall have power from time to time to create an additional class or additional classes of stock, with or without par value. Such additional class or classes of stock may have such terms, preferences, voting powers, restrictions and qualifications thereof as shall be fixed by these Articles or by the resolution of the shareholders authorizing the issue thereof in accordance with law. The Board of Directors is authorized to issue authorized and unissued shares of any class. If, whenever, and as often as shares of stock of the corporation without par value shall be authorized as permitted by law, the Board of Directors is authorized to determine what portion of the consideration for which such shares shall be issued shall constitute capital and what portion, if any, paid-in surplus, subject to the applicable provisions of these Articles and the provisions of law. Any and all shares of stock, bonds, debentures or other securities or obligations of the corporation, whether or not convertible into stock or carrying warrants entitling the holder thereof to subscribe to stock, may be issued, optioned, sold and/or disposed of from time to time by the Board of Directors to such persons, entities, firms or corporations, and for such consideration (so far as may be permitted by law) as the Board of Directors shall from time to time in its absolute discretion determine.

Section 3. No holder of stock of the corporation of any class shall, as such holder, have any preemptive right to subscribe to, purchase, or otherwise acquire, any shares of any class of stock of the corporation, whether now or hereafter authorized, or obligations convertible into any class or classes of stock or stock of any class convertible into stock of any other class or classes or of any other series of the same class, and/or obligations, stock or other securities carrying warrants or rights to subscribe to stock of the corporation of any class or classes, whether now or hereafter authorized.

ARTICLE V.

The corporation shall have a Board of Directors of at least one but not more than fifteen members if the corporation has only one stockholder. If the corporation has two stockholders, the Board of Directors shall have at least two but not more than fifteen members. If the corporation has three or more stockholders, the Board of Directors shall have at least three but not more than fifteen members. The members of the Board of Directors shall be elected or appointed at such times, in such manner and for such terms as may be prescribed by the Bylaws. The Bylaws may provide for the removal of directors and the filling of vacancies and may contain provisions that the remaining members of the Board of Directors (although less than a majority thereof) may fill vacancies in the Board of Directors, including temporary vacancies caused by the illness of any director or the absence of any director from the State of Hawaii. No director need be a shareholder of the corporation.

The Board of Directors shall have full power to control and direct the business and affairs of the corporation and to provide for any and every lawful act, whether in the ordinary course of business of the corporation or otherwise, including specifically, but without limitation to the generality of the foregoing, the power to provide for the purchase by the corporation of such property as the purposes of the corporation shall require, without limit as to amount, the power to provide for the incurring by the corporation of debts, without limit as to amount, and in excess of the capital stock of the corporation, and the issuance of notes, bonds, and other evidences of such debts, the power to provide for the mortgage, pledge and/or hypothecation of all or any part of the assets of the corporation, including after-acquired assets, as security for any debt or debts of the corporation, the power to create such committees (including an executive committee or committees) and to designate as members of such committees such persons as it shall determine, and to confer upon such committees, such powers and authorities as may by resolution be set forth for the purpose of carrying on or exercising any of the powers of the corporation, and the power to remove or suspend any officer.

ARTICLE VI.

The officers of the corporation shall be a President, one or more Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, a Secretary and such other officers and subordinate officers as may be provided for in the Bylaws. The officers shall be appointed at such times, in such manner and for such terms as may be prescribed by the Bylaws. No officer or subordinate officer need be a shareholder of the corporation.

The persons who are the first officers and directors of the corporation, together with their residence addresses, are as follows:

JIM LEE MARTIN	President
4441 So. East 302d Street	Director
Route 2, Box 1020B
Troutdale, Oregon 97060
JOHN A. LORENZ	Vice-President
2049 E. La Jolla Drive	Secretary
Tempe, Arizona 85282	Treasurer
	Director

ARTICLE VII.

No contract or other transaction between the corporation and one or more of its directors, or between the corporation and any corporation, firm or association in which one or more of its directors are directors or are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable by reason of the fact that such director or directors are present at the meeting of the Board of Directors, or committee thereof, which authorizes or approves such contract or transaction, or that his or her or their votes are counted for such purpose if

(a) the fact of such common directorship or financial interest be disclosed or known to the Board of Directors or committee, and the Board of Directors or committee authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction in good faith by a vote sufficient for such purpose, without counting the vote or votes of such director or directors; or (b) the fact of such common directorship or financial interest be disclosed or known to the shareholders and they approve or ratify such contract or transaction in good faith by the affirmative vote or written consent of two-thirds of the shareholders entitled to vote; or (c) if it be affirmatively shown that the contract or transaction be just and reasonable as to the corporation at the time it was authorized or approved. Such common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at such meeting.

ARTICLE VIII.

The corporation shall have succession by its corporate name in perpetuity and shall have all the powers herein enumerated or implied herefrom and the powers now provided (or which may be hereafter provided) by law for incorporated companies.

ARTICLE IX.

Service of legal process may be made upon the corporation in the manner provided by law.

ARTICLE X.

No shareholder shall be liable for the debts of the corporation beyond the amount which may be due or unpaid upon any share or shares of stock of said corporation owned by him or her.

BYLAWS

U-HAUL OF HAWAII, INC.

ARTICLE I. OFFICES

The principal office of the corporation shall be in the State of Hawaii at 2722 Kilihau Street, Honolulu, Hawaii, 96819. The corporation may have such other offices, either within or without the State of Hawaii, as the board of directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II. SHAREHOLDERS

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held on the first Wednesday in the month of May in each year, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A.M., or at such other time on such other day within such month as shall be fixed by the board of directors, for the purpose of electing directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a legal holiday in the State of Hawaii, such meeting shall be held on the next succeeding business day. If the election of directors shall not be held on the day designated herein for any annual meeting of the shareholders, or at any adjournment thereof, the board of directors shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the shareholders as soon thereafter as conveniently may be.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders, for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute, may be called by the president or by the board of directors, and shall be called by the president at the request of the holders of not less than one-tenth of all outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 3. Place of Meeting. The board of directors may designate any place, either within or without the State of Hawaii, as the place of meeting for any annual meeting or for any special meeting called by the board of directors. If no designation is made, or if a special meeting be otherwise called, the place of meeting shall be the principal office of the corporation in the State of Hawaii.

Section 4. Notice of Meeting. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall, unless otherwise prescribed by statute, be delivered not less than ten nor more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the president, or the secretary, or the officer or other persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the shareholder at his or her address as it appears on the stock transfer books of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Any shareholder may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a shareholder at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a shareholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Subject to such limitations, if any, as may expressly be contained in any statutory provision applicable to any particular action, when three-fourths of the shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting sign by themselves or their proxies or other authorized representatives a written consent or approval on the record of the meeting, the doings of the meeting, however called or notified, shall be valid.

Section 5. Closing of Transfer Books or Fixing of Record Date. For the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or shareholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or in order to make a determination of shareholders for any other proper purpose, the board of directors of the corporation may provide that the stock transfer books shall be closed for a stated period but not to exceed, in any case, fifty days. If the stock transfer books shall be closed for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, such books shall be closed for at least ten days immediately preceding such meeting. In lieu of closing the stock transfer books, the board of directors may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of shareholders, such date in any case to be not more than fifty days and, in case of a meeting of shareholders, not less than ten days prior to the date on which the particular action, requiring such determination of shareholders, is to be taken. If the stock transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, or shareholders entitled to receive payment of a dividend, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the board of directors declaring such dividend is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of shareholders. When a determination of shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders has been made as provided in this section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof.

Section 6. Voting Record. The officer or agent having charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall make a complete record of the shareholders entitled to vote at each meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of and the number of shares held by each. Such record shall be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting for the purposes thereof.

Section 7. Quorum. A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, a majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. The shareholders present at a duly organized meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough shareholders to leave less than a quorum.

Section 8. Proxies. At all meetings of shareholders, a shareholder may vote in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his or her duly authorized attorney-in-fact. Such proxy shall be filed with the secretary of the corporation before or at the time of the meeting. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

Section 9. Voting of Shares. Subject to the provisions of Section 12 of this Article II, each outstanding share entitled to vote shall be entitled to one vote upon each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders.

Section 10. Voting of Shares by Certain Holders. Shares standing in the name of another corporation may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the Bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provision, as the board of directors of such other corporation may determine.

Shares held by a personal representative, administrator, executor, guardian or conservator may be voted by him or her, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of such shares into his or her name. Shares standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by him or her, either in person or by proxy, but no trustee shall be entitled to vote shares held by him or her without a transfer of such shares into his or her name.

Shares standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such receiver, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into his or her name if authority so to do be contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver was appointed.

A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

Neither treasury shares of its own stock held by the corporation, nor shares held by another corporation if a majority of the shares entitled to vote for the election of directors of such other corporation are held by the corporation, shall be voted at any meeting or counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares at any given time for purposes of any meeting.

Section 11. Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken in connection with any corporate action permitted by Chapter 416 or Chapter 417 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes, or any successor statutes, the meeting and vote of shareholders may be dispensed with if all of the shareholders who would have been entitled to vote upon the action if the meeting were held, consent in writing to the corporate action being taken.

Section 12. Cumulative Voting. If not less than forty-eight (48) hours prior to any shareholders' meeting for the election of directors a shareholder delivers to the president, vice-president, secretary, or treasurer of the corporation a written request that such election be held by cumulative voting, then the directors to be elected at the meeting shall be chosen as follows: each shareholder present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting shall have a number of votes equal to the number of shares of capital stock of the corporation owned by the shareholder multiplied by the number of directors to be elected at the meeting, and each shareholder shall be entitled to cumulate his votes and give all thereof to one nominee or to distribute his votes in such manner as the shareholder determines among any or all of the nominees, and the nominees receiving the highest number of votes on the foregoing basis, up to the total number of directors to be elected at the meeting, shall be the successful nominees.

ARTICLE III. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. General Powers. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors.

Section 2. Number, Tenure and Qualifications. The number of directors of the corporation shall be fixed from time to time by the shareholders provided that there shall be at least one director and no more than fifteen directors, provided, however, that if the corporation has two stockholders, it shall have at least two directors, and if it has three stockholders, it shall have at least three directors. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected and qualified. At least one member of the board of directors shall be a resident of the State of Hawaii. Directors need not be shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3. Removal. Any director may be removed from office at any time with or without cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all the shares of capital stock of the corporation outstanding and entitled to vote at any special meeting of shareholders called for that purpose. Any vacancy so created may be filled by the shareholders at such special meeting, or by the board of directors as provided in Section 11 of this Article III.

Section 4. Regular Meetings. A regular meeting of the board of directors shall be held without other notice than this bylaw immediately after, and at the same place as, the annual meeting of shareholders. The board of directors may provide, by resolution, the time and place, either within or without the State of Hawaii, for the holding of additional regular meetings without other notice than such resolution.

Section 5. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by or at the request of the president or any two directors. The person or persons authorized to call special meetings of the board of directors may fix any place, either within or without the State of Hawaii, as the place for holding any special meeting of the board of directors called by them.

Section 6. Notice. Notice of any special meeting shall be given at least two days previously thereto by written notice delivered personally or mailed to each director at his or her business address or by telegram. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, so addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. If notice be given by telegram, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the telegram is delivered to the telegraph company. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 7. Quorum. A majority of the number of directors fixed by Section 2 of this Article III shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the board of directors, but if less than such majority is present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

Section 8. Manner of Acting. The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors.

Section 9. Action Without A Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the board of directors or of a committee of the directors may be taken without a meeting if all of the directors or all of the members of the committee, as the case may be, sign a written consent setting forth the action taken or to be taken at any time before or after the intended effective date of such action. Such consent shall be filed with the minutes of the directors' meetings or committee meetings, as the case may be, and shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote.

Section 10. Meetings By Telephone. Members of the board of directors or any committee designated thereby, may participate in a meeting of such board or committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communication equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time, and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Section 11. Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum of the board of directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office. Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors may be filled by election by the board of directors for a term of office continuing only until the next election of directors by the shareholders.

Section 12. Compensation. By resolution of the board of directors, each director may be paid his or her expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the board of directors, and may be paid a stated salary as director or a fixed sum for attendance at each meeting of the board of directors or both. No such payment shall preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 13. Presumption of Assent. A director of the corporation who is present at a meeting of the board of directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his or her dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he or she shall file his or her written dissent to such action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

ARTICLE IV. OFFICERS

Section 1. Number. The officers of the corporation shall be a president, one or more vice presidents (the number thereof to be determined by the board of directors), a secretary, and a treasurer, each of whom shall be elected by the board of directors. Such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary may be elected or appointed by the board of directors.

Section 2. Election and Term of Office. The officers of the corporation to be elected by the board of directors shall be elected annually by the board of directors at the first meeting of the board of directors held after each annual meeting of the shareholders. If the election of officers shall not be held at such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as conveniently may be. Each officer shall hold office until his or her successor shall have been duly elected and shall have qualified or until his or her death or until he or she shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

Section 3. Removal. Any officer or agent may be removed by the board of directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights.

Section 4. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors for the unexpired portion of the term.

Section 5. President. The president shall be the principal executive officer of the corporation and, subject to the control of the board of directors, shall in general supervise and control all of the business and affairs of the corporation. He or she shall, when present, preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the board of directors. He or she may sign, with the secretary or any other proper officer of the corporation thereunto authorized by the board of directors, certificates for shares of the corporation and deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments which the board of directors has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the board of directors or by these Bylaws to some other officer or agent of the corporation, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed; and in general shall perform all duties incident to the office of president and such other duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors from time to time.

Section 6. The Vice Presidents. In the absence of the president or in the event of his or her death, inability or refusal to act, the vice president (or in the event there be more than one vice president, the vice presidents in the order designated at the time of their election, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their election) shall perform the duties of the president, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the president. Any vice president may sign, with the secretary or an assistant secretary, certificates for shares of the corporation; and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him or her by the president or by the board of directors.

Section 7. The Secretary. The secretary shall: (a) keep the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders and of the board of directors in one or more books provided for that purpose; (b) see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law; (c) be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the corporation and see that the seal of the corporation is affixed to all documents the execution of which on behalf of the corporation under its seal is duly authorized; (d) keep a register of the post office address of each shareholder which shall be furnished to the secretary by such shareholder; (e) sign with the president, or a vice president, certificates for shares of the corporation, the issuance of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the board of directors; (f) have general charge of the stock transfer books of the corporation; and (g) in general perform all duties incident to the office of secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him or her by the president or by the board of directors.

Section 8. The Treasurer. The treasurer shall: (a) have charge and custody of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the corporation; (b) receive and give receipts for moneys due and payable to the corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such moneys in the name of the corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositaries as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Article V of these Bylaws; and (c) in general perform all of the duties incident to the office of treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him or her by the president or by the board of directors. If required by the board of directors, the treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of his or her duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the board of directors shall determine.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers. The assistant secretaries, when authorized by the board of directors, may sign with the president or a vice president certificates for shares of the corporation the issuance of which shall have been authorized by a resolution of the board of directors. The assistant treasurers shall respectively, if required by the board of directors, give bonds for the faithful discharge of their duties in such sums and with such sureties as the board of directors shall determine. The assistant secretaries and assistant treasurers, in general, shall perform such duties as shall be assigned to them by the secretary or the treasurer, respectively, or by the president or the board of directors.

Section 10. Salaries. The salaries of the officers shall be fixed from time to time by the board of directors and no officer shall be prevented from receiving such salary by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE V. CONTRACTS, LOANS, CHECKS AND DEPOSITS

Section 1. Contracts. The board of directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 2. Loans. No loans shall be contracted on behalf of the corporation and no evidences of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by a resolution of the board of directors. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 3. Checks, Drafts, etc. All checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents of the corporation and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the board of directors.

Section 4. Deposits. All funds of the corporation not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the board of directors may select.

Section 5. Facsimile Signature. The board of directors may from time to time by resolution provide for the execution of any corporate instrument or document by a mechanical device or machine, or by use of facsimile signatures, under such terms as shall be set forth in the resolution of the board of directors.

ARTICLE VI. CERTIFICATES FOR SHARES AND THEIR TRANSFER

Section 1. Certificates for Shares. Certificates representing shares of the corporation shall be in such form as shall be determined by the board of directors and as may be required by applicable law. Such certificates shall be signed by the president or a vice president and by the secretary or the treasurer or an assistant secretary or an assistant treasurer of the corporation and sealed with the corporate seal; provided, that if any certificate is signed by a duly authorized transfer agent or registrar, any or all of the required officers' signatures, as well as the corporate seal, may be facsimiles. In case any officer who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon the certificate ceases to be such officer before the certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if the officer had not ceased to be such at the date of its issue. Each certificate for shares shall be consecutively numbered or otherwise identified. The name and address of the person to whom the shares represented thereby are issued, with the number of shares and date of issue, shall be entered on the stock transfer books of the corporation. All certificates surrendered to the corporation for transfer shall be cancelled and no new certificate shall be issued until the former certificate for a like number of shares shall have been surrendered and cancelled, except that in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate a new one may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the corporation as the board of directors may prescribe.

Section 2. Transfer of Shares. Transfer of shares of the corporation shall be made only on the stock transfer books of the corporation by the holder of record thereof or by his or her legal representative, who shall furnish proper evidence of authority to transfer, or by his or her attorney thereunto authorized by power of attorney duly executed and filed with the secretary of the corporation, and on surrender for cancellation of the certificate for such shares. The person in whose name shares stand on the books of the corporation shall be deemed by the corporation to be the owner thereof for all purposes.

ARTICLE VII. FISCAL YEAR

The first fiscal year of the corporation shall begin upon the organization of the corporation and end on March 31, 1985. Each succeeding fiscal year shall begin on April 1.

ARTICLE VIII. DIVIDENDS

The board of directors may, from time to time, declare and the corporation may pay dividends on its outstanding shares in the manner and upon the terms and conditions provided by law and its Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE IX. CORPORATE SEAL

The board of directors may provide for a corporate seal which, if provided for, shall be circular in form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of this corporation and the state of incorporation and the word "Incorporated" followed by the date of incorporation.

ARTICLE X. WAIVER OF NOTICE

Whenever any notice is required to be given to any shareholder or director of the corporation under the provisions of these Bylaws or under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE XI. AMENDMENTS

The Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed and new Bylaws may be adopted by the shareholders at any regular or special meeting.

ARTICLE XII. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. Appointment. The board of directors by resolution adopted by a majority of the full board, may designate two or more of its members to constitute an executive committee. The designation of such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the board of directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed by law.

Section 2. Authority. The board of directors may create and appoint an executive committee and define its authority and duties from time to time; provided, however, that the Board shall delegate to the executive committee only such powers as are permitted by law. Specifically without limitation, the Board shall not delegate to the executive committee and it shall not have authority to: (i) declare dividends or distributions, (ii) approve or recommend to the shareholders actions or proposals to be approved by the shareholders, (iii) designate candidates for the office of director, for purposes of proxy solicitation or otherwise, or fill vacancies on the board of directors or any committee thereof, (iv) amend the Bylaws, (v) recommend to the shareholders the sale, lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation otherwise than in the usual and regular course of its business, (vi) approve a plan of merger not requiring shareholder approval, (vii) reduce earned or capital surplus, (viii) authorize or approve the reacquisition of shares unless pursuant to a general formula or method specified by the board of directors, (ix) authorize or approve the issuance or sale of, or any contract to issue or sell, shares or designate the terms of a series of a class of shares, or (x) recommend to the shareholders a voluntary dissolution of the corporation or a revocation thereof, or amending the Bylaws of the corporation.

Section 3. Tenure and Qualifications. Each member of the executive committee shall hold office until the next regular annual meeting of the board of directors following his or her designation and until his or her successor is designated as a member of the executive committee and is elected and qualified.

Section 4. Meetings. Regular meetings of the executive committee may be held without notice at such times and places as the executive committee may fix from time to time by resolution. Special meetings of the executive committee may be called by any member thereof upon not less than one day's notice stating the place, date and hour of the meeting, which notice may be written or oral, and if mailed, shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the member of the executive committee at his or her business address. Any member of the executive committee may waive notice of any meeting and no notice of any meeting need be given to any member thereof who attends in person. The notice of a meeting of the executive committee need not state the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting.

Section 5. Quorum. A majority of the members of the executive committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting thereof, and action of the executive committee must be authorized by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

Section 6. Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the executive committee at a meeting may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the members of the executive committee.

Section 7. Vacancies. Any vacancy in the executive committee may be filled by a resolution adopted by a majority of the full board of directors.

Section 8. Resignations and Removal. Any member of the executive committee may be removed at any time with or without cause by resolution adopted by a majority of the full board of directors. Any member of the executive committee may resign from the executive committee at any time by giving written notice to the president or secretary of the corporation, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 9. Procedure. The executive committee shall elect a presiding officer from its members and may fix its own rules of procedure which shall not be inconsistent with these Bylaws. It shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and report the same to the board of directors for its information at the meeting thereof held next after the proceedings shall have been taken.

ARTICLE XIII. INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Section 1. The corporation shall indemnify each person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of this corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of such person was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of this corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. The corporation shall indemnify each person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of this corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of such person's duty to this corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

Section 3. To the extent that a director or officer of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

Section 4. Any indemnification under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only if authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because the director or officer has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 1 or 2. Such determination shall be made (a) by the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable if a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion to the corporation, or (c) by a majority vote of the shareholders.

Section 5. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the board of directors in a particular case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that the director or officer is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this Article.

Section 6. The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such a person.

ADOPTION OF BYLAWS

I, the undersigned, on this 23rd day of May, 1984, having executed the Articles of Incorporation of the above-named corporation, do hereby adopt the foregoing provisions as the Bylaws of said corporation.

PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER

This PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER dated this 29th day of July, 1988, entered into by U-HAUL CO. OF IDAHO, Inc., the Surviving Corporation, and MOVERS WORLD OF IDAHO, INC. the Absorbed Corporation, both corporations of the State of Idaho, and together referred to as the Constituent Corporations hereby witnesseth that:

The respective Boards of Directors and the Sole Shareholder by resolution have determined it to be advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into the Surviving Corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Idaho, which laws permit such merger.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of incorporation, unless altered or amended below, following the effective date of the merger.

II

The executed PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER is on file at the Surviving Corporations's principal office. The location that office is 300 North 6th Street, Boise, Idaho 83701.

III

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

- (1) All issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Absorbed Constituent Corporation shall be cancelled.
- (2) On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

IV

The number of shares outstanding and the number of shares entitled to vote upon such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER, and the number of shares voted for and against such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ ARTICLES OF MERGER as to each corporation was as follows:

U-HAUL OF CO. OF IDAHO, INC.	500	500	500	0

V

The Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Idaho, to consummate and make effective this merger, subject, however to the appropriate vote or consent to the stockholders of the Constituent Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the State of Idaho.

VI

The Surviving Corporation hereby irrevocable appoints The Corporation Company as its agent to accept service of process in any suit or other proceeding and to enforce against the surviving Corporation any obligation of any Constituent Domestic Corporation or enforce the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any Constituent Domestic Corporation. A copy of any such process may be mailed to John A. Lorentz, P.O. Box 21502, Phoenix, Arizona 85036.

VII

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger, and assumes the responsibility for all tax liabilities of the Absorbed Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the corporate parties hereto execute hereto execute this AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER this 12th day of August, 1988.

EXHIBIT 3.80

BY-LAWS OF

AMERCO MARKETING CO. OF IDAHO-MONTANA, INC.

AN IDAHO CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

DATE: November 6, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Idaho shall be located in the city of Idaho Falls. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Idaho as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Fourth Friday of February of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Idaho or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed, notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Idaho. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Idaho.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Idaho.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Idaho, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Idaho statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Idaho, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such preemptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

/s/ George H. Ryan

SECRETARY OF STATE

PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER

This PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER dated this 19th day of January, 1991, entered into by U-Haul Co. of Illinois, Inc., a Illinois corporation, the surviving corporation and Tap-A-Lite, Inc., U-Haul Co. of Chicago Metroplex and U-Haul Redistribution Center, Inc. all Illinois corporations, and the absorbed Corporations, and together referred to as the Constituent Corporations hereby witnesseth that:

The respective Boards of Directors and the Sole Shareholder by resolution have determined it to be advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into the Surviving Corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Illinois which laws permit such mergers.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation, unless altered or amended below, following the effective date of the merger.

II

The executed PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER is on file at the Surviving Corporation's principal office. The location of that office is John A. Lorentz, 2721 N. Central Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona 85004.

III

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows :

- (1) All issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Absorbed Corporation shall be cancelled.
- (2) On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Surviving Corporation.

IV

The number of shares outstanding and the number of shares entitled to vote upon such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER, and the number of shares voted for and against such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER as to each corporation was as follows:

COMPANY NAME	NUMBER OF SHARES OUTSTANDING	NUMBER OF SHARES ENTITLED TO VOTE	NUMBER VOTED FOR	NUMBER VOTED AGAINST
U-HAUL CO. OF ILLINOIS, INC.	1,000	1,000	1,000	-0-
TAP-A-LITE,	15,000	15,000	15,000	-0-
U-HAUL CO. OF CHICAGO METROPLEX	500	500	500	-0-
U-HAUL REDISTRIBUTION CENTER, INC.	100	100	100	-0-

V

The Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Illinois to consummate and make effective this merger, subject, however to the appropriate vote or consent to the stockholders of the Constituent Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the State of Illinois.

VI

The Surviving Corporation hereby irrevocable appoints C.T. Corporation System, as its agent to accept service of process in any suit or other proceeding and to enforce against the surviving Corporation any obligation of any Constituent Domestic Corporation or enforce the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any Constituent Domestic Corporation. A copy of any such process may be mailed to John A. Lorentz, P.O. Box 21502, Phoenix, Arizona 85036.

VII

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger, and assumes and responsibility for all tax liabilities of the Absorbed Corporation.

VIII

The effective date of the merger shall be January 1, 1991, for accounting purposes only.

EXHIBIT 3.82

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF ILLINOIS, INC.

AN ILLINOIS CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

DATE: November 16, 1990

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the State of Second Thursday in July shall be located at such place as the Board of Directors may from time to time select. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the State of Illinois as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Second Thursday in July of each year, at the office of the corporation in the State of Illinois or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the State of Illinois. Notice of the special meeting will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. TELLERS:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as Inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Office:

A board of one (1) or more Directors, as required by law, shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies of the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the State of Illinois.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specifically called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the State of Illinois.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or these By-Laws but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may, from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

SECTION 7. Meetings By Telephone:

If all the directors consent, a director may participate in a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board by means of such telephone or other communications facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and a director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers, the express right to exercise the following powers:

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President and Secretary, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held Immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in the By-Laws of the corporation, the Board may at any time and from time to time direct the manner in which any person or persons by whom any particular contract, document, note or instrument in writing of the corporation may or shall be signed by and may authorize any officer or officers of the corporation to sign such contracts, documents, notes or instruments.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Illinois, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signing of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the name of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefore, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of April of each year and shall close on the 31st day of March of each year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-Haul Co. of Illinois, Inc. are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.84

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF INDIANAPOLIS, INC.

An Indiana Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 16, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Indiana shall be located in the city of Indianapolis. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Indiana as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Second Thursday in January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Indiana or otherwise as provided in the notice of said Meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, than said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Indiana. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders Meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorised Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the Majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organisation, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Indiana.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Indiana,

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Indiana, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefore the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committee shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Indiana statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligation in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

the Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Indiana, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such preemptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF INDIANAPOLIS, INC., are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.86

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF IOWA, INC.

AN IOWA CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

DATE: October 24, 1990

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the State of Third Wednesday in May shall be located at such place as the Board of Directors may from time to time select. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the State of Iowa as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Wednesday in May of each year, at the office of the corporation in the State of Iowa or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the State of Iowa. Notice of the special meeting will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Office:

A board of one (1) or more Directors, as required by law, shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective Immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies of the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the State of Iowa.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specifically called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of an the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the State of Iowa.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or these By-Laws but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may, from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

SECTION 7. Meetings By Telephone:

If all the directors consent, a director may participate in a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board by means of such telephone or other communications facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and a director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers, the express right to exercise the following powers:

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President and Secretary, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in the By-Laws of the corporation, the Board may at any time and from time to time direct the manner in which any person or persons by whom any particular contract, document, note or instrument in writing of the corporation may or shall be signed by and may authorize any officer or officers of the corporation to sign such contracts, documents, notes or instruments.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Iowa, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signing of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the name of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefore, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the First day of April of each year and shall close on the 31st day of March of each year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-Haul Co. of Iowa, Inc. are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

AGREEMENT OF MERGER

THIS AGREEMENT OF MERGER dated this 12th day of September, 1975, made by and between U-Haul Co. of Kansas, Inc., a Kansas corporation, Absorbed, and U-Haul Co. of Kansas City, Inc., a Kansas corporation, Surviving Corporation and together with Absorbed referred to as Constituent Corporations, hereby WITNESSETH THAT:

WHEREAS:

The respective Boards of Directors and the sole shareholder of the Constituent Corporations have determined it is advisable that Absorbed be merged into Surviving Corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the State of Kansas which permit such a merger:

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

1. All issued and outstanding shares of stock of Absorbed shall be cancelled.
2. On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

II

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger.

III

If the Surviving Corporation shall consider or be advised that any assignment or assurances in law are necessary or desirable to vest or to perfect or confirm of record in the Surviving Corporation the title to any property or rights of Absorbed, or to otherwise carry out the provisions hereof, the proper officers and directors of Absorbed as of the effective date of the merger shall execute and deliver any assignments and assurances in law and do all things necessary or proper to vest or perfect such rights in the Surviving Corporation and otherwise to carry out the provisions hereof.

IV

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation until altered or amended following the effective date of the merger.

V

Each of the Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Kansas to consummate and make effective the merger subject, however, to the consent of their sole stockholder, and the directors of each Constituent Corporation are authorized and directed to perform all actions required for accomplishing and filing this Agreement of Merger.

IS WITNESS WHEREOF the corporate parties hereto certify as to the shareholder vote by the Certificate of Corporate Resolution which is attached hereto and by reference incorporated herein, and pursuant to authority given by their respective Boards of Directors and sole shareholder, hereby enter into this Agreement of Merger, executed and sealed this 3rd day of October, 1975.

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF KANSAS CITY, INC.

A Kansas Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: February 26, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Kansas shall be located in the city of Kansas City. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Kansas as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Second Friday in January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Kansas or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Kansas. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Kansas.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefore, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Kansas.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order or business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll Call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Kansas, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Kansas statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a president, Vice- President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Kansas, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Kentucky, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Kentucky statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The president shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual Meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Kentucky, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Law may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF LOUISVILLE, are hereby

accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.92

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF SOUTHERN LOUISIANA

A Louisiana Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: February 19, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Louisiana shall be located in the city of New Orleans. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Louisiana as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Monday in February of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Louisiana or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Louisiana. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION I. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Louisiana.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Louisiana.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV
POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Louisiana statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all time be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgage, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Louisiana, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be Issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Eights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF SOUTHERN LOUISIANA, are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the above same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.94

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF MAINE, INC.

A MAINE CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

DATE: November 16, 1990

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the State of Maine shall be located at such place as the Board of Directors may from time to time select. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the State of Maine as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Monday in April of each year, at the office of the corporation in the State of Maine or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the State of Maine. Notice of the special meeting will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Office:

A board of one (1) or more Directors, as required by law, shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies of the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the State of Maine.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specifically called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the State of Maine.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or these By-Laws but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may, from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

SECTION 7. Meetings By Telephone:

If all the directors consent, a director may participate in a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board by means of such telephone or other communications facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and a director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers, the express right to exercise the following powers:

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President and Secretary, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in the By-Laws of the corporation, the Board may at any time and from time to time direct the manner in which any person or persons by whom any particular contract, document, note or instrument in writing of the corporation may or shall be signed by and may authorize any officer or officers of the corporation to sign such contracts, documents, notes or instruments.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Maine, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signing of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the name of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefore, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of April of each year and shall close on the 31st day of March of each year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-Haul Co. of Maine, Inc. are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.96

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF SOUTHERN MARYLAND, INC.

A Maryland Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 25, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Maryland shall be located in the city of Elkridge. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Maryland as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II
STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the third Friday in February of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Maryland or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for, the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Maryland. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, dis-qualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold, office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Maryland.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the president or by any two members of the Board giving written notice, thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Maryland.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meeting shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers.

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Maryland, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Maryland statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice- President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provide for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATE AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Maryland, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefore, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purposes, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF SOUTHERN MARYLAND, INC., are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

BY-LAWS OF

AMERCO MARKETING CO. OF BOSTON. INC.

A Massachusetts Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: February 17, 1971

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Massachusetts shall be located in the city of Bellingham. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Massachusetts as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Monday in March of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Massachusetts or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purpose for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Massachusetts. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without for the notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall set as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualification of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Such shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be hold within or without the state of Massachusetts.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof . Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation , or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Massachusetts.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of Communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

TOWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Massachusetts, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Massachusetts statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual elections of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, what all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine, The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Massachusetts, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The by-laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of AMERCO MARKETING CO. OF BOSTON, INC., are hereby

accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing by-laws are duly adopted by the Board of directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

5. Article II -- State, in general terms, the character of the particular business to be carried on. Under section 202(b) of the Act. it is sufficient to state substantially, alone or without specifically enumerated purposes, that the corporation may engage in any activity within the purposes for which corporations may be organized under the Act. The Act requires, however, that educational corporations state their specific purposes.

6. Article III (2) -- The Act requires the incorporators of a domestic corporation having shares without par value to submit in writing the amount of consideration proposed to be received for each share which shall be allocated to stated capital. Such stated value may be indicated either in item 2 of article III or in a written statement accompanying the articles of incorporation.

7. Article IV -- A post office box may not be designated as the address of the registered office. The mailing address may differ from the address of the registered office only if a post office box address in the same city as the registered office is designated as the mailing address.

8. Article V -- The Act requires one or more incorporators. The address(es) should include a street number and name (or other designation), city and state.

9. The duration of the corporation should be stated in the articles only if the duration is not perpetual.

10. This document is effective on the date approved and filed by the Bureau. A later effective date, no more than 90 days after the date of delivery, may be stated as an additional article.

11. The articles must be signed in ink by each incorporator. The names of the incorporators as set out in article V should correspond with the signatures.

RE: CHANGE OF REGISTERED OFFICE ADDRESS

Dear Mr. Pierson,

This letter is to certify that The Corporation Company has changed its address from: 615 Griswold Street, Detroit, Michigan 48226 to: 30600 Telegraph Road, Bingham Farms, Michigan 48025. We will notify all active corporations for which The Corporation Company is the resident agent of this change of address.

Enclosed is our check for $52,000.00 to cover the filing fee for the 10,294 active profit and non-profit corporations for which your records indicate The Corporation Company is agent. This payment will include the fee for providing us with an alphabetical listing of the names of all the corporations for which the registered office has been changed. Also included in this payment is the fee for a clean-up list which we will request within 30 days of the filing.

Please confirm in writing the date that this change was effectuated on your records.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation in this matter.

Very truly yours,

BY-LAWS OF

NEW CO. OF WESTERN MICHIGAN

A MICHIGAN CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

DATE: June 5, 1990

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the State of Michigan shall be located at such place as the Board of Directors may from time to time select. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the State of Michigan as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the 3rd Wednesday in April of each year, at the office of the corporation in the State of Michigan or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the State of Michigan. Notice of the special meeting will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Office:

A board of one (1) or more Directors, as required by law, shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies of the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the State of Michigan.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specifically called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members of the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the State of Michigan.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or these By-Laws but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may, from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

SECTION 7. Meetings By Telephone:

If all the directors consent, a director may participate in a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board by means of such telephone or other communications facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and a director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers, the express right to exercise the following powers:

3. To issue notes and other obligations or evidences of the debt of this corporation, and to secure the same, If deemed advisable, and endorse and guarantee notes, bonds, stocks, and other obligations of other corporations with or without compensation for so doing, and from time to time to sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Michigan, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.
4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the statues regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President and Secretary, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee If one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in the By-Laws of the corporation, the Board may at any time and from time to time direct the manner in which any person or persons by whom any particular contract, document, note or instrument in writing of the corporation may or shall be signed by and may authorize any officer or officers of the corporation to sign such contracts, documents, notes or instruments.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Michigan, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signing of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the name of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefore, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of April of each year and shall close on the 31st day of March of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of Michigan are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

30TH DAY of OCTOBER A. D. 1975.

/s/ [ILLEGIBLE]

SECRETARY OF STATE

STATE OF MINNESOTA Department of State

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greeting:

Whereas, an Agreement of Merger by and between U-Haul Co. of Minneapolis and U-Haul Co. of St. Paul, both Minnesota corporations, and a majority of the directors thereof, duly signed, certified and acknowledged under oath, has been filed for record in this office on the 30th day of September, 1975, at 8:00 o'clock A. M., for the merger of said U-Haul Co. of Minneapolis into U-Haul Co. of St. Paul, whose name was thereby changed to U-Haul Co. of Minnesota, which corporation will continue as the surviving corporation, pursuant to the provisions of Section 301.41 to 301.43, Minnesota Statutes.

Now, therefore, I, Joan Anderson Growe, Secretary of State of the State of Minnesota, by virtue of the powers and duties vested in me by law, do hereby certify that the above named corporations are legally merged and made an existing corporation under the name of U-Haul Co. of Minnesota, effective this date, with the powers, rights and privileges and subject to the limitations, duties and restrictions which by law appertain thereto.

WITNESS my official signature hereunto subscribed and the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota hereunto affixed this 30th day of September, 1975, A.D.

AGREEMENT OF MERGER

THIS AGREEMENT OF MERGER dated this 12th day of September, 1975, entered into by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of U-Haul Co. of Minneapolis, a Minnesota corporation, ABSORBED, and U-Haul Co. of St. Paul, a Minnesota corporation, SURVIVOR and together referred to as Constituent Corporations, hereby WITNESSETH THAT:

WHEREAS:

1. SURVIVOR is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Minnesota.
2. ABSORBED is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Minnesota.
3. The respective Boards of Directors of the Constituent Corporations have determined that it is advisable that ABSORBED be merged into SURVIVOR under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the laws of the State of Minnesota which permit such merger:

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual agreements, covenants and provisions hereinafter contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

I

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

1. All issued and outstanding shares of stock of ABSORBED shall be cancelled.
2. On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding stock of SURVIVOR shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

II

ARTICLE I of the Certificate of Incorporation of U-Haul Co. of St. Paul, the SURVIVOR, is hereby amended to read as follows:

The name of the corporation is U-Haul Co. of Minnesota."

III

SURVIVOR shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger.

IV

If SURVIVOR shall consider or be advised that any assignment or assurances in law are necessary or desirable to vest or to perfect or confirm of record in SURVIVOR the title to any property or rights of the ABSORBED or to otherwise carry out the provisions hereof, the proper officers and directors of ABSORBED as of the effective date of the merger shall execute and deliver any assignments and assurances in law, and do all things necessary or proper to vest or perfect such rights in SURVIVOR and otherwise carry out the provisions hereof.

V

Each of the Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Minnesota to consummate and make effective the merger subject, however, to the consent of the sole stockholder; and the officers and directors of SURVIVOR are authorized and directed to perform all actions required for accomplishing and filing this Agreement of Merger.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the corporate parties hereto, pursuant to authority given by their respective Boards of Directors, hereby enter into this Agreement of Merger, executed and sealed as of the date and year first above written.

The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Minnesota as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Second Wednesday in January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Minnesota or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Minnesota. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorised Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present at represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three(3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjustment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Minnesota.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Minnesota.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New Business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV
POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

1. The purchase, lease, and acquire, in any lawful manner any and all real or personal property including franchises, stocks, bonds and debentures of other companies, business and good will, patents trade-marks in contracts, and interests there-under, and other rights and properties which is their judgment may be beneficial for the purpose of this corporation, and to issue shares of stock of this corporation in payment of such property, and in payment for services rendered to this corporation, when they deem it advisable.

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Minnesota, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Minnesota statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member of Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board of resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Minnesota, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assigned as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue of shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their than existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-laws of U-HAUL CO. OF ST. PAUL, are hereby

PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER

This PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER dated this 20th day of January, 1989, entered into by U-Haul Co. of Mississippi, the surviving corporation and Holloway Transfer & Storage Company, Absorbed Corporation, both corporations of the State of Mississippi and together referred to as the Constituent Corporations hereby witnesseth that:

The respective Boards of Directors and the Sole Shareholder by resolution have determined it to be advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into the Surviving Corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Mississippi which laws permit such merger.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation, unless altered or amended below, following the effective date of the merger.

II

The executed PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER is on file at the Surviving Corporation's principal office. The location of that office is C. T. Corporation System, 118 North Congress Street, Jackson, Mississippi 39205.

III

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

- (1) All issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Constituent Corporation shall be absorbed.
- (2) On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding shares of stock of the Surviving corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

IV

The number of shares outstanding and the number of shares entitled to vote upon such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER, and the number of shares voted for and against such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER as to each corporation was as follows:

COMPANY NAME	NUMBER OF SHARES OUTSTANDING	NUMBER OF SHARES ENTITLED TO VOTE	NUMBER VOTED FOR	NUMBER VOTED AGAINST
U-HAUL CO. OF MISSISSIPPI	500	500	500	-0-
HOLLOWAY TRANSFER & STORAGE COMPANY	100	100	100	-0-

V

The Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Mississippi, to consummate and make effective this merger, subject, however to the appropriate vote or consent to the stockholders of the Constituent Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the State of Mississippi.

VI

The Surviving Corporation hereby irrevocable appoints C. T. Corporation System, as its agent to accept service of process in any suit or other proceeding and to enforce against the surviving Corporation any obligation of any Constituent Domestic Corporation or enforce the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any Constituent Domestic Corporation. A copy of any such process may be mailed to John A. Lorentz, P.O. Box 21502, Phoenix, Arizona, 85036.

VII

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger, and assumes the responsibility for all tax liabilities of the Absorbed Corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.104

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. MISSISSIPPI

A Mississippi Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: February 26, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Mississippi shall be located in the city of Jackson. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Mississippi as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meetings:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Monday of April of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Mississippi or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Mississippi. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTIONS 4. Voting:

voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTIONS 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press open the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Mississippi.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Mississippi.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV
POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

1. To purchase, lease, and acquire, in any lawful banner any and all real or personal property including franchises, stocks, bonds and debentures of other companies, business and good will, patents, trade-marks in contracts, and interests thereunder, and other rights and proprieties which in their judgment may be beneficial for the purpose of this corporation, and to issue shares of stock of this corporation in payment of such property, and in payment for services rendered to this corporation, when they deem it advisable.

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Mississippi, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Mississippi statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTIONS 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Mississippi, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER

This PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER dated this 1st day of February, 1989, entered into by U-Haul Company of Southern Missouri, the surviving corporation and Springfield Rental Equipment Repair Shop, Inc., the Absorbed Corporation, both corporation of the State of Missouri and together referred to as the Constituent Corporations hereby witnesseth that:

The respective Boards of Directors and the Sole Shareholder by resolution have determined it to be advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into the Surviving Corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Missouri, which laws permit such merger.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation, unless altered or amended below, following the effective date of the merger.

II

The executed PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER is on file at the Surviving Corporation's principal office. The location of that office is 503 College, Springfield, MO 65806.

III

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

- (1) All issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Constituent Corporation shall be absorbed.
- (2) On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

IV

The number of shares outstanding and the number of shares entitled to vote upon such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER, and the number of shares voted for and against such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER as to each corporation was as follows:

COMPANY NAME	NUMBER OF SHARES OUTSTANDING	NUMBER OF SHARES ENTITLED TO VOTE	NUMBER VOTED FOR	NUMBER VOTED AGAINST
----- Springfield Rental Equipment Repair Shop, Inc.	500	500	500	0
U-Haul Company of Southern Missouri	500	500	500	0

V

The Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Missouri, to consummate and make effective this merger, subject, however to the appropriate vote or consent to the stockholders of the Constituent Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the State of Missouri.

VI

The Surviving Corporation hereby irrevocable appoints C T Corporation System, as its agent to accept service of process in any suit or other proceeding and to enforce against the surviving Corporation any obligation of any Constituent Domestic Corporation or enforce the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any Constituent Domestic Corporation. A copy of any such process may be mailed to John A. Lorentz, P.O. Box 21502, Phoenix, Arizona, 85036.

VII

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger, and assumes the responsibility for all tax liabilities of the Absorbed Corporation.

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF SOUTHERN MISSOURI

A MISSOURI CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 5, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Missouri shall be located in the city of Casaville. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Missouri as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Second Friday in January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Missouri or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholder of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be hold within or without the state of Missouri. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorised Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less then a majority of the outstanding shares ere represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At each adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

- 1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present then to the tellers for verification.
- 2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.
- 3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.
- 4th. Reports of officers and committees.
- 5th. Election of Directors.
- 6th. Unfinished business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Missouri.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be, held within or without the state of Missouri.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Missouri, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized, by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Missouri statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and, see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of a said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and, deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable, time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and [ILLEGIBLE] of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Missouri, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment of transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER

This PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER dated this 10th day of January, 1989, entered into by U-Haul Co. Montana, Inc. the Surviving Corporation, and Movers World of Montana, Inc., the Absorbed Corporation, both corporations of the State of Montana, and together referred to as the Constituent Corporations hereby witnesseth that:

The respective Boards of Directors and the Sole Shareholder by resolution have determined it to be advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into the Surviving Corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Montana, which laws permit such merger.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation, unless altered or amended below, following the effective date of the merger.

II

The executed PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER is on file at the Surviving Corporation's principal office. The location of that office is C. T. Corporation System, 406 Fuller Avenue, Helena Montana, 59601.

III

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

- (1) All issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Constituent Corporation shall be absorbed.
- (2) On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

IV

The number of shares outstanding and the number of shares entitled to vote upon such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER, and the number of shares voted for and against such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER as to each corporation was as follows:

COMPANY NAME	NUMBER OF SHARES OUTSTANDING	NUMBER OF SHARES ENTITLED TO VOTE	NUMBER VOTED FOR	NUMBER VOTED AGAINST
U-Haul Co. of Montana, Inc.	50	50	50	-0-
Movers World of Montana, Inc.	100	100	100	-0-

V

The Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Montana, to consummate and make effective this merger, subject, however to the appropriate vote or consent to the stockholders of the Constituent Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the State of Montana.

VI

The Surviving Corporation hereby irrevocable appoints C T Corporation System, as its agent to accept service of process in any suit or other proceeding and to enforce against the surviving Corporation any obligation of any Constituent Domestic Corporation or enforce the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any Constituent Domestic Corporation. A copy of any such process may be mailed to John A. Lorentz, P.O. Box 21502, Phoenix, Arizona, 5036.

VII

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger, and assumes the responsibility for all tax liabilities of the Absorbed Corporation.

Dear Corporate Official:

Montana law requires every corporation to file an annual report with accompanying fees every year. Our records show that your corporation has failed to meet this obligation. The above corporation is therefore in default and is subject to being dissolved involuntarily.

This is your notice that I am today initiating involuntary dissolution proceedings against your corporation. This is the standard action the law requires us to take with corporations which have fallen behind in their reports and fees.

If your records show that we are in error, or if you would like to suspend these proceedings, then please contact us within 90 days.

All that is needed for you to get back into good standing is to submit a current annual report and pay the amount of fees and penalty listed above. To assist you in this, you will find an annual report form enclosed.

Remember, you have only 90 days to respond. If we do not receive your report and past due fee by DECEMBER 3, 1990, we will have no choice but to order your corporation dissolved and it will no longer exist.

If you have any questions about this notice, or if there's any other way we can assist you, please don't hesitate to contact any of us in the Business Services Bureau. You'll find our phone number listed below.

Sincerely,

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF MONTANA, INC.

A MONTANA CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

DATE: February 22, 1974

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Montana shall be located at such place as the Board of Directors may from time to time select. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Montana as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Fourth Friday in April of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Montana or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Montana. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Office:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Montana.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Montana.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Montana, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Montana statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Montana, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such preemptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

Section 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of April of each year and shall close on the 31st day of March of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF MONTANA, INC., are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.110

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL. CO. OF NEBRASKA

A Nebraska Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 13, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Nebraska shall be located in the city of Omaha. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Nebraska as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Wednesday in January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Nebraska or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Nebraska. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by' the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and Committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a Meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stock-holders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Nebraska.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Nebraska.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being presents.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV
POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Director shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee, or committees shall have and may exercise such power as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Nebraska statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Power and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

annual meeting of the shareholders. The president shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds, and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Nebraska, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a Majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF NEBRASKA, are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.112

BY-LAWS OF

AMERCO MARKETING CO. OF LAS VEGAS, INC.

A Nevada Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: February 26, 1971

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Nevada shall be located in the city of Las Vegas. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Nevada as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the First Friday in February of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Nevada or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All Meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Nevada. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Member and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Nevada.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Nevada.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV
POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Nevada, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Nevada statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Power and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasures:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Nevada, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owing the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owing the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

Section 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of AMERCO MARKETING CO. OF LAS VEGAS, INC., are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

MINUTES

MEETING OF INCORPORATORS

* * * * *

The First meeting of the incorporators, being all the subscribers to the Articles of Agreement of the above named corporation, was held on the 13th day of July, 1970, at 10:00 a.m. at Concord, New Hampshire.

The following incorporators were present: Edwin Karvonen, Linda Karvonen and Ronald Otis, being all of the incorporators and subscribers to the articles of agreement.

Edwin Karvonen called the meeting to order and was chosen chairman of the meeting, and Linda Karvonen was chosen temporary clerk, to hold office and perform the duties of clerk until final adjournment of the meeting of incorporators and until the permanent clerk shall have qualified. The temporary clerk took the oath of office prescribed by law.

The temporary clerk presented a waiver of notice of time, place and purpose, signed by all of the incorporators and subscribers to the articles of agreement.

The chairman presented the original articles of agreement, subscribed by Edwin Karyonen, Linda Karvonen and Ronald Otis, and the temporary clerk was ordered to cause the said original articles to be incorporated in the Record of Organization.

The chairman thereupon presented a form of by-laws for the promotion of the objects of the corporation, for regulating its government, the administration of its affairs and the conduct of its business, which was read, section by section.

Upon motion, duly made, seconded and carried, it was VOTED, that the by-laws submitted at and read to this meeting be, and the same hereby are adopted as and for the by-laws of this corporation and that the clerk be and he hereby is instructed to cause the same to be filed with the records of this meeting. Said by-laws shall be omitted from the Record of Organization which is to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

The chairman stated that the next business to come before the meeting was the election of a board of three (3) directors, a president, a vice president, a clerk, a treasurer and a secretary, in accordance with the by-laws just adopted, and called for nominations. Thereupon Edwin Karvonen and Ronald Otis and Linda Karvonen were nominated as directors, Edwin Karvonen as president, Ronald Otis as vice-president, Linda Karvonen as clerk, Linda Karvonen as treasurer, and Linda Karvonen as secretary.

There being no further nominations and the foregoing nominations having been duly seconded, the chairman declared the nominations closed, and, all of the incorporators having voted, the chairman announced that the following named persons had been unanimously elected to the offices set before their names respectively, to wit:

Directors	Edwin Karvonen	5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire
	Linda Karvonen	5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire
	Ronald Otis	5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire
President	Edwin Karvonen	5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire
Vice-President	Ronald Otis	5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire
Clerk	Linda Karvonen	5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire
Treasurer	Linda Karvonen	5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire
Secretary	Linda Karvonen	5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire

On motion, duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

VOTED, that the amount of stock to be presently issued shall be five hundred (500) shares of the par value of 10.00 Collars ($10.00) each, said stock to be issued and sold at par for cash.

The temporary clerk presented subscriptions of U-HAUL Co., Inc., a Massachusetts corporation for 500 shares.

On motion, duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

VOTED, that the board of directors be and hereby are authorized and instructed forthwith to cause stock certificates to be prepared in such form, not inconsistent with the by-laws, as they may determine, and to make the necessary arrangements for the issue, upon payment therefor, of the five hundred (500) shares of stock, the present issue of which is provided for in the preceding vote.

Upon motion, duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

VOTED, that the board of directors by a majority vote of the whole number thereof be and hereby are authorized to issue and dispose of the whole or any part of the remainder of the capital stock authorized by the articles of agreement, at one time or from time to time conformably to the provisions of the Business Corporation Law of New Hampshire, or any amendments thereof, for cash, property, real or personal, rights, franchises, services or expenses, in such manner and to such persons or corporations as they may deem for the best interests of the corporation, subject to affidavits required by law.

On motion, duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

VOTED, that the treasurer and the board of directors, or a majority thereof, be and hereby are authorized and directed forth-with to prepare a Record of Organization conformably to the provisions of the Business Corporation Law of New Hampshire as amended, and upon the approval thereof by the Attorney General or Deputy Attorney General, to file the same for record in the office of the Secretary of State of New Hampshire and pay the recording fee required by law.

The temporary clerk was instructed to file with the minutes of the meeting the waiver of notice of this meeting and the oath of the temporary clerk.

Thereupon, on motion, duly made, seconded it was unanimously

VOTED: To adjourn.

A true record.

* * * * *

The first meeting of the incorporators, being all the subscribers to the Articles of Agreement of the above named corporation, was held on the 13th day of July, 1970, at 10:00 a.m. at Concord, New Hampshire.

The following incorporators were present: Edwin Karvonen, Linda Karvonen and Ronald Otis, being all of the incorporators and subscribers to the articles of agreement.

Edwin Karvonen called the meeting to order and was chosen chairman of the meeting, and Linda Karvonen was chosen temporary clerk, to hold office and perform the duties of clerk until final adjournment of the meeting of incorporators and until the permanent clerk shall have qualified. The temporary clerk took the oath of office prescribed by law.

The temporary clerk presented a waiver of notice of time, place and purpose, signed by all of the incorporators and subscribers to the articles of agreement.

The chairman presented the original articles of agreement, subscribed by Edwin Karvonen, Linda Karvonen and Ronald Otis, and the temporary clerk was ordered to cause the said original articles to be incorporated in the Record of Organization.

The chairman thereupon presented a form of by-laws for the promotion of the objects of the corporation, for regulating its government, the administration of its affairs and the conduct of its business, which was read, section by section.

Upon motion, duly made, seconded and carried, it was VOTED, that the by--laws submitted at and read to this meeting be, and the same hereby are adopted as and for the by--laws of this corporation and that the clerk be and he hereby is instructed to cause the same to be filed with the records of this meeting. Said by--laws shall be omitted from the Record of Organization which is to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

The chairman, stated that the next business to come before the meeting was the election of a board of three (3) directors, a president, a vice president, a clerk, a treasurer and a secretary, in accordance with the by--laws just adopted, and called for nominations. Thereupon Edwin Karvonen and Ronald Otis and Linda Karvonen were nominated as directors, Edwin Karvonen as president, Ronald Otis as vice-president, Linda Karvonen as clerk, Linda Karvonen as treasurer, and Linda Karvonen as secretary.

There being no further nominations and the foregoing nominations having been duly seconded, the chairman declared the nominations closed, and, all of the incorporators having voted, the chairman announced that the following named persons had been unanimously elected to the offices set before their names respectively, to wit:

Directors Edwin Karvonen 5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire
Linda Karvonen 5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire
Ronald Otis 5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire
President. Edwin Karvonen 5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire

Vice-President Ronald Otis 5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire

Clerk Linda Karvonen 5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire
Treasurer Linda Karvonen 5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire
Secretary Linda Karvonen 5 Lawrence Street, Concord, New Hampshire

On motion, duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

VOTED, that the amount of stock to be presently issued shall be five hundred (500) shares of the par value of 10.00 Dollars ($10.00) each, said stock to be issued and sold at par for cash.

The temporary clerk presented subscriptions of U-HAUL Co., Inc., a Massachusetts corporation for 500 shares.

On motion, duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

VOTED, that the board of directors be and hereby are authorized and instructed forthwith to cause stock certificates to be prepared in such form, not inconsistent with the by-laws, as they may determine, and to make the necessary arrangements for the issue, upon payment therefor, of the five hundred (500) shares of stock, the present issue of which is provided for in the preceding vote.

Upon motion, duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

VOTED, that the board of directors by a majority vote of the whole number thereof be and hereby are authorized to issue and dispose of the whole or any part of the remainder of the capital stock, authorized by the articles of agreement, at one time or from time to time conformably to the provisions of the Business Corporation Law of New Hampshire, or any amendments thereof, for cash, property, real or personal, rights, franchises, services or expenses, in such manner and to such persons or corporations as they may deem for the best interests of the corporation, subject to affidavits required by law.

On motion, duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

VOTED, that the treasurer and the board of directors, or a majority thereof, be and hereby are authorized and directed forth-with to prepare a Record of Organization conformably to the provisions of the Business Corporation Law of New Hampshire as amended, and upon the approval thereof by the Attorney General or Deputy Attorney General, to file the same for record in the office of the Secretary of State of New Hampshire and pay the recording fee required by law.

The temporary clerk was instructed to file with the minutes of the meeting the waiver of notice of this meeting and the oath of the temporary clerk.

Thereupon, on motion, duly made, seconded it was unanimously

VOTED: To adjourn.

PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER

This PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER dated this 11th day of July, 1989, entered into by U-Haul Co. of New Hampshire & Vermont, Inc., a New Hampshire corporation, the surviving corporation and Manchester Rental Equipment Repair Shop, Inc., a New Hampshire corporation, the Absorbed Corporation, and together referred to as the Constituent Corporations hereby witnesseth that:

The respective Boards of Directors and the Sole Shareholder by resolution have determined it to be advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into the Surviving Corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of New Hampshire which laws permit such merger.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation, unless altered or amended below, following the effective date of the merger.

II

The executed PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER is on file at the Surviving Corporation's principal office. The location of that office is C. T. Corporation System, 9 Capitol Street, Concord, New Hampshire 03301.

III

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

- (1) All issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Constituent Corporation shall be absorbed.
- (2) On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

IV

The number of shares outstanding and the number of shares entitled to vote upon such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER, and the number of shares voted for and against such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER as to each corporation was as follows:

COMPANY NAME	NUMBER OF SHARES OUTSTANDING	NUMBER OF SHARES ENTITLED TO VOTE	NUMBER VOTED FOR	NUMBER VOTED AGAINST
U-HAUL CO. OF NEW HAMPSHIRE & VERMONT, INC. INC.	500	500	500	-0-
MANCHESTER RENTAL EQUIPMENT REPAIR SHOP, INC.	100	100	100	-0-

V

The Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of New Hampshire, to consummate and make effective this merger, subject, however to the appropriate vote or consent to the stockholders of the Constituent Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the State of New Hampshire.

VI

The Surviving Corporation hereby irrevocable appoints C T Corporation System, as its agent to accept service of process in any suit or other proceeding and to enforce against the surviving Corporation any obligation of any Constituent Domestic Corporation or enforce the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any Constituent Domestic Corporation. A copy of any such process may be mailed to John A. Lorentz, P.O. Box 21502, Phoenix, Arizona, 85036.

VII

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger, and assumes the responsibility for all tax liabilities of the Absorbed Corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.114

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF NEW HAMPSHIRE AND VERMONT, INC.

A NEW HAMPSHIRE CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

DATE: July 22, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of New Hampshire shall be located in the city of Concord. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of New Hampshire as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the 3rd Monday of March of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of New Hampshire or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of New Hampshire. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors through less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of New Hampshire.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Director shall be held at the place specified called therefore, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of New Hampshire.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communication of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of New Hampshire governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the New Hampshire statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officer as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a number of Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The president shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence of inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contract, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorised by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicated the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of New Hampshire, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-

Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF NEW HAMPSHIRE AND VERMONT, INC., are hereby accepted and adopted at the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF NORTHERN NEW JERSEY

A New Jersey Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: February 27, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of New Jersey shall be located in the city of Piscataway. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of New Jersey as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Second Saturday in February of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of New Jersey or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of New Jersey. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by his.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present then to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-exptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be affective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the board of directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of new Jersey.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the president or by any two members of the board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of new Jersey.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-law, but if any meeting of the Board be less than quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum in obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of New Jersey, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the New Jersey statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The president shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The president shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholder. The president shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Power and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meeting of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notices of the corporation. It shall be the duty, of the secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the seal of corporation thereto. The secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his offices, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

AMERCO MARKETING CO. OF NEW MEXICO, INC.

A New Mexico Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: November 6, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of New Mexico shall be located in the city of Albuquerque. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of New Mexico as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Monday in January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of New Mexico or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of New Mexico. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of New Mexico.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of New Mexico.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of New Mexico, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the New Mexico statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of New Mexico, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such preemptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

Section 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calender year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of AMERCO MARKETING CO. OF NEW MEXICO, are hereby

accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.120

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL OF NORTHEASTERN N.Y. INC.

A New York Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: April 8, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of New York shall be located in the city of Glenville. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of New York as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the third Tuesday of March of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of New York or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of New York. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, dis-qualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of New York.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of New York.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follow:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of New York, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the New York statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Director. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the . shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice- President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of New York, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of, the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

PLAN OF MERGER

This Plan of Merger dated this 12th day of September, 1975, entered into by U-Haul Co. of Central North Carolina, Absorbed Corporation, and U-Haul Co. of Western Carolinas, Surviving Corporation, both North Carolina corporations and together referred to as Constituent Corporations, hereby WITNESSETH THAT:

1. This Plan of Merger was authorised and adopted by the Board of Directors and approved by the sole shareholder of each Constituent Corporation in accordance with the applicable laws of the State of North Carolina, in which each was formed.
2. The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:
 - a. All issued and outstanding shares of stock of Absorbed Corporations shall be cancelled.
 - b. On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.
3. Article I of the Articles of Incorporation of U-Haul Co. of Western Carolinas, the Surviving Corporation, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation shall be U-Haul Co. of Western North Carolina."

4. All the property, real and personal, causes of action and every other asset of each of the Constituent Corporations shall vest in the Surviving Corporation without further act or deed; and the Absorbed Corporation hereby specifically assigns to the Surviving Corporation all right, title and interest in any and all U-Haul Dealership Contracts.
5. The Surviving Corporation shall assume and be liable for all the liabilities, obligations and penalties of each of the Constituent Corporations. No liability obligation due or to become due, claim or demand for any cause existing against any such corporation, officer or director thereof, shall be released or impaired by such merger. No action or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, then pending by or against any Constituent Corporation, officer or director thereof, shall abate or be discontinued by such merger, but may be enforced, prosecuted, settled or compromised as if such merger had not occurred, or such Surviving Corporation may be substituted in such action or special proceeding in place of any Constituent Corporation.

6. If the Surviving Corporation shall consider or be advised that any assignment or assurances in law are necessary or desirable to vest or to perfect or confirm of record In the Surviving Corporation the title to any property or rights of the Absorbed Corporation, or to otherwise carry out the provisions hereof, the proper officers and directors of the Absorbed Corporation as of the effective date of the merger shall execute and deliver any assignments and assurances in law, and do all things necessary or proper to vest or perfect such rights in the Surviving Corporation and otherwise to carry out the provisions hereof.

7. Each of the Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of North Carolina to consummate and make effective the merger subject, however, to the consent of their sole shareholder, and the directors of each Constituent Corporation are authorised and directed to perform all actions required for accomplishing and filing this Plan of Merger.

In Witness Whereof the corporate parties hereto, pursuant to authority given by their respective Boards of Directors and sole shareholder, hereby execute this Plan of Merger this 12th day of September, 1975.

PLAN OF MERGER

This Plan of Merger dated this 12th day of September, 1975, entered into by U-Haul Co. of Central North Carolina, Absorbed Corporation, and U-Haul Co. of Western Carolinas, Surviving Corporation, both North Carolina corporations and together referred to as Constituent Corporations, hereby WITNESSETH THAT:

1. This Plan of Merger was authorized and adopted by the Board of Directors and approved by the sole shareholder of each Constituent Corporation in accordance with the applicable laws of the State of North Carolina, in which each was formed.
2. The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:
 - a. All issued and outstanding shares of stock of Absorbed Corporations shall be cancelled.
 - b. On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.
3. Article I of the Articles of Incorporation of U-Haul Co. of Western Carolinas, the Surviving Corporation, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation shall be U-Haul Co. of Western North Carolina."

4. All the property, real and personal, causes of action and every other asset of each of the Constituent Corporations shall vest in the Surviving Corporation without further act or deed; and the Absorbed Corporation hereby specifically assigns to the Surviving Corporation all right, title and interest in any and all U-Haul Dealership Contracts.
5. The Surviving Corporation shall assume and be liable for all the liabilities, obligations and penalties of each of the Constituent Corporations. No liability or obligation due or to become due, claim or demand for any cause existing against any such corporation, officer or director thereof, shall be released or impaired by such merger. No action or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, then pending by or against any Constituent Corporation, officer or director thereof, shall abate or be discontinued by such merger, but may be enforced, prosecuted, settled or compromised as if such merger had not occurred, or such Surviving Corporation may be substituted in such action or special proceeding in place of any Constituent Corporation.

6. If the Surviving Corporation shall consider or be advised that any assignment or assurances in law are necessary or desirable to vest or to perfect or confirm of record in the Surviving Corporation the title to any property or rights of the Absorbed Corporation, or to otherwise carry out the provisions hereof, the proper officers and directors of the Absorbed Corporation as of the effective date of the merger shall execute and deliver any assignments and assurances in law, and do all things necessary or proper to vest or perfect such rights in the Surviving Corporation and otherwise to carry out the provisions hereof.

7. Each of the Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of North Carolina to consummate and make effective the merger subject, however, to the consent of their sole shareholder, and the directors of each Constituent Corporation are authorized and directed to perform all actions required for accomplishing and filing this Plan of Merger.

In Witness Whereof the corporate parties hereto, pursuant to authority given by their respective Boards of Directors and sole shareholder, hereby execute this Plan of Merger this 12th day of September, 1975.

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF WESTERN CAROLINAS

A North Carolina Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 5, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of North Carolina shall be located in the city of Ashville. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of North Carolina as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Wednesday in April of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of North Carolina or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, May be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of North Carolina. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be affective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting . The meeting may be held within or without the state of North Carolina.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of North Carolina.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of North Carolina, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized, by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the North Carolina statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of a said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of North Carolina, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF WESTERN CAROLINAS, are hereby

accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.124

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF FARGO

A North Dakota Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: February 6, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of North Dakota shall be located in the city of Bismarck. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of North Dakota as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Second Wednesday in January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of North Dakota or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of North Dakota. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of North Dakota.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of North Dakota.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV
POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been act aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the North Dakota statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of North Dakota, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF FARGO, are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.126

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF OKLAHOMA, INC.

An Oklahoma Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 9, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Oklahoma shall be located in the city of Oklahoma City. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Oklahoma as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Friday in January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Oklahoma or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Oklahoma. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organisation, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Oklahoma.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Oklahoma.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Oklahoma, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Oklahoma statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice- President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Oklahoma, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF OKLAHOMA, INC., are hereby

accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

This Plan of Merger is entered into by U-Haul Co. of Southern Oregon, Absorbed Corporation. U-Haul Co. of Oregon, Surviving Corporation, both Oregon corporations and together referred to as Constituent Corporations, hereby WITNESSETH THAT:

The Boards of Directors, and the sole shareholder of the Constituent Corporations by written consent, have determined it to be advisable that Absorbed Corporation be merged into Surviving Corporation in accordance with the Oregon Business Corporation Act Section 57.455 under which the following Plan is adopted:

I.

Constituent Corporations shall be merged, by ABSORBED Corporation merging into Surviving Corporation. The separate existence of ABSORBED Corporation shall cease and the existence of Surviving Corporation shall continue unaffected and unimpaired by the merger with all the rights, privileges, immunities and powers, and subject to all the duties and liabilities of a corporation organized under the Oregon Business Corporation Act.

II.

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

1. All issued and outstanding shares of stock of Absorbed Corporation shall be cancelled.
2. On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been affected, the outstanding stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

III.

The Articles of Incorporation of Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation until altered or amended, and shall not be affected by this merger.

Each of the Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Oregon to consummate and make effective the merger subject, however, to the consent of their sole shareholder, and the President and Secretary of each Constituent Corporation are authorized and directed to perform all section Required for accomplishing and filing this Plan of Merger.

In Witness Whereof the corporate parties hereby execute this plan of Merger this 27th day of April, 1977.

EXHIBIT 3.128

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF OREGON

An Oregon Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: June 1, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Oregon shall be located in the city of Portland. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Oregon as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the third Tuesday in January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Oregon or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Oregon. Notice of the special meeting will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of offices of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Oregon.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meeting of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Oregon.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the trans- action of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWER OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

3. To Issue notes and other obligations or evidences of the debt of this corporation, and to secure the same, if deemed advisable, and endorse and guarantee the notes, bonds, stocks, and other obligations of other corporations with or without compensation for so doing, and from time to time to sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Oregon, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Oregon statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorised by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLES VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Oregon, the number and par value. If any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon each surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF OREGON, are hereby

accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the by-Laws of this corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.130

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF DELAWARE VALLEY

A Pennsylvania Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 25, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Pennsylvania shall be located in the city of Horsham. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Pennsylvania as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the third Friday in January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Pennsylvania or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Pennsylvania. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Articles.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished Business.

7th. New Business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Pennsylvania.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Pennsylvania.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV
POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Pennsylvania statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have each powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by Resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Pennsylvania, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF DELAWARE VALLEY, are hereby

accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.132

BY-LAWS OF

REORG. CO. OF RHODE ISLAND

A RHODE ISLAND CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

DATE: June 5, 1990

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the State of Rhode Island shall be located at such place as the Board of Directors may from time to time select. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the State of Rhode Island as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Second Monday in April of each year, at the office of the corporation in the State of Rhode Island or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the State of Rhode Island. Notice of the special meeting will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Office:

A board of one (1) or more Directors, as required by law, shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies of the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the State of Rhode Island.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specifically called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the State of Rhode Island.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or these By-Laws but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may, from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

SECTION 7. Meetings By Telephone:

If all the directors consent, a director may participate in a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board by means of such telephone or other communications facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and a director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers, the express right to exercise the following powers:

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President and Secretary, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in the By-Laws of the corporation, the Board may at any time and from time to time direct the manner in which any person or persons by whom any particular contract, document, note or instrument in writing of the corporation may or shall be signed by and may authorize any officer or officers of the corporation to sign such contracts, documents, notes or Instruments.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Rhode Island, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signing of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the name of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefore, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of April of each year and shall close on the 31st day of March of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of New Co. of Rhode Island are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF SOUTH CAROLINA, INC.

A South Carolina Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 9, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of South Carolina shall be located in the city of Columbia. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of South Carolina as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Wednesday in April of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of South Carolina or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of South Carolina. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of South Carolina.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefore, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of South Carolina.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

1. To purchase, lease, and acquire, in any lawful manner any and all real or personal property including franchises, stocks, bonds and debentures of other companies, business and good will, patents, trade-marks in contracts, and interests thereunder, and other rights and properties which in their judgment may be beneficial for the purpose of this corporation, and to issue shares of stock of this corporation in payment of such property, and in payment for services rendered to this corporation, when they deem it advisable.

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation subject, however, to the laws of the State of South Carolina, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the South Carolina statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-president, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of South Carolina, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The by-laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF SOUTH CAROLINA, INC., are hereby

accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the State of South Dakota shall be located at such place as the Board of Directors may from time to time select. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the State of South Dakota as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Second Wednesday in May of each year, at the office of the corporation in the State of South Dakota or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the State of South Dakota. Notice of the special meeting will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Office:

A board of one (1) or more Directors, as required by law, shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies of the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the State of South Dakota.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specifically called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the State of South Dakota.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or these By-Laws but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may, from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

SECTION 7. Meetings By Telephone:

If all the directors consent, a director may participate in a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board by means of such telephone or other communications facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and a director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers, the express right to exercise the following powers:

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President and Secretary, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in the By-Laws of the corporation, the Board may at any time and from time to time direct the manner in which any person or persons by whom any particular contract, document, note or instrument in writing of the corporation may or shall be signed by and may authorize any officer or officers of the corporation to sign such contracts, documents, notes or instruments.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of South Dakota, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signing of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the name of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefore, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the First day of April of each year and shall close on the 31st day of March of each year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-Haul Co. of South Dakota, Inc. are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER

This PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER dated this 1st day of August 1989 entered, into by U-Haul Co. of Nashville, a Tennessee corporation, the surviving corporation and Kar-Go Service Center of Nashville, a Tennessee corporation, the Absorbed Corporation, and together referred to as the constituent corporations hereby witnesseth that:

The respective Boards of Directors and the Sole Shareholder by resolution have determined it to be advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into the surviving corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the General Corporation Law of the state of Tennessee which laws permit such merger.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation, unless altered or amended below, following the effective date of the merger.

II

The executed PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER is on file at the Surviving Corporation's principal office. The location of that office is c. T. Corporation System, 530 Gay Street, Knoxville, Tennessee 37902.

III

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

- (1) All issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Constituent Corporation shall be absorbed.
- (2) On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

IV

The number of shares outstanding and the number of shares entitled to vote upon such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER, and the number of shares voted for and against such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER as to each corporation was as follows:

COMPANY NAME -----	NUMBER OF SHARES OUTSTANDING -----	NUMBER OF SHARES ENTITLED TO VOTE -----	NUMBER VOTED FOR ---	NUMBER VOTED AGAINST -----
U-HAUL CO. OF NASHVILLE	100	100	100	-0-
KAR-GO SERVICE CENTER OF NASHVILLE INC.	900	900	900	-0-

V

The Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Tennessee, to consummate and make effective this merger, subject, however to the appropriate vote or consent to the stockholders of the Constituent Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the State of Tennessee.

VI

The Surviving Corporation hereby irrevocable appoints C T Corporation System, as its agent to accept service of process in any suit or other proceeding and to enforce against the surviving Corporation any obligation of any Constituent Domestic Corporation or enforce the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any Constituent Domestic Corporation. A copy of any such process may be mailed to John A. Lorentz, P.O. Box 21502, Phoenix, Arizona, 85036.

VII

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger, and assumes the responsibility for all tax liabilities of the Absorbed Corporation.

PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER

This PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER dated this 29th day of March, 1991, entered into by U-Haul Co. of Tennessee, the surviving corporation and U-Haul Co. of Knoxville and U-Haul Co. of Memphis, the absorbed Corporation, all Tennessee corporations and together referred to as the Constituent Corporations hereby witnesseth that:

The respective Boards of Directors and the Sole Shareholder by resolution have determined it to be advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into the Surviving Corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the General Corporation Laws of the State of Tennessee which laws permit such mergers.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation, unless altered or amended below, following the effective date of the merger.

II

The executed PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER is on file at the Surviving Corporation's principal office. The location of that office is John A. Lorentz, 2721 N. Central Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona 85004.

III

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

- (1) All issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Absorbed Corporation shall be cancelled.
- (2) On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Surviving Corporation.

IV

The number of shares outstanding and the number of shares entitled to vote upon such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER, and the number of shares voted for and against such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER as to each corporation was as follows:

COMPANY NAME	NUMBER OF SHARES OUTSTANDING	NUMBER OF SHARES ENTITLED TO VOTE	NUMBER VOTED FOR	NUMBER VOTED AGAINST
U-HAUL CO. OF TENNESSEE	100	100	100	-0-
U-HAUL CO. OF KNOXVILLE	100	100	100	-0-
U-HAUL CO. OF MEMPHIS	100	100	100	-0-

V

The Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the States of Tennessee, to consummate and make effective this merger, subject, however to the appropriate vote or consent to the stockholders of the Constituent Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the State of Tennessee.

VI

The Surviving Corporation hereby irrevocable appoints C. T. Corporation System, as its agent to accept service of process in any suit or other proceeding and to enforce against the surviving Corporation any obligation of any Constituent Domestic Corporation or enforce the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any Constituent Domestic Corporation. A copy of any such process may be mailed to John A. Lorentz, P. O. Box 21502, Phoenix, Arizona 85036.

VII

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger, and assumes the responsibility for all tax liabilities of the Absorbed Corporation.

The Plan of Merger was approved by the Sole Shareholder of each of the Constituent corporations on the 29th day of March, 1991.

VIII

The effective date of the merger shall be January 1, 1991, for accounting purposes only.

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF NASHVILLE

A Tennessee Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 11, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Tennessee shall be located in the city of Nashville. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Tennessee as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Thursday of February of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Tennessee or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Tennessee. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Tennessee.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Tennessee.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV
POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Tennessee statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office be shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the law of Tennessee, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the, number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

PLAN OF MERGER

This Plan of Merger dated this 14th day of January, 1976, entered into by U-Haul Co. of Northeast Texas, Absorbed Corporation, and U-Haul Co. of Dallas, hereinafter designated Surviving Corporation, both Texas corporations and together referred to as Constituent Corporations, hereby WITNESSETH THAT:

I

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

1. All issued and outstanding shares of stock of Absorbed Corporation shall be cancelled.
2. On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

II

Article I of the Articles of Incorporation of U-Haul Co. of Dallas, the Surviving Corporation, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation shall be U-Haul Co. of Dallas-Fort Worth."

III

All the property, real and personal, causes of action and every other asset of each of the Constituent Corporations shall vest in the Surviving Corporation without further act or deed; and the Absorbed Corporation hereby specifically assigns to the Surviving Corporation all right, title and interest in any and all U-Haul Dealership Contracts.

IV

The Surviving Corporation shall assume and be liable for all the liabilities, obligations and penalties of each of the Constituent Corporations. No liability or obligation due or to become due, claim or demand for any cause existing against any such corporation, officer or director thereof, shall be released or impaired by such merger. No action or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, then pending by or against any Constituent Corporation, officer or director thereof, shall abate or be discontinued by such merger, but may be enforced, prosecuted, settled or compromised as if such merger had not occurred, or such Surviving Corporation may be substituted in such action or special proceeding in place of any Constituent Corporation.

If the Surviving Corporation shall consider or be advised that any assignment or assurances in law are necessary or desirable to vest or to perfect or confirm of record in the Surviving Corporation the title to any property or rights of the Absorbed Corporation, or to otherwise carry out the provisions hereof, the proper officers and directors of the Absorbed Corporation as of the effective date of the merger shall execute and deliver any assignments and assurances in law, and do all things necessary or proper to vest or perfect such rights in the Surviving Corporation and otherwise to carry out the provisions hereof.

Each of the Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Texas to consummate and make effective the merger subject, however, to the consent of their sole shareholder, and the directors of each Constituent Corporation are authorized and directed to perform all actions required for accomplishing and filing this Plan of Merger.

In Witness Whereof the corporate parties hereto, pursuant to authority given by their respective Boards of Directors and sole shareholder, hereby execute this Plan of Merger this 14th day of January 1976.

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Texas, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Texas statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Texas, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment of transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF DAL-WORTH, are hereby

PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER

This PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER dated this 9th day of August, 1989, entered into by U-Haul Co. of Utah, Inc., a Utah corporation, the surviving corporation and Salt Lake Rental Equipment Repair Shop, Inc., a Utah corporation, the Absorbed Corporation, and together referred to as the Constituent Corporations hereby witnesseth that:

The respective Boards of Directors and the Sole Shareholder by resolution have determined it to be advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into the Surviving Corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Utah which laws permit such merger.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation, unless altered or amended below, following the effective date of the merger.

II

The executed PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER is on file at the Surviving Corporation's principal office. The location of that office is C. T. Corporation System, 50 West Broadway, Salt Lake City, Utah 84101.

III

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

- (1) All issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Constituent Corporation shall be absorbed.
- (2) On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

IV

The number of shares outstanding and the number of shares entitled to vote upon such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER, and the number of shares voted for and against such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER as to each corporation was as follows:

COMPANY NAME -----	NUMBER OF SHARES OUTSTANDING -----	NUMBER OF SHARES ENTITLED TO VOTE -----	NUMBER VOTED FOR ---	NUMBER VOTED AGAINST -----
U-HAUL CO. OF UTAH, INC.	500	500	500	-0-
SALT LAKE RENTAL EQUIPMENT REPAIR SHOP, INC.	3,200	3,200	3,200	-0-

V

The Constituent corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Utah, to consummate and make effective this merger, subject, however to the appropriate vote or consent to the stockholders of the Constituent Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the State of Utah.

VI

The Surviving Corporation hereby irrevocable appoints C T Corporation System, as its agent to accept service of process in any suit or other proceeding and to enforce against the surviving Corporation any obligation of any Constituent Domestic Corporation or enforce the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any Constituent Domestic Corporation. A copy of any such process may be mailed to John A. Lorentz, P.O. Box 21502, Phoenix, Arizona, 85036.

VII

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger, and assumes the responsibility for all tax liabilities of the Absorbed Corporation.

BY-LAWS OF

AMERCO MARKETING CO. OF UTAH, INC.

A UTAH CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

DATE: November 13, 1970

SECTION 1. Office:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Utah shall be located in the city of Salt Lake City. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Utah as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Wednesday in March of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Utah or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Utah, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and open the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of AMERCO MARKETING CO. OF UTAH, INC., are hereby

accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

EXHIBIT 3.144

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF TIDEWATER VIRGINIA

A Virginia Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: April 10, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Virginia shall be located in the city of Virginia Beach. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Virginia as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Monday of March of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Virginia or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting provided such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to such shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting, All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Virginia. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Virginia.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Virginia.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV
POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Virginia statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous, acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office be shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Virginia, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and open the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment of transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF TIDEWATER VIRGINIA, are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER

This PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER dated this 9th day of August, 1989, entered into by U-Haul Co. of Western Washington, a Washington corporation, the surviving corporation and Auburn Rental Equipment Repair Shop, Inc., a Washington corporation, the Absorbed Corporation, and together referred to as the Constituent Corporations hereby witnesseth that:

The respective Boards of Directors and the Sole Shareholder by resolution have determined it to be advisable that the Absorbed Corporation be merged into the Surviving Corporation under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth in accordance with the applicable provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Washington which laws permit such merger.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

I

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation, unless altered or amended below, following the effective date of the merger.

II

The executed PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER is on file at the Surviving Corporation's principal office. The location of that office is C. T. Corporation System, 520 Pike Street, Seattle, Washington 98101.

III

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

- (1) All issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Constituent Corporation shall be absorbed.
- (2) On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

IV

The number of shares outstanding and the number of shares entitled to vote upon such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER, and the number of shares voted for and against such PLAN/AGREEMENT/ARTICLES OF MERGER as to each corporation was as follows:

COMPANY NAME	NUMBER OF SHARES OUTSTANDING	NUMBER OF SHARES ENTITLED TO VOTE	NUMBER VOTED FOR	NUMBER VOTED AGAINST
U-HAUL CO. OF WESTERN WASHINGTON	500	500	500	-0-
AUBURN RENTAL EQUIPMENT REPAIR SHOP, INC.	7,100	7,100	7,100	-0-

V

The Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Washington, to consummate and make effective this merger, subject, however to the appropriate vote or consent to the stockholders of the Constituent Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the State of Washington.

VI

The Surviving Corporation hereby irrevocable appoints C T Corporation System, as its agent to accept service of process in any suit or other proceeding and to enforce against the surviving Corporation any obligation of any Constituent Domestic Corporation or enforce the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any Constituent Domestic Corporation. A copy of any such process may be mailed to John A. Lorentz, P.O. Box 21502, Phoenix, Arizona, 85036.

VII

The Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger, and assumes the responsibility for all tax liabilities of the Absorbed Corporation.

The provisions for handling the shares of stock of the Constituent Corporations are as follows:

1. All issued and outstanding shares of stock of Absorbed Corporation shall be cancelled.
2. On the effective date of the merger and when the aforementioned cancellation has been effected, the outstanding stock of Surviving Corporation shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the Constituent Corporations.

III

Surviving Corporation shall pay all expenses of accomplishing the merger.

IV

If Surviving Corporation shall consider or be advised that any assignment or assurances in law are necessary or desirable to vest or to perfect or confirm of record in Surviving Corporation the title to any property or rights of Absorbed Corporation or to otherwise carry out the provisions hereof, the proper officers and directors of Absorbed Corporation as of the effective date of the merger shall execute and deliver any assignments and assurances in law, and do all things necessary or proper to vest or perfect such rights in Surviving Corporation and otherwise to carry out the provisions hereof.

V

Each of the Constituent Corporations shall take or cause to be taken all action or all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Washington to consummate and make effective the merger subject, however, to the consent of the sole stockholder; and the officers and directors of the Surviving Corporation are authorized and directed to perform all actions required for accomplishing and filing this Plan of Merger.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the corporate parties hereto, pursuant to authority given by their respective Boards of Directors and sole shareholder hereby enter into this Plan of Merger executed and sealed this 16 day of September, 1975.

EXHIBIT 3.146

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF SEATTLE

A Washington Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 5, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Washington shall be located in the city of Auburn. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Washington as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Friday of January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Washington or otherwise as provided in the notice of said Meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Washington. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorised Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organisation, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Washington.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Washington.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV
POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

1. To purchase, lease, and acquire, in any lawful manner any and all real or personal property including franchises, stocks, bonds and debentures of other companies, business and good will, patents, trade-marks in contracts, and interests there-under, and other rights and properties which in their judgment may be beneficial for the purpose of this corporation, and to issue shares of stock of this corporation in payment of such property, and in payment for services rendered to this corporation, when they deem it advisable.

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however to the laws of the State of Washington, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Washington statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Power and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's offices, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Washington, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferrable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue of shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. (CORPORATE SEAL)

BY-LAWS OF
U-HAUL CO. OF SPOKANE
A Washington Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 5, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Washington shall be located in the city of Auburn. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Washington as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the third Friday of January of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Washington or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Washington. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Washington.

SECTION 4. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Washington.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

1. To purchase, lease, and acquire, in any lawful manner any and all real or personal property including franchises, stocks, bonds and debentures of other companies, business and good will, patents, trade-marks in contracts, and interests thereunder, and other rights and properties which in their judgment may be beneficial for the purpose of this corporation, and to issue shares of stock of this corporation in payment of such property, and in payment for services rendered to this corporation, when they deem it advisable.

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Washington, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board May appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Washington statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Washington, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and open the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF SPOKANE, are hereby

accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF WEST VIRGINIA

A West Virginia Corporation

ARTICLE I

DATE: March 30, 1970

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of West Virginia shall be located in the city of Buffalo. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of West Virginia as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the third Monday of March of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of West Virginia or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of West Virginia. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of West Virginia.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by [ILLEGIBLE] written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of West Virginia.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

ARTICLES, AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

These Articles, Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated this 10th day of January, 1986, entered into by U-Haul Co. of Western Wisconsin, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation and the Absorbed Corporation, and U-Haul Co. of Wisconsin, East, Inc., also a Wisconsin corporation and the Surviving corporation and together referred to as Constituent Corporations, hereby WITNESSETH THAT:

The Board of Directors and the sole shareholder of each of the Constituent Corporations have adopted and approved the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth and hereby agree as follows:

I

The Constituent Corporations shall be merged into a single Surviving Corporation and shall continue to be governed by the State of Wisconsin.

II

The outstanding shares of the Absorbed Corporation shall be cancelled and no shares of the Surviving Corporation shall be issued in exchange therefor.

III

The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation until altered or amended, and shall not be affected by this merger.

IV

The number of shares outstanding, the number of shares entitled to vote upon the Agreement and Plan of Merger and the number of shares voted for and against said Agreement as to each corporation was as follows:

Name of Corporation -----	Number of Shares Outstanding -----	Number Voted For -----	Number Voted Against -----
U-Haul Co. of Wisconsin, East, Inc. a Wisconsin corporation	500	500	0
U-Haul Co. of Western Wisconsin, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation	500	500	0

V

The Surviving Corporation will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of U-Haul Co. of Western Wisconsin, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation, the amount, if any, to which they shall be entitled under the provision of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Act with respect to the rights of dissenting shareholders.

VI

The registered office of the Constituent Corporations is located in Dane County, Wisconsin.

If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less then one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Wisconsin. Notice of the special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Wisconsin.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Wisconsin.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.

3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.

4th. Reports of officials and committees.

5th. Unfinished business.

6th. Miscellaneous business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

1. To purchase, lease, and acquire, in any lawful manner any and all real or personal property including franchises, stocks, bonds and debentures of other companies, business and good will, patents, trade-marks in contracts, and interests thereunder, and other rights and properties which in their judgment may be beneficial for the purpose of this corporation, and to issue shares of stock of this corporation in payment of such property, and in payment for services rendered to this corporation, when they deem it advisable.

or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Wisconsin, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit, arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Wisconsin statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI.

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers, as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice- President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Wisconsin, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agent and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such preemptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. FISCAL YEAR:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of January of each calendar year and shall close on the 31st day of December of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-HAUL CO. OF WISCONSIN EAST, INC., are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL CO. OF WYOMING, INC.

A WYOMING CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

DATE: October 25, 1990

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the State of Wyoming shall be located at such place as the Board of Directors may from time to time select. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the State of Wyoming as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Fourth Friday in April of each year, at the office of the corporation in the State of Wyoming or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the State of Wyoming. Notice of the special meeting will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Office:

A board of one (1) or more Directors, as required by law, shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies of the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the State of Wyoming.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specifically called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the State of Wyoming.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or these By-Laws but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may, from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

SECTION 7. Meetings By Telephone:

If all the directors consent, a director may participate in a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board by means of such telephone or other communications facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and a director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers, the express right to exercise the following powers:

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President and Secretary, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in the By-Laws of the corporation, the Board may at any time and from time to time direct the manner in which any person or persons by whom any particular contract, document, note or instrument in writing of the corporation may or shall be signed by and may authorize any officer or officers of the corporation to sign such contracts, documents, notes or instruments.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Wyoming, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signing of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the name of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefore, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of April of each year and shall close on the 31st day of March of each year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of U-Haul Co. of Wyoming, Inc. are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

COMPANY ACT

ARTICLES

OF

U-HAUL INSPECTIONS LTD.

PART 1

INTERPRETATION

1.1. In these Articles, unless there is something in the subject or context inconsistent therewith:

"Board" and "the Directors" or "the directors" or "the Board of Directors" mean the Directors or sole Director of the Company for the time being;

"Company Act" means the Company Act of the Province of British Columbia as from time to time in force and all amendments thereto and includes the regulations made pursuant thereto;

"Interpretation Act" means the Interpretation Act of the Province of British Columbia as and from time to time in force and all amendments thereto and includes the regulations made pursuant thereto;

"proxyholder" means a person duly appointed by a registered holder to represent him at a meeting;

"registered address" of a member or registered holder means his address as recorded in the register of members;

"registered owner" or "registered holder" when used with respect to a share in the authorized capital of the Company means the person registered in the register of members in respect of such share;

"seal" means the common seal of the Company.

Expressions referring to writing shall be construed as including references to printing, lithography, typewriting, photography and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form.

Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa; and words importing male persons include female persons and words importing individuals shall include corporations and vice versa.

1.2. The meaning of any words or phrases defined in the Company Act and the Interpretation Act shall, if not same meaning in these Articles provided inconsistent with definitions herein or with the subject or context, bear the same meaning in these Articles provided that in the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the Company Act and the Interpretation Act, the former shall govern.

1.3. Except as may be otherwise provided expressly or by necessary implication in the Company Act, the rules of construction contained in the Interpretation Act shall apply, with the necessary changes and so far as applicable, to the interpretation of these Articles.

PART 2

SHARES AND SHARE CERTIFICATE

2.1. Every member is entitled without charge, to one certificate representing the shares of each class or series held by him. If a member requests the Company to issue to him more than one share certificate for any shares of the same class or series registered in his name, the Directors may prescribe the fee to be paid for each additional certificate. In respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint registered holders or to his duly authorized agent shall be sufficient delivery to all; and provided further that the Company shall not be bound to issue certificates representing redeemable shares, if such shares are to be redeemed within one month of the date on which they were allotted. Any share certificate may be sent through the mail by registered prepaid mail to the member entitled thereto at his registered address, and neither the Company nor any transfer agent shall be liable for any loss occasioned to the member owing to any such share certificate so sent being lost in the mail, stolen or destroyed

2.2. If a share certificate:

(a) is worn out or defaced, the Company shall, upon production to it of the said certificate and upon such other terms, if any, as the Directors prescribe, order the said certificate to be cancelled and shall issue a new certificate in replacement thereof; or

(b) is lost, stolen or destroyed, then, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors and upon such indemnity, if any, as the Directors deem adequate being given, a new share certificate in lieu thereof shall be issued to the person entitled to such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate.

Such sum, not exceeding the amount permitted by the Company Act, as the Directors may from time to time fix, shall be paid to the Company for each certificate to be issued under this Article.

2.3. Save in the case of the personal representatives of a deceased member, the Directors may refuse to register more than three persons as the joint holders of a share.

2.4. Every share certificate shall be signed manually by at least one officer or Director of the Company, or by or on behalf of a registrar, branch registrar, transfer agent or branch transfer agent of the Company and any additional signatures may be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced and, in such event, a certificate so signed is as valid as if signed manually, notwithstanding that any person whose signature is so printed or mechanically reproduced shall have ceased to hold the office that he is stated on such certificate to hold at the date of the issue of a share certificate.

2.5. Except as required by law or these Articles, no person shall be recognized by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or compelled in any way to recognize (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or in any fractional part of a share or (except only as by law or these Articles provided or as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in its registered holder.

PART 3

ISSUE OF SHARES

3.1. Subject to the Company Act, the Memorandum and these Articles and to the rights of holders of issued shares arising under the Company Act or otherwise, the shares shall be under the control of the Directors who may issue, allot, sell or otherwise dispose of, and/or grant options on or otherwise deal in, shares authorized but not outstanding, and outstanding shares (including shares purchased or redeemed by the Company but not cancelled) held by the Company, at such times, to such persons (including Directors), in such manner, upon such terms and conditions, and at such price or for such consideration, as they may determine.

3.2. The Directors may authorize the issue of share purchase or subscription warrants to the purchasers or holders of any debt obligations or other evidences of indebtedness or other obligations or shares of the Company, upon such terms and subject to such restrictions as they may determine.

3.3. Subject to the provisions of the Company Act, the Company, or the Directors on behalf of the Company, may pay a commission or allow a discount to any person in consideration Of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in, or securities of, the Company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any such shares or securities, provided that, if the Company is not a specially limited company, the rate of the commission and discount shall not in the aggregate exceed 25 per centum of the amount of the subscription price of such shares. The Directors may also on any issue or sale of shares or other securities cause the Company to pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

3.4. Subject to the exceptions permitted by the Company Act, no share may be issued until it is fully paid and the Company shall have received the full consideration therefor in cash, property or past services actually performed for the Company. The value of property or services for the purpose of this Article shall be the amount determined by the Directors by resolution to be, in all circumstances of the transaction, no greater than the fair market value thereof.

3.5. If the Company is, or becomes, a company which is not a reporting company and the Directors are required by the Company Act before allotting any shares to offer them pro rata to the members, the Directors shall, before allotting any shares, comply with the applicable provisions of the Company Act.

PART 4

SHARE REGISTERS

4.1. The Company shall keep or cause to be kept a register of members, a register of transfers and a register of allotments within British Columbia, all as required by the Company Act and may combine one or more of such or series of shares, a separate register of registers. If the Company's capital shall consist of more than one class members, register of transfers and register of allotments may be kept in respect of each class or series of shares. The Directors may appoint a trust company to keep the register of members, register of transfers and register of allotments or, if there is more than one class or series of shares, the Directors may appoint a trust company, which register of transfers and the register of need not be the same trust company, to keep the register of members, the allotments for each class or series of shares. The Directors may also appoint one or more trust companies, including the trust company which keeps the said registers of its shares or of a class or series thereof, as transfer agent or branch transfer agent for its shares or a class or series thereof, as the case may be, and the same or another trust company or companies as registrar for its shares or a class or series thereof as the case may be. The Directors may terminate the appointment of any trust company referred to in this Article or in Article 4.2 at any time and may appoint another trust company in its place.

4.2. Subject to the Company Act, the Company may keep or cause to be kept branch registers of members at such places as the Directors may determine, provided that any such branch register kept within British Columbia shall be kept by a trust company.

4.3. The Company shall not at any time close its register of members.

PART 5

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

5.1. Subject to the Memorandum and these Articles, any member may transfer any of his shares by instrument in writing executed by or on behalf of such member. The instrument of transfer of any share of the Company shall be in the form, if any, on the back of the Company's share certificates or in any usual or common form or in such other form as the Directors may from time to time approve. Except to the extent that the Company Act may otherwise provide, the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members or a branch register of members in respect thereof.

5.2. The signature of the registered owner of any shares, or of his duly authorized attorney, upon an authorized instrument of transfer delivered to the Company shall constitute a complete and sufficient authority to the Company, its Directors, officers and agents to register, in the name of the transferee as named in the instrument of transfer, the number of shares specified therein or, if no number is specified, all the shares of the registered owner represented by share certificates deposited with the instrument of transfer. If no transferee is named in the instrument of transfer, the instrument of transfer shall constitute a complete and sufficient authority to the Company, its directors, officers and agents to register, in the name of the person on whose behalf any certificate for the shares to be transferred is deposited with the Company for the purpose of having the transfer registered, the number of shares specified in the instrument of transfer or, if no number is specified, all the shares represented by all share certificates deposited with the instrument of transfer.

5.3. Neither the Company nor any Director, officer or agent thereof shall be bound to inquire into the title of the person named in the form of transfer as transferee, or, if no person is named therein as transferee, of the person on whose behalf the certificate is deposited with the Company for the purpose of having the transfer registered or be liable to any claim by such registered owner or by any intermediate owner or holder of the certificate or of any of the shares represented thereby or any interest therein for registering the transfer, and the transfer, when registered, shall confer upon the person in whose name the shares have been registered a valid title to such shares.

5.4. Every instrument of transfer shall be executed by the transferor and left at the registered office of the Company or at the office of its transfer agent or branch transfer agent or registrar or branch registrar for the shares to be transferred for registration together with the share certificate for the shares to be transferred and such other evidence, if any, as the Directors or the transfer agent or branch transfer agent or registrar or branch registrar may require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares and the right of the transferee to have the transfer registered. All instruments of transfer or a photographic reproduction thereof, if the transfer is registered, shall be retained by the Company or its transfer agent or branch transfer agent or registrar or branch registrar and any instrument of transfer, if the transfer is not registered, shall be returned to the person depositing the same together with the share certificate which accompanied the same when tendered for registration.

5.5. There shall be paid to the Company in respect of the registration of any transfer such sum, if any, as the Directors may from time to time determine.

5.6. In the case of the death of a member, the survivors where the deceased was a joint registered holder, and the personal representatives of the deceased where he was the sole registered holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to the deceased's interest in the shares registered in his name. Before recognizing any personal representative the Directors may require him to deliver to the Company the documents required by the Company Act and such other evidence as the Directors may require of the personal representative's appointment, including a grant of probate, letters of administration or other similar documentation from the jurisdiction in which the shares are to be transferred, and of the payment or satisfaction of all taxes, duties, fees and other similar assessments payable to any governmental authority of any applicable jurisdiction with respect to the shares arising out of the member's death.

5.7. A guardian, committee, trustee, curator, tutor, personal representative or trustee in bankruptcy of a member, although not a member himself, shall have the same rights, privileges and obligations that attach to the shares held by the member if the documents and evidence referred in Article 5.6 are delivered to the Company. This Article does not apply on the death of a member with respect to shares registered in his name and the name of another person in joint tenancy.

5.8. Any person referred to in Article 5.7 who becomes entitled to shares of a member, upon the documents and evidence referred to in Article 5.6 being delivered to the Company, has the right either to be registered as a member in his representative capacity in respect of such shares, or, if he is a personal representative, instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the shares as the member could have made; but the Directors shall, as regards a transfer by any such person, have the same right, if any, to decline registration of a transferee as they would have in the case of a transfer of the shares by the member.

PART 6

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

6.1. The Company may by ordinary resolution amend its Memorandum to increase the authorized capital of the Company by:

- (a) creating shares with par value or shares without par value, or both;
- (b) increasing the number of shares with par value or shares without par value, or both; or
- (c) increasing the par value of a class of shares with par value, if no shares of that class are issued.

6.2. The Company may by special resolution alter its Memorandum to subdivide, consolidate, change from shares with par value to shares without par value, or from shares without par value to shares with par value, or change the designation of, all or any of its shares but only to such extent, in such manner and with such consents of members holding a class or series of shares which is the subject of or affected by such alteration, as the Company Act provides.

6.3. The Company may alter its Memorandum or these Articles by such resolution as is permitted by the Company Act and by otherwise complying with any applicable provisions of the Memorandum or these Articles, to create, define and attach special rights or restrictions to any shares and to vary or abrogate any special rights and restrictions attached to any shares.

6.4. No right or special right attached to the issued shares of any class or series shall be prejudiced or interfered with unless the consents of the holders of the shares of each such class or series required by the Company Act are obtained. Notwithstanding such consent, no right or special right attached to any issued shares shall be prejudiced or interfered with as to any part of issued shares of any class or series unless the holders of the rest of the issued shares of such class or series either all consent thereto in writing or consent thereto by a resolution passed by the votes of members holding three-fourths of the rest of such class or series.

6.5. Subject to the Company Act, and unless these Articles or the Memorandum otherwise provide, the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings shall apply, with the necessary changes and so far as they are applicable, to a class or series meeting of members holding a particular class or series of shares but the quorum at a class or series meeting shall be one person holding in person or by proxy not less than one-third of the issued shares of that class or series, as the case may be.

6.6. The Company may, by resolution of the Directors, alter the Memorandum by cancelling shares which are not allotted or issued, or which are surrendered to the Company either by way of gift or otherwise in accordance with the Company Act, and diminish its authorized capital accordingly.

6.7. The rights, or special rights or restrictions attached to the shares of any class or series shall, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms, if any, of such rights, or special rights or restrictions be deemed not to be modified, abrogated, varied or dealt with by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.

PART 7

PURCHASE AND REDEMPTION OF SHARES

7.1. Subject to the special rights and restrictions attached to any shares, the Company may, by resolution of the Directors and in compliance with the Company Act, purchase any of its shares at the price and upon the terms specified in such resolution, or redeem any of its shares which have a right of redemption attached to them. No such purchase or redemption shall be made if the Company is insolvent at the time of the proposed purchase or redemption or if the proposed purchase or redemption would render the Company insolvent. Unless the shares are to be purchased through a stock exchange or the Company is purchasing the shares from dissenting members pursuant to the requirements of the Company Act, or from a bona fide employee or former employee of the Company or an affiliate of the Company or his personal representative in respect of shares beneficially owned by such employee or former employee, the Company shall, if required by the Company Act, make its offer to purchase pro rata to every member who holds shares of the class or series, as the case may be, to be purchased.

7.2. If the Company proposes at its option to redeem some but not all of the shares of any class or series, the Directors may, subject to the special rights and restrictions attached to the shares of such class or series, decide the manner in which the shares to be redeemed shall be selected, and, subject as aforesaid, need not redeem pro rata.

7.3. Subject to the Company Act and the Memorandum, any shares purchased or redeemed by the Company, if not cancelled, may be sold or, if cancelled (but still in the Company's authorized capital), may be reissued, but, while such shares which have not been cancelled are held by the Company, it shall not exercise any vote in respect of such shares and no dividend or other distribution shall be paid or made thereon.

PART 8

BORROWING POWERS

8.1. Subject to the Company Act, the Directors may authorize and cause the Company to:

- (a) borrow money in such manner and amounts, on such security, or without security, from such sources and upon such terms and conditions as they think fit;
- (b) guarantee the repayment of money by any other person or the performance of any obligation of any other person;
- (c) issue debt obligations, or other evidences of obligations or indebtedness, either outright or as security for any liability or obligation of the Company or any other person;
- (d) mortgage, charge, whether by way of specific or floating charge, or both, or give other security on the undertaking, or on the whole or any part of the property and assets, of the Company (both present and future); and
- (e) for the purposes of the Special Corporate Powers Act of the Province of Quebec and without in any way limiting the powers conferred upon the Company and the Directors by the foregoing or by any other provisions of these Articles, or by the Memorandum, or by the Company Act, for the purpose of securing any notes, bonds, debentures or debenture stock which it is by law entitled to, issue, hypothecate, mortgage or pledge, and cede and transfer, any property, moveable or immovable, present or future, which it may own in the Province of Quebec.

8.2. Any debt obligations of the Company may be issued at a discount, premium or otherwise, and with any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of or Conversion into or exchange for shares or other securities, attending and voting at general meetings of the Company, appointment or election of Directors, or otherwise, and may by their terms be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom they are issued or any other person who subsequently acquires the same, all as the Directors may determine.

8.3. The Company shall keep or cause to be kept within the Province of British Columbia in accordance with the Company Act a register of its debentures and a register of debentureholders, which registers may be combined, and if there is more than one series of debentures a separate register of debentures and debentureholders may be kept in respect of each series. The Directors may appoint a trust company to keep the register of debentureholders. Subject to the Company Act, the Company may keep or cause to be kept branch registers of its debentureholders at such places as the Directors may determine, provided that any such branch register kept within British Columbia shall be kept by a trust company. The Directors may also appoint a trust company as transfer agent or branch transfer agent for its debentures or a series thereof. The Directors may terminate the appointment of any such trust company at any time and may appoint another trust company in its place.

8.4. Every debt obligation of the Company shall be signed manually by at least one Director or officer of the Company or by or on behalf of a trustee, registrar, branch registrar, transfer agent or branch transfer agent for the debt obligation appointed by the Company or under any instrument under which the debt obligation is issued, or by or on behalf of a trustee who certifies it in accordance with a trust indenture, and any additional signatures may be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced thereon and, in such event, a debt obligation so signed is as valid as if signed manually notwithstanding that any person whose signature is so printed or mechanically reproduced shall have ceased to hold the office that he is stated on such debt obligation to hold at the date of the issue thereof.

8.5. If the Company is or becomes a reporting company, the Company shall keep or cause to be kept a register of its indebtedness to every Director or officer of the Company or an associate of any of them in accordance with the provisions of the Company Act.

PART 9

GENERAL MEETINGS

9.1. Annual general meetings of the Company shall be held as required by the Company Act at such time and place as is determined by the Directors.

9.2. If the Company is, or becomes, a company which is not a reporting company, and all the members entitled to attend and vote at an annual general meeting consent in writing to all the business which is required or desired to be transacted at the meeting, the meeting need not be held, and shall be deemed to have been held on the date specified in such written consent, or, failing such a date being specified, on the date all such members consent thereto. A written consent for the purposes of this Article 9.2 may be given by any method or means authorized by Article 16.9 for consenting in writing to a resolution.

9.3. All general meetings other than annual general meetings are herein referred to as and may be called extraordinary general meetings or special general meetings.

9.4. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, convene a special general meeting. A special general meeting, if requisitioned in accordance with the Company Act, shall be convened by the Directors or, if not convened by the Directors, may be convened by the requisitionists as provided in the Company Act.

9.5. If the Company is or becomes a reporting company, advance notice of any general meeting at which Directors are to be elected shall be published in the manner required by the Company Act.

9.6. A notice convening a general meeting specifying the place, the day, and the hour of the meeting, and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business, shall be given as provided in the Company Act and in the manner hereinafter in these Articles mentioned, or in such other manner (if any) as may be prescribed by ordinary resolution, whether previous notice thereof has been given or not, to such persons as are entitled by law or under these Articles to receive such notice from the Company. Accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting, by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

9.7. All the members of the Company entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting may, by unanimous consent in writing given before, during or after the meeting, or if they are present at the meeting by a unanimous vote, waive or reduce the period of notice of such meeting and an entry in the minute book of such waiver or reduction shall be sufficient evidence of the due convening of the meeting. A consent in writing for the purposes of this Article 9.7 may be given by any method or means authorized by Article 16.9 for consenting in writing to a resolution.

9.8. Except as otherwise provided by the Company Act, where any special business at a general meeting includes considering, approving, ratifying, adopting or authorizing any document or the execution thereof or the giving of effect thereto, the notice convening the meeting shall, with respect to such document, be sufficient if it states that a copy of the document is or will be available for inspection by members at the registered office or records office of the Company or at some other place in British Columbia designated in the notice during usual business hours on specified dates prior to the date of such meeting.

PART 10

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

10.1. All business shall be deemed special business which is transacted at:

(a) a special general meeting other than the conduct of and voting at, such meeting; and

(b) an annual general meeting, with the exception of the conduct of, and voting at, such meeting, the consideration of the financial statement and of the respective reports of the Directors and Auditor, fixing or changing the number of Directors, electing Directors, appointing the Auditor, fixing the remuneration of the Auditor and the Directors if applicable, and such business as by these Articles or the Company Act may be transacted at a general meeting without prior notice thereof being given to the members and any business which is brought under consideration by the report of the Directors.

10.2. No business, other than election of the chairman or the adjournment of the meeting, shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members, entitled to attend and vote, is present at the commencement of the meeting, but the quorum need not be present throughout the meeting.

10.3. Save as herein otherwise provided, a quorum for a meeting shall be two persons present and being, or representing by proxy, members holding not less than one-twentieth of the issued shares entitled to be voted at the meeting. If there is only one member the quorum is one person present and being, or representing by proxy, such member. The Directors, the Secretary, an Assistant Secretary and a solicitor of the Company shall be entitled to attend at any general meeting but no such person shall be counted in the quorum or vote at any meeting unless he shall be a member or proxyholder entitled to vote thereat.

10.4. If within half an hour from the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and, if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the person or persons present and being, or representing by proxy, a member or members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting shall be a quorum.

10.5. The Chairman of the Board, if any, or in his absence the President of the Company or in his absence a Vice- President of the Company, if any, shall be entitled to preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company.

10.6. If at any general meeting neither the Chairman of the Board nor President nor a Vice-President is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is willing to act as chairman, the Directors present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman, or if all the persons occupying the said offices shall have advised the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary that they will not be present at a meeting, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman or if no Director is present, the members and proxyholders present may choose one of their number to be a chairman. If a person willing to act is not chosen as chairman in accordance with these provisions within 45 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

10.7. The chairman may and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn a meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice, but not, "advance notice" referred to in Article 9.5, of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

10.8. No motion proposed at a general meeting need be seconded, and the chairman, a director, a member or a proxyholder may propose or second a motion.

10.9. Subject to the provisions of the Company Act, at any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is directed by the chairman or demanded by at least one member or proxyholder entitled to vote who is present. The chairman shall declare to the meeting the decision on every question in accordance with the result of the show of hands or the poll, and such decision shall be entered in the book of proceedings of the Company. A declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the book of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.

10.10. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.

10.11. No poll may be demanded on the election of a chairman. A poll demanded on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken as soon as, in the opinion of the chairman, is reasonably convenient, but in no event later than seven days after the meeting and at such time and place and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of and passed at the meeting at which the poll was demanded. Any business other than that upon which the poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn. In any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote the decision of the chairman made in good faith shall be final and conclusive. In the event of a poll by mail, the seven days limit hereinbefore prescribed shall be deemed to be satisfied if the ballot is mailed within seven days and specifies a date by which completed ballots must be received to be counted in the poll that date being such date as the chairman in the reasonable exercise of his discretion thinks is appropriate, but being in no event later than twenty-one days after the mailing of the ballot form.

10.12. Every ballot cast upon a poll and every proxy appointing a proxyholder who casts a ballot upon a poll shall be retained by the Secretary for such period and be subject to such inspection as the Company Act may provide.

10.13. On a poll a person entitled to cast more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

10.14. Unless the Company Act, the Memorandum or these Articles otherwise provide, any action to be taken by a resolution of the members may be taken by an ordinary resolution.

PART II

VOTES OF MEMBERS

11.1. Subject to any special voting rights or restrictions attached to any shares and the restrictions on joint registered holders of shares, on a show of hands every member who is present in person at a meeting and entitled to vote thereat shall have one vote and on a poll every member shall have one vote for each share entitled to be voted at the meeting of which he is the registered holder and may exercise such vote either in person or by proxyholder. A proxyholder shall not have the right to vote on a show of hands unless he is a member entitled to vote at the meeting on a show of hands.

11.2. Any person who is not registered as a member but is entitled to vote at any meeting in respect of a share, may vote the share in the same manner as if he were a member; but, unless the Directors have previously admitted his right to vote at that meeting in respect of the share, he shall satisfy the Directors or the Secretary of his right to vote the share before the time for holding the meeting, or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which he proposes to vote, and unless he shall so satisfy the Directors or the Secretary he shall not be entitled to vote that share.

11.3. Any corporation not being a subsidiary which is a member of the Company may authorize such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting. The person so authorized shall be entitled to exercise in respect of and at such meeting the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company personally present, including, without limitation, the right to appoint a proxyholder to represent such corporation, and shall, if present at the meeting, be counted for the purpose of forming a quorum and be deemed to be a member present at the meeting. Evidence of the appointment of any such representative may be sent to the Company by written instrument, telegram, telex or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a corporation being a member and entitled to vote may appoint a proxyholder.

11.4. In the case of joint registered holders of a share the vote of the senior who exercises a vote, whether in person or by proxyholder, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint registered holders; and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members, the person whose name stands first being senior to the person whose name stands second, and so on. Several legal personal representatives of a deceased member whose shares are registered in his sole name shall for the purpose of this Article be deemed joint registered holders.

11.5. A member of unsound mind entitled to attend and vote, in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee, curator bonis, or other person in the nature of a committee or curator bonis appointed by that court, and any such committee, curator bonis, or other person may appoint a proxyholder.

11.6. A member holding more than one share in respect of which he is entitled to vote shall be entitled to appoint one or more, but not more than three, proxyholders to attend, act and vote for him on the same occasion. If such a member should appoint more than one proxyholder for the same occasion he shall specify the number of shares each proxyholder shall be entitled to vote. A member may also appoint one or more alternate proxyholders to act in the place and stead of an absent proxyholder.

11.7. A proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorized in writing, or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under the seal of the corporation or under the hand of a duly authorized officer or attorney. A proxyholder need not be a member of the Company.

11.8. Unless otherwise permitted by the Directors, a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy thereof shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than 48 hours (excluding Saturdays and holidays) before the time for holding the meeting in respect of which the person named in the instrument is appointed. In addition to any other method of depositing proxies provided for in these Articles, the Directors may, subject to the Company Act, make regulations relating to the depositing of proxies at any place or places and fixing the time or times for depositing the proxies prior to the meeting or adjourned meeting at which they are to be used and providing for particulars of such proxies to be sent to the Company or any agent of the Company in writing or by letter, telegram, telex or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages so as to arrive before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at the office of the Company or of any agent of the Company appointed for the purpose of receiving such particulars and providing that proxies so deposited may be acted upon as though the proxies themselves were deposited as required by this Part and votes given in accordance with such regulations shall be valid and shall be counted.

11.9. Unless the Company Act or any other statute or law which is applicable to the Company or to any class of its shares requires any other form of proxy, a proxy, whether for a specified meeting or otherwise, shall be in the form following, but may also be in any other form that the Directors or the chairman of the meeting shall approve:

PROXY

The undersigned, being a member of _____, hereby appoints _____, or failing him, _____, as proxyholder for the undersigned to attend, act and vote for and on behalf of the undersigned at the annual or extraordinary (as the case may be) general meeting of the Company to be held on the __ day of____, 19_ and at any adjournment thereof.

Signed this __ day of _____, 19_.

(Signature of member)

11.10. A vote given in accordance with the terms of a proxy is valid notwithstanding the previous death or incapacity of the member giving the proxy or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the form of proxy was executed or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no notification in writing of such death, incapacity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the chairman of the meeting or adjourned meeting for which the proxy was given before the vote is taken.

11.11. Every proxy may be revoked by an instrument in writing:

(a) executed by the member giving the same or by his attorney authorized in writing or, where the member is a corporation, by a duly authorized officer or attorney of the corporation; and

or in any other manner provided by law.

PART 12

DIRECTORS

12.1. If the Company is an amalgamated Company, the first Directors shall be the persons so specified in the amalgamation agreement. The Directors to succeed the first Directors, after incorporation of the Company, may be appointed in writing by a majority of the subscribers to the Memorandum or at a meeting of the subscribers, or if not so appointed, they shall be elected by the members entitled to vote on the election of Directors and the number of Directors shall be the same as the number of Directors so appointed or elected. The number of Directors, excluding additional Directors, may be fixed or changed from time to time by ordinary resolution, whether previous notice thereof has been given or not, but notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles the number of Directors shall never be less than one or, if the Company is or becomes a reporting company, less than three.

12.2. The remuneration of the Directors as such may from time to time be determined by the Directors or, if the Directors shall so decide, by the members. Such remuneration may be in addition to any salary or other remuneration paid to any officer or employee of the Company as such who is also a Director. The Directors shall be repaid such reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses as they incur in and about the business of the Company (including, if authorized by resolution of the Directors in respect of the Directors generally, those incurred in attending meetings of the Directors or of any committees of the Directors) and if any Director shall perform any professional or other services for the Company that in the opinion of the Directors are outside the ordinary duties of a Director or shall otherwise be specially occupied in or about the Company's business, he may be paid a remuneration to be fixed by the Board, or, at the option of such Director, by the Company in general meeting, and such remuneration may be either in addition to, or in substitution for any other remuneration that he may be entitled to receive. The Directors on behalf of the Company, unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, may pay a gratuity or pension or allowance on retirement to any Director who has held any salaried office or place of profit with the Company or to his spouse or dependents and may make contributions to any fund and pay premiums for the purchase or provision of any such gratuity, pension or allowance.

12.3. A Director shall not be required to hold a share in the capital of the Company as qualification for his office but shall be qualified as required by the Company Act, to become or act as a Director.

PART 13

ELECTION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

13.1. At each annual general meeting of the Company all the Directors shall retire and the members entitled to vote thereat shall elect a Board of Directors consisting of the number of Directors for the time being fixed pursuant to these Articles. If the Company is, or becomes, a company that is not a reporting company and the business to be transacted at any annual general meeting is consented to in writing by all the members who are entitled to attend and vote thereat such annual general meeting shall be deemed for the purpose of this Part to have been held on such written consent becoming effective.

13.2. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.

13.3. Where the Company fails to hold an annual general meeting in accordance with the Company Act, the Directors then in office shall be deemed to have been elected or appointed as Directors on the last day on which the annual general meeting could have been held pursuant to these Articles and they may hold office until other Directors are appointed or elected or until the day on which the next annual general meeting is held.

13.4. If at any general meeting at which there should be an election of Directors, the places of any of the retiring Directors are not filled by such election, such of the retiring Directors who are not re-elected as may be requested by the newly-elected Directors shall, if willing to do so, continue in office to complete the number of Directors for the time being fixed pursuant to these Articles until further new Directors are elected. If any such election or continuance of Directors does not result in the election or continuance of the number of Directors for the time being fixed pursuant to these Articles such number shall be fixed at the number of Directors actually elected or continued in office. If no Directors are elected at such meeting the retiring Directors shall be deemed to have been re-elected, but nothing herein shall prohibit or restrict the right of a Director to resign.

13.5. Subject to Article 16.7, any casual vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by the remaining Directors or Director.

13.6. Between successive annual general meetings the Board of Directors shall itself have power to appoint one or more additional Directors of the Company but the number of Directors so appointed shall not at any time exceed one-third of the number of Directors elected at the last general meeting at which Directors were elected. Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting of the Company, but shall be eligible for election at such meeting and so long as he is an additional Director the number of Directors shall be increased accordingly.

13.7. Any Director may by instrument in writing delivered to the Company appoint any person to be his alternate to act in his place at meetings of the Directors at which he is not present unless the Directors shall have reasonably disapproved the appointment of such person as an alternate Director and shall have given notice to that effect to the Director appointing the alternate Director within a reasonable time after delivery of such instrument to the Company. Every such alternate shall be entitled to notice of meetings of the Director and to attend, be counted in the quorum and vote as a Director at a meeting at which the person appointing him is not personally present, and, if the alternate is a Director in his own right, to be separately counted in the determination of a quorum on behalf of the Director or Directors he is representing and to have a separate vote on behalf of the Director or Directors he is representing. Every such alternate, to the extent not restricted by the instrument appointing him, may sign on behalf of the Director or Directors who appointed him, resolutions submitted to the Directors to be consented to in writing, as referred to in Article 16.9, and shall be deemed to be a Director for the purposes of so signing such resolutions. Save as aforesaid or as expressly otherwise provided in these Articles, an alternate Director shall not generally have the power to act as a Director. A Director may at any time by instrument in writing revoke the appointment of an alternate appointed by him. The remuneration if any payable to such an alternate Director shall be payable out of the remuneration of the Director appointing him. The appointment or revocation of the appointment of an alternate Director may be by telegram, telex or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages delivered to the Company.

13.8. In addition to the provisions of Article 13.1 and Article 13.9, a Director shall cease to hold office if he:

- (a) resigns his office by notice in writing delivered to the registered office of the Company, or
- (b) is convicted of an indictable offence and the other Directors shall have resolved to remove him; or
- (c) ceases to be qualified to act as a Director pursuant to the Company Act.

The appointment of an alternate Director shall terminate if:

- (a) the Director who appointed him at any time or by notice to the Company revokes his appointment; or
- (b) he resigns by notice to the Company; or
- (c) the Director who appointed him ceases for any reason to be a Director; or
- (d) he is convicted of an indictable offence and the other Directors shall have resolved to remove him; or
- (e) he ceases to hold the qualifications necessary for a Director pursuant to the Company Act; or
- (f) the term of his appointment, if any, expires.

13.9. The Company may by special resolution remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office, and may by an ordinary resolution appoint another person in his stead.

PART 14

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

14.1. The Directors shall manage, or supervise the management of, the affairs and business of the Company and shall have the authority to exercise all such powers of the Company as are not, by the Company Act or by the Memorandum or these Articles, required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting.

14.2. The Directors may from time to time by power of attorney or other instrument under the seal, appoint any person to be the attorney of the Company for such purposes, and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these Articles and excepting the powers of the Directors relating to the constitution of the Board and of any of its committees and the appointment or removal of officers and the power to declare dividends) and for such period, with such remuneration and subject to such conditions as the Directors may think fit, and any such power of attorney or other instrument may contain such provisions for the protection or convenience of persons dealing with such attorney as the Directors think fit. Any such attorney may be authorized by the Directors to subdelegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions for the time being vested in him.

PART 15

DISCLOSURE OF INTEREST OF DIRECTORS

15.1. A Director who:

(a) is, in any way, directly or indirectly interested in an existing or proposed contract or transaction with the Company; or shall declare the nature and extent of his interest in such contract or transaction or of the conflict or potential conflict with his duty and interest as a Director, as the case may be, in accordance with the Company Act. A Director interested in a contract or transaction as aforesaid shall be counted in the quorum at a meeting of the Directors at which the proposed contract or transaction is approved, if present at the meeting, and such Director may vote in respect of the approval of the contract or transaction. If he votes he may be liable to account for any profit in accordance with the provisions of the Company Act.

(b) holds any office or possesses any property whereby, directly or indirectly, a duty or interest may be created to conflict with his duty or interest as a Director,

15.2. A Director may hold any office or place of profit with the Company (other than the office of auditor of the Company) in addition to his office of Director for such period and on such terms (as to remuneration or otherwise) as the Directors may determine and no Director or intended Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company either with regard to his tenure of any such other office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, and, subject to compliance with the provisions of the Company Act, no contract or transaction entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which a Director is in any way interested shall be liable to be voided by reason thereof.

15.3. Subject to the Company Act, a Director or his firm may act in a professional capacity for the Company (except as auditor of the Company) and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a Director.

15.4. A Director may be or become a director or other officer or employee of, or otherwise interested in, any corporation or firm in which the Company may be interested as a shareholder or otherwise, and, subject to compliance with the provisions of the Company Act, such Director shall not be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefits received by him as director, officer or employee of, or from his interest in, such other corporation or firm.

PART 16

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

16.1. The Chairman of the Board, if any, or in his absence, the President shall preside as chairman at every meeting of the Directors, or if there is no Chairman of the Board or neither the Chairman of the Board nor the President is present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for holding the meeting or is willing to act as chairman, or, if the Chairman of the Board, if any, and the President have advised the Secretary that they will not be present at the meeting, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

16.2. Subject to these Articles, the Directors may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings, as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes the chairman shall not have a second or casting vote. Meetings of the Board held at regular intervals may be held at such place, at such time and upon such notice (if any) as the Board may by resolution from time to time determine.

16.3. A Director may participate in a meeting of the Board or of any committee of the Directors by means of conference telephones or other communications facilities by means of which all Directors participating in the meeting can hear each other and provided that all such Directors agree to such participation. A Director participating in a meeting in accordance with this Article shall be deemed to be present at the meeting and to have so agreed and shall be counted in the quorum therefor and be entitled to speak and vote thereat.

16.4. A Director may, and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary upon request of a Director shall, call a meeting of the Board at any time. Reasonable notice of such meeting specifying the place, day and hour of such meeting shall be given by mail, postage prepaid, addressed to each of the Directors and alternate Directors at his address as it appears on the books of the Company or by leaving it at his usual business or residential address or by telephone, telegram, telex, or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of Directors to any Director if such meeting is to be held immediately following a general meeting at which such Director shall have been elected or is the meeting of Directors at which such Director is appointed.

16.5. Any Director or alternate Director may file with the Secretary a document executed by him waiving notice of any past, present or future meeting or meetings of the Directors being, or required to have been, sent to him and may at any time withdraw such waiver with respect to meetings held after such withdrawal. After filing such waiver with respect to future meetings and until such waiver is withdrawn no notice need be given to such Director and, unless the Director otherwise requires in writing to the Secretary, to Us alternate Director of any meeting of Directors and all meetings of the Directors so held shall be deemed not to be improperly called or constituted by reason of notice not having been given to such Director or alternate Director. A waiver as aforesaid may be given by telegram, telex or other method of transmitting legibly recorded messages.

16.6. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors may be fixed by the Directors and if not so fixed shall be that number of Directors that is a majority of the number of Directors positions then fixed for the Company, whether or not each position is filled.

16.7. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the number that, pursuant to these Articles, is the necessary quorum for meetings of the Directors, the continuing Directors may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to that number, or of summoning a general meeting of the Company, but for no other purpose.

16.8. Subject to the Company Act, all acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors, or by any person acting as a Director, shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the qualification, election or appointment of any Director or person acting as aforesaid, be as valid as if every such person had been duly elected or appointed and was qualified to be a Director.

16.9. A resolution consented to in writing (which resolution may be in counterparts which together shall be deemed to constitute one resolution in writing) whether by document, telegram, telex or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages or other means, by all of the Directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors duly called and held on the date, expressly or by necessary implication stated thereon to be the effective date of the passage or adoption of the resolution. In the event of counterparts bearing expressly or by implication different effective dates, then in the absence of a further resolution of the Directors in that regard, the date the resolution is passed or adopted shall be deemed to be the latest effective date stated on any counterpart.

PART 17

EXECUTIVE AND OTHER COMMITTEES

17.1. The Directors may appoint an Executive Committee to consist of such member or members of their body as they think fit, which Committee shall have, and may exercise during the intervals between the meetings of the Directors, all the powers vested in the Directors except the power to fill vacancies in the Board of Directors, the power to change the membership of, or fill vacancies in, said Committee and such other powers, if any, as may be specified by the Directors.

17.2. The Directors may appoint committees consisting of such members of their body as they think fit and may delegate to any such committee any power of the Directors (except the power to fill vacancies in the Board of Directors, the power to change the membership of, or fill vacancies in, any committee of the Directors and the power to appoint or remove officers appointed by the Directors), subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Directors.

17.3. If the Company is or becomes a reporting company, the Directors shall appoint an audit committee at such time and consisting of such members of their body as they think fit subject to the Company Act. The audit committee shall exercise the powers and perform the functions of an audit committee as described in the Company Act. In addition, the Directors may delegate to the audit committee any power of the Directors (except the power to fill vacancies in the Board of Directors, the power to change the membership of, or fill vacancies in, any committee of the Directors and the power to appoint or remove officers appointed by the Directors), subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Directors.

17.4. All committees of Directors shall keep regular minutes of their proceedings and meetings and shall cause them to be recorded in books kept for that purpose, and shall report the same to the Directors at such times as the Directors may from time to time require. Committees may make rules for the conduct of their business and may appoint such assistants as they may deem necessary. A majority of the members of a committee shall constitute a quorum thereof. Save as set out in this Part 17 or in the rules made by a committee as aforesaid, the meetings and proceedings of a committee consisting of more than one member shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles regulating the proceedings and meetings of the Directors, including, without limitation, the provisions with respect to the appointment of alternates to the intent that a Director who is a member of a committee may appoint an alternate to represent him at a meeting of the committee unless the Board of Directors shall prohibit the appointment of alternates by the members of such committee, and including the provisions with respect to resolutions consented to in writing. The Directors shall have power at any time to revoke or override any authority given to or acts to be done by any such committees, except with respect to acts done before such revocation or overriding, and to terminate the appointment or change the membership of a committee and to fill vacancies in it.

PART 18

OFFICERS

18.1. The Directors shall appoint a President and a Secretary and such other officers, if any, as the Directors shall determine from time to time and the Directors may, at any time, terminate any such appointment. No officer shall be appointed unless he is qualified in accordance with the provisions of the Company Act.

18.2. One person may hold more than one of such offices except that the offices of President and Secretary must be held by different persons unless the Company has only one member, Any person appointed as the Chairman of the Board, the President or the Managing Director shall be a Director. The other officers need not be Directors.

18.3. The remuneration of the officers of the Company as such and the terms and conditions of their tenure of office or employment shall from time to time be determined by the Directors; such remuneration may be by way of salary, fees, wages, commission or participation in profits or any other means or all of these modes and an officer may in addition to such remuneration be entitled to receive after he ceases to hold such office or leaves the employment of the Company a pension or gratuity.

18.4. The Directors may decide what functions and duties each officer shall perform and may entrust to and confer upon him any of the powers exercisable by them upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as they think fit and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such functions, duties and powers. The Secretary shall, inter alia, perform the functions of the Secretary specified in the Company Act.

18.5. Every officer of the Company who holds any office or possesses any property whereby, whether directly or indirectly, duties or interests might be created in conflict with his duties or interests as an officer of the Company shall, in writing, disclose to the President the fact and the nature and extent of the conflict.

PART 19

INDEMNITY AND PROTECTION OF DIRECTORS OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

19.1. Subject to the Company Act and these Articles, the Directors shall cause the Company to indemnify a Director or former Director of the Company and a Director or former Director of a corporation which is or was a subsidiary of the Company or (if he acted as such at the request of the Company) of any other corporation of which the Company is or was a shareholder and the heirs and personal representatives of any such person against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, actually and reasonably incurred by him or them including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment in a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which he is or they are made a party by reason of his being or having been a Director of the Company or a director of such corporation, including any action brought by the Company or any such corporation. The Company shall apply to the Court for all approvals of the Court which may be required to make any indemnity referred to in this Article effective and enforceable. The Company shall be deemed to have contracted, on the terms of the foregoing indemnity, with each Director of the Company and each such Director of such corporation on his being elected or appointed.

19.2. Subject to the Company Act and these Articles, the Directors shall cause the Company to indemnify:

(a) any officer or former officer (but in the case of an officer of a corporation other than a subsidiary of the Company only if he acted as such at the request of the Company); and

(b) any employee, former employee or agent or former agent designated by the Directors, of the Company or of a corporation which is or was a subsidiary of the Company or of any other corporation of which the Company is or was a shareholder (notwithstanding that he is also a Director) and his heirs and personal representatives against all costs, charges and expenses whatsoever (including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, those specifically referred to in Article 19.1 above) incurred by him or them and resulting from his acting as an officer, employee or agent of the Company or of such corporation. The Company shall be deemed to have contracted, on the terms of the foregoing indemnity, with each such officers or former officer on his being appointed.

19.3. The failure of a person to comply with the Company Act or of the Memorandum or these Articles shall not, of itself, invalidate any indemnity to which such person is entitled under this Part.

19.4. The Directors may cause the Company to purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of:

(a) any person who is or was serving as a Director or officer of the Company or as a director or officer of a corporation which is or was a subsidiary of the Company or (if he acted as such at the request of the Company) of any other corporation of which the Company is or was a shareholder; and

(b) any person designated by the Directors who is or was serving as an employee or agent of the Company or of such corporation; and

(c) any person in respect of whom the Company is or may be obligated to indemnify pursuant to this Part 19, and his heirs and personal representatives against any liability incurred by him as such Director, director, officer, employee or agent.

19.5. If any of the provisions of this Part shall be void, illegal or invalid, the remaining provisions of this Part shall be construed and take effect as if the void, illegal or invalid provision had never been contained herein. The Company shall not be required to indemnify a person pursuant to Articles 19.1 or 19.2 if such person did not, with respect to the act or matter giving rise to the proposed indemnification, act honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company or the corporation referred to therein, as the case may be, or in the case of a criminal or administrative act or proceeding, if he did not have reasonable grounds for believing his conduct was lawful or duly authorized. The provisions of this Part 19 relating to Directors and former Directors of the Company and to directors and former directors of a corporation which is or was a subsidiary of the Company or of a corporation in which the Company is or was a shareholder also apply, with the necessary changes and so far as applicable, to alternate Directors of the Company and alternate directors of such corporations.

PART 20

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVES

20.1. Subject to the Company Act and to the special rights and restrictions as to dividends attached to any shares, the Directors may from time to time declare and authorize payment of such dividends, if any, as they may deem advisable and need not give notice of such declaration to any member. No dividend shall be paid otherwise than out of funds and/or assets properly available for the payment of dividends and a declaration by the Directors as to the amount of such funds and/or assets available for dividends shall be conclusive. The Company may pay any such dividend wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets and in particular by paid up shares, bonds, debentures or other securities of the Company or any other corporation or in any one or more such ways as may be authorized by the Company or the Directors and where any difficulty arises with regard to such a distribution the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient, and in particular may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof, and may determine that cash payments in substitution for all or any part of the specific assets to which any members are entitled shall be made to any members on the basis of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest any such specific assets in trustees or the persons entitled to the dividend as may seem expedient to the Directors.

20.2. Any dividend declared on shares of any class or series by the Directors may be made payable on such date as is fixed by the Directors.

20.3. Subject to the rights of members (if any) holding shares with special rights as to dividends, all dividends on shares of any class or series shall be declared and paid according to the number of such shares held.

20.4. The Directors may, before declaring any dividend, set aside out of the funds properly available for the payment of dividends such sums as they think proper as a reserve or reserves, which shall, at the discretion of the Directors, be applicable for meeting contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for any other purpose to which such funds of the Company may be properly applied, and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments as the Directors may from time to time think fit. The Directors may also, without placing the same in reserve, carry forward such funds, which they think prudent not to divide.

20.5. If several persons are registered as joint holders of any share, any one of them may give an effective receipt for any dividend, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share.

20.6. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company. Where the dividend to which a member is entitled includes a fraction of a cent, such fraction shall be disregarded in making payment thereof and such payment shall be deemed to be payment in full.

20.7. Any dividend, bonus or other moneys payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the holder, or in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that one of the joint holders who is first named on the register, or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may direct in writing. Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent. The mailing of such cheque or warrant shall, to the extent of the sum represented thereby (plus the amount of any tax required by law to be deducted) discharge all liability for the dividend, unless such cheque or warrant shall not be paid on presentation or the amount of tax so deducted shall not be paid to the appropriate taxing authority.

20.8. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles the Directors may from time to time capitalize any retained earnings or surplus of the Company and may issue as fully paid and non-assessable any unissued shares or any debt obligations of the Company as a dividend representing such retained earnings or surplus or any part thereof.

PART 21

DOCUMENTS, RECORDS AND REPORTS

21.1. The Company shall keep at its records office or at such other place as the Company Act may permit, the documents, copies, registers, minutes, and records which the Company is required by the Company Act to keep at its records office or such other place, as the case may be.

21.2. The Company shall cause to be kept proper books of account and accounting records in respect of all financial and other transactions of the Company in order properly to record the financial affairs and condition of the Company and to comply with the Company Act.

21.3. Unless the Directors determine otherwise, or unless otherwise determined by an ordinary resolution, no member of the Company shall be entitled to inspect the accounting records of the Company.

21.4. The Directors shall from time to time at the expense of the Company cause to be prepared and laid before the Company in general meeting such financial statements and reports as are required by the Company Act.

21.5. Every member shall be entitled to be furnished once gratis on demand with a copy of the latest annual financial statement of the Company and, if so required by the Company Act, a copy of each such annual financial statement and interim financial statement shall be mailed to each member.

PART 22

NOTICES

22.1. A notice, statement or report may be given or delivered by the Company to any member either by delivery to him personally or by sending it by mail to him to his address as recorded in the register of members. Where a notice, statement or report is sent by mail, service or delivery of the notice, statement or report shall be deemed (a) to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and mailing the notice, statement or report, and (b) to have been given on the date, Saturdays and holidays excepted, following the date of mailing. A certificate signed by the Secretary or other officer of the Company or of any other person acting in that behalf for the Company that the letter, envelope or wrapper containing the notice, statement or report was so addressed, prepaid and mailed shall be conclusive evidence thereof.

22.2. A notice, statement or report may be given or delivered by the Company to the joint holders of a share by giving the notice to the joint holder first named in the register of members in respect of the share.

22.3. A notice, statement or report may be given or delivered by the Company to the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or incapacity of a member by sending it through the mail prepaid addressed to them by name or by his title or by any like description, at the address (if any) supplied to the Company for the purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled, or (until such address has been so supplied) by giving the notice in a manner in which the same might have been given if the death, bankruptcy or incapacity had not occurred.

22.4. Notice of every general meeting or meeting of members shall be given in a manner hereinbefore authorized to every member holding at the record date for determining the members entitled to such notice shares which confer the right to notice of and to attend and vote at any such meeting. No other person except the auditor of the Company and the Directors of the Company shall be entitled to receive notices of any such meeting.

23.1. Subject to the Company Act, the Directors may fix in advance a date as the record date for the determination of the members entitled to notice of any meeting of members or any adjournment thereof, and/or a date as the record date for the determination of the members entitled to attend and vote at any meeting of members or any adjournment thereof (which may but need not be the same date as the record date for determining members entitled to notice) and/or a date as a record date for the determination of members entitled to receive payment of a dividend, or for any other proper purpose and in such case, notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in these Articles, only members or persons of record on the date so picked shall be deemed to be members for the particular purpose or purposes aforesaid.

PART 24

EXECUTION OF DOCUMENT

24.1. The Directors may provide a seal for the Company and, if they do so, shall provide for the safe custody of the seal which shall not be affixed to any instrument except in the presence of the following persons, namely;

- (a) the President or the Secretary;
- (b) any two Directors of the Company;
- (c) one of the Chairman of the Board, the President, a Director or the Vice-President together with any one of the Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, the Treasurer, the Secretary-Treasurer, an Assistant Treasurer and an Assistant Secretary-Treasurer; or
- (d) such person or persons as the Directors may from time to time by resolution appoint, and the said Directors, officers, person or persons in whose presence the seal is so affixed to an instrument shall sign such instrument. For the purpose of certifying under the seal copies or extracts from the Memorandum or Articles of the Company, minutes of meetings or resolutions of the members or Directors or committees of Directors, or any instrument executed or issued by the Company, the seal may be affixed in the presence of any one of the persons hereinbefore mentioned unless the Directors shall by resolution determine otherwise.

24.2. The signatures of any one or more of the Chairman of the Board, President, Vice-Presidents, Directors, Secretary, Treasurer, Assistant-Secretaries, Assistant-Treasurers and any other officers of the Company and any persons referred to in Article 24.1(d) may, if authorized by the Directors, be printed, lithographed, engraved or otherwise mechanically reproduced upon all instruments executed or issued by the Company; and any instrument on which the signature of any such person is so reproduced by authorization of the Directors shall be deemed to have been manually signed by such person whose signature is so reproduced and shall be, subject to the Company Act, as valid to all intents and purposes as if such instrument had been signed manually, and notwithstanding that the person whose signature is so reproduced may have ceased to hold office (if applicable) at the date of the delivery or issue of such instrument. The term "instrument" as used in Article 24.1 and this Article 24.2 shall include deeds, mortgage, hypothecs, charges, conveyances, transfers and assignments of properly, real or personal, agreements, releases, receipts and discharges for the payment of money or other obligation, certificates of the Company's shares, bonds, debentures and other securities and debt obligations of the Company, and all paper-writings.

24.3. To enable the seal of the Company to be affixed to any debt obligations, share certificates, or other securities of the Company, whether in definitive or interim form, on which facsimiles of any of the signatures of the Directors or officers of the Company are, in accordance with the Company Act and/or these Articles, printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced there may be delivered to the firm or company employed to engrave, lithograph or print such definitive or interim debt obligations, share certificates or other securities one or more unmounted dies reproducing the Company's seal and the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Managing Director or a Vice- President and the Secretary, Treasurer, Secretary-Treasurer, an Assistant Secretary, an Assistant Treasurer or an Assistant Secretary-Treasurer may by a document authorize such firm or company to cause the Company's seal to be affixed to such definitive or interim debt obligations, share certificates or other securities by the use of such dies. Debt obligations, share certificates or other securities to which the Company's seal has been so affixed shall for all purposes be deemed to be under and to bear the Company's seal lawfully affixed thereto.

24.4. The Company may have for use in any other province, state, territory or country an official seal which shall have on its face the name of the province, state, territory or country where it is to be used.

PART 25

PROHIBITIONS IF NOT A REPORTING COMPANY

25.1. If the Company is, or becomes, a company which is not a reporting company under the Company Act:

- (a) the number of members for the time being of the Company, exclusive of persons who are for the time being in the employment of the Company and continue to be members after the termination of such employment, shall not exceed 50;

(b) no securities of the Company shall be offered for sale or subscription to the public;

(c) no shares shall be transferred without the previous consent of the Directors expressed by a resolution of the Board and the Directors shall not be required to give any reason for refusing to consent to any such proposed transfer.

ARTICLES

U-HAUL INSPECTIONS LTD.

PART 1

INTERPRETATION

1.1. In these Articles, unless there is something in the subject or context inconsistent therewith:

"Board" and "the Directors" or "the directors" or "the Board of Directors" mean the Directors or sole Director of the Company for the time being;

"Company Act" means the Company Act of the Province of British Columbia as from time to time in force and all amendments thereto and includes the regulations made pursuant thereto;

"Interpretation Act" means the Interpretation Act of the Province of British Columbia as and from time to time in force and all amendments thereto and includes the regulations made pursuant thereto;

"proxyholder" means a person duly appointed by a registered holder to represent him at a meeting;

"registered address" of a member or registered holder means his address as recorded in the register of members;

"registered owner" or "registered holder" when used with respect to a share in the authorized capital of the Company means the person registered in the register of members in respect of such share;

"seal" means the common seal of the Company.

Expressions referring to writing shall be construed as including references to printing, lithography, typewriting, photography and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form.

Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa; and words importing male persons include female persons and words importing individuals shall include corporations and vice versa.

1.2. The meaning of any words or phrases defined in the Company Act and the Interpretation Act shall, if not inconsistent with definitions herein or with the subject or context, bear the same meaning in these Articles provided that in the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the Company Act and the Interpretation Act, the former shall govern.

1.3. Except as may be otherwise provided expressly or by necessary implication in the Company Act, the rules of construction contained in the Interpretation Act shall apply, with the necessary changes and so far as applicable, to the interpretation of these Articles.

PART 2

SHARES AND SHARE CERTIFICATE

2.1. Every member is entitled without charge, to one certificate representing the shares of each class or series held by him. If a member requests the Company to issue to him more than one share certificate for any shares of the same class or series registered in his name, the Directors may prescribe the fee to be paid for each additional certificate. In respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint registered holders or to his duly authorized agent shall be sufficient delivery to all; and provided further that the Company shall not be bound to issue certificates representing redeemable shares, if such shares are to be redeemed within one month of the date on which they were allotted. Any share certificate may be sent through the mail by registered prepaid mail to the member entitled thereto at his registered address, and neither the Company nor any transfer agent shall be liable for any loss occasioned to the member owing to any such share certificate so sent being lost in the mail, stolen or destroyed

2.2. If a share certificate:

(a) is worn out or defaced, the Company shall, upon production to it of the said certificate and upon such other terms, if any, as the Directors prescribe, order the said certificate to be cancelled and shall issue a new certificate in replacement thereof; or

(b) is lost, stolen or destroyed, then, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors and upon such indemnity, if any, as the Directors deem adequate being given, a new share certificate in lieu thereof shall be issued to the person entitled to such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate.

Such sum, not exceeding the amount permitted by the Company Act, as the Directors may from time to time fix, shall be paid to the Company for each certificate to be issued under this Article.

2.3. Save in the case of the personal representatives of a deceased member, the Directors may refuse to register more than three persons as the joint holders of a share.

2.4. Every share certificate shall be signed manually by at least one officer or Director of the Company, or by or on behalf of a registrar, branch registrar, transfer agent or branch transfer agent of the Company and any additional signatures may be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced and, in such event, a certificate so signed is as valid as if signed manually, notwithstanding that any person whose signature is so printed or mechanically reproduced shall have ceased to hold the office that he is stated on such certificate to hold at the date of the issue of a share certificate.

2.5. Except as required by law or these Articles, no person shall be recognized by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or compelled in any way to recognize (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or in any fractional part of a share or (except only as by law or these Articles provided or as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in its registered holder.

PART 3

ISSUE OF SHARES

3.1. Subject to the Company Act, the Memorandum and these Articles and to the rights of holders of issued shares arising under the Company Act or otherwise, the shares shall be under the control of the Directors who may issue, allot, sell or otherwise dispose of, and/or grant options on or otherwise deal in, shares authorized but not outstanding, and outstanding shares (including shares purchased or redeemed by the Company but not cancelled) held by the Company, at such times, to such persons (including Directors), in such manner, upon such terms and conditions, and at such price or for such consideration, as they may determine.

3.2. The Directors may authorize the issue of share purchase or subscription warrants to the purchasers or holders of any debt obligations or other evidences of indebtedness or other obligations or shares of the Company, upon such terms and subject to such restrictions as they may determine.

3.3. Subject to the provisions of the Company Act, the Company, or the Directors on behalf of the Company, may pay a commission or allow a discount to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in, or securities of, the Company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any such shares or securities, provided that, if the Company is not a specially limited company, the rate of the commission and discount shall not in the aggregate exceed 25 per centum of the amount of the subscription price of such shares. The Directors may also on any issue or sale of shares or other securities cause the Company to pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

3.4. Subject to the exceptions permitted by the Company Act, no share may be issued until it is fully paid and the Company shall have received the full consideration therefor in cash, property or past services actually performed for the Company. The value of property or services for the purpose of this Article shall be the amount determined by the Directors by resolution to be, in all circumstances of the transaction, no greater than the fair market value thereof.

3.5. If the Company is, or becomes, a company which is not a reporting company and the Directors are required by the Company Act before allotting any shares to offer them pro rata to the members, the Directors shall, before allotting any shares, comply with the applicable provisions of the Company Act.

PART 4

SHARE REGISTERS

4.1. The Company shall keep or cause to be kept a register of members, a register of transfers and a register of allotments within British Columbia, all as required by the Company Act, and may combine one or more of such registers. If the Company's capital shall consist of more than one class or series of shares, a separate register of members, register of transfers and register of allotments may be kept in respect of each class or series of shares. The Directors may appoint a trust company to keep the register of members, register of transfers and register of allotments or, if there is more than one class or series of shares, the Directors may appoint a trust company, which need not be the same trust company, to keep the register of members, the register of transfers and the register of allotments for each class or series of shares. The Directors may also appoint one or more trust companies, including the trust company which keeps the said registers of its shares or of a class or series thereof, as transfer agent or branch transfer agent for its shares or a class or series thereof, as the case may be, and the same or another trust company or companies as registrar for its shares or a class or series thereof, as the case may be. The Directors may terminate the appointment of any trust company referred to in this Article or in Article 4.2 at any time and may appoint another trust company in its place.

4.2. Subject to the Company Act, the Company may keep or cause to be kept branch registers of members at such places as the Directors may determine, provided that any such branch register kept within British Columbia shall be kept by a trust company.

4.3. The Company shall not at any time close its register of members.

PART 5

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

5.1. Subject to the Memorandum and these Articles, any member may transfer any of his shares by instrument in writing executed by or on behalf of such member. The instrument of transfer of any share of the Company shall be in the form, if any, on the back of the Company's share certificates or in any usual or common form or in such other form as the Directors may from time to time approve. Except to the extent that the Company Act may otherwise provide, the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members or a branch register of members in respect thereof.

5.2. The signature of the registered owner of any shares, or of his duly authorized attorney, upon an authorized instrument of transfer delivered to the Company shall constitute a complete and sufficient authority to the Company, its Directors, officers and agents to register, in the name of the transferee as named in the instrument of transfer, the number of shares specified therein or, if no number is specified, all the shares of the registered owner represented by share certificates deposited with the instrument of transfer. If no transferee is named in the instrument of transfer, the instrument shall constitute a complete and sufficient authority to the Company, its directors, officers and agents to register, in the name of the person on whose behalf any certificate for the shares to be transferred is deposited with the Company for the purpose of having the transfer registered, the number of shares specified in the instrument of transfer or, if no number is specified, all the shares represented by all share certificates deposited with the instrument of transfer.

5.3. Neither the Company nor any Director, officer or agent thereof shall be bound to inquire into the title of the person named in the form of transfer as transferee, or, if no person is named therein as transferee, of the person on whose behalf the certificate is deposited with the Company for the purpose of having the transfer registered or be liable to any claim by such registered owner or by any intermediate owner or holder of the certificate or of any of the shares represented thereby or any interest therein for registering the transfer, and the transfer, when registered, shall confer upon the person in whose name the shares have been registered a valid title to such shares.

5.4. Every instrument of transfer shall be executed by the transferor and left at the registered office of the Company or at the office of its transfer agent or branch transfer agent or registrar or branch registrar for the shares to be transferred for registration together with the share certificate for the shares to be transferred and such other evidence, if any, as the Directors or the transfer agent or branch transfer agent or registrar or branch registrar may require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares and the right of the transferee to have the transfer registered. All instruments of transfer or a photographic reproduction thereof, if the transfer is registered, shall be retained by the Company or its transfer agent or branch transfer agent or registrar or branch registrar and any instrument of transfer, if the transfer is not registered, shall be returned to the person depositing the same together with the share certificate which accompanied the same when tendered for registration.

5.5. There shall be paid to the Company in respect of the registration of any transfer such sum, if any, as the Directors may from time to time determine.

5.6. In the case of the death of a member, the survivors where the deceased was a joint registered holder, and the personal representatives of the deceased where he was the sole registered holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to the deceased's interest in the shares registered in his name. Before recognizing any person's representative the Directors may require him to deliver to the Company the documents required by the Company Act and such other evidence as the Directors may require of the personal representative's appointment, including a grant of probate, letters of administration or other similar documentation from the jurisdiction in which the shares are to be transferred, and of the payment or satisfaction of all taxes, duties, fees and other similar assessments payable to any governmental authority of any applicable jurisdiction with respect to the shares arising out of the member's death.

5.7. A guardian, committee, trustee, curator, tutor, personal representative or trustee in bankruptcy of a member, although not a member himself, shall have the same rights, privileges and obligations that attach to the shares held by the member if the documents and evidence referred in Article 5.6 are delivered to the Company. This Article does not apply on the death of a member with respect to shares registered in his name and the name of another person in joint tenancy.

5.8. Any person referred to in Article 5.7 who becomes entitled to shares of a member, upon the documents and evidence referred to in Article 5.6 being delivered to the Company, has the right either to be registered as a member in his representative capacity in respect of such shares, or, if he is a personal representative, instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the shares as the member could have made; but the Directors shall, as regards a transfer by any such person, have the same right, if any, to decline registration of a transferee as they would have in the case of a transfer of the shares by the member.

PART 6

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

6.1. The Company may by ordinary resolution amend its Memorandum to increase the authorized capital of the Company by:

- (a) creating shares with par value or shares without par value, or both;
- (b) increasing the number of shares with par value or shares without par value, or both; or
- (c) increasing the par value of a class of shares with par value, if no shares of that class are issued.

6.2. The Company may by special resolution alter its Memorandum to subdivide, consolidate, change from shares with par value to shares without par value, or from shares without par value to shares with par value, or change the designation of, all or any of its shares but only to such extent, in such manner and with such consents of members holding a class or series of shares which is the subject of or affected by such alteration, as the Company Act provides.

6.3. The Company may alter its Memorandum or these Articles by such resolution as is permitted by the Company Act and by otherwise complying with any applicable provisions of the Memorandum or these Articles, to create, define and attach special rights or restrictions to any shares and to vary or abrogate any special rights and restrictions attached to any shares.

6.4. No right or special right attached to the issued shares of any class or series shall be prejudiced or interfered with unless the consents of the holders of the shares of each such class or series required by the Company Act are obtained. Notwithstanding such consent, no right or special right attached to any issued shares shall be prejudiced or interfered with as to any part of issued shares of any class or series unless the holders of the rest of the issued shares of such class or series either all consent thereto in writing or consent thereto by a resolution passed by the votes of members holding three-fourths of the rest of such class or series.

6.5. Subject to the Company Act, and unless these Articles or the Memorandum otherwise provide, the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings shall apply, with the necessary changes and so far as they are applicable, to a class or series meeting of members holding a particular class or series of shares but the quorum at a class or series meeting shall be one person holding in person or by proxy not less than one-third of the issued shares of that class or series, as the case may be.

6.6. The Company may, by resolution of the Directors, alter the Memorandum by cancelling shares which are not allotted or issued, or which are surrendered to the Company either by way of gift or otherwise in accordance with the Company Act, and diminish its authorized capital accordingly.

6.7. The rights, or special rights or restrictions attached to the shares of any class or series shall, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms, if any, of such rights, or special rights or restrictions be deemed not to be modified, abrogated, varied or dealt with by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.

PART 7

PURCHASE AND REDEMPTION OF SHARES

7.1. Subject to the special rights and restrictions attached to any shares, the Company may, by resolution of the Directors and in compliance with the Company Act, purchase any of its shares at the price and upon the terms specified in such resolution, or redeem any of its shares which have a right of redemption attached to them. No such purchase or redemption shall be made if the Company is insolvent at the time of the proposed purchase or redemption or if the proposed purchase or redemption would render the Company insolvent. Unless the shares are to be purchased through a stock exchange or the Company is purchasing the shares from dissenting members pursuant to the requirements of the Company Act, or from a bona fide employee or former employee of the Company or an affiliate of the Company or his personal representative in respect of shares beneficially owned by such employee or former employee, the Company shall, if required by the Company Act, make its offer to purchase pro rata to every member who holds shares of the class or series, as the case may be, to be purchased.

7.2. If the Company proposes at its option to redeem some but not all of the shares of any class or series, the Directors may, subject to the special rights and restrictions attached to the shares of such class or series, decide the manner in which the shares to be redeemed shall be selected, and, subject as aforesaid, need not redeem pro rata.

7.3. Subject to the Company Act and the Memorandum, any shares purchased or redeemed by the Company, if not cancelled, may be sold or, if cancelled (but still in the Company's authorized capital), may be reissued, but, while such shares which have not been cancelled are held by the Company, it shall not exercise any vote in respect of such shares and no dividend or other distribution shall be paid or made thereon.

PART 8

BORROWING POWERS

8.1. Subject to the Company Act, the Directors may authorize and cause the Company to:

- (a) borrow money in such manner and amounts, on such security, or without security, from such sources and upon such terms and conditions as they think fit;
- (b) guarantee the repayment of money by any other person or the performance of any obligation of any other person;
- (c) issue debt obligations, or other evidences of obligations or indebtedness, either outright or as security for any liability or obligation of the Company or any other person;
- (d) mortgage, charge, whether by way of specific or floating charge, or both, or give other security on the undertaking, or on the whole or any part of the property and assets, of the Company (both present and future); and
- (e) for the purposes of the Special Corporate Powers Act of the Province of Quebec and without in any way limiting the powers conferred upon the Company and the Directors by the foregoing or by any other provisions of these Articles, or by the Memorandum, or by the Company Act, for the purpose of securing any notes, bonds, debentures or debenture stock which it is by law entitled to, issue, hypothecate, mortgage or pledge, and cede and transfer, any property, moveable, or immovable, present or future, which it may own in the Province of Quebec.

8.2. Any debt obligations of the Company may be issued at a discount, premium or otherwise, and with any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of or conversion into or exchange for shares or other securities, attending and voting at general meetings of the Company appointment or election of Directors, or otherwise, and may by their terms be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom they are issued or any other person who subsequently acquires the same, all as the Directors may determine.

8.3. The Company shall keep or cause to be kept within the Province of British Columbia in accordance with the Company Act a register of its debentures and a register of debentureholders, which registers may be combined, and if there is more than one series of debentures a separate register of debentures and debentureholders may be kept in respect of each series. The Directors may appoint a trust company to keep the register of debentureholders. Subject to the Company Act, the Company may keep or cause to be kept branch registers of its debentureholders at such places as the Directors may determine, provided that any such branch register kept within British Columbia shall be kept by a trust company. The Directors may also appoint a trust company as transfer agent or branch transfer agent for its debentures or a series thereof. The Directors may terminate the appointment of any such trust company at any time and may appoint another trust company in its place.

8.4. Every debt obligation of the Company shall be signed manually by at least one Director or officer of the Company or by or on behalf of a trustee, registrar, branch registrar, transfer agent or branch transfer agent for the debt obligation appointed by the Company or under any instrument under which the debt obligation is issued, or by or on behalf of a trustee who certifies it in accordance with a trust indenture, and any additional signatures may be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced thereon and, in such event, a debt obligation so signed is as valid as if signed manually notwithstanding that any person whose signature is so printed or mechanically reproduced shall have ceased to hold the office that he is stated on such debt obligation to hold at the date of the issue thereof.

8.5. If the Company is or becomes a reporting company, the Company shall keep or cause to be kept a register of its indebtedness to every Director or officer of the Company or an associate of any of them in accordance with the provisions of the Company Act.

PART 9

GENERAL MEETINGS

9.1. Annual general meetings of the Company shall be held as required by the Company Act at such time and place as is determined by the Directors.

9.2. If the Company is, or becomes, a company which is not a reporting company, and all the members entitled to attend and vote at an annual general meeting consent in writing to all the business which is required or desired to be transacted at the meeting, the meeting need not be held, and shall be deemed to have been held on the date specified in such written consent, or, failing such a date being specified, on the date all such members consent thereto. A written consent for the purposes of this Article 9.2 may be given by any method or means authorized by Article 16.9 for consenting in writing to a resolution.

9.3. All general meetings other than annual general meetings are herein referred to as and may be called extraordinary general meetings or special general meetings:

9.4. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, convene a special general meeting. A special general meeting, if requisitioned in accordance with the Company Act, shall be convened by the Directors or, if not convened by the Directors, may be convened by the requisitionists as provided in the Company Act.

9.5. If the Company is or becomes a reporting company, advance notice of any general meeting at which Directors are to be elected shall be published in the manner required by the Company Act.

9.6. A notice convening a general meeting specifying the place, the day, and the hour of the meeting, and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business, shall be given as provided in the Company Act and in the manner hereinafter in these Articles mentioned, or in such other manner (if any) as may be prescribed by ordinary resolution, whether previous notice thereof has been given or not, to such persons as are entitled by law or under these Articles to receive such notice from the Company. Accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting, by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

9.7. All the members of the Company entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting may, by unanimous consent in writing given before, during or after the meeting, or if they are present at the meeting by a unanimous vote, waive or reduce the period of notice of such meeting and an entry in the minute book of such waiver or reduction shall be sufficient evidence of the due convening of the meeting. A consent in writing for the purposes of this Article 9.7 may be given by any method or means authorized by Article 16.9 for consenting in writing to a resolution.

9.8. Except as otherwise provided by the Company Act, where any special business at a general meeting includes considering, approving, ratifying, adopting or authorizing any document or the execution thereof or the giving of effect thereto, the notice convening the meeting shall, with respect to such document, be sufficient if it states that a copy of the document is or will be available for inspection by members at the registered office or records office of the Company or at some other place in British Columbia designated in the notice during usual business hours on specified dates prior to the date of such meeting.

PART 10

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

10.1. All business shall be deemed special business which is transacted at:

(a) a special general meeting other than the conduct of and voting at, such meeting; and

(b) an annual general meeting, with the exception of the conduct of, and voting at, such meeting, the consideration of the financial statement and of the respective reports of the Directors and Auditor, fixing or changing the number of Directors, electing Directors, appointing the Auditor, fixing the remuneration of the Auditor and the Directors if applicable, and such business as by these Articles or the Company Act may be transacted at a general Meeting without prior notice thereof being given to the members and any business which is brought under consideration by the report of the Directors.

10.2. No business, other than election of the chairman or the adjournment of the meeting, shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members, entitled to attend and vote, is present at the commencement of the meeting, but the quorum need not be present throughout the meeting.

10.3. Save as herein otherwise provided, a quorum for a meeting shall be two persons present and being, or representing by proxy, members holding not less than one-twentieth of the issued shares entitled to be voted at the meeting. If there is only one member the quorum is one person present and being, or representing by proxy, such member. The Directors, the Secretary, an Assistant Secretary and a solicitor of the Company shall be entitled to attend at any general meeting but no such person shall be counted in the quorum or vote at any meeting unless he shall be a member or proxyholder entitled to vote thereat.

10.4. If within half an hour from the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and, if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the person or persons present and being, or representing by proxy, a member or members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting shall be a quorum.

10.5. The Chairman of the Board, if any, or in his absence the President of the Company or in his absence a Vice- President of the Company, if any, shall be entitled to preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company.

10.6. If at any general meeting neither the Chairman of the Board nor President nor a Vice-President is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is willing to act as chairman, the Directors present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman, or if all the persons occupying the said offices shall have advised the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary that they will not be present at a meeting, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman or if no Director is present, the members and proxyholders present may choose one of their number to be a chairman. If a person willing to act is not chosen as chairman in accordance with these provisions within 45 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

10.7. The chairman may and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn a meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice, but not, "advance notice" referred to in Article 9.5, of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

10.8. No motion proposed at a general meeting need be seconded, and the chairman, a director, a member or a proxyholder may propose or second a motion.

10.9. Subject to the provisions of the Company Act, at any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is directed by the chairman or demanded by at least one member or proxyholder entitled to vote who is present. The chairman shall declare to the meeting the decision on every question in accordance with the result of the show of hands or the pool, and such decision shall be entered in the book of proceedings of the Company. A declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the book of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.

10.10. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.

10.11. No poll may be demanded on the election of a chairman. A poll demanded on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken as soon as, in the opinion of the chairman, is reasonably convenient, but in no event later than seven days after the meeting and at such time and place and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be resolution of and passed at the meeting at which the poll was demanded. Any business other than that upon which the poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn. In any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote the decision of the chairman made in good faith shall be final and conclusive. In the event of a poll by mail, the seven days limit hereinbefore prescribed shall be deemed to be satisfied if the ballot is mailed within seven days and specifies a date by which completed ballots must be received to be counted in the poll that date being such date as the chairman in the reasonable exercise of his discretion thinks is appropriate, but being in no event later than twenty-one days after the mailing of the ballot form.

10.12. Every ballot cast upon a poll and every proxy appointing a proxyholder who casts a ballot upon a poll shall be retained by the Secretary for such period and be subject to such inspection as the Company Act may provide.

10.13. On a poll a person entitled to cast more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

10.14. Unless the Company Act, the Memorandum or these Articles otherwise provide, any action to be taken by a resolution of the members may be taken by an ordinary resolution.

PART 11

VOTES OF MEMBERS

11.2. Any person who is not registered as a member but is entitled to vote at any meeting in respect of a share, may vote the share in the same manner as if he were a member; but, unless the Directors have previously admitted his right to vote at that meeting in respect of the share, he shall satisfy the Directors or the Secretary of his right to vote the share before the time for holding the meeting, or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which he proposes to vote, and unless he shall so satisfy the Directors or the Secretary he shall not be entitled to vote that share.

11.3. Any corporation not being a subsidiary which is a member of the Company may authorize such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting. The person so authorized shall be entitled to exercise in respect of and at such meeting the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company personally present, including, without limitation, the right to appoint a proxyholder to represent such corporation, and shall, if present at the meeting, be counted for the purpose of forming a quorum and be deemed to be a member present at the meeting. Evidence of the appointment of any such representative may be sent to the Company by written instrument, telegram, telex or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a corporation being a member and entitled to vote may appoint a proxyholder.

11.4. In the case of joint registered holders of a share the vote of the senior who exercises a vote, whether in person or by proxyholder, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint registered holders; and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members, the person whose name stands first being senior to the person whose name stands second, and so on. Several legal personal representatives of the deceased member whose shares are registered in his sole name shall for the purpose of this Article be deemed joint registered holders.

11.5. A member of unsound mind entitled to attend and vote, in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee, curator bonis, or other person in the nature of a committee or curator bonis appointed by that court, and any such committee, curator bonis, or other person may appoint a proxyholder.

11.6. A member holding more than one share in respect of which he is entitled to vote shall be entitled to appoint one or more, but not more than three, proxyholders to attend, act and vote for him on the same occasion. If such a member should appoint more than one proxyholder for the same occasion he shall specify the number of shares each proxyholder shall be entitled to vote. A member may also appoint one or more alternate proxyholders to act in the place and stead of an absent proxyholder.

11.7. A proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorized in writing, or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under the seal of the corporation or under the hand of a duly authorized officer or attorney. A proxyholder need not be a member of the Company.

11.8. Unless otherwise permitted by the Directors, a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy thereof shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than 48 hours (excluding Saturdays and holidays) before the time for holding the meeting in respect of which the person named in the instrument is appointed. In addition to any other method of depositing proxies provided for in these Articles, the Directors may, subject to the Company Act, make regulations relating to the depositing of proxies at any place or places and fixing the time or times for depositing the proxies prior to the meeting or adjourned meeting at which they are to be used and providing for particulars of such proxies to be sent to the Company or any agent of the Company in writing or by letter, telegram, telex or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages so as to arrive before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at the office of the Company or of any agent of the Company appointed for the purpose of receiving such particulars and providing that proxies so deposited may be acted upon as though the proxies themselves were deposited as required by this Part and votes given in accordance with such regulations shall be valid and shall be counted.

11.9. Unless the Company Act or any other statute or law which is applicable to the Company or to any class of its shares requires any other form of proxy, a proxy, whether for a specified meeting or otherwise, shall be in the form following, but may also be in any other form that the Directors or the chairman of the meeting shall approve:

PROXY

The undersigned, being a member of _____, hereby appoints _____, or failing him, _____, as proxyholder for the undersigned to attend, act and vote for and on behalf of the undersigned at the annual or extraordinary (as the case may be) general meeting of the Company to be held on the ___ day of _____, 19__ and at any adjournment thereof.

Signed this ___ day of _____, 19__.

(Signature of member)

11.10. A vote given in accordance with the terms of a proxy is valid notwithstanding the previous death or incapacity of the member giving the proxy or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the form of proxy was executed or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no notification in writing of such death, incapacity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the chairman of the meeting or adjourned meeting for which the proxy was given before the vote is taken.

11.11. Every proxy may be revoked by an instrument in writing:

(a) executed by the member giving the same or by his attorney authorized in writing or, where the member is a corporation, by a duly authorized officer or attorney of the corporation; and

or in any other manner provided by law.

PART 12

DIRECTORS

12.1. If the Company is an amalgamated Company, the first Directors shall be the persons so specified in the amalgamation agreement. The Directors to succeed the first Directors, after incorporation of the Company, may be appointed in writing by a majority of the subscribers to the Memorandum or at a meeting of the subscribers, or if not so appointed, they shall be elected by the members entitled to vote on the election of Directors and the number of Directors shall be the same as the number of Directors so appointed or elected. The number of Directors, excluding additional Directors, may be fixed or changed from time to time by ordinary resolution, whether previous notice thereof has been given or not, but notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles the number of Directors shall never be less than one or, if the Company is or becomes a reporting company, less than three.

12.2. The remuneration of the Directors as such may from time to time be determined by the Directors or, if the Directors shall so decide, by the members. Such remuneration may be in addition to any salary or other remuneration paid to any officer or employee of the Company as such who is also a Director. The Directors shall be repaid such reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses as they incur in and about the business of the Company (including, if authorized by resolution of the Directors in respect of the Directors generally, those incurred in attending meetings of the Directors or of any committees of the Directors) and if any Director shall perform any professional or other services for the Company that in the opinion of the Directors are outside the ordinary duties of a Director or shall otherwise be specially occupied in or about the Company's business, he may be paid a remuneration to be fixed by the Board, or, at the option of such Director, by the Company in general meeting, and such remuneration may be either in addition to, or in substitution for any other remuneration that he may be entitled to receive. The Directors on behalf of the Company, unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, may pay a gratuity or pension or allowance on retirement to any Director who has held any salaried office or place of profit with the Company or to his spouse or dependents and may make contributions to any fund and pay premiums for the purchase or provision of any such gratuity, pension or allowance.

12.3. A Director shall not be required to hold a share in the capital of the Company as qualification for his office but shall be qualified as required by the Company Act, to become or act as a Director.

PART 13

ELECTION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

13.1. At each annual general meeting of the Company all the Directors shall retire and the members entitled to vote thereat shall elect a Board of Directors consisting of the number of Directors for the time being fixed pursuant to these Articles. If the Company is, or becomes, a company that is not a reporting company and the business to be transacted at any annual general meeting is consented to in writing by all the members who are entitled to attend and vote thereat such annual general meeting shall be deemed for the purpose of this Part to have been held on such written consent becoming effective.

13.2. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.

13.3. Where the Company fails to hold an annual general meeting in accordance with the Company Act, the Directors then in office shall be deemed to have been elected or appointed as Directors on the last day on which the annual general meeting could have been held pursuant to these Articles and they may hold office until other Directors are appointed or elected or until the day on which the next annual general meeting is held.

13.4. If at any general meeting at which there should be an election of Directors, the places of any of the retiring Directors are not filled by such election, such of the retiring Directors who are not re-elected as may be requested by the newly-elected Directors shall, if willing to do so, continue in office to complete the number of Directors for the time being fixed pursuant to these Articles until further new Directors are elected. If any such election or continuance of Directors does not result in the election or continuance of the number of Directors for the time being fixed pursuant to these Articles such number shall be fixed at the number of Directors actually elected or continued in office. If no Directors are elected at such meeting the retiring Directors shall be deemed to have been re-elected, but nothing herein shall prohibit or restrict the right of a Director to resign.

13.5. Subject to Article 16.7, any casual vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by the remaining Directors or Director.

13.6. Between successive annual general meetings the Board of Directors shall itself have power to appoint one or more additional Directors of the Company but the number of Directors so appointed shall not at any time exceed one-third of the number of Directors elected at the last general meeting at which Directors were elected. Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting of the Company, but shall be eligible for election at such meeting and so long as he is an additional Director the number of Directors shall be increased accordingly.

13.7. Any Director may by instrument in writing delivered to the Company appoint any person to be his alternate to act in his place at meetings of the Directors at which he is not present unless the Directors shall have reasonably disapproved the appointment of such person as an alternate Director and shall have given notice to that effect to the Director appointing the alternate Director within a reasonable time after delivery of such instrument to the Company. Every such alternate shall be entitled to notice of meetings of the Directors and to attend, be counted in the quorum and vote as a Director at a meeting at which the person appointing him is not personally present, and, if the alternate is a Director in his own right, to be separately counted in the determination of a quorum on behalf of the Director or Directors he is representing and to have a separate vote on behalf of the Director or Directors he is representing. Every such alternate, to the extent not restricted by the instrument appointing him, may sign on behalf of the Director or Directors who appointed him, resolutions submitted to the Directors to be consented to in writing, as referred to in Article 16.9, and shall be deemed to be a Director for the purposes of so signing such resolutions. Save as aforesaid or as expressly otherwise provided in these Articles, an alternate Director shall not generally have the power to act as a Director. A Director may at any time by instrument in writing revoke the appointment of an alternate appointed by him. The remuneration if any payable to such an alternate Director shall be payable out of the remuneration of the Director appointing him. The appointment or revocation of the appointment of an alternate Director may be by telegram, telex or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages delivered to the Company.

13.8. In addition to the provisions of Article 13.1 and Article 13.9, a Director shall cease to hold office if he:

- (a) resigns his office by notice in writing delivered to the registered office of the Company, or
- (b) is convicted of an indictable offence and the other Directors shall have resolved to remove him; or
- (c) ceases to be qualified to act as a Director pursuant to the Company Act.

The appointment of an alternate Director shall terminate if:

- (a) the Director who appointed him at any time or by notice to the Company revokes his appointment; or
- (b) he resigns by notice to the Company; or
- (c) the Director who appointed him ceases for any reason to be a Director; or
- (d) he is convicted of an indictable offence and the other Directors shall have resolved to remove him; or
- (e) he ceases to hold the qualifications necessary for a Director pursuant to the Company Act; or
- (f) the term of his appointment, if any, expires.

13.9. The Company may by special resolution remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office, and may by an ordinary resolution appoint another person in his stead.

PART 14

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

14.1. The Directors shall manage, or supervise the management of, the affairs and business of the Company and shall have the authority to exercise all such powers of the Company as are not, by the Company Act or by the Memorandum or these Articles, required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting.

14.2. The Directors may from time to time by power of attorney or other instrument under the seal, appoint any person to be the attorney of the Company for such purposes, and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these Articles and excepting the powers of the Directors relating to the constitution of the Board and of any of its committees and the appointment or removal of officers and the power to declare dividends) and for such period, with such remuneration and subject to such conditions as the Directors may think fit, and any such power of attorney or other instrument may contain such provisions for the protection or convenience of persons dealing with such attorney as the Directors think fit. Any such attorney may be authorized by the Directors to subdelegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions for the time being vested in him.

PART 15

DISCLOSURE OF INTEREST OF DIRECTORS

15.1. A Director who:

(a) is, in any way, directly or indirectly interested in an existing or proposed contract or transaction with the Company; or shall declare the nature and extent of his interest in such contract or transaction or of the conflict or potential conflict with his duty and interest as a Director, as the case may be, in accordance with the Company Act. A Director interested in a contract or transaction as aforesaid shall be counted in the quorum at a meeting of the Directors at which the proposed contract or transaction is approved, if present at the meeting, and such Director may vote in respect of the approval of the contract or transaction. If he votes he may be liable to account for any profit in accordance with the provisions of the Company Act.

(b) holds any office or possesses any property whereby, directly or indirectly, a duty or interest may be created to conflict with his duty or interest as a Director,

15.2. A Director may hold any office or place of profit with the Company (other than the office of auditor of the Company) in addition to his office of Director for such period and on such terms (as to remuneration or otherwise) as the Directors may determine and no Director or intended Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company either with regard to his tenure of any such other office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, and, subject to compliance with the provisions of the Company Act, no contract or transaction entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which a Director is in any way interested shall be liable to be voided by reason thereof.

15.3. Subject to the Company Act, a Director or his firm may act in a professional capacity for the Company (except as auditor of the Company) and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a Director.

15.4. A Director may be or become a director or other officer or employee of, or otherwise interested in, any corporation or firm in which the Company may be interested as a shareholder or otherwise, and, subject to compliance with the provisions of the Company Act, such Director shall not be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefits received by him as director, officer or employee of, or from his interest in, such other corporation or firm.

PART 16

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

16.1. The Chairman of the Board, if any, or in his absence, the President shall preside as chairman at every meeting of the Directors, or if there is no Chairman of the Board or neither the Chairman of the Board nor the President is present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for holding the meeting or is willing to act as chairman, or, if the Chairman of the Board, if any, and the President have advised the Secretary that they will not be present at the meeting, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

16.2. Subject to these Articles, the Directors may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings, as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes the chairman shall not have a second or casting vote. Meetings of the Board held at regular intervals may be held at such place, at such time and upon such notice (if any) as the Board may by resolution from time to time determine.

16.3. A Director may participate in a meeting of the Board or of any committee of the Directors by means of conference telephones or other communications facilities by means of which all Directors participating in the meeting can hear each other and provided that all such Directors agree to such participation. A Director participating in a meeting in accordance with this Article shall be deemed to be present at the meeting and to have so agreed and shall be counted in the quorum therefor and be entitled to speak and vote thereat.

16.4. A Director may, and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary upon request of a Director shall, call a meeting of the Board at any time. Reasonable notice of such meeting specifying the place, day and hour of such meeting shall be given by mail, postage prepaid, addressed to each of the Directors and alternate Directors at his address as it appears on the books of the Company or by leaving it at his usual business or residential address or by telephone, telegram, telex, or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of Directors to any Director if such meeting is to be held immediately following a general meeting at which such Director shall have been elected or is the meeting of Directors at which such Director is appointed.

16.5. Any Director or alternate Director may file with the Secretary a document executed by him waiving notice of any past, present or future meeting or meetings of the Directors being, or required to have been, sent to him and may at any time withdraw such waiver with respect to meetings held after such withdrawal. After filing such waiver with respect to future meetings and until such waiver is withdrawn no notice need be given to such Director and, unless the Director otherwise requires in writing to the Secretary, to his alternate Director of any meeting of Directors and all meetings of the Directors so held shall be deemed not to be improperly called or constituted by reason of notice not having been given to such Director or alternate Director. A waiver as aforesaid may be given by telegram, telex or other method of transmitting legibly recorded messages.

16.6. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors may be fixed by the Directors and if not so fixed shall be that number of Directors that is a majority of the number of Directors positions then fixed for the Company, whether or not each position is filled.

16.7. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the number that, pursuant to these Articles, is the necessary quorum for meetings of the Directors, the continuing Directors may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to that number, or of summoning a general meeting of the Company, but for no other purpose.

16.8. Subject to the Company Act, all acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors, or by any person acting as a Director, shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the qualification, election or appointment of any Director or person acting as aforesaid, be as valid as if every such person had been duly elected or appointed and was qualified to be a Director.

16.9. A resolution consented to in writing (which resolution may be in counterparts which together shall be deemed to constitute one resolution in writing) whether by document, telegram, telex or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages or other means, by all of the Directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors duly called and held on the date, expressly or by necessary implication stated thereon to be the effective date of the passage or adoption of the resolution. In the event of counterparts bearing expressly or by implication different effective dates, then in the absence of a further resolution of the Directors in that regard, the date the resolution is passed or adopted shall be deemed to be the latest effective date stated on any counterpart.

PART 17

EXECUTIVE AND OTHER COMMITTEES

17.1. The Directors may appoint an Executive Committee to consist of such member or members of their body as they think fit, which Committee shall have, and may exercise during the intervals between the meetings of the Directors, all the powers vested in the Directors except the power to fill vacancies in the Board of Directors, the power to change the membership of, or fill vacancies in, said Committee and such other powers, if any, as may be specified by the Directors.

17.2. The Directors may appoint committees consisting of such members of their body as they think fit and may delegate to any such committee any power of the Directors (except the power to fill vacancies in the Board of Directors, the power to change the membership of, or fill vacancies in, any committee of the Directors and the power to appoint or remove officers appointed by the Directors), subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Directors.

17.3. If the Company is or becomes a reporting company, the Directors shall appoint an audit committee at such time and consisting of such members of their body as they think fit subject to the Company Act. The audit committee shall exercise the powers and perform the functions of an audit committee as described in the Company Act. In addition, the Directors may delegate to the audit committee any power of the Directors (except the power to fill vacancies in the Board of Directors, the power to change the membership of, or fill vacancies in, any committee of the Directors and the power to appoint or remove officers appointed by the Directors), subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Directors.

17.4. All committees of Directors shall keep regular minutes of their proceedings and meetings and shall cause them to be recorded in books kept for that purpose, and shall report the same to the Directors at such times as the Directors may from time to time require. Committees may make rules for the conduct of their business and may appoint such assistants as they may deem necessary. A majority of the members of a committee shall constitute a quorum thereof. Save as set out in this Part 17 or in the rules made by a committee as aforesaid, the meetings and proceedings of a committee consisting of more than one member shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles regulating the proceedings and meetings of the Directors, including, without limitation, the provisions with respect to the appointment of alternates to the intent that a Director who is a member of a committee may appoint an alternate to represent him at a meeting of the committee unless the Board of Directors shall prohibit the appointment of alternates by the members of such committee, and including the provisions with respect to resolutions consented to in writing. The Directors shall have power at any time to revoke or override any authority given to or acts to be done by any such committees, except with respect to acts done before such revocation or overriding, and to terminate the appointment or change the membership of a committee and to fill vacancies in it.

PART 18

OFFICERS

18.1. The Directors shall appoint a President and a Secretary and such other officers, if any, as the Directors shall determine from time to time and the Directors may, at any time, terminate any such appointment. No officer shall be appointed unless he is qualified in accordance with the provisions of the Company Act.

18.2. One person may hold more than one of such offices except that the offices of President and Secretary must be held by different persons unless the Company has only one member. Any person appointed as the Chairman of the Board, the President or the Managing Director shall be a Director. The other officers need not be Directors.

18.3. The remuneration of the officers of the Company as such and the terms and conditions of their tenure of office or employment shall from time to time be determined by the Directors; such remuneration may be by way of salary, fees, wages, commission or participation in profits or any other means or all of these modes and an officer may in addition to such remuneration be entitled to receive after he ceases to hold such office or leaves the employment of the Company a pension or gratuity.

18.4. The Directors may decide what functions and duties each officer shall perform and may entrust to and confer upon him any of the powers exercisable by them upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as they think fit and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such functions, duties and powers. The Secretary shall, inter alia, perform the functions of the Secretary specified in the Company Act.

18.5. Every officer of the Company who holds any office or possesses any property whereby, whether directly or indirectly, duties or interests might be created in conflict with his duties or interests as an officer of the Company shall, in writing, disclose to the President the fact and the nature and extent of the conflict.

PART 19

INDEMNITY AND PROTECTION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

19.1. Subject to the Company Act and these Articles, the Directors shall cause the Company to indemnify a Director or former Director of the Company and a Director or former Director of a corporation which is or was a subsidiary of the Company or (if he acted as such at the request of the Company) of any other corporation of which the Company is or was a shareholder and the heirs and personal representatives of any such person against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, actually and reasonably incurred by him or them including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment in a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which he is or they are made a party by reason of his being or having been a Director of the Company or a director of such corporation, including any action brought by the Company or any such corporation. The Company shall apply to the Court for all approvals of the Court which may be required to make any indemnity referred to in this Article effective and enforceable. The Company shall be deemed to have contracted, on the terms of the foregoing indemnity, with each Director of the Company and each such Director of such corporation on his being elected or appointed.

19.2. Subject to the Company Act and these Articles, the Directors shall cause the Company to indemnify:

(a) any officer or former officer (but in the case of an officer of a corporation other than a subsidiary of the Company only if he acted as such at the request of the Company); and

(b) any employee, former employee or agent or former agent designated by the Directors, of the Company or of a corporation which is or was a subsidiary of the Company or of any other corporation of which the Company is or was a shareholder (notwithstanding that he is also a Director) and his heirs and personal representatives against all costs, charges and expenses whatsoever (including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, those specifically referred to in Article 19.1 above) incurred by him or them and resulting from his acting as an officer, employee or agent of the Company or of such corporation. The Company shall be deemed to have contracted, on the terms of the foregoing indemnity, with each such officer or former officer on his being appointed.

19.3. The failure of a person to comply with the Company Act or of the Memorandum or these Articles shall not, of itself, invalidate any indemnity to which such person is entitled under this Part.

19.4. The Directors may cause the Company to purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of:

(a) any person who is or was serving as a Director or officer of the Company or as a director or officer of a corporation which is or was a subsidiary of the Company or (if he acted as such at the request of the Company) of any other corporation of which the Company is or was a shareholder; and

(b) any person designated by the Directors who is or was serving as an employee or agent of the Company or of such corporation; and

(c) any person in respect of whom the Company is or may be obligated to indemnify pursuant to this Part 19, and his heirs and personal representatives against any liability incurred by him as such Director, director, officer, employee or agent.

19.5. If any of the provisions of this Part shall be void, illegal or invalid, the remaining provisions of this Part shall be construed and take effect as if the void, illegal or invalid provision had never been contained herein. The Company shall not be required to indemnify a person pursuant to Articles 19.1 or 19.2 if such person did not, with respect to the act or matter giving rise to the proposed indemnification, act honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company or the corporation referred to therein, as the case may be, or in the case of a criminal or administrative act or proceeding, if he did not have reasonable grounds for believing his conduct was lawful or duly authorized. The provisions of this Part 19 relating to Directors and former Directors of the Company and to directors and former directors of a corporation which is or was a subsidiary of the Company or of a corporation in which the Company is or was a shareholder also apply, with the necessary changes and so far as applicable, to alternate Directors of the Company and alternate directors of such corporations.

PART 20

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVES

20.1. Subject to the Company Act and to the special rights and restrictions as to dividends attached to any shares, the Directors may from time to time declare and authorize payment of such dividends, if any, as they may deem advisable and need not give notice of such declaration to any member. No dividend shall be paid otherwise than out of funds and/or assets properly available for the payment of dividends and a declaration by the Directors as to the amount of such funds and/or assets available for dividends shall be conclusive. The Company may pay any such dividend wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets and in particular by paid up shares, bonds, debentures or other securities of the Company or any other corporation or in any one or more such ways as may be authorized by the Company or the Directors and where any difficulty arises with regard to such a distribution the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient, and in particular may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof, and may determine that cash payments in substitution for all or any part of the specific assets to which any members are entitled shall be made to any members on the basis of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest any such specific assets in trustees for the persons entitled to the dividend as may seem expedient to the Directors.

20.2. Any dividend declared on shares of any class or series by the Directors may be made payable on such date as is fixed by the Directors.

20.3. Subject to the rights of members (if any) holding shares with special rights as to dividends, all dividends on shares of any class or series shall be declared and paid according to the number of such shares held.

20.4. The Directors may, before declaring any dividend, set aside out of the funds properly available for the payment of dividends such sums as they think proper as a reserve or reserves, which shall, at the discretion of the Directors, be applicable for meeting contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for any other purpose to which such funds of the Company may be properly applied, and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments as the Directors may from time to time think fit. The Directors may also, without placing the same in reserve, carry forward such funds, which they think prudent not to divide.

20.5. If several persons are registered as joint holders of any share, any one of them may give an effective receipt for any dividend, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share.

20.6. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company. Where the dividend to which a member is entitled includes a fraction of a cent, such fraction shall be disregarded in making payment thereof and such payment shall be deemed to be payment in full.

20.7. Any dividend, bonus or other moneys payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the holder, or in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that one of the joint holders who is first named on the register or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may direct in writing. Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent. The mailing of such cheque or warrant shall, to the extent of the sum represented thereby (plus the amount of any tax required by law to be deducted) discharge all liability for the dividend, unless such cheque or warrant shall not be paid on presentation or the amount of tax so deducted shall not be paid to the appropriate taxing authority.

20.8. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles the Directors may from time to time capitalize any retained earnings or surplus of the Company and may issue as fully paid and non-assessable any unissued shares or any debt obligations of the Company as a dividend representing such retained earnings or surplus or any part thereof.

PART 21

DOCUMENTS, RECORDS AND REPORTS

21.1. The Company shall keep at its records office or at such other place as the Company Act may permit, the documents, copies, registers, minutes, and records which the Company is required by the Company Act to keep at its records office or such other place, as the case may be.

21.2. The Company shall cause to be kept proper books of account and accounting records in respect of all financial and other transactions of the Company in order properly to record the financial affairs and condition of the Company and to comply with the Company Act.

21.3. Unless the Directors determine otherwise, or unless otherwise determined by an ordinary resolution, no member of the Company shall be entitled to inspect the accounting records of the Company.

21.4. The Directors shall from time to time at the expense of the Company cause to be prepared and laid before the Company in general meeting such financial statements and reports as are required by the Company Act.

21.5. Every member shall be entitled to be furnished once gratis on demand with a copy of the latest annual financial statement of the Company and, if so required by the Company Act, a copy of each such annual financial statement and interim financial statement shall be mailed to each member.

PART 22

NOTICES

22.1. A notice, statement or report may be given or delivered by the Company to any member either by delivery to him personally or by sending it by mail to him to his address as recorded in the register of members. Where a notice, statement or report is sent by mail, service or delivery of the notice, statement or report shall be deemed (a) to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and mailing the notice, statement or report, and (b) to have been given on the date, Saturdays and holidays excepted, following the date of mailing. A certificate signed by the Secretary or other officer of the Company or of any other person acting in that behalf for the Company that the letter, envelope or wrapper containing the notice, statement or report was so addressed, prepaid and mailed shall be conclusive evidence thereof.

22.2. A notice, statement or report may be given or delivered by the Company to the joint holders of a share by giving the notice to the joint holder first named in the register of members in respect of the share.

22.3. A notice, statement or report may be given or delivered by the Company to the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or incapacity of a member by sending it through the mail prepaid addressed to them by name or by his title or by any like description, at the address if any) supplied to the Company for the purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled, or (until such address has been so supplied) by giving the notice in a manner in which the same might have been given if the death, bankruptcy or incapacity had not occurred.

22.4. Notice of every general meeting or meeting of members shall be given in a manner hereinbefore authorized to every member holding at the record date for determining the members entitled to such notice shares which confer the right to notice of and to attend and vote at any such meeting. No other person except the auditor of the Company and the Directors of the Company shall be entitled to receive notices of any such meeting.

23.1. Subject to the Company Act, the Directors may fix in advance a date as the record date for the determination of the members entitled to notice of any meeting of members or any adjournment thereof, and/or a date as the record date for the determination of the members entitled to attend and vote at any meeting of members or any adjournment thereof (which may but need not be the same date as the record date for determining members entitled to notice) and/or a date as a record date for the determination of members entitled to receive payment of a dividend, or for any other proper purpose and in such case, notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in these Articles, only members or persons of record on the date so picked shall be deemed to be members for the particular purpose or purposes aforesaid.

PART 24

EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS

24.1. The Directors may provide a seal for the Company and, if they do so, shall provide for the safe custody of the seal which shall not be affixed to any instrument except in the presence of the following persons, namely;

- (a) the President or the Secretary;
- (b) any two Directors of the Company;
- (c) one of the Chairman of the Board, the President, a Director or the Vice-President together with any one of the Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, the Treasurer, the Secretary-Treasurer, an Assistant Treasurer and an Assistant Secretary-Treasurer; or
- (d) such person or persons as the Directors may from time to time by resolution appoint, and the said Directors, officers, person or persons in whose presence the seal is so affixed to an instrument shall sign such instrument. For the purpose of certifying under the seal copies or extracts from the Memorandum or Articles of the Company, minutes of meetings or resolutions of the members or Directors or committees of Directors, or any instrument executed or issued by the Company, the seal may be affixed in the presence of any one of the persons hereinbefore mentioned unless the Directors shall by resolution determine otherwise.

24.2. The signatures of any one or more of the Chairman of the Board, President, Vice-Presidents, Directors, Secretary, Treasurer, Assistant-Secretaries, Assistant-Treasurers and any other officers of the Company and any persons referred to in Article 24.1(d) may, if authorized by the Directors, be printed, lithographed, engraved or otherwise mechanically reproduced upon all instruments executed or issued by the Company; and any instrument on which the signature of any such person is so reproduced by authorization of the Directors shall be deemed to have been manually signed by such person whose signature is so reproduced and shall be, subject to the Company Act, as valid to all intents and purposes as if such instrument had been signed manually, and notwithstanding that the person whose signature is so reproduced may have ceased to hold office (if applicable) at the date of the delivery or issue of such instrument. The term "instrument" as used in Article 24.1 and this Article 24.2 shall include deeds, mortgage, hypothecs, charges, conveyances, transfers and assignments of properly, real or personal, agreements, releases, receipts and discharges for the payment of money or other obligation, certificates of the Company's shares, bonds, debentures and other securities and debt obligations of the Company, and all paper-writings.

24.3. To enable the seal of the Company to be affixed to any debt obligations, share certificates, or other securities of the Company, whether in definitive or interim form, on which facsimiles of any of the signatures of the Directors or officers of the Company are, in accordance with the Company Act and/or these Articles, printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced there may be delivered to the firm or company employed to engrave, lithograph or print such definitive or interim debt obligations, share certificates or other securities one or more unmounted dies reproducing the Company's seal and the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Managing Director or a Vice-President and the Secretary, Treasurer, Secretary-Treasurer, an Assistant Secretary, an Assistant Treasurer or an Assistant Secretary-Treasurer may by a document authorize such firm or company to cause the Company's seal to be affixed to such definitive or interim debt obligations, share certificates or other securities by the use of such dies. Debt obligations, share certificates or other securities to which the Company's seal has been so affixed shall for all purposes be deemed to be under and to bear the Company's seal lawfully affixed thereto.

24.4. The Company may have for use in any other province, state, territory or country an official seal which shall have on its face the name of the province, state, territory or country where it is to be used.

PART 25

PROHIBITIONS IF NOT A REPORTING COMPANY

25.1. If the Company is, or becomes, a company which is not a reporting company under the Company Act:

- (a) the number of members for the time being of the Company, exclusive of persons who are for the time being in the employment of the Company and continue to be members after the termination of such employment, shall not exceed 50;

(b) no securities of the Company shall be offered for sale or subscription to the public;

(c) no shares shall be transferred without the previous consent of the Directors expressed by a resolution of the Board and the Directors shall not be required to give any reason for refusing to consent to any such proposed transfer.

BY-LAWS OF

U-HAUL LEASING & SALES CO.

A NEVADA CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office and registered office of the corporation in the State of Nevada shall be located in the State of Nevada at such locations as the Board of Directors may authorize by resolutions. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the State of Nevada as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the second Saturday of June of each year, at the office of the corporation in the State of Nevada, or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of Directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the State of Nevada. Notice of the Special meetings will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

The following shall be the normal order of business at all special meetings and annual meetings of the shareholders:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the, unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the State of Nevada.

SECTION 4. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the State of Nevada.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding minutes and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers the express right to exercise the following powers:

3. To issue notes and other obligations or evidence of the debt of this corporation, and to secure the same, if deemed advisable, and endorse and guarantee the notes, bonds, stocks, and other obligations of other corporations with or without compensation for so doing, and from time to time to sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of the property of this corporation, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Nevada, governing the disposition of the entire assets and business of the corporation as a going concern.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such power as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Nevada statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, a Vice-President, and Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officer and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding years business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

SECTION 5. Powers and Duties of Treasurer:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the corporation, and deposit the same in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks or other depository as the Directors may select. He shall sign checks, drafts, notices, and orders for the payment of money, and he shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board of Directors, but checks may be signed as directed by the Board by resolution. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer at all reasonable time to exhibit his books and accounts to any Director or stockholder of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours, and generally perform the duties of and act as the financial agent for the corporation for the receipts and disbursements of its funds. He shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may determine. The office of the Treasurer of said corporation, may be held by the same person holding the President, Vice-President or Secretary's office, provided the Board of Directors indicates the combination of these offices.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Nevada, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signer of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the number of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power and authority to make all such rules and regulations as it shall deem expedient concerning the issue, transfer, and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such preemptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

SECTION 3. Restriction on Transfer:

No shareholder shall transfer, alienate, or in any way dispose of any share of the corporation unless such share shall first have been offered for sale to the corporation. The corporation reserves and shall have the exclusive right in adoption to purchase such shares at a price equal to the book value thereof within sixty days after such offer. After the expiration of such time, the shareholder, if the corporation shall not have exercised his option to purchase such share, shall be free to transfer, alienate or otherwise dispose of such share without any restrictions whatsoever. Provided, however, that this restriction shall not apply to inter vivos gifts or transfer without consideration by operation of law of shares of stock by shareholders to members of the immediate family of such shareholder.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

I, Gary V. Klinefelter, as the duly elected Secretary of U-Haul Leasing & Sales Co., do hereby certify that the above By-Laws, as amended, have been duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the Amended By-Laws of this corporation.

Dated as of the 21st day of April, 1993.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

U-HAUL SELF-STORAGE CORPORATION

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That I, the undersigned, for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of Nevada, do certify:

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation is U-Haul Self-Storage Corporation.

ARTICLE II

The nature of the business and the objects and purposes to be transacted, promoted, or carried on by the corporation are to be limited solely as follows:

(a) to acquire, own, hold, transfer, sell, assign and pledge, loans secured by real property (Mortgage Loans"), interests in, or interests in pools of, monies due or to become due under Mortgage Loans elated insurance policies, and any proceeds or further rights associated with any of the foregoing (such Mortgage Loans, interests, monies, insurance policies, proceeds, and other rights being referred to collectively as the "Assets");

(b) to borrow money to facilitate any activity authorized herein subject always to the terms of subsection (c) below, which borrowing may be (i) an unsecured borrowing or (ii) secured by a pledge or grant of a security interest in the Mortgage Loans and/or the other Assets;

(c) to issue and sell from time to time one or more series of certificates, bonds, notes and other securities and to incur other indebtedness, including, without limitation, certificates representing interests in trusts formed by the Corporation (collectively the "Securities"), which Securities shall either be rated at least "AA" (or its equivalent) by one or more nationally recognized rating agencies (the "Rated Securities") or shall (i) be fully subordinated to the Corporation's Rated Securities with respect to the specific collateral securing or the designated assets underlying the Rated Securities, (ii) be nonrecourse to the Corporation and (iii) not constitute a claim against the corporations to the extent that funds are insufficient to pay such Securities and to pay principal and interest thereon in accordance with the terms thereof;

(d) to use the proceeds of the sale of Securities and of the transfer, sale, assignment or pledge of Assets (i) to acquire Assets or (ii) to make loans to entities which may be affiliated with the Corporation or to make dividend payments to the extent permitted by law;

(e) to invest cash balances from time to time as provided in any agreement or similar document that the corporation may be a party to in connection with the issuance of Securities or any other transaction permitted by this Article Second;

(f) to make deposits of money in bank accounts and to grant security interests in such deposits for its own benefit or the benefit of others in connection with any transaction permitted by this Article Second and to purchase or otherwise acquire securities evidencing ownership of, or other interest in, assets securitized by third parties, which securities have a rating of at least "AA" (or its equivalent) by one or more nationally recognized rating agencies and to grant security interests in such securities in connection with any transactions permitted by this Article Second; and

(g) to engage in any activity, enter into any agreement, undertaking, contract, indenture, assignment, security agreement or certificate, appoint any underwriter, agent or dealer with respect to the Securities or any other transaction permitted by this Article Second and to exercise any powers permitted to corporations organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Nevada that are incidental to the foregoing or necessary, suitable or convenient to accomplish the foregoing.

The limitations on the Corporation's business and investment activities as set out in this Article Second may not be altered except upon the vote of the holders of 100% of the outstanding common stock and the unanimous affirmative vote of all the directors of the Corporation.

ARTICLE III

At all times, at least two of the directors and one of the executive officers of the Corporation (or two persons, one of whom is serving as both a director and an executive officer of the corporation) will not be a director, officer or employee of any direct or ultimate parent, or affiliate of the parent, of the Corporation (respectively, the "Independent Directors" and the "Independent Officer").

ARTICLE IV

In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the board of directors is expressly authorized to make, alter, amend or repeal the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE V

The Corporation shall not commingle any of its assets with the assets of any other entity or person except that there may be a commingling of payments with respect to Mortgage Loans and proceeds of sales by or on behalf of the Corporation for a limited period of time after receipt of such payments and proceeds. The Corporation shall maintain its financial and accounting books and records separate from those of any other entity or person. The Corporation shall pay from its assets all obligations and indebtedness of any kind incurred by the Corporation, and shall not pay from its assets any obligations or indebtedness of any other entity or person. The corporation will at all times conduct its business from an office separate from that of its parent.

ARTICLE VI

Without the prior consent of the Independent Directors and the Independent Officer, and the unanimous affirmative vote of all of its directors, the Corporation shall not (i) amend Article Second, Third, Fifth, Sixth or Twelfth of these Articles of Incorporation; (ii) institute proceedings to be adjudicated bankrupt or insolvent, or proceedings against it, or file a petition or consent to a petition seeking reorganization or relief under any applicable federal or state law relating to bankruptcy or insolvency, or consent to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Corporation, or a substantial part of its property, or make any assignment for the benefit of creditors, or except as required by law, admit in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or take any corporate action in furtherance of any such action; (iii) merge or consolidate with or into any other entity, or convey or transfer all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any other entity; (iv) incur, assume or guarantee any indebtedness for borrowed money or for the deferred purchase price of goods or services except as specifically provided herein; or (v) engage in any other action that would cause the separate identity of the Corporation and any other legal person, including, without limitation, any individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, association, joint-stock company, trust, unincorporated organization, governmental entity or other entity (a "Person") to be disregarded, or would cause the assets of the Corporation to be consolidated with those of any other Person under applicable Federal or state bankruptcy or insolvency law.

ARTICLE VII

The corporation shall have authority to issue 1,000 shares of Common stock at $1.00 par value per share.

ARTICLE VIII

The initial Board of Directors will consist of three (3) directors. The persons who are to serve as Directors until the first annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors are elected and qualified are:

Donald Wm. Murney, 2721 N. Central Ave., Phoenix, AZ 85004

William T. Sellner, 2721 N. Central Ave., Phoenix, AZ 85004

Richard L. Vogel, 2721 N. Central Ave., Phoenix, AZ 85004

ARTICLE IX

The name and address of the incorporator is:

Gary V. Klinefelter, 2721 N. Central Ave., Phoenix, AZ 85004

ARTICLE X

The period of existence of the corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE XI

The corporation shall indemnify, to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the corporation to provide prior to such amendment), any person made, or threatened to be made, a defendant or witness to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or otherwise) by reason of the fact that he or she, or his or her testator or intestate, is or was a director or officer of the corporation or by reason of the fact that such director or officer, at the request of the corporation, is or was serving any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise. Nothing contained herein shall diminish any rights to indemnification to which employees or agents other than directors or officers may be entitled by law, and the corporation may indemnify such employees and agents to the fullest extent and in the manner permitted by law. The rights to indemnification set forth in this Article XI shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which any person may be entitled under any statute, provision of the Articles of Incorporation, bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of shareholders or directors, otherwise.

In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute:

1. The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is serving in any capacity, at the request of the corporation, any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against any liability or expense incurred by him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability or expense under the provisions of law; and

2. The corporation may create a trust fund, grant a security interest or lien on any assets of the corporation and/or use other means (including, without limitation, letters of credit, guaranties, surety bonds and/or other similar arrangements), and enter into contracts providing indemnification to the full extent authorized or permitted by law and including as part thereof provisions with respect to any or all of the foregoing to ensure the payment of such amounts as may become necessary to effect indemnification as provided therein, or elsewhere.

ARTICLE XII

No director or officer shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director or officer, except the liability of a director or officer shall not be limited or eliminated for:

- (a) Acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of law; or
- (b) The payment of distribution in violation of Nevada Revised Statutes 78.300.

ARTICLE XIII

The name and address of the registered agent for this corporation is The Corporation Trust Company of Nevada, One East First Street, Reno, Nevada 89501

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I the aforementioned incorporator have signed the Articles of Incorporation this 12th day of August, 1993.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Directors:

Except as otherwise provided by law or the Articles of Incorporation, a board of one (1) or more Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the terms of office of all or any of the Directors, by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies of the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors, though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the State of Nevada.

SECTION 4. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specifically called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Boards of Directors may be held within or without the State of Nevada.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may, from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll Call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

SECTION 7. Meetings by Telephone:

If all the directors consent, a director may participate in a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board by means of such telephone or other communications facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and a director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

Except as otherwise limited in the Articles of Incorporation, the Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers, the express right to exercise the following powers:

1. To purchase, lease, and acquire, in any lawful manner any and all real or personal property including franchises, stocks, bonds and debentures of other companies, business and good will, patents, trademarks in contracts, and interests thereunder, and other rights and properties which in their judgement may be beneficial for the purpose of this corporation, and to issue shares of stock of this corporation in payment of such property, and in payment for services rendered to this corporation, when they deem it advisable.

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Nevada statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President and Secretary, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in the By-Laws of the corporation, the Board may at any time and from time to time direct the manner in which any person or persons by whom any particular contract, document, note or instrument in writing of the corporation may or shall be signed by and may authorize any officer or officers of the corporation to sign such contracts, documents, notes or instruments.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of Nevada, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and that the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signing of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the name of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefor, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the Assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of April of each year and shall close on the 31st day of March of the year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of the Board of Directors of this corporation at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing Re-stated By-Laws of Nevada are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

ARTICLE I

LOCATION

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the state of Alabama shall be located in the city of Birmingham. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the state of Alabama as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the Third Thursday in May of each year, at the office of the corporation in the state of Alabama or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for the election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer of persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the state of Alabama. Notice of the special meetings will be held as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

Voting at all shareholders meetings. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business:

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Officers:

A board of three (3) Directors shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term; of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the state of Alabama.

SECTION 4. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specified called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the state of Alabama.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or by these By-Laws, but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the Alabama statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum, present and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of Vice-President:

The Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors of the corporation and in the absence or inability of the President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President.

SECTION 4. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. The first annual meeting of the stockholders of the company shall be held on or before the first business day following the expiration of two months from and after the filing of the articles of incorporation, but succeeding annual meetings of stockholders shall be held on the third Wednesday of August of each year beginning in 2004 (or on the next succeeding business day if such be a holiday), at such place as may be specified by the secretary in a notice to be issued by him not less than thirty days before such meeting.

Section 2. Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the stockholders may be held at any place upon call of the Board of Directors of the president, and the secretary shall give thirty days' notice of such meetings. Only such business as may be specified in the notice may be transacted at special meetings.

Section 3. Quorum.

At any meeting of the stockholders, a majority of the issued and outstanding stock shall constitute a quorum and in the absence of a quorum, the meeting shall be adjourned from time to time until a quorum shall be present.

Section 4. Voting.

At any meeting of the stockholders, each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock owned by him, except in the case of election of directors, when cumulative voting shall apply. Voting may be in person or by proxy and proxies may be given for more than one meeting.

Section 5. Waiver of Notice.

Any meeting shall be deemed to have been validly and legally called and held if all of the stockholders of record on the day of the meeting sign a written waiver of notice, either before or after the meeting. No such waiver shall be necessary in case all stockholders are actually present in person at the meeting, in which event notice shall conclusively be deemed to have been waived.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election.

The Board of Directors shall consist of not less than one nor more than nine. At succeeding annual meetings, the stockholders shall elect five directors for one-year terms expiring at the annual meeting. Between annual meetings, the remaining directors shall elect directors to fill vacancies occurring from any cause, but any director so elected shall serve only until the next annual meeting.

Section 2. Powers and Duties.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to control and manage the property and business of the corporation, to appoint from its own membership or otherwise the officers of the corporation who may serve under written or oral contract at the pleasure of the Board. The Board shall have the power to enter into written contracts with officers for terms extending beyond their own terms of office. Generally and without limitation, the Board shall have the power and shall operate the business of the corporation in a prudent and careful manner to the best interests of the policyholders and stockholders.

Section 3. Regular Meetings.

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the corporation, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the State of Arizona. Regular meetings, other than annual ones, may be held at regular intervals at such times and places as the Board of Directors may provide.

Section 4. Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any one member of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meetings may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said Board at any such meetings. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the State of Arizona.

Section 5. Quorum.

A majority of the membership of the Board of Directors, but not less than five, shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE IV

OFFICERS

Section 1. Designation of Titles.

The titles of officers of the corporation may be, but shall not be, required to include a Chairman of the Board, a President, one or more Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and such Assistant Secretaries, Registrar, Assistant Treasurers and other officers as may be deemed necessary or expedient for the proper conduct of the business of the corporation. Any two or more of such offices, except those of President and Secretary, may be held by the same person. The Board of Directors may leave any office vacant indefinitely, so long as there be a President or a Vice-President and a Secretary or an Assistant Secretary available to act.

Section 2. Selection of Officers.

The directors shall choose the officers of the corporation, who shall serve at the pleasure of the Board and may be removed from office at any time by the Board, by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding at a regular or special meeting, or by an authorization in writing signed by the holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding.

Section 3. Chairman of the Board.

The Chairman of the Board (if one shall be selected) shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be from time to time assigned to him. If the position of Chairman of the Board shall be unfilled, the President shall perform the duties of the office.

Section 4. President.

The President shall preside at all meetings of stockholders. He shall sign all policies, all deeds and conveyances, all contracts and agreements, and all other instruments requiring execution on behalf of the corporation, and shall act as operating and directing head of the corporation, subject to policies established by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Vice-Presidents.

There shall be as many Vice-Presidents as shall be from time to time determined and they shall perform such duties as may be from time to time assigned to them. Any one of the Vice-Presidents, as authorized by the Board, shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of the President in case of the temporary absence of the President or in case of his temporary inability to act. In case of the permanent absence or inability of the President to act, the office shall be declared vacant by the Board of Directors and a successor chosen by the Board.

Section 6. Secretary.

The Secretary shall see that the minutes of all meetings of stockholders, of the Board of Directors and of any standing committees are kept. He shall be the custodian of the corporate seal, and shall affix it to all proper instruments. He shall give or cause to be given notices of all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. He shall have charge of all the books and records of the Company except the books of account and in general shall perform all the duties incident to the office of Secretary of a corporation and such other duties as may be assigned to him.

Section 7. Treasurer.

The treasurer shall have general custody of all of the funds and securities of the Company except such as may be required by law to be deposited with any state official; he shall see to the deposit of the funds of the company in such bank or banks as the Board of Directors may designate. Regular books of account shall be kept under his direction and supervision, and he shall render financial statements to the President, directors, policyholders and stockholders at proper times. He shall have charge of the preparation and filing of such reports and financial statements and returns as may be required by law. He shall give to the Company such fidelity bonds as may be required, and the premium therefore shall be paid for by the Company as an operating expense.

Section 8. Assistant Secretaries.

There may be such number of Assistant Secretaries as may be from time to time determined by the Board of Directors, and such persons shall perform such functions as may be from time to time assigned to them.

Section 9. Assistant Treasurers.

There may be such number of Assistant Treasurers as the Board of Directors shall from time to time fix, and such persons shall perform such functions as may be from time to time assigned to them.

Section 10. Registrars.

There may be such number of Registrars as the Board of Directors shall from time to time fix, and such persons shall perform such functions as may be from time to time assigned to them.

ARTICLE V

COMMITTEES

Section 1. Executive Committee.

At the option of the Board of Directors, there shall be an Executive Committee, which shall consist of such persons as shall be from time to time appointed to such committee by the Board. The Executive Committee shall have all of the powers and perform all of the functions of the Board of Directors between regular or special meetings of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Additional Standing Committees.

At the Option of the Board of Directors, there may be standing Investment, Acquisitions, and Merger Committees and the Board of Directors shall delegate such additional standing committees, as it may deem advisable. The Board of Directors shall delegate to such standing committees such functions, duties, and responsibilities as it may chose, and shall from time to time fix, appoint, and remove the personnel of such committees.

Section 3. Special Committees.

The Board of Directors or the President may at any time designate such special committees as it or he may deem advisable, may fix the duties of such committees, and appoint and remove their personnel.

Section 4. Minutes and Record of Committees.

A record shall be kept of the proceedings and determination of all standing committees and the reports of all Special Committees. The minutes of the meetings of the standing

Executive, Investment, Acquisitions, and Merger committees (if such committees shall be organized) shall be preserved in the same manner as are preserved the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI

AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Repeal, alteration, or amendment.

These bylaws may be repealed, altered, or amended, or substitute bylaws may be adopted only by a majority of the Board of Directors at any time.

ARTICLE VII

LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Personal Liability of Directors.

No director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for a breach of fiduciary duty as a director; provided, however, that this Article shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for (I) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders; (II) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional conduct or a knowing violation of law; (III) authorizing the unlawful payment of a dividend or other distribution on the corporation's capital stock or the unlawful purchase of its capital stock; (IV) a violation of Arizona Revised Statutes Section 10041 director conflicts of interest; or (V) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Section 2. Corporate Indemnification Language Directors and Officers.

The Company shall indemnify, to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Company to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the Company to provide prior to such amendment), any person made, or threatened to be made, a defendant or witness to any threatened, pending or completed action, suite, or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or otherwise) by reason of the fact that he or she, or his or her testator or intestate, is or was a director or officer of the company or by reason of the fact that such director or officer, at the request of the Company, is or was serving any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise. Nothing contained herein shall diminish any rights to indemnification to which employees or agents other than directors or officers may be entitled by law, and the Company may indemnify such employees and agents to the fullest extent and in the manner permitted by law. The rights to indemnification set forth in this Article XIV shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which any person may be entitled under any statute, provision of the Articles of Incorporation, bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute:

1. The Company may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is serving in any capacity, at the request of the Company, any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against any liability or expense incurred by him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability or expense under the provisions of law; and

2. The Company may create a trust fund, grant a security interest or lien on any assets of the Company and/or use other means (including, without limitation, letters of credit, guaranties, surety bonds and/or other similar arrangements), and enter into contracts providing indemnification to the full extent authorized or permitted by law and including as part thereof provisions with respect to any or all of the foregoing to ensure the payment of such amounts as may become necessary to effect indemnification as provided therein, or elsewhere.

BY-LAWS OF

YONKERS PROPERTY CORPORATION

A NEW YORK CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

DATE: August 4, 1994

SECTION 1. Offices:

The principal office of the corporation in the State of New York shall be located at such place as the Board of Directors may from time to time select. The corporation may have such other offices either within or without the State of New York as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held on the third Tuesday in May of each year, at the office of the corporation in the State of New York or otherwise as provided in the notice of said meeting. The purpose of said annual meeting shall be for election of directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may be brought before said meeting. The Board of Directors may change the time and place of the annual meeting providing such change of time and place be preceded by a notice of such change to all stockholders of record. If said day of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, then said meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day not a holiday.

SECTION 2. Notice of Shareholders Meeting:

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special meeting, the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten or more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Provided, however, that notice of any meeting of shareholders whether regular or special, may be waived either before, at or after such meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. All meetings of the shareholders may be held within or without the State of New York. Notice of the special meeting will be had as provided under Section 2 of this Article.

SECTION 4. Voting:

A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided by the proxy.

SECTION 5. Quorum Requirements:

A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented at a meeting, the majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

SECTION 6. Tellers:

At all meetings of shareholders, the Chairman may appoint three tellers who shall act as inspectors of elections and determine the validity of the proxies and press upon the qualifications of all persons offering to vote at each meeting and count the ballots. The election shall be by secret ballot, or in case there is only one nomination for a certain office, the election may be by acclamation. Each shareholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him.

SECTION 7. Order of Business

1st. All persons claiming to hold proxies shall present them to the tellers for verification.

2nd. Proof of due notice of meeting when applicable.

3rd. Reading and disposal of all unapproved minutes.

4th. Reports of officers and committees.

5th. Election of Directors.

6th. Unfinished business.

7th. New business.

8th. Adjournment.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Number and Term of Office:

A board of one (1) or more Directors, as required by law, shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at their annual meeting. The holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote may at any time pre-emptorily terminate the term of office of all or any of the Directors by a vote at a meeting called for such purposes. Such removal shall be effective immediately even if successors are not elected simultaneously and the vacancies of the Board of Directors resulting therefrom shall be filled by the stockholders, or by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2. Vacancies:

In case of any vacancy among the Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining Directors though less than a quorum, shall by vote of a majority of their number elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the Director whose place shall be vacant.

SECTION 3. Regular Meetings:

After the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company, the newly elected Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting. No notice shall be required for such meeting. The meeting may be held within or without the State of New York.

SECTION 4. Special Meeting:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place specifically called therefor, and notice thereof. Said special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any two members of the Board giving written notice thereof to the President of said corporation, or said special meeting may be called without notice by unanimous written consent of all the members by the presence of all the members of said board at any such meeting. The special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the State of New York.

SECTION 5. Quorum:

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by statute or these By-Laws but if any meeting of the Board be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

SECTION 6. Order of Business:

The Board of Directors may, from time to time, determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at such meetings shall be as follows:

- 1st. Roll call; a quorum being present.
- 2nd. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting and action thereon.
- 3rd. Consideration of communications of the Board of Directors.
- 4th. Reports of officials and committees.
- 5th. Unfinished business.
- 6th. Miscellaneous business.
- 7th. New business.
- 8th. Adjournment.

SECTION 7. Meetings By Telephone:

If all the directors consent, a director may participate in a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board by means of such telephone or other communications facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and a director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. Generally:

The Government in control of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Powers:

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to its other powers, the express right to exercise the following powers:

4. To declare and pay dividends, both in the form of money and stock, but only from the surplus or from the net profit arising from the business of this corporation, after deducting therefrom the amounts, at the time when any dividend is declared which shall have been set aside by the Directors as a reserve fund or as a working fund.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Committees:

From time to time the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board may appoint any committee or committees for any purpose or purposes, and such committee or committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the resolution of appointment. Provided, however, that such committee or committees shall at no time have more power than that authorized by the statutes regulating the appointment of committees.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION 1. Officers:

And the officers of the corporation shall consist of a President and Secretary, and such other officers as shall from time to time be provided for by the Board of Directors. Such officers shall be elected by ballot or unanimous acclamation at the meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual election of Directors. In order to hold any election there shall be a quorum present, and any officer receiving a majority vote shall be declared elected and shall hold office for one year and until his or her respective successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall be subject to removal from office pre-emptorily by vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

SECTION 2. Powers and Duties of President:

The President shall at all times be subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the affairs of the corporation. He shall supervise over and direct all officers and employees of the corporation and see that their duties are properly performed. The President, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall sign and execute all contracts, notes, mortgages, and all other obligations in the name of the corporation, and with the Secretary shall sign all certificates of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and by virtue of his office he shall be a member and Chairman of the executive committee if one is appointed. The President shall each year present an annual report of the preceding year's business to the Board of Directors at a meeting to be held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the shareholders, which report shall be read at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The President shall do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors to him.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in the By-Laws of the corporation, the Board may at any time and from time to time direct the manner in which any person or persons by whom any particular contract, document, note or instrument in writing of the corporation may or shall be signed by and may authorize any officer or officers of the corporation to sign such contracts, documents, notes or instruments.

SECTION 3. Powers and Duties of the Secretary:

The Secretary of said corporation shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of all meetings of the shareholders, and also when requested by a committee, the minutes of such committee, in books provided for the purpose. He shall attend to the giving and serving of notice of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to sign with the President, in the name of the corporation, all contracts, notes, mortgages, and other instruments and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall affix the Seal of Corporation thereto. The Secretary shall have charge of all books, documents, and papers properly belonging to his office, and of such other books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 1. Stock and Certificates and Transfers:

All certificates for the shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered in progression beginning with number one. Each certificate shall show upon its face that the corporation is organized under the laws of New York, the number and par value, if any, of each share represented by it, the name of the person owning the shares represented thereby, with the number of each share and the date of issue, and the stock thereby represented is transferable only upon the books of the corporation and upon the signing of such certificates. A stock transfer book, known as the stock register shall be kept, in which shall be entered the number of each certificate issued and the name of the person owning the shares thereby represented, with the number of such shares and the date of issue. The transfer of any share or shares of stock in the corporation may be made by surrender of the certificate issued therefore, and the written assignment thereof by the owner or his duly authorized Attorney in Fact. Upon such surrender and assignment, a new certificate shall be issued to the assignee as he may be entitled, but without such surrender and assignment no transfer of stock shall be recognized by the corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificate for agents and registrars of transfer, and may require all stock certificates to bear signatures of either or both. The stock transfer books shall be closed ten days before each meeting of the shareholders and during such period no stock shall be transferred.

SECTION 2. Pre-Emptive Rights:

Any issue or shares or securities of the corporation in addition to the shares subscribed to or issued at the date of these By-Laws shall be first offered prorata to the shareholders of record in relation to their then existing percentage of ownership of the outstanding stock of this corporation. Such pre-emptive rights shall apply to any original authorized but unissued stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

FISCAL YEAR

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence with the opening of business on the first day of April of each year and shall close on the 31st day of March of each year.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. Amendment of By-Laws:

The By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of all shareholders of this corporation entitled to vote at a regular annual meeting. Also, said By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the shareholders of said corporation at any special meeting called for that object and purpose, and provided all the shareholders are given legal notice of the object and purpose of said meeting.

The foregoing By-Laws of Yonkers Property Corporation are hereby accepted and adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation, and we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above foregoing By-Laws are duly adopted by the Board of Directors and that the same do now constitute the By-Laws of this corporation.

PROMISSORY NOTE

Up to $58,000,000.00 Phoenix, Arizona March 1, 2004

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, SAC Holding Corporation, a Nevada corporation ("Maker"), promises to pay to the order of U-Haul International, Inc., a Nevada corporation ("Payee"), in lawful money of the United States, the principal sum of up to Fifty-Eight Million and no/100ths Dollars ($58,000,000.00), together with interest at the times and at the rates specified in this Note.

1. Interest. From the date hereof through and including the Maturity Date (as hereinafter defined), interest ("Basic Interest") shall accrue on the principal balance of this Note outstanding from time to time at the rate of nine percent (9%) per m u m ("Accrual Rate"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, on the fifteenth calendar day of each month commencing on March 15, 2004 and through the Maturity Date (as hereinafter defined), Maker shall pay to Payee interest on the unpaid principal balance of this Note from time to time at the rate of 2% per m u m ("Pay Rate Interest"). The remainder of the Basic Interest ("Deferred Interest") shall be deferred and shall bear interest at the Accrual Rate. At the election of Payee, Deferred Interest shall accrue either in cash or in Additional Notes (as hereinafter defined). Any accrued interest on the Deferred Interest shall be considered part of Deferred Interest. Interest shall be calculated on the basis of a 360- day year and the actual number of days elapsed.

2. Payments. Pay Rate Interest shall be paid on the fifteenth calendar day of each month, until such time as the notes (the "Senior Notes") under the Indenture with respect to 8.5% Senior Notes Due 2014 of SAC Holding Corporation and SAC Holding II Corporation shall have been paid or satisfied in full. Upon the full repayment or satisfaction of the Senior Notes, payments hereunder shall continue to be made on the fifteenth calendar day of each month but shall consist of principal and Pay Rate Interest, and such principal payments shall be on the basis of a twenty-five year amortization. This Note shall mature on the last day of the month that is the ten (10) year anniversary of the full repayment or satisfaction of the Senior Notes (the "Maturity Date"). On the Maturity Date, all outstanding principal and interest (including Deferred Interest) shall be due and payable.

3. Prepayment. This Note may be prepaid in whole or in part, without penalty or premium.

4. Default Interest. During the existence of a Default (as hereinafter defined), interest will accrue on the entire loan balance at the rate of fifteen percent (15%) per annum commencing on the date the payment was due and continuing until the delinquent payment is received by the Payee.

5. Default and Remedies.

a. Default. The Maker will be in default under this Note if the Maker fails, following the full repayment or satisfaction of the Senior Notes, to make a payment of principal, interest, or other charge when due, which failure to pay is not cured within five (5) business days after the due date therefor.

b. Remedies. Upon a default as described in subparagraph 5.a ("Default"), Payee shall have the right to immediately accelerate the obligations under this Note and all sums owing with respect to this Note will immediately become due and payable.

6. Unsecured. This Note and the obligations hereunder are unsecured.

7. Waivers. The Maker, and any endorsers or guarantors of this Note, severally waive diligence, presentment, protest, demand and all rights of offset and also notice of protest, demand, dishonor, acceleration, intent to accelerate, offset and nonpayment of this Note, and expressly agree that this Note, or any payment under this Note, may be extended from time to time in the Payee's sole discretion without notice, and consent to the acceptance of further security or the release of any security for this Note, all without in any way affecting the liability of the Maker and any endorsers or guarantors of this Note. No extension of time for the payment of this Note, or any installment hereof, made by agreement by the Payee with any person now or hereafter liable for the payment of this Note, will affect the original liability of the Maker under this Note, even if that person is not a party to such agreement. The Payee may waive its rights to require performance of or compliance with any term, covenant or condition of this Note only by express written waiver.

8. Additional Note. At the request of Payee, Maker shall deliver to Payee additional promissory notes (the "Additional Note") to evidence Maker's indebtedness hereunder pursuant to the Deferred Interest. In such event, such Deferred Interest shall be evidenced by such Additional Note and not pursuant to the terms of this Note. Any such Additional Note shall contain economic terms akin to those set forth herein.

9. Maximum Legal Rate of Interest. All agreements between the Payee and the Maker whether now existing or hereafter arising, are hereby limited so that in no event will the interest charged under this Note or agreed to be paid to the Payee exceed the maximum amount permissible under applicable law. If interest otherwise payable to the Payee would exceed the maximum lawful amount, the interest payable will be reduced to the maximum amount permitted under applicable law.

11. Miscellaneous.

a. Costs. The Maker will pay all costs, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and expert fees incurred by the Payee in collecting the sums due under this Note.

b. Modification. This Note may be modified only by a written agreement executed by the person against whom the change, modification or waiver is to be enforced.

c. Law. This Note will be governed by Arizona law, without regard to the choice of law principles thereof.

d. Successors. The terms of this Note will inure to the benefit of and bind the Maker and the Payee and its heirs, legal representatives and successors and assigns.

e. Time. Time is of the essence with respect to all matters set forth in this Note.

f. Destroyed Note. If this Note is destroyed, lost or stolen, the Maker will deliver a new Note to the Payee on the same terms and conditions as this Note with a notation of the unpaid principal and accrued and unpaid interest in substitution of the prior Note. The Payee will furnish to the Maker reasonable evidence that the Note was destroyed, lost or stolen and any security or indemnity that may be reasonably required by the Maker in connection with the replacement of this Note.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Maker has duly executed and delivered this Note to the Payee as of the date and year first above written.

PROMISSORY NOTE

Up to $58,000,000.00 Phoenix, Arizona March 1, 2004

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, SAC Holding Corporation, a Nevada corporation ("Maker"), promises to pay to the order of U-Haul International, Inc., a Nevada corporation ("Payee"), in lawful money of the United States, the principal sum of up to Fifty-Eight Million and no/100ths Dollars ($58,000,000.00), together with interest at the times and at the rates specified in this Note.

1. Interest. From the date hereof through and including the Maturity Date (as hereinafter defined), interest ("Basic Interest") shall accrue on the principal balance of this Note outstanding from time to time at the rate of nine percent (9%) per annum ("Accrual Rate"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, on the fifteenth calendar day of each month commencing on March 15, 2004 and through the Maturity Date (as hereinafter defined), Maker shall pay to Payee interest on the unpaid principal balance of this Note from time to time at the rate of 2% per annum ("Pay Rate Interest"). The remainder of the Basic Interest ("Deferred Interest") shall be deferred and shall bear interest at the Accrual Rate. At the election of Payee, Deferred Interest shall accrue either in cash or in Additional Notes (as hereinafter defined). Any accrued interest on the Deferred Interest shall be considered part of Deferred Interest. Interest shall be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year and the actual number of days elapsed.

2. Payments. Pay Rate Interest shall be paid on the fifteenth calendar day of each month, until such time as the notes (the "Senior Notes") under the Indenture with respect to 8.5% Senior Notes Due 2014 of SAC Holding Corporation and SAC Holding II Corporation shall have been paid or satisfied in full. Upon the full repayment or satisfaction of the Senior Notes, payments hereunder shall continue to be made on the fifteenth calendar day of each month but shall consist of principal and Pay Rate Interest, and such principal payments shall be on the basis of a twenty-five year amortization. This Note shall mature on the last day of the month that is the ten (10) year anniversary of the full repayment or satisfaction of the Senior Notes (the "Maturity Date"). On the Maturity Date, all outstanding principal and interest (including Deferred Interest) shall be due and payable.

3. Prepayment. This Note may be prepaid in whole or in part, without penalty or premium.

4. Default Interest. During the existence of a Default (as hereinafter defined), interest will accrue on the entire loan balance at the rate of fifteen percent (15%) per annum commencing on the date the payment was due and continuing until the delinquent payment is received by the Payee.

5. Default and Remedies.

a. Default. The Maker will be in default under this Note if the Maker fails, following the full repayment or satisfaction of the Senior Notes, to make a payment of principal, interest, or other charge when due, which failure to pay is not cured within five (5) business days after the due date therefor.

b. Remedies. Upon a default as described in subparagraph 5.a ("Default"), Payee shall have the right to immediately accelerate the obligations under this Note and all sums owing with respect to this Note will immediately become due and payable.

6. Unsecured. This Note and the obligations hereunder are unsecured.

7. Waivers. The Maker, and any endorsers or guarantors of this Note, severally waive diligence, presentment, protest, demand and all rights of offset and also notice of protest, demand, dishonor, acceleration, intent to accelerate, offset and nonpayment of this Note, and expressly agree that this Note, or any payment under this Note, may be extended from time to time in the Payee's sole discretion without notice, and consent to the acceptance of further security or the release of any security for this Note, all without in any way affecting the liability of the Maker and any endorsers or guarantors of this Note. No extension of time for the payment of this Note, or any installment hereof, made by agreement by the Payee with any person now or hereafter liable for the payment of this Note, will affect the original liability of the Maker under this Note, even if that person is not a party to such agreement. The Payee may waive its rights to require performance of or compliance with any term, covenant or condition of this Note only by express written waiver.

8. Additional Note. At the request of Payee, Maker shall deliver to Payee additional promissory notes (the "Additional Note") to evidence Maker's indebtedness hereunder pursuant to the Deferred Interest. In such event, such Deferred Interest shall be evidenced by such Additional Note and not pursuant to the terms of this Note. Any such Additional Note shall contain economic terms akin to those set forth herein.

9. Maximum Legal Rate of Interest. All agreements between the Payee and the Maker whether now existing or hereafter arising, are hereby limited so that in no event will the interest charged under this Note or agreed to be paid to the Payee exceed the maximum amount permissible under applicable law. If interest otherwise payable to the Payee would exceed the maximum lawful amount, the interest payable will be reduced to the maximum amount permitted under applicable law.

11. Miscellaneous.

a. Costs. The Maker will pay all costs, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and expert fees incurred by the Payee in collecting the sums due under this Note.

b. Modification. This Note may be modified only by a written agreement executed by the person against whom the change, modification or waiver is to be enforced.

c. Law. This Note will be governed by Arizona law, without regard to the choice of law principles thereof.

d. Successors. The terms of this Note will inure to the benefit of and bind the Maker and the Payee and its heirs, legal representatives and successors and assigns.

e. Time. Time is of the essence with respect to all matters set forth in this Note.

f. Destroyed Note. If this Note is destroyed, lost or stolen, the Maker will deliver a new Note to the Payee on the same terms and conditions as this Note with a notation of the unpaid principal and accrued and unpaid interest in substitution of the prior Note. The Payee will furnish to the Maker reasonable evidence that the Note was destroyed, lost or stolen and any security or indemnity that may be reasonably required by the Maker in connection with the replacement of this Note.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Maker has duly executed and delivered this Note to the Payee as of the date and year first above written.

"Maturity Date": shall mean the first to occur of: (i) the Stated Maturity Date; (ii) the date on which the unpaid principal balance of, and unpaid Interest on, this Note shall become due and payable on account of acceleration by Payee and (iii) the date on which a Triggering Event occurs.

"Net Capital Proceeds": shall have the meaning given it in Section 2(h)(iv) below.

"Net Cash Flow": shall mean, for any period, the amount by which the Gross Receipts for such period exceed the sum of Interest paid during such period and Operating Expenses paid for and with respect to such period; but Net Cash Flow for any period shall not be less than zero.

"Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service": shall mean, for any period, the amount by which the Gross Receipts for such period exceed the Operating Expenses for and with respect to such period.

"Note": shall mean this Amended and Restated Promissory Note as it may be amended, modified, extended or restated from time to time, together with all substitutions and replacements therefor.

"Operating Expenses": shall mean, for any period, all cash expenditures of Maker and the Property Owner actually paid (and properly payable) during such period for (i) real and personal property taxes on the Real Property; (ii) principal and interest on the secured Real Property debt; (iii) premiums for liability, property and other insurance on the Real Property; (iv) the Management Fee; (v) sales and rental taxes relating to the Real Property; and (vi) normal, reasonable and customary operating expenses of the Real Property. In no event shall Operating Expenses include amounts distributed to the partners or shareholder's of Maker or the Property Owner, any payments made on the Loan or any other loan obtained by Maker, amounts paid out of any funded reserve expressly approved by Payee, if any, non-cash expenses such as depreciation, or any cost or expense related to the restoration of the Property in the event of a casualty or eminent domain taking paid for from the proceeds of insurance or an eminent domain award or any reserve funded by insurance proceeds or eminent domain awards.

"Pay Rate": shall mean a rate per annum equal of two percent (2.0%).

"Pay Rate Interest": shall mean the interest on the unpaid principal balance of this Note from time to time outstanding at the Pay Rate.

"Person": shall mean any corporation, natural person, firm, joint venture, general partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, trust, unincorporated organization, government or any department or agency of any government.

"Property Manager": shall have the meaning given it in Section 6(f) below.

"Property Management Agreement": shall have the meaning given such term in Section 6(f) below.

"Property Owner" means Eighteen SAC Self-Storage Corporation, a Nevada corporation.

"Real Property" means the real property owned by Property Owner from time to time.

"SAC Holding Senior Notes": shall mean the 8.5% Senior Notes due 2014 of SAC Holding Corporation and SAC Holding II Corporation.

"SAC Notes Indenture": shall mean that certain Indenture with respect to the SAC Holding Senior Notes.

"Sale": shall mean any direct or indirect sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance, lease or disposition of any kind whatsoever of (i) the Real Property or any portion thereof (excluding leases and licenses in the ordinary course of business, the granting of easements, servitudes, rights-of-way, dedications and like interests in the ordinary course of business and conveyances pursuant to condemnations or eminent domain) or (ii) 25% or more (in the aggregate of all such sales, assignments, transfers, conveyances or dispositions made at any time or from time to time, taken together) of the equity interests in Property Owner.

"Stated Maturity Date": shall mean the earlier of (i) January 1, 2022 and (ii) from and after April 1, 2014, on demand by Payee.

"Triggering Event": shall have the meaning given it in Section 2(h)(ii) below.

2. Interest.

(a) Basic Interest Rate Prior to Maturity. From the date hereof through and including the Maturity Date, interest ("Basic Interest") shall accrue on the principal balance of this Note outstanding from time to time at the Accrual Rate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, on the first business day of each month commencing on March 1, 2004 and through the Maturity Date, Maker shall pay to Payee Pay Rate Interest on the unpaid principal balance of this Note. The remainder of the Basic Interest ("Deferred Interest") shall be deferred and shall bear interest at the Accrual Rate, and shall be payable as and at the time provided in Section 2(d) below. Any accrued interest on the Deferred Interest shall be considered part of Deferred Interest.

All interest hereunder shall be payable monthly in arrears, on the first business day of each month.

(b) Post-Maturity Basic Interest. From and after the Maturity Date, Basic Interest shall accrue and be payable on the outstanding principal balance hereof until paid in full at an annual rate equal to fifteen percent (15%) and such interest shall be payable upon demand.

(c) Computations. All computations of interest and fees payable hereunder shall be based upon a year of 360 days for the actual number of days elapsed.

(d) Deferred Interest. Deferred Interest shall be paid as follows:

(i) On each monthly date for the payment of Basic Interest, Maker shall pay an amount, if any (the "Catch-Up Payment"), equal to the lesser of (i) the aggregate outstanding Deferred Interest on the last day of the month for which such payment is being made and (ii) ninety percent (90%) of the result of subtracting from Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for that month an amount equal to twice the Pay Rate Interest for such period;

(ii) All unpaid Deferred Interest shall be paid on the Maturity Date; and

(iii) No payment of Deferred Interest may, when added to all other payments of Interest or payments construed as interest, shall exceed the Highest Lawful Rate.

- (e) Cash Flow Contingent Interest. In addition to Basic Interest and Deferred Interest, on each date on which Basic Interest is payable hereunder, Maker shall pay to Payee interest ("Cash Flow Contingent Interest") in an amount equal to the amount (if any) by which (i) ninety percent (90%) of the result of subtracting from Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for that month an amount equal to twice the Pay Rate Interest for such period (each calculated as of that date) exceeds (ii) the Catch-Up Payment paid on that date by Maker to Payee.
- (f) Statements; Adjustment of Payments. Within thirty (30) days following the due date for each payment of Basic Interest, Maker shall, upon the request of Payee, deliver to Payee a statement of operations of the Real Property for the month or other period with respect to which such Basic Interest is due, showing in reasonable detail and in a format approved by Payee the respective amounts of, and the method of calculating Gross Receipts, Operating Expenses, Net Cash Flow, Catch-Up Payment and Cash Flow Contingent Interest for the preceding month, as well as (if requested by Payee) all data reasonably necessary for the calculation of any such amounts. Maker shall keep and maintain at all times full and accurate books of account and records adequate to correctly reflect all such amounts. Such books and records shall be available for at least five years after the end of the month to which they relate. Payee shall have the right to inspect, copy and audit such books of account and records during reasonable business hours, and upon prior reasonable notice to Maker, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any payments made on account of any interest payments made hereunder. The costs of any such audit will be paid by Payee, except that Maker shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of any such audit which discloses that any amount properly payable by Maker to Payee hereunder exceeded by five percent (5%) or more the amount actually paid and initially reported by Maker as being payable with respect thereto.
- (g) Prorations of Cash Flow Contingent Interest. All interest shall be equitably prorated on the basis of a 360-day year for any partial month in which the term of the Loan commences or in which the Note is paid in full.
- (h) Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest.
- (i) Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest Defined. Subject to Section 2(i) hereof, Maker shall pay to Payee, in addition to Pay Rate Interest, Deferred Interest and Cash Flow Contingent Interest, at the time or times and in the manner hereinafter described, an amount equal to ninety percent (90%) of the Net Capital Proceeds resulting from, or determined at the time of, any of the Triggering Events described below (collectively, "Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest").
- (ii) Events Triggering Payment of Net Capital Proceeds. Subject to Section 2(i) hereof, Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be due and payable concurrently with the occurrence of each and every one of the following events (collectively "Triggering Events", and individually, a "Triggering Event"):
- (A) Property Sale or Financing. The closing of any Sale or refinancing of the Real Property (any such event is hereinafter collectively referred to as a "Sale or Financing");

(B) Default Occurrence. The occurrence of any Event of Default and the acceleration of the maturity of the Loan on account thereof (hereinafter collectively referred to as a "Default Occurrence"); and

(C) Maturity Occurrence. The occurrence of the Maturity Date (the "Maturity Occurrence").

(iii) Notice of Triggering Event: Time for Payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. Maker shall notify Payee of the occurrence of a Triggering Event, and shall pay Payee the full amount of any applicable Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest which is payable in connection therewith, as follows:

(A) In the case of any Sale or Financing or the Maturity Occurrence, Maker shall give Payee written notice of any such Triggering Event not less than forty-five (45) days before the date such Triggering Event is to occur. Any Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest due Payee on account of any Sale or Financing or the Maturity Occurrence shall be due and payable to Payee within ninety (90) days of the date on which such Triggering Event occurs.

(B) In the case of a Default Occurrence, no notice of such a Triggering Event need be given by Maker. In such event, payment of any and all Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest on account of the Default Occurrence shall be immediately due and payable upon acceleration of the maturity of the Loan.

(iv) Determination of Net Capital Proceeds. Net Capital Proceeds resulting from a Triggering Event shall be determined as follows:

(A) Net Capital Proceeds From Sale or Financing. Except as provided in Section 2(h)(iv)(B) below, in the event of a Sale or Financing, "Net Capital Proceeds" shall be the amount which is equal to:

(i) the Gross Capital Proceeds (as hereinafter defined) realized from the Real Property minus (ii) the sum of: (aa) reasonable brokerage commissions (excluding any payments to any affiliate of Maker to the extent such payments exceed those which would have been due as commissions to a non-affiliate broker rendering identical services), title insurance premiums, documentary transfer or stamp taxes, mortgage taxes, environmental report fees, escrow fees and recording charges, appraisal fees, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, and sales taxes, in each case actually paid or payable by Maker (or Property Owner) in connection with the Sale or Financing, (bb) all payments of principal, Basic Interest and Cash Flow Contingent Interest payable to Payee on account of this Note from the proceeds of such Sale or Financing, and (cc) an amount equal to all payments of principal, interest and yield maintenance and/or defeasance fees and expenses due and payable on any senior loans, if any (including, without limitation the SAC Holding Senior Notes), made from the proceeds of such Sale or Financing. For purposes of this Section 2(h), "Gross Capital Proceeds" shall mean the gross proceeds of whatever form or nature payable directly or indirectly to or for the benefit or account of Maker in connection with such Sale or Financing, including, without limitation: cash, the outstanding balance of any financing which will remain as a lien or encumbrance against the Real Property or any portion thereof following such Sale or Financing (but only in the case of a Sale, and not in the case of an encumbrance), and the cash equivalent of the fair market value of any non-cash consideration, including the present value of any promissory note received as part of the proceeds of such Sale or Financing (valued at a market rate of interest).

(B) Net Capital Proceeds In Connection With a Default or Maturity Occurrence. In the event of a Default Occurrence or the Maturity Occurrence when no Sale or Financing has occurred, the "Net Capital Proceeds" shall equal: (i) the fair market value of the Real Property determined as of the date of such Triggering Event in accordance with Section 2(h)(v) below, minus (ii) the sum of (aa) the outstanding principal balance, together with accrued but unpaid Basic Interest on this Note and (bb) the outstanding principal balance of, and accrued but unpaid interest on, the secured Real Property debt.

(v) Determination of Fair Market Value. The fair market value of the Real Property shall be determined for purposes of this Note as follows:

(A) Partial Sale. In the event of a Sale of a portion of the Real Property, Payee shall select an experienced and reputable appraiser to prepare a written appraisal report of the fair market value of the Real Property in accordance with clause (C) below, and the appraised fair market value submitted to Payee by such appraiser shall be conclusive for purposes of this Note.

(B) Other Occurrences. In all other circumstances the fair market value of the Real Property shall be deemed to equal the result of dividing the Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for the immediately preceding fiscal year by ten percent (10%). However, if the Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for the immediately preceding fiscal year has been lowered because of unusually high Operating Expenses during such fiscal year the fair market value of the Real Property may, at the option of the Maker be determined by dividing by ten percent (10%) the mean average of the Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service of the Real Property for the three immediately preceding fiscal years of the Real Property.

(C) Appraisal Standards and Assumptions. In making any determination by appraisal of fair market value, the appraiser(s) shall assume that the improvements then located on the Real Property constitute the highest and best use of the property. If the Triggering Event is a Sale or Financing, the appraiser(s) shall take the sales price into account, although such sales price shall not be determinative of fair market value. Each appraiser selected hereunder shall be an independent MAI-designated appraiser with not less than ten years' experience in commercial real estate appraisal in the general geographical area where the Real Property is located.

(vi) Statement, Books and Records. With each payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest, Maker shall furnish to Payee a statement setting forth Maker's calculation of Net Capital Proceeds and Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest and shall provide a detailed breakdown of all items necessary for such calculation. For a period of five years after each payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest, Maker shall keep and maintain full and accurate books and records adequate to correctly reflect each such item. Said books and records shall be available for Payee's inspection, copying and audit during reasonable business hours following reasonable notice for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of the payments made on account of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. The costs of any such audit will be paid by Payee, except that Maker shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of any such audit which discloses that any amount properly payable by Maker to Payee hereunder exceeded by five percent (5%) or more the amount actually paid and initially reported by maker as being payable with respect thereto.

(viii) Negative Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Payee shall not be responsible or liable in any respect to Maker or any other Person for any reduction in the fair market value of the Real Property or for any contingency, condition or occurrence that might result in a negative number for Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. If at any time it is calculated, Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be a negative amount, no Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall at that time be payable to Payee, but Payee shall in no way be liable for any such negative amount and there shall be no deduction or offset for such negative amount at any time when Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be subsequently calculated.

(i) Limitation on Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest while SAC Holding Senior Notes Remain Outstanding. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event a Triggering Event takes place at any time while all or any portion of the SAC Holding Senior Notes is outstanding, the payment of any Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest on account of such occurrence shall be deferred as hereinafter provided, and any amounts constituting Excess Sale Proceeds or Excess Refinancing Proceeds under the SAC Notes Indenture related to such occurrence shall be applied to redeem or repurchase the SAC Holding Senior Notes, in accordance with the terms of the SAC Notes Indenture, it being agreed that payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest is subordinate to the payment in full of the SAC Holding Senior Notes. Subject to the terms of the SAC Notes Indenture and the PSA, Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be paid within five years of the occurrence of such Triggering Event.

3. Usury Savings Clause. The provisions of this Section 3 shall govern and control over any inconsistent provision contained in this Note. The Payee hereof shall never be entitled to receive, collect, or apply as interest hereon (for purposes of this Section 3, the word "interest" shall be deemed to include Basic Interest, Additional Interest and any other sums treated as interest under applicable law governing matters of usury and unlawful interest), any amount in excess of the Highest Lawful Rate (hereinafter defined) and, in the event the Payee ever receives, collects, or applies as interest any such excess, such amount which would be excessive interest shall be deemed a partial prepayment of principal and shall be treated hereunder as such; and, if the principal of this Note is paid in full, any remaining excess shall forthwith be paid to Maker. In determining whether or not the interest paid or payable, under any specific contingency, exceeds the Highest Lawful Rate, Maker and the Payee shall, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, (i) characterize any nonprincipal payment as an expense, fee, or premium rather than as interest, (ii) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof, and (iii) spread the total amount of interest throughout the entire contemplated term of this Note; provided, that if this Note is paid and performed in full prior to the end of the full contemplated term hereof, and if the interest received for the actual period of existence hereof exceeds the Highest Lawful Rate, the Payee shall refund to Maker the amount of such excess or credit the amount of such excess against the principal of this Note, and, in such event, the Payee shall not be subject to any penalties provided by any laws for contracting for, charging, or receiving interest in excess of the Highest Lawful Rate.

4. Payments.

(a) Interest. Maker promises to pay to Payee Basic Interest and Additional Interest the respective amounts, and at the respective times provided in Section 2 hereinabove. No principal payments shall be due hereunder except as required at the Maturity Date. Each payment of Basic Interest (including without limitation, Deferred Interest) and Additional Interest shall be payable in Phoenix, Arizona (or at any other place which Payee may hereafter designate from time to time for such purpose in a notice duly given to Maker hereunder), not later than noon, Pacific Standard Time, on the date due thereof; and funds received after that hour shall be deemed to have been received by the Payee on the next following business day. Whenever any payment to be made under this Note shall be stated to be due on a date which is not a business day, the due date thereof shall be extended to the next succeeding business day, and interest shall be payable at the applicable rate during such extension.

(b) Principal. The principal amount of this Note, together with all accrued but unpaid Interest, shall be due and payable upon the Maturity Date.

(c) Late Payment Charges. If any amount of Interest, principal or any other charge or amount which becomes due and payable under this Note is not paid and received by the Payee within five business days after the date it first becomes due and payable, Maker shall pay to the Payee hereof a late payment charge in an amount equal to five percent (5%) of the full amount of such late payment, whether such late payment is received prior to or after the expiration of the ten-day cure period set forth in Section 8(a). Maker recognizes that in the event any payment hereunder (other than the principal payment due upon Maturity Date, whether by acceleration or otherwise) is not made when due, Payee will incur extra expenses in handling the delinquent payment, the exact amount of which is impossible to ascertain, but that a charge of five percent (5%) of the amount of the delinquent payment is a reasonable estimate of the expenses reasonably anticipated to be so incurred.

(d) Prepayment. Maker shall have the right to prepay this Note, without penalty, in whole or in part, at any time in Maker's discretion.

5. Representations and Warranties of Maker. Maker represents and warrants to Payee, as of the date hereof, that:

(a) Due Authorization. Maker is a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the state of its organization, and has the power and authority to execute and deliver this Note and consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(b) No Violation. Maker's execution, delivery and performance of its obligations under this Note do not and will not violate the articles of incorporation or by-laws of Maker and will not violate, conflict with or constitute a default under any agreement to which Maker is a party;

(c) Consents. No consents, approvals, filings, or notices of, with or to any Person are required on the part of Maker in connection with Maker's execution, delivery and performance of its obligations hereunder that have not been duly obtained, made or given, as the case may be;

(d) Enforceability. The Note is valid, binding and enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as the enforceability hereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization or similar laws relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally.

(e) Place of Business. Maker's principal place of business is located at 715 South Country Club Drive, Mesa, AZ 85210.

6. Affirmative Covenants. Maker hereby covenants and agrees that, so long as any indebtedness under the Note remains unpaid, Maker shall:

(a) Use of Proceeds. Use the proceeds of the Loan to capitalize the Property Owner and/or for other lawful corporate purposes.

(b) Inspection of Property; Books and Records; Discussions. Keep proper books of record and account in which full, true and correct entries in conformity with GAAP shall be made of all dealings and transactions in relation to its business and activities and, upon reasonable notice, permit representatives of Payee to examine and make abstracts from any of its books and records at any reasonable time and as often as may reasonably be desired by Payee and to discuss the business, operations, properties and financial and other conditions of Maker with officers and employees of Maker and with its independent certified public accountants. Such books and records shall be available for at least five (5) years after the end of the relevant calendar month. Payee shall have the right to inspect, copy and audit such books of account and records at Payee's expense, during reasonable business hours, and upon reasonable notice to Maker, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any principal payments made. The costs of any such audit will be paid by Payee, except that Maker shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of any such audit which discloses that any amount properly payable by Maker to Payee hereunder exceeded by five percent (5%) or more the amount actually paid and initially reported by Maker as being payable with respect thereto.

(c) Notices. Give prompt written notice to Payee of (i) any claims, proceedings or disputes (whether or not purportedly on behalf of Maker) against, or to Maker's knowledge, threatened or affecting Maker or the Real Property which, if adversely determined, could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Maker (without in any way limiting the foregoing, claims, proceedings, or disputes involving in the aggregate monetary amounts in excess of $500,000 not fully covered by insurance shall be deemed to be material). Additionally, Maker shall give prompt written notice to Payee of any fact known to Maker which would prohibit the making of any payment on or in respect of this Note, but failure to give such notice shall not affect any subordination of this Note to the SAC Holding Senior Notes as provided in Section 2(i) hereof or otherwise.

(d) Expenses. Pay all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including fees and disbursements of counsel, including special local counsel) of Payee, incident to any amendments, waivers and renewals of this Note.

(e) Co-operation. Execute and deliver to Payee any and all instruments, documents and agreements, and do or cause to be done from time to time any and all other acts, reasonably deemed necessary or desirable by Payee to effectuate the provisions and purposes of this Note.

(f) Management Agreement. Cause or permit the Real Property to be managed by subsidiaries of U-Haul International, Inc. or to be at all times managed by a nationally recognized self-storage property management company (the "Property Manager") approved by the Payee, which Property Manager shall be employed pursuant to an agreement (the "Property Management Agreement") approved by the Payee. In no event shall the fees paid (or required to be paid) to the Property Manager exceed six percent (6%) of Gross Receipts for any time period.

7. Negative Covenants. Maker hereby agrees that, as long as any indebtedness under the Note remains unpaid, Maker shall not, directly or indirectly:

(a) Indebtedness. Create, incur or assume any Indebtedness except for: (i) the SAC Holding Senior Notes; (ii) the Loan; (iii) Maker's contingent obligations under the secured Real Property debt (as the same may be amended, extended or refinanced from time to time by mortgage loan, sale leaseback transaction or otherwise) and the other senior mortgage loans extended to subsidiaries or other affiliates of Maker (as the same may be amended, extended or refinanced from time to time by mortgage loan, sale leaseback transaction or otherwise); (iv) non-delinquent taxes; (v) unsecured debt incurred in the ordinary course of business and (vi) other indebtedness owed to Payee and its affiliates; provided, however, that for so long as the SAC Holding Senior Notes are outstanding, Maker shall not incur any Indebtedness prohibited by the terms of the SAC Notes Indenture.

(b) No Bankruptcy Filing. To the extent permitted by law, without the unanimous consent of the Board of Directors of the Maker (for these purposes such Board of Directors will not include any committee thereof) voluntarily file any petition for bankruptcy, reorganization, assignment for the benefit of creditors or similar proceeding.

8. Event of Default; Remedies. Any one of the following occurrences shall constitute an Event of Default under this Note:

(a) The failure by the undersigned to make any payment of principal or Interest upon this Note as and when the same becomes due and payable in accordance with the provisions hereof, and the continuation of such failure for a period of ten

(10) days after receipt of notice thereof to the Maker;

(b) Any representation, warranty or certification made by Maker herein or in any report delivered to the Payee under or in connection with this Note is materially inaccurate or incomplete as of the date made; provided, however, that such inaccurate or incomplete representation, warranty or certification is material and cannot be cured without material prejudice to the Payee within 30 days written notice thereof to Maker;

(c) The failure by Maker to perform any obligation under, or the occurrence of any other default with respect to any provision of, this Note other than as described in any of the other clauses of this Section 8, and the continuation of such default for a period of 30 days after written notice thereof to the Maker;

(d) (i) Maker shall file, institute or commence any case, proceeding or other action (A) under any existing or future law of any jurisdiction, domestic or foreign, relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors, seeking to have an order for relief entered with respect to it, or seeking to adjudicate it a bankrupt or insolvent, or seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, winding-up, liquidation, dissolution, composition or other relief with respect to it or its debts, or (B) seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or any substantial part of its assets, or Maker shall make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or (ii) there shall be filed, instituted or commenced against Maker any case, proceeding or other action of a nature referred to in clause (i) above which (A) results in the entry of any order for relief or any such adjudication or appointment, or (B) remains undismissed undischarged for a period of 60 days; or (iii) there shall be commenced against Maker any case, proceeding or other action seeking issuance of a warrant of attachment, execution, distraint or similar process against all or substantially all of its assets which results in the entry of an order for any such relief which shall not have been vacated, discharged, stayed, satisfied, or bonded to Payee's satisfaction pending appeal, within 60 days from the first entry thereof; or (iv) Maker shall take any action in furtherance of, or indicating its consent to, approval of, or acquiescence in, any of the acts described in any of the preceding clauses (i), (ii) or (iii); or (v) Maker shall not, or shall be unable to, or shall admit in writing its inability to, pay its debts as they become due, or shall in writing admit that it is insolvent; or

(f) one or more final judgments or orders that exceed $80 million in the aggregate (net of amounts bonded, covered by insurance or covered by a binding agreement for indemnification from a third party) for the payment of money have been entered by a court or courts of competent jurisdiction against Maker and such judgment or judgments have not been satisfied, stayed, annulled or rescinded within 60 days of being entered or, in the event such judgments have been bonded to the extent required pending appeal, after the date such judgments become non-appealable.

Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder, the entire unpaid principal balance of, and any unpaid Basic Interest and Additional Interest then accrued on, this Note at the option of the Payee and without demand or notice of any kind to the undersigned or any other person, shall, subject to the PSA, immediately become and be due and payable in full; and the Payee shall have and may exercise any and all rights and remedies available at law or in equity.

9. Offset. In addition to (and not in limitation of) any rights of offset that the Payee hereof may have under applicable law, upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder the Payee hereof shall have the right, immediately and without notice, to appropriate and apply to the payment of this Note any and all balances, credits, deposits, accounts or moneys of the Maker then or thereafter with or held by the Payee or an affiliate of Payee.

10. Allocation of Balances or of Payments. At any and all times until this Note and all amounts hereunder (including principal, Interest, and other charges and amounts, if any) are paid in full, all payments (whether of principal, Interest or other amounts) made by the undersigned or any other person (including any guarantor) to the Payee hereof may be allocated by the Payee to principal, Interest or other charges or amounts as the Payee may determine in its sole, exclusive and unreviewable discretion (and without notice to or the consent of any person).

11. Captions. Any headings or captions in this Note are inserted for convenience of reference only, and they shall not be deemed to constitute a part hereof, nor shall they be used to construe or interpret the provisions of this Note.

12. Waiver.

(a) Maker, for itself and for its successors, transferees and assigns, hereby waives diligence, presentment and demand for payment, protest, notice of protest and nonpayment, dishonor and notice of dishonor, notice of the intention to accelerate, notice of acceleration, and all other demands or notices of any and every kind whatsoever (except only for any notice of default expressly provided for in Section 8 of this Note) and the undersigned agrees that this Note and any or all payments coming due hereunder may be extended from time to time in the sole discretion of the Payee hereof without in any way affecting or diminishing their liability hereunder.

(b) No extension of the time for the payment of this Note or any payment becoming due or payable hereunder, which may be made by agreement with any Person now or hereafter liable for the payment of this Note, shall operate to release, discharge, modify, change or affect the original liability under this Note, either in whole or in part, of the Maker if it is not a party to such agreement.

(c) No delay in the exercise of any right or remedy hereunder shall be deemed a waiver of such right or remedy, nor shall the exercise of any right or remedy be deemed an election of remedies or a waiver of any other right or remedy. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the failure of the Payee hereof promptly after the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder to exercise its right to declare the indebtedness remaining unmatured hereunder to be immediately due and payable shall not constitute a waiver of such right while such Event of Default continues nor a waiver of such right in connection with any future Event of Default on the part of the undersigned.

13. Payment of Costs. The undersigned hereby expressly agrees that upon the occurrence of any Event of Default under this Note, the undersigned will pay to the Payee hereof, on demand, all reasonable costs of collection or enforcement, including (but not limited to) all attorneys' fees, court costs, and other costs and reasonable expenses incurred by the Payee hereof, on demand, all reasonable costs of collection or enforcement, including (but not limited to) all attorneys' fees, court costs, and other reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Payee hereof in connection with the protection of this Note, whether or not any lawsuit is ever filed with respect thereto.

14. Unsecured Note. This Note is unsecured.

15. Notices. All notices, demands and other communications hereunder to either party shall be made in writing and shall be deemed to have been given when actually received or, if mailed, on the first to occur of actual receipt or the third business day after the deposit thereof in the United States mails, by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

If to the Maker: SAC Holding Corporation

715 South Country Club Drive
Mesa, AZ 85210
Attention: President
Fax No.: 480-835-5478

If to Payee : U-Haul International, Inc.
2721 North Central Avenue
Phoenix, Arizona 85004
Attention: President

or to either party at such other address as such party may designate as its address for the receipt of notices hereunder in a written notice duly given to the other party.

16. Time of the Essence. Time is hereby declared to be of the essence of this Note and of every part hereof.

17. Governing Law. This Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Arizona.

18. Jurisdiction. In any controversy, dispute or question arising hereunder, the Maker consents to the exercise of jurisdiction over its person and property by any court of competent jurisdiction situated in the State of Arizona (whether it be a court of the State of Arizona, or a court of the United States of America situated in the State of Arizona), and in connection therewith, agrees to submit to, and be bound by, the jurisdiction of such court upon Payee's mailing of process by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, within or without the State of Arizona, to the Maker at its address for receipt of notices under this Note.

19. PAYEE NOT PARTNER OF MAKER. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WHATSOEVER SHALL THE PAYEE OF THIS NOTE BE DEEMED TO BE A PARTNER OR A CO-VENTURER WITH MAKER OR MAKER'S SUBSIDIARIES. MAKER SHALL NOT REPRESENT TO ANY PERSON THAT THE MAKER AND THE PAYEE HEREOF ARE PARTNERS OR CO-VENTURERS.

20. JURY TRIAL. THE MAKER HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING TO ENFORCE OR DEFEND ANY RIGHTS UNDER THIS NOTE, OR UNDER ANY AMENDMENT, INSTRUMENT, DOCUMENT OR AGREEMENT DELIVERED OR WHICH MAY IN THE FUTURE BE DELIVERED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH OR THEREWITH OR ARISING FROM ANY RELATIONSHIP EXISTING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS NOTE, AND AGREES THAT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE TRIED BEFORE A COURT AND NOT BEFORE A JURY.

21. Entire Agreement. This Note constitutes the entire agreement between Maker and Payee. No representations, warranties, undertakings, or promises whether written or oral, expressed or implied have been made by the Payee or its agent unless expressly stated in this Note.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed and delivered this Note, pursuant to proper authority duly granted, as of the date and year first above written.

"Net Capital Proceeds": shall have the meaning given it in Section 2(h)(iv) below.

"Net Cash Flow": shall mean, for any period, the amount by which the Gross Receipts for such period exceed the sum of Interest paid during such period and Operating Expenses paid for and with respect to such period; but Net Cash Flow for any period shall not be less than zero.

"Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service": shall mean, for any period, the amount by which the Gross Receipts for such period exceed the Operating Expenses for and with respect to such period.

"Note": shall mean this Amended and Restated Promissory Note as it may be amended, modified, extended or restated from time to time, together with all substitutions and replacements therefor.

"Operating Expenses": shall mean, for any period, all cash expenditures of Maker and the Property Owner actually paid (and properly payable) during such period for (i) real and personal property taxes on the Real Property; (ii) principal and interest on the secured Real Property debt; (iii) premiums for liability, property and other insurance on the Real Property; (iv) the Management Fee; (v) sales and rental taxes relating to the Real Property; and (vi) normal, reasonable and customary operating expenses of the Real Property. In no event shall Operating Expenses include amounts distributed to the partners or shareholder's of Maker or the Property Owner, any payments made on the Loan or any other loan obtained by Maker, amounts paid out of any funded reserve expressly approved by Payee, if any, non-cash expenses such as depreciation, or any cost or expense related to the restoration of the Property in the event of a casualty or eminent domain taking paid for from the proceeds of insurance or an eminent domain award or any reserve funded by insurance proceeds or eminent domain awards.

"Pay Rate": shall mean a rate per annum equal of two percent (2.0%).

"Pay Rate Interest": shall mean the interest on the unpaid principal balance of this Note from time to time outstanding at the Pay Rate.

"Person": shall mean any corporation, natural person, firm, joint venture, general partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, trust, unincorporated organization, government or any department or agency of any government.

"Property Manager": shall have the meaning given it in Section 6(f) below.

"Property Management Agreement": shall have the meaning given such term in Section 6(f) below.

"Property Owner" means, collectively, Twenty SAC Self-Storage Corporation, a Nevada corporation, Twenty-One SAC Self-Storage Corporation, a Nevada corporation, Twenty-Two SAC Self-Storage Corporation, a Nevada corporation and Twenty-Three SAC Self-Storage Corporation, a Nevada corporation.

"Real Property" means the real property owned by Property Owner from time to time.

"SAC Holding Senior Notes": shall mean the 8.5% Senior Notes due 2014 of SAC Holding Corporation and SAC Holding II Corporation.

"SAC Notes Indenture": shall mean that certain Indenture with respect to the SAC Holding Senior Notes.

"Sale": shall mean any direct or indirect sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance, lease or disposition of any kind whatsoever of (i) the Real Property or any portion thereof (excluding leases and licenses in the ordinary course of business, the granting of easements, servitudes, rights-of-way, dedications and like interests in the ordinary course of business and conveyances pursuant to condemnations or eminent domain) or (ii) 25% or more (in the aggregate of all such sales, assignments, transfers, conveyances or dispositions made at any time or from time to time, taken together) of the equity interests in Property Owner.

"Stated Maturity Date": shall mean the earlier of (i) January 1, 2022 and (ii) from and after April 1, 2014, on demand by Payee.

"Triggering Event": shall have the meaning given it in Section 2(h)(ii) below.

2. Interest.

(a) Basic Interest Rate Prior to Maturity. From the date hereof through and including the Maturity Date, interest ("Basic Interest") shall accrue on the principal balance of this Note outstanding from time to time at the Accrual Rate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, on the first business day of each month commencing on March 1, 2004 and through the Maturity Date, Maker shall pay to Payee Pay Rate Interest on the unpaid principal balance of this Note. The remainder of the Basic Interest ("Deferred Interest") shall be deferred and shall bear interest at the Accrual Rate, and shall be payable as and at the time provided in Section 2(d) below. Any accrued interest on the Deferred Interest shall be considered part of Deferred Interest.

All interest hereunder shall be payable monthly in arrears, on the first business day of each month.

(b) Post-Maturity Basic Interest. From and after the Maturity Date, Basic Interest shall accrue and be payable on the outstanding principal balance hereof until paid in full at an annual rate equal to fifteen percent (15%) and such interest shall be payable upon demand.

(c) Computations. All computations of interest and fees payable hereunder shall be based upon a year of 360 days for the actual number of days elapsed.

(d) Deferred Interest. Deferred Interest shall be paid as follows:

(i) On each monthly date for the payment of Basic Interest, Maker shall pay an amount, if any (the "Catch-Up Payment"), equal to the lesser of (i) the aggregate outstanding Deferred Interest on the last day of the month for which such payment is being made and (ii) ninety percent (90%) of the result of subtracting from Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for that month an amount equal to twice the Pay Rate Interest for such period;

(ii) All unpaid Deferred Interest shall be paid on the Maturity Date; and

(iii) No payment of Deferred Interest may, when added to all other payments of Interest or payments construed as interest, shall exceed the Highest Lawful Rate.

(e) Cash Flow Contingent Interest. In addition to Basic Interest and Deferred Interest, on each date on which Basic Interest is payable hereunder, Maker shall pay to Payee interest ("Cash Flow Contingent Interest") in an amount equal to the amount (if any) by which (i) ninety percent (90%) of the result of subtracting from Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for that month an amount equal to twice the Pay Rate Interest for such period (each calculated as of that date) exceeds (ii) the Catch-Up Payment paid on that date by Maker to Payee.

(f) Statements; Adjustment of Payments. Within thirty (30) days following the due date for each payment of Basic Interest, Maker shall, upon the request of Payee, deliver to Payee a statement of operations of the Real Property for the month or other period with respect to which such Basic Interest is due, showing in reasonable detail and in a format approved by Payee the respective amounts of, and the method of calculating Gross Receipts, Operating Expenses, Net Cash Flow, Catch-Up Payment and Cash Flow Contingent Interest for the preceding month, as well as (if requested by Payee) all data reasonably necessary for the calculation of any such amounts. Maker shall keep and maintain at all times full and accurate books of account and records adequate to correctly reflect all such amounts. Such books and records shall be available for at least five years after the end of the month to which they relate. Payee shall have the right to inspect, copy and audit such books of account and records during reasonable business hours, and upon prior reasonable notice to Maker, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any payments made on account of any interest payments made hereunder. The costs of any such audit will be paid by Payee, except that Maker shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of any such audit which discloses that any amount properly payable by Maker to Payee hereunder exceeded by five percent (5%) or more the amount actually paid and initially reported by Maker as being payable with respect thereto.

(g) Prorations of Cash Flow Contingent Interest. All interest shall be equitably prorated on the basis of a 360-day year for any partial month in which the term of the Loan commences or in which the Note is paid in full.

(h) Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest.

(i) Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest Defined. Subject to Section 2(i) hereof, Maker shall pay to Payee, in addition to Pay Rate Interest, Deferred Interest and Cash Flow Contingent Interest, at the time or times and in the manner hereinafter described, an amount equal to ninety percent (90%) of the Net Capital Proceeds resulting from, or determined at the time of, any of the Triggering Events described below (collectively, "Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest").

(ii) Events Triggering Payment of Net Capital Proceeds. Subject to Section 2(i) hereof, Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be due and payable concurrently with the occurrence of each and every one of the following events (collectively "Triggering Events", and individually, a "Triggering Event"):

(A) Property Sale or Financing. The closing of any Sale or refinancing of the Real Property (any such event is hereinafter collectively referred to as a "Sale or Financing");

(B) Default Occurrence. The occurrence of any Event of Default and the acceleration of the maturity of the Loan on account thereof (hereinafter collectively referred to as a "Default Occurrence"); and

(C) Maturity Occurrence. The occurrence of the Maturity Date (the "Maturity Occurrence").

(iii) Notice of Triggering Event: Time for Payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. Maker shall notify Payee of the occurrence of a Triggering Event, and shall pay Payee the full amount of any applicable Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest which is payable in connection therewith, as follows:

(A) In the case of any Sale or Financing or the Maturity Occurrence, Maker shall give Payee written notice of any such Triggering Event not less than forty-five (45) days before the date such Triggering Event is to occur. Any Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest due Payee on account of any Sale or Financing or the Maturity Occurrence shall be due and payable to Payee within ninety (90) days of the date on which such Triggering Event occurs.

(B) In the case of a Default Occurrence, no notice of such a Triggering Event need be given by Maker. In such event, payment of any and all Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest on account of the Default Occurrence shall be immediately due and payable upon acceleration of the maturity of the Loan.

(iv) Determination of Net Capital Proceeds. Net Capital Proceeds resulting from a Triggering Event shall be determined as follows:

(A) Net Capital Proceeds From Sale or Financing. Except as provided in Section 2(h)(iv)(B) below, in the event of a Sale or Financing, "Net Capital Proceeds" shall be the amount which is equal to:

(i) the Gross Capital Proceeds (as hereinafter defined) realized from the Real Property minus (ii) the sum of: (aa) reasonable brokerage commissions (excluding any payments to any affiliate of Maker to the extent such payments exceed those which would have been due as commissions to a non-affiliate broker rendering identical services), title insurance premiums, documentary transfer or stamp taxes, mortgage taxes, environmental report fees, escrow fees and recording charges, appraisal fees, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, and sales taxes, in each case actually paid or payable by Maker (or Property Owner) in connection with the Sale or Financing, (bb) all payments of principal, Basic Interest and Cash Flow Contingent Interest payable to Payee on account of this Note from the proceeds of such Sale or Financing, and (cc) an amount equal to all payments of principal, interest and yield maintenance and/or defeasance fees and expenses due and payable on any senior loans, if any (including, without limitation the SAC Holding Senior Notes), made from the proceeds of such Sale or Financing. For purposes of this Section 2(h), "Gross Capital Proceeds" shall mean the gross proceeds of whatever form or nature payable directly or indirectly to or for the benefit or account of Maker in connection with such Sale or Financing, including, without limitation: cash, the outstanding balance of any financing which will remain as a lien or encumbrance against the Real Property or any portion thereof following such Sale or Financing (but only in the case of a Sale, and not in the case of an encumbrance), and the cash equivalent of the fair market value of any non-cash consideration, including the present value of any promissory note received as part of the proceeds of such Sale or Financing (valued at a market rate of interest).

(B) Net Capital Proceeds In Connection With a Default or Maturity Occurrence. In the event of a Default Occurrence or the Maturity Occurrence when no Sale or Financing has occurred, the "Net Capital Proceeds" shall equal: (i) the fair market value of the Real Property determined as of the date of such Triggering Event in accordance with Section 2(h)(v) below, minus (ii) the sum of (aa) the outstanding principal balance, together with accrued but unpaid Basic Interest on this Note and (bb) the outstanding principal balance of, and accrued but unpaid interest on, the secured Real Property debt.

(v) Determination of Fair Market Value. The fair market value of the Real Property shall be determined for purposes of this Note as follows:

(A) Partial Sale. In the event of a Sale of a portion of the Real Property, Payee shall select an experienced and reputable appraiser to prepare a written appraisal report of the fair market value of the Real Property in accordance with clause (C) below, and the appraised fair market value submitted to Payee by such appraiser shall be conclusive for purposes of this Note.

(B) Other Occurrences. In all other circumstances the fair market value of the Real Property shall be deemed to equal the result of dividing the Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for the immediately preceding fiscal year by ten percent (10%). However, if the Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for the immediately preceding fiscal year has been lowered because of unusually high Operating Expenses during such fiscal year the fair market value of the Real Property may, at the option of the Maker be determined by dividing by ten percent (10%) the mean average of the Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service of the Real Property for the three immediately preceding fiscal years of the Real Property.

(C) Appraisal Standards and Assumptions. In making any determination by appraisal of fair market value, the appraiser(s) shall assume that the improvements then located on the Real Property constitute the highest and best use of the property. If the Triggering Event is a Sale or Financing, the appraiser(s) shall take the sales price into account, although such sales price shall not be determinative of fair market value. Each appraiser selected hereunder shall be an independent MAI-designated appraiser with not less than ten years' experience in commercial real estate appraisal in the general geographical area where the Real Property is located.

(vi) Statement, Books and Records. With each payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest, Maker shall furnish to Payee a statement setting forth Maker's calculation of Net Capital Proceeds and Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest and shall provide a detailed breakdown of all items necessary for such calculation. For a period of five years after each payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest, Maker shall keep and maintain full and accurate books and records adequate to correctly reflect each such item. Said books and records shall be available for Payee's inspection, copying and audit during reasonable business hours following reasonable notice for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of the payments made on account of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. The costs of any such audit will be paid by Payee, except that Maker shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of any such audit which discloses that any amount properly payable by Maker to Payee hereunder exceeded by five percent (5%) or more the amount actually paid and initially reported by maker as being payable with respect thereto.

(viii) Negative Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Payee shall not be responsible or liable in any respect to Maker or any other Person for any reduction in the fair market value of the Real Property or for any contingency, condition or occurrence that might result in a negative number for Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. If at any time it is calculated, Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be a negative amount, no Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall at that time be payable to Payee, but Payee shall in no way be liable for any such negative amount and there shall be no deduction or offset for such negative amount at any time when Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be subsequently calculated.

(i) Limitation on Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest while SAC Holding Senior Notes Remain Outstanding. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event a Triggering Event takes place at any time while all or any portion of the SAC Holding Senior Notes is outstanding, the payment of any Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest on account of such occurrence shall be deferred as hereinafter provided, and any amounts constituting Excess Sale Proceeds or Excess Refinancing Proceeds under the SAC Notes Indenture related to such occurrence shall be applied to redeem or repurchase the SAC Holding Senior Notes, in accordance with the terms of the SAC Notes Indenture, it being agreed that payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest is subordinate to the payment in full of the SAC Holding Senior Notes. Subject to the terms of the SAC Notes Indenture and the PSA, Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be paid within five years of the occurrence of such Triggering Event.

3. Usury Savings Clause. The provisions of this Section 3 shall govern and control over any inconsistent provision contained in this Note. The Payee hereof shall never be entitled to receive, collect, or apply as interest hereon (for purposes of this Section 3, the word "interest" shall be deemed to include Basic Interest, Additional Interest and any other sums treated as interest under applicable law governing matters of usury and unlawful interest), any amount in excess of the Highest Lawful Rate (hereinafter defined) and, in the event the Payee ever receives, collects, or applies as interest any such excess, such amount which would be excessive interest shall be deemed a partial prepayment of principal and shall be treated hereunder as such; and, if the principal of this Note is paid in full, any remaining excess shall forthwith be paid to Maker. In determining whether or not the interest paid or payable, under any specific contingency, exceeds the Highest Lawful Rate, Maker and the Payee shall, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, (i) characterize any nonprincipal payment as an expense, fee, or premium rather than as interest, (ii) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof, and (iii) spread the total amount of interest throughout the entire contemplated term of this Note; provided, that if this Note is paid and performed in full prior to the end of the full contemplated term hereof, and if the interest received for the actual period of existence hereof exceeds the Highest Lawful Rate, the Payee shall refund to Maker the amount of such excess or credit the amount of such excess against the principal of this Note, and, in such event, the Payee shall not be subject to any penalties provided by any laws for contracting for, charging, or receiving interest in excess of the Highest Lawful Rate.

4. Payments.

(a) Interest. Maker promises to pay to Payee Basic Interest and Additional Interest the respective amounts, and at the respective times provided in Section 2 hereinabove. No principal payments shall be due hereunder except as required at the Maturity Date. Each payment of Basic Interest (including without limitation, Deferred Interest) and Additional Interest shall be payable in Phoenix, Arizona (or at any other place which Payee may hereafter designate from time to time for such purpose in a notice duly given to Maker hereunder), not later than noon, Pacific Standard Time, on the date due thereof; and funds received after that hour shall be deemed to have been received by the Payee on the next following business day. Whenever any payment to be made under this Note shall be stated to be due on a date which is not a business day, the due date thereof shall be extended to the next succeeding business day, and interest shall be payable at the applicable rate during such extension.

(b) Principal. The principal amount of this Note, together with all accrued but unpaid Interest, shall be due and payable upon the Maturity Date.

(c) Late Payment Charges. If any amount of Interest, principal or any other charge or amount which becomes due and payable under this Note is not paid and received by the Payee within five business days after the date it first becomes due and payable, Maker shall pay to the Payee hereof a late payment charge in an amount equal to five percent (5%) of the full amount of such late payment, whether such late payment is received prior to or after the expiration of the ten-day cure period set forth in Section 8(a). Maker recognizes that in the event any payment hereunder (other than the principal payment due upon Maturity Date, whether by acceleration or otherwise) is not made when due, Payee will incur extra expenses in handling the delinquent payment, the exact amount of which is impossible to ascertain, but that a charge of five percent (5%) of the amount of the delinquent payment is a reasonable estimate of the expenses reasonably anticipated to be so incurred.

(d) Prepayment. Maker shall have the right to prepay this Note, without penalty, in whole or in part, at any time in Maker's discretion.

5. Representations and Warranties of Maker. Maker represents and warrants to Payee, as of the date hereof, that:

(a) Due Authorization. Maker is a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the state of its organization, and has the power and authority to execute and deliver this Note and consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(b) No Violation. Maker's execution, delivery and performance of its obligations under this Note do not and will not violate the articles of incorporation or by-laws of Maker and will not violate, conflict with or constitute a default under any agreement to which Maker is a party;

(c) Consents. No consents, approvals, filings, or notices of, with or to any Person are required on the part of Maker in connection with Maker's execution, delivery and performance of its obligations hereunder that have not been duly obtained, made or given, as the case may be;

(d) Enforceability. The Note is valid, binding and enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as the enforceability hereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization or similar laws relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally.

(e) Place of Business. Maker's principal place of business is located at 715 South Country Club Drive, Mesa, AZ 85210.

6. Affirmative Covenants. Maker hereby covenants and agrees that, so long as any indebtedness under the Note remains unpaid, Maker shall:

(a) Use of Proceeds. Use the proceeds of the Loan to capitalize the Property Owner and/or for other lawful corporate purposes.

(b) Inspection of Property; Books and Records; Discussions. Keep proper books of record and account in which full, true and correct entries in conformity with GAAP shall be made of all dealings and transactions in relation to its business and activities and, upon reasonable notice, permit representatives of Payee to examine and make abstracts from any of its books and records at any reasonable time and as often as may reasonably be desired by Payee and to discuss the business, operations, properties and financial and other conditions of Maker with officers and employees of Maker and with its independent certified public accountants. Such books and records shall be available for at least five (5) years after the end of the relevant calendar month. Payee shall have the right to inspect, copy and audit such books of account and records at Payee's expense, during reasonable business hours, and upon reasonable notice to Maker, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any principal payments made. The costs of any such audit will be paid by Payee, except that Maker shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of any such audit which discloses that any amount properly payable by Maker to Payee hereunder exceeded by five percent (5%) or more the amount actually paid and initially reported by Maker as being payable with respect thereto.

(c) Notices. Give prompt written notice to Payee of (i) any claims, proceedings or disputes (whether or not purportedly on behalf of Maker) against, or to Maker's knowledge, threatened or affecting Maker or the Real Property which, if adversely determined, could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Maker (without in any way limiting the foregoing, claims, proceedings, or disputes involving in the aggregate monetary amounts in excess of $500,000 not fully covered by insurance shall be deemed to be material). Additionally, Maker shall give prompt written notice to Payee of any fact known to Maker which would prohibit the making of any payment on or in respect of this Note, but failure to give such notice shall not affect any subordination of this Note to the SAC Holding Senior Notes as provided in Section 2(i) hereof or otherwise.

(d) Expenses. Pay all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including fees and disbursements of counsel, including special local counsel) of Payee, incident to any amendments, waivers and renewals of this Note.

(e) Co-operation. Execute and deliver to Payee any and all instruments, documents and agreements, and do or cause to be done from time to time any and all other acts, reasonably deemed necessary or desirable by Payee to effectuate the provisions and purposes of this Note.

(f) Management Agreement. Cause or permit the Real Property to be managed by subsidiaries of U-Haul International, Inc. or to be at all times managed by a nationally recognized self-storage property management company (the "Property Manager") approved by the Payee, which Property Manager shall be employed pursuant to an agreement (the "Property Management Agreement") approved by the Payee. In no event shall the fees paid (or required to be paid) to the Property Manager exceed six percent (6%) of Gross Receipts for any time period.

7. Negative Covenants. Maker hereby agrees that, as long as any indebtedness under the Note remains unpaid, Maker shall not, directly or indirectly:

(a) Indebtedness. Create, incur or assume any Indebtedness except for: (i) the SAC Holding Senior Notes; (ii) the Loan; (iii) Maker's contingent obligations under the secured Real Property debt (as the same may be amended, extended or refinanced from time to time by mortgage loan, sale leaseback transaction or otherwise) and the other senior mortgage loans extended to subsidiaries or other affiliates of Maker (as the same may be amended, extended or refinanced from time to time by mortgage loan, sale leaseback transaction or otherwise); (iv) non-delinquent taxes; (v) unsecured debt incurred in the ordinary course of business and (vi) other indebtedness owed to Payee and its affiliates; provided, however, that for so long as the SAC Holding Senior Notes are outstanding, Maker shall not incur any Indebtedness prohibited by the terms of the SAC Notes Indenture.

(b) No Bankruptcy Filing. To the extent permitted by law, without the unanimous consent of the Board of Directors of the Maker (for these purposes such Board of Directors will not include any committee thereof) voluntarily file any petition for bankruptcy, reorganization, assignment for the benefit of creditors or similar proceeding.

8. Event of Default; Remedies. Any one of the following occurrences shall constitute an Event of Default under this Note:

(a) The failure by the undersigned to make any payment of principal or Interest upon this Note as and when the same becomes due and payable in accordance with the provisions hereof, and the continuation of such failure for a period of ten (10) days after receipt of notice thereof to the Maker;

(b) Any representation, warranty or certification made by Maker herein or in any report delivered to the Payee under or in connection with this Note is materially inaccurate or incomplete as of the date made; provided, however, that such inaccurate or incomplete representation, warranty or certification is material and cannot be cured without material prejudice to the Payee within 30 days written notice thereof to Maker;

(c) The failure by Maker to perform any obligation under, or the occurrence of any other default with respect to any provision of, this Note other than as described in any of the other clauses of this Section 8, and the continuation of such default for a period of 30 days after written notice thereof to the Maker;

(d) (i) Maker shall file, institute or commence any case, proceeding or other action (A) under any existing or future law of any jurisdiction, domestic or foreign, relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors, seeking to have an order for relief entered with respect to it, or seeking to adjudicate it a bankrupt or insolvent, or seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, winding-up, liquidation, dissolution, composition or other relief with respect to it or its debts, or (B) seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or any substantial part of its assets, or Maker shall make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or (ii) there shall be filed, instituted or commenced against Maker any case, proceeding or other action of a nature referred to in clause (i) above which (A) results in the entry of any order for relief or any such adjudication or appointment, or (B) remains undismissed undischarged for a period of 60 days; or (iii) there shall be commenced against Maker any case, proceeding or other action seeking issuance of a warrant of attachment, execution, distraint or similar process against all or substantially all of its assets which results in the entry of an order for any such relief which shall not have been vacated, discharged, stayed, satisfied, or bonded to Payee's satisfaction pending appeal, within 60 days from the first entry thereof; or (iv) Maker shall take any action in furtherance of, or indicating its consent to, approval of, or acquiescence in, any of the acts described in any of the preceding clauses (i), (ii) or (iii); or (v) Maker shall not, or shall be unable to, or shall admit in writing its inability to, pay its debts as they become due, or shall in writing admit that it is insolvent; or

(f) one or more final judgments or orders that exceed $80 million in the aggregate (net of amounts bonded, covered by insurance or covered by a binding agreement for indemnification from a third party) for the payment of money have been entered by a court or courts of competent jurisdiction against Maker and such judgment or judgments have not been satisfied, stayed, annulled or rescinded within 60 days of being entered or, in the event such judgments have been bonded to the extent required pending appeal, after the date such judgments become non-appealable.

Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder, the entire unpaid principal balance of, and any unpaid Basic Interest and Additional Interest then accrued on, this Note at the option of the Payee and without demand or notice of any kind to the undersigned or any other person, shall, subject to the terms of the PSA, immediately become and be due and payable in full; and the Payee shall have and may exercise any and all rights and remedies available at law or in equity.

9. Offset. In addition to (and not in limitation of) any rights of offset that the Payee hereof may have under applicable law, upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder the Payee hereof shall have the right, immediately and without notice, to appropriate and apply to the payment of this Note any and all balances, credits, deposits, accounts or moneys of the Maker then or thereafter with or held by the Payee or an affiliate of Payee.

10. Allocation of Balances or of Payments. At any and all times until this Note and all amounts hereunder (including principal, Interest, and other charges and amounts, if any) are paid in full, all payments (whether of principal, Interest or other amounts) made by the undersigned or any other person (including any guarantor) to the Payee hereof may be allocated by the Payee to principal, Interest or other charges or amounts as the Payee may determine in its sole, exclusive and unreviewable discretion (and without notice to or the consent of any person).

11. Captions. Any headings or captions in this Note are inserted for convenience of reference only, and they shall not be deemed to constitute a part hereof, nor shall they be used to construe or interpret the provisions of this Note.

12. Waiver.

(a) Maker, for itself and for its successors, transferees and assigns, hereby waives diligence, presentment and demand for payment, protest, notice of protest and nonpayment, dishonor and notice of dishonor, notice of the intention to accelerate, notice of acceleration, and all other demands or notices of any and every kind whatsoever (except only for any notice of default expressly provided for in Section 8 of this Note) and the undersigned agrees that this Note and any or all payments coming due hereunder may be extended from time to time in the sole discretion of the Payee hereof without in any way affecting or diminishing their liability hereunder.

(b) No extension of the time for the payment of this Note or any payment becoming due or payable hereunder, which may be made by agreement with any Person now or hereafter liable for the payment of this Note, shall operate to release, discharge, modify, change or affect the original liability under this Note, either in whole or in part, of the Maker if it is not a party to such agreement.

(c) No delay in the exercise of any right or remedy hereunder shall be deemed a waiver of such right or remedy, nor shall the exercise of any right or remedy be deemed an election of remedies or a waiver of any other right or remedy. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the failure of the Payee hereof promptly after the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder to exercise its right to declare the indebtedness remaining unmatured hereunder to be immediately due and payable shall not constitute a waiver of such right while such Event of Default continues nor a waiver of such right in connection with any future Event of Default on the part of the undersigned.

13. Payment of Costs. The undersigned hereby expressly agrees that upon the occurrence of any Event of Default under this Note, the undersigned will pay to the Payee hereof, on demand, all reasonable costs of collection or enforcement, including (but not limited to) all attorneys' fees, court costs, and other costs and reasonable expenses incurred by the Payee hereof, on demand, all reasonable costs of collection or enforcement, including (but not limited to) all attorneys' fees, court costs, and other reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Payee hereof in connection with the protection of this Note, whether or not any lawsuit is ever filed with respect thereto.

14. Unsecured Note. This Note is unsecured.

15. Notices. All notices, demands and other communications hereunder to either party shall be made in writing and shall be deemed to have been given when actually received or, if mailed, on the first to occur of actual receipt or the third business day after the deposit thereof in the United States mails, by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

If to the Maker: SAC Holding Corporation

715 South Country Club Drive
Mesa, AZ 85210

Fax No.: 480-835-5478

If to Payee : U-Haul International, Inc.
2721 North Central Avenue
Phoenix, Arizona 85004
Attention: President

or to either party at such other address as such party may designate as its address for the receipt of notices hereunder in a written notice duly given to the other party.

16. Time of the Essence. Time is hereby declared to be of the essence of this Note and of every part hereof.

17. Governing Law. This Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Arizona.

18. Jurisdiction. In any controversy, dispute or question arising hereunder, the Maker consents to the exercise of jurisdiction over its person and property by any court of competent jurisdiction situated in the State of Arizona (whether it be a court of the State of Arizona, or a court of the United States of America situated in the State of Arizona), and in connection therewith, agrees to submit to, and be bound by, the jurisdiction of such court upon Payee's mailing of process by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, within or without the State of Arizona, to the Maker at its address for receipt of notices under this Note.

19. PAYEE NOT PARTNER OF MAKER. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WHATSOEVER SHALL THE PAYEE OF THIS NOTE BE DEEMED TO BE A PARTNER OR A CO-VENTURER WITH MAKER OR MAKER'S SUBSIDIARIES. MAKER SHALL NOT REPRESENT TO ANY PERSON THAT THE MAKER AND THE PAYEE HEREOF ARE PARTNERS OR CO-VENTURERS.

20. JURY TRIAL. THE MAKER HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT

TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING TO ENFORCE OR DEFEND ANY RIGHTS UNDER THIS NOTE, OR UNDER ANY AMENDMENT, INSTRUMENT, DOCUMENT OR AGREEMENT DELIVERED OR WHICH MAY IN THE FUTURE BE DELIVERED IN CONNECTION HERewith OR THEREWITH OR ARISING FROM ANY RELATIONSHIP EXISTING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS NOTE, AND AGREES THAT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE TRIED BEFORE A COURT AND NOT BEFORE A JURY.

21. Entire Agreement. This Note constitutes the entire agreement between Maker and Payee. No representations, warranties, undertakings, or promises whether written or oral, expressed or implied have been made by the Payee or its agent unless expressly stated in this Note.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed and delivered this Note, pursuant to proper authority duly granted, as of the date and year first above written.

"Triggering Event": shall have the meaning given it in Section 2(h)(ii) below.

2. Interest.

(a) Basic Interest Rate Prior to Maturity. From the date hereof through and including the Maturity Date, interest ("Basic Interest") shall accrue on the principal balance of this Note outstanding from time to time at the Accrual Rate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, on the first business day of each month commencing on March 1, 2004 and through the Maturity Date, Maker shall pay to Payee Pay Rate Interest on the unpaid principal balance of this Note. The remainder of the Basic Interest ("Deferred Interest") shall be deferred and shall bear interest at the Accrual Rate, and shall be payable as and at the time provided in Section 2(d) below. Any accrued interest on the Deferred Interest shall be considered part of Deferred Interest.

All interest hereunder shall be payable monthly in arrears, on the first business day of each month.

(b) Post-Maturity Basic Interest. From and after the Maturity Date, Basic Interest shall accrue and be payable on the outstanding principal balance hereof until paid in full at an annual rate equal to fifteen percent (15%) and such interest shall be payable upon demand.

(c) Computations. All computations of interest and fees payable hereunder shall be based upon a year of 360 days for the actual number of days elapsed.

(d) Deferred Interest. Deferred Interest shall be paid as follows:

(i) On each monthly date for the payment of Basic Interest, Maker shall pay an amount, if any (the "Catch-Up Payment"), equal to the lesser of (i) the aggregate outstanding Deferred Interest on the last day of the month for which such payment is being made and (ii) ninety percent (90%) of the result of subtracting from Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for that month an amount equal to twice the Pay Rate Interest for such period;

(ii) All unpaid Deferred Interest shall be paid on the Maturity Date; and

(iii) No payment of Deferred Interest may, when added to all other payments of Interest or payments construed as interest, shall exceed the Highest Lawful Rate.

(e) Cash Flow Contingent Interest. In addition to Basic Interest and Deferred Interest, on each date on which Basic Interest is payable hereunder, Maker shall pay to Payee interest ("Cash Flow Contingent Interest") in an amount equal to the amount (if any) by which (i) ninety percent (90%) of the result of subtracting from Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for that month an amount equal to twice the Pay Rate Interest for such period (each calculated as of that date) exceeds (ii) the Catch-Up Payment paid on that date by Maker to Payee.

(f) Statements; Adjustment of Payments. Within thirty (30) days following the due date for each payment of Basic Interest, Maker shall, upon the request of Payee, deliver to Payee a statement of operations of the Real Property for the month or other period with respect to which such Basic Interest is due, showing in reasonable detail and in a format approved by Payee the respective amounts of, and the method of calculating Gross Receipts, Operating Expenses, Net Cash Flow, Catch-Up Payment and Cash Flow Contingent Interest for the preceding month, as well as (if requested by Payee) all data reasonably necessary for the calculation of any such amounts. Maker shall keep and maintain at all times full and accurate books of account and records adequate to correctly reflect all such amounts. Such books and records shall be available for at least five years after the end of the month to which they relate. Payee shall have the right to inspect, copy and audit such books of account and records during reasonable business hours, and upon prior reasonable notice to Maker, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any payments made on account of any interest payments made hereunder. The costs of any such audit will be paid by Payee, except that Maker shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of any such audit which discloses that any amount properly payable by Maker to Payee hereunder exceeded by five percent (5%) or more the amount actually paid and initially reported by Maker as being payable with respect thereto.

(g) Prorations of Cash Flow Contingent Interest. All interest shall be equitably prorated on the basis of a 360-day year for any partial month in which the term of the Loan commences or in which the Note is paid in full.

(h) Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest.

(i) Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest Defined. Subject to Section 2(i) hereof, Maker shall pay to Payee, in addition to Pay Rate Interest, Deferred Interest and Cash Flow Contingent Interest, at the time or times and in the manner hereinafter described, an amount equal to ninety percent (90%) of the Net Capital Proceeds resulting from, or determined at the time of, any of the Triggering Events described below (collectively, "Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest").

(ii) Events Triggering Payment of Net Capital Proceeds. Subject to Section 2(i) hereof, Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be due and payable concurrently with the occurrence of each and every one of the following events (collectively "Triggering Events", and individually, a "Triggering Event"):

(A) Property Sale or Financing. The closing of any Sale or refinancing of the Real Property (any such event is hereinafter collectively referred to as a "Sale or Financing");

(B) Default Occurrence. The occurrence of any Event of Default and the acceleration of the maturity of the Loan on account thereof (hereinafter collectively referred to as a "Default Occurrence"); and

(C) Maturity Occurrence. The occurrence of the Maturity Date (the "Maturity Occurrence").

(iii) Notice of Triggering Event: Time for Payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. Maker shall notify Payee of the occurrence of a Triggering Event, and shall pay Payee the full amount of any applicable Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest which is payable in connection therewith, as follows:

(A) In the case of any Sale or Financing or the Maturity Occurrence, Maker shall give Payee written notice of any such Triggering Event not less than forty-five (45) days before the date such Triggering Event is to occur. Any Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest due Payee on account of any Sale or Financing or the Maturity Occurrence shall be due and payable to Payee within ninety (90) days of the date on which such Triggering Event occurs.

(B) In the case of a Default Occurrence, no notice of such a Triggering Event need be given by Maker. In such event, payment of any and all Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest on account of the Default Occurrence shall be immediately due and payable upon acceleration of the maturity of the Loan.

(iv) Determination of Net Capital Proceeds. Net Capital Proceeds resulting from a Triggering Event shall be determined as follows:

(A) Net Capital Proceeds From Sale or Financing. Except as provided in Section 2(h)(iv)(B) below, in the event of a Sale or Financing, "Net Capital Proceeds" shall be the amount which is equal to:

(i) the Gross Capital Proceeds (as hereinafter defined) realized from the Real Property minus (ii) the sum of: (aa) reasonable brokerage commissions (excluding any payments to any affiliate of Maker to the extent such payments exceed those which would have been due as commissions to a non-affiliate broker rendering identical services), title insurance premiums, documentary transfer or stamp taxes, mortgage taxes, environmental report fees, escrow fees and recording charges, appraisal fees, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, and sales taxes, in each case actually paid or payable by Maker (or Property Owner) in connection with the Sale or Financing, (bb) all payments of principal, Basic Interest and Cash Flow Contingent Interest payable to Payee on account of this Note from the proceeds of such Sale or Financing, and (cc) an amount equal to all payments of principal, interest and yield maintenance and/or defeasance fees and expenses due and payable on any senior loans, if any (including, without limitation the SAC Holding Senior Notes), made from the proceeds of such Sale or Financing. For purposes of this Section 2(h), "Gross Capital Proceeds" shall mean the gross proceeds of whatever form or nature payable directly or indirectly to or for the benefit or account of Maker in connection with such Sale or Financing, including, without limitation: cash, the outstanding balance of any financing which will remain as a lien or encumbrance against the Real Property or any portion thereof following such Sale or Financing (but only in the case of a Sale, and not in the case of an encumbrance), and the cash equivalent of the fair market value of any non-cash consideration, including the present value of any promissory note received as part of the proceeds of such Sale or Financing (valued at a market rate of interest).

(B) Net Capital Proceeds In Connection With a Default or Maturity Occurrence. In the event of a Default Occurrence or the Maturity Occurrence when no Sale or Financing has occurred, the "Net Capital Proceeds" shall equal: (i) the fair market value of the Real Property determined as of the date of such Triggering Event in accordance with Section 2(h)(v) below, minus (ii) the sum of (aa) the outstanding principal balance, together with accrued but unpaid Basic Interest on this Note and (bb) the outstanding principal balance of, and accrued but unpaid interest on, the secured Real Property debt.

(v) Determination of Fair Market Value. The fair market value of the Real Property shall be determined for purposes of this Note as follows:

(A) Partial Sale. In the event of a Sale of a portion of the Real Property, Payee shall select an experienced and reputable appraiser to prepare a written appraisal report of the fair market value of the Real Property in accordance with clause (C) below, and the appraised fair market value submitted to Payee by such appraiser shall be conclusive for purposes of this Note.

(B) Other Occurrences. In all other circumstances the fair market value of the Real Property shall be deemed to equal the result of dividing the Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for the immediately preceding fiscal year by ten percent (10%). However, if the Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for the immediately preceding fiscal year has been lowered because of unusually high Operating Expenses during such fiscal year the fair market value of the Real Property may, at the option of the Maker be determined by dividing by ten percent (10%) the mean average of the Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service of the Real Property for the three immediately preceding fiscal years of the Real Property.

(C) Appraisal Standards and Assumptions. In making any determination by appraisal of fair market value, the appraiser(s) shall assume that the improvements then located on the Real Property constitute the highest and best use of the property. If the Triggering Event is a Sale or Financing, the appraiser(s) shall take the sales price into account, although such sales price shall not be determinative of fair market value. Each appraiser selected hereunder shall be an independent MAI-designated appraiser with not less than ten years' experience in commercial real estate appraisal in the general geographical area where the Real Property is located.

(vi) Statement, Books and Records. With each payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest, Maker shall furnish to Payee a statement setting forth Maker's calculation of Net Capital Proceeds and Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest and shall provide a detailed breakdown of all items necessary for such calculation. For a period of five years after each payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest, Maker shall keep and maintain full and accurate books and records adequate to correctly reflect each such item. Said books and records shall be available for Payee's inspection, copying and audit during reasonable business hours following reasonable notice for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of the payments made on account of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. The costs of any such audit will be paid by Payee, except that Maker shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of any such audit which discloses that any amount properly payable by Maker to Payee hereunder exceeded by five percent (5%) or more the amount actually paid and initially reported by maker as being payable with respect thereto.

(viii) Negative Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Payee shall not be responsible or liable in any respect to Maker or any other Person for any reduction in the fair market value of the Real Property or for any contingency, condition or occurrence that might result in a negative number for Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. If at any time it is calculated, Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be a negative amount, no Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall at that time be payable to Payee, but Payee shall in no way be liable for any such negative amount and there shall be no deduction or offset for such negative amount at any time when Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be subsequently calculated.

(i) Limitation on Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest while SAC Holding Senior Notes Remain Outstanding. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event a Triggering Event takes place at any time while all or any portion of the SAC Holding Senior Notes is outstanding, the payment of any Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest on account of such occurrence shall be deferred as hereinafter provided, and any amounts constituting Excess Sale Proceeds or Excess Refinancing Proceeds under the SAC Notes Indenture related to such occurrence shall be applied to redeem or repurchase the SAC Holding Senior Notes, in accordance with the terms of the SAC Notes Indenture, it being agreed that payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest is subordinate to the payment in full of the SAC Holding Senior Notes. Subject to the terms of the SAC Notes Indenture and the PSA, Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be paid within five years of the occurrence of such Triggering Event.

3. Usury Savings Clause. The provisions of this Section 3 shall govern and control over any inconsistent provision contained in this Note. The Payee hereof shall never be entitled to receive, collect, or apply as interest hereon (for purposes of this Section 3, the word "interest" shall be deemed to include Basic Interest, Additional Interest and any other sums treated as interest under applicable law governing matters of usury and unlawful interest), any amount in excess of the Highest Lawful Rate (hereinafter defined) and, in the event the Payee ever receives, collects, or applies as interest any such excess, such amount which would be excessive interest shall be deemed a partial prepayment of principal and shall be treated hereunder as such; and, if the principal of this Note is paid in full, any remaining excess shall forthwith be paid to Maker. In determining whether or not the interest paid or payable, under any specific contingency, exceeds the Highest Lawful Rate, Maker and the Payee shall, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, (i) characterize any nonprincipal payment as an expense, fee, or premium rather than as interest, (ii) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof, and (iii) spread the total amount of interest throughout the entire contemplated term of this Note; provided, that if this Note is paid and performed in full prior to the end of the full contemplated term hereof, and if the interest received for the actual period of existence hereof exceeds the Highest Lawful Rate, the Payee shall refund to Maker the amount of such excess or credit the amount of such excess against the principal of this Note, and, in such event, the Payee shall not be subject to any penalties provided by any laws for contracting for, charging, or receiving interest in excess of the Highest Lawful Rate.

4. Payments.

(a) Interest. Maker promises to pay to Payee Basic Interest and Additional Interest the respective amounts, and at the respective times provided in Section 2 hereinabove. No principal payments shall be due hereunder except as required at the Maturity Date. Each payment of Basic Interest (including without limitation, Deferred Interest) and Additional Interest shall be payable in Phoenix, Arizona (or at any other place which Payee may hereafter designate from time to time for such purpose in a notice duly given to Maker hereunder), not later than noon, Pacific Standard Time, on the date due thereof; and funds received after that hour shall be deemed to have been received by the Payee on the next following business day. Whenever any payment to be made under this Note shall be stated to be due on a date which is not a business day, the due date thereof shall be extended to the next succeeding business day, and interest shall be payable at the applicable rate during such extension.

(b) Principal. The principal amount of this Note, together with all accrued but unpaid Interest, shall be due and payable upon the Maturity Date.

(c) Late Payment Charges. If any amount of Interest, principal or any other charge or amount which becomes due and payable under this Note is not paid and received by the Payee within five business days after the date it first becomes due and payable, Maker shall pay to the Payee hereof a late payment charge in an amount equal to five percent (5%) of the full amount of such late payment, whether such late payment is received prior to or after the expiration of the ten-day cure period set forth in Section 8(a). Maker recognizes that in the event any payment hereunder (other than the principal payment due upon Maturity Date, whether by acceleration or otherwise) is not made when due, Payee will incur extra expenses in handling the delinquent payment, the exact amount of which is impossible to ascertain, but that a charge of five percent (5%) of the amount of the delinquent payment is a reasonable estimate of the expenses reasonably anticipated to be so incurred.

(d) Prepayment. Maker shall have the right to prepay this Note, without penalty, in whole or in part, at any time in Maker's discretion.

5. Representations and Warranties of Maker. Maker represents and warrants to Payee, as of the date hereof, that:

(a) Due Authorization. Maker is a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the state of its organization, and has the power and authority to execute and deliver this Note and consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(b) No Violation. Maker's execution, delivery and performance of its obligations under this Note do not and will not violate the articles of incorporation or by-laws of Maker and will not violate, conflict with or constitute a default under any agreement to which Maker is a party;

(c) Consents. No consents, approvals, filings, or notices of, with or to any Person are required on the part of Maker in connection with Maker's execution, delivery and performance of its obligations hereunder that have not been duly obtained, made or given, as the case may be;

(d) Enforceability. The Note is valid, binding and enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as the enforceability hereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization or similar laws relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally.

(e) Place of Business. Maker's principal place of business is located at 715 South Country Club Drive, Mesa, AZ 85210.

6. Affirmative Covenants. Maker hereby covenants and agrees that, so long as any indebtedness under the Note remains unpaid, Maker shall:

(a) Use of Proceeds. Use the proceeds of the Loan to capitalize the Property Owner and/or for other lawful corporate purposes.

(b) Inspection of Property; Books and Records; Discussions. Keep proper books of record and account in which full, true and correct entries in conformity with GAAP shall be made of all dealings and transactions in relation to its business and activities and, upon reasonable notice, permit representatives of Payee to examine and make abstracts from any of its books and records at any reasonable time and as often as may reasonably be desired by Payee and to discuss the business, operations, properties and financial and other conditions of Maker with officers and employees of Maker and with its independent certified public accountants. Such books and records shall be available for at least five (5) years after the end of the relevant calendar month. Payee shall have the right to inspect, copy and audit such books of account and records at Payee's expense, during reasonable business hours, and upon reasonable notice to Maker, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any principal payments made. The costs of any such audit will be paid by Payee, except that Maker shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of any such audit which discloses that any amount properly payable by Maker to Payee hereunder exceeded by five percent (5%) or more the amount actually paid and initially reported by Maker as being payable with respect thereto.

(c) Notices. Give prompt written notice to Payee of (i) any claims, proceedings or disputes (whether or not purportedly on behalf of Maker) against, or to Maker's knowledge, threatened or affecting Maker or the Real Property which, if adversely determined, could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Maker (without in any way limiting the foregoing, claims, proceedings, or disputes involving in the aggregate monetary amounts in excess of $500,000 not fully covered by insurance shall be deemed to be material). Additionally, Maker shall give prompt written notice to Payee of any fact known to Maker which would prohibit the making of any payment on or in respect of this Note, but failure to give such notice shall not affect any subordination of this Note to the SAC Holding Senior Notes as provided in Section 2(i) hereof or otherwise.

(d) Expenses. Pay all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including fees and disbursements of counsel, including special local counsel) of Payee, incident to any amendments, waivers and renewals of this Note.

(e) Co-operation. Execute and deliver to Payee any and all instruments, documents and agreements, and do or cause to be done from time to time any and all other acts, reasonably deemed necessary or desirable by Payee to effectuate the provisions and purposes of this Note.

(f) Management Agreement. Cause or permit the Real Property to be managed by subsidiaries of U-Haul International, Inc. or to be at all times managed by a nationally recognized self-storage property management company (the "Property Manager") approved by the Payee, which Property Manager shall be employed pursuant to an agreement (the "Property Management Agreement") approved by the Payee. In no event shall the fees paid (or required to be paid) to the Property Manager exceed six percent (6%) of Gross Receipts for any time period.

7. Negative Covenants. Maker hereby agrees that, as long as any indebtedness under the Note remains unpaid, Maker shall not, directly or indirectly:

(a) Indebtedness. Create, incur or assume any Indebtedness except for: (i) the SAC Holding Senior Notes; (ii) the Loan; (iii) Maker's contingent obligations under the secured Real Property debt (as the same may be amended, extended or refinanced from time to time by mortgage loan, sale leaseback transaction or otherwise) and the other senior mortgage loans extended to subsidiaries or other affiliates of Maker (as the same may be amended, extended or refinanced from time to time by mortgage loan, sale leaseback transaction or otherwise); (iv) non-delinquent taxes; (v) unsecured debt incurred in the ordinary course of business and (vi) other indebtedness owed to Payee and its affiliates; provided, however, that for so long as the SAC Holding Senior Notes are outstanding, Maker shall not incur any Indebtedness prohibited by the terms of the SAC Notes Indenture.

(b) No Bankruptcy Filing. To the extent permitted by law, without the unanimous consent of the Board of Directors of the Maker (for these purposes such Board of Directors will not include any committee thereof) voluntarily file any petition for bankruptcy, reorganization, assignment for the benefit of creditors or similar proceeding.

8. Event of Default; Remedies. Any one of the following occurrences shall constitute an Event of Default under this Note:

(a) The failure by the undersigned to make any payment of principal or Interest upon this Note as and when the same becomes due and payable in accordance with the provisions hereof, and the continuation of such failure for a period of ten (10) days after receipt of notice thereof to the Maker;

(b) Any representation, warranty or certification made by Maker herein or in any report delivered to the Payee under or in connection with this Note is materially inaccurate or incomplete as of the date made; provided, however, that such inaccurate or incomplete representation, warranty or certification is material and cannot be cured without material prejudice to the Payee within 30 days written notice thereof to Maker;

(c) The failure by Maker to perform any obligation under, or the occurrence of any other default with respect to any provision of, this Note other than as described in any of the other clauses of this Section 8, and the continuation of such default for a period of 30 days after written notice thereof to the Maker;

(d) (i) Maker shall file, institute or commence any case, proceeding or other action (A) under any existing or future law of any jurisdiction, domestic or foreign, relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors, seeking to have an order for relief entered with respect to it, or seeking to adjudicate it a bankrupt or insolvent, or seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, winding-up, liquidation, dissolution, composition or other relief with respect to it or its debts, or (B) seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or any substantial part of its assets, or Maker shall make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or (ii) there shall be filed, instituted or commenced against Maker any case, proceeding or other action of a nature referred to in clause (i) above which (A) results in the entry of any order for relief or any such adjudication or appointment, or (B) remains undismissed undischarged for a period of 60 days; or (iii) there shall be commenced against Maker any case, proceeding or other action seeking issuance of a warrant of attachment, execution, distraint or similar process against all or substantially all of its assets which results in the entry of an order for any such relief which shall not have been vacated, discharged, stayed, satisfied, or bonded to Payee's satisfaction pending appeal, within 60 days from the first entry thereof; or (iv) Maker shall take any action in furtherance of, or indicating its consent to, approval of, or acquiescence in, any of the acts described in any of the preceding clauses (i), (ii) or (iii); or (v) Maker shall not, or shall be unable to, or shall admit in writing its inability to, pay its debts as they become due, or shall in writing admit that it is insolvent; or

(f) one or more final judgments or orders that exceed $80 million in the aggregate (net of amounts bonded, covered by insurance or covered by a binding agreement for indemnification from a third party) for the payment of money have been entered by a court or courts of competent jurisdiction against Maker and such judgment or judgments have not been satisfied, stayed, annulled or rescinded within 60 days of being entered or, in the event such judgments have been bonded to the extent required pending appeal, after the date such judgments become non-appealable.

Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder, the entire unpaid principal balance of, and any unpaid Basic Interest and Additional Interest then accrued on, this Note at the option of the Payee and without demand or notice of any kind to the undersigned or any other person, shall, subject to the terms of the PSA, immediately become and be due and payable in full; and the Payee shall have and may exercise any and all rights and remedies available at law or in equity.

9. Offset. In addition to (and not in limitation of) any rights of offset that the Payee hereof may have under applicable law, upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder the Payee hereof shall have the right, immediately and without notice, to appropriate and apply to the payment of this Note any and all balances, credits, deposits, accounts or moneys of the Maker then or thereafter with or held by the Payee or an affiliate of Payee.

10. Allocation of Balances or of Payments. At any and all times until this Note and all amounts hereunder (including principal, Interest, and other charges and amounts, if any) are paid in full, all payments (whether of principal, Interest or other amounts) made by the undersigned or any other person (including any guarantor) to the Payee hereof may be allocated by the Payee to principal, Interest or other charges or amounts as the Payee may determine in its sole, exclusive and unreviewable discretion (and without notice to or the consent of any person).

11. Captions. Any headings or captions in this Note are inserted for convenience of reference only, and they shall not be deemed to constitute a part hereof, nor shall they be used to construe or interpret the provisions of this Note.

12. Waiver.

(a) Maker, for itself and for its successors, transferees and assigns, hereby waives diligence, presentment and demand for payment, protest, notice of protest and nonpayment, dishonor and notice of dishonor, notice of the intention to accelerate, notice of acceleration, and all other demands or notices of any and every kind whatsoever (except only for any notice of default expressly provided for in Section 8 of this Note) and the undersigned agrees that this Note and any or all payments coming due hereunder may be extended from time to time in the sole discretion of the Payee hereof without in any way affecting or diminishing their liability hereunder.

(b) No extension of the time for the payment of this Note or any payment becoming due or payable hereunder, which may be made by agreement with any Person now or hereafter liable for the payment of this Note, shall operate to release, discharge, modify, change or affect the original liability under this Note, either in whole or in part, of the Maker if it is not a party to such agreement.

(c) No delay in the exercise of any right or remedy hereunder shall be deemed a waiver of such right or remedy, nor shall the exercise of any right or remedy be deemed an election of remedies or a waiver of any other right or remedy. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the failure of the Payee hereof promptly after the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder to exercise its right to declare the indebtedness remaining unmatured hereunder to be immediately due and payable shall not constitute a waiver of such right while such Event of Default continues nor a waiver of such right in connection with any future Event of Default on the part of the undersigned.

13. Payment of Costs. The undersigned hereby expressly agrees that upon the occurrence of any Event of Default under this Note, the undersigned will pay to the Payee hereof, on demand, all reasonable costs of collection or enforcement, including (but not limited to) all attorneys' fees, court costs, and other costs and reasonable expenses incurred by the Payee hereof, on demand, all reasonable costs of collection or enforcement, including (but not limited to) all attorneys' fees, court costs, and other reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Payee hereof in connection with the protection of this Note, whether or not any lawsuit is ever filed with respect thereto.

14. Unsecured Note. This Note is unsecured.

15. Notices. All notices, demands and other communications hereunder to either party shall be made in writing and shall be deemed to have been given when actually received or, if mailed, on the first to occur of actual receipt or the third business day after the deposit thereof in the United States mails, by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

If to the Maker: SAC Holding Corporation

715 South Country Club Drive
Mesa, AZ 85210
Attention: President
Fax No.: 480-835-5478

If to Payee : U-Haul International, Inc.
2721 North Central Avenue
Phoenix, Arizona 85004
Attention: President

or to either party at such other address as such party may designate as its address for the receipt of notices hereunder in a written notice duly given to the other party.

16. Time of the Essence. Time is hereby declared to be of the essence of this Note and of every part hereof.

17. Governing Law. This Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Arizona.

18. Jurisdiction. In any controversy, dispute or question arising hereunder, the Maker consents to the exercise of jurisdiction over its person and property by any court of competent jurisdiction situated in the State of Arizona (whether it be a court of the State of Arizona, or a court of the United States of America situated in the State of Arizona), and in connection therewith, agrees to submit to, and be bound by, the jurisdiction of such court upon Payee's mailing of process by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, within or without the State of Arizona, to the Maker at its address for receipt of notices under this Note.

19. PAYEE NOT PARTNER OF MAKER. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WHATSOEVER SHALL THE PAYEE OF THIS NOTE BE DEEMED TO BE A PARTNER OR A CO-VENTURER WITH MAKER OR MAKER'S SUBSIDIARIES. MAKER SHALL NOT REPRESENT TO ANY PERSON THAT THE MAKER AND THE PAYEE HEREOF ARE PARTNERS OR CO-VENTURERS.

20. JURY TRIAL. THE MAKER HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING TO ENFORCE OR DEFEND ANY RIGHTS UNDER THIS NOTE, OR UNDER ANY AMENDMENT, INSTRUMENT, DOCUMENT OR AGREEMENT DELIVERED OR WHICH MAY IN THE FUTURE BE DELIVERED IN CONNECTION HERewith OR THEREWITH OR ARISING FROM ANY RELATIONSHIP EXISTING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS NOTE, AND AGREES THAT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE TRIED BEFORE A COURT AND NOT BEFORE A JURY.

21. Entire Agreement. This Note constitutes the entire agreement between Maker and Payee. No representations, warranties, undertakings, or promises whether written or oral, expressed or implied have been made by the Payee or its agent unless expressly stated in this Note.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed and delivered this Note, pursuant to proper authority duly granted, as of the date and year first above written.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Reference is made to the Registration Statement on Form S-4, including amendments and exhibits thereto (the "Registration Statement"), for the proposed offer to exchange (the "Exchange Offer") by AMERCO (the "Company") and each of the guarantor subsidiaries listed on Schedule I attached hereto (collectively, the "Guarantors"), of up to an aggregate of $80 million in principal amount of its 9.0% Second Lien Senior Secured Notes due 2009 (the "Exchange Notes") for an equal principal amount of its outstanding 9.0% Second Lien Senior Secured Notes due 2009 (the "Outstanding Notes") and the guarantees by the Guarantors of the Exchange Notes. The Outstanding Notes were issued, and the Exchange Notes are issuable, pursuant to an Indenture, dated March 1, 2004, by and among the Company, the Guarantors and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., as Trustee (the "Indenture").

Based on the foregoing, and subject to the qualifications and limitations set forth herein, we advise you that:

1. The Exchange Notes, when issued, authenticated and delivered by the Company and the Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Indenture, and when issued in exchange for Outstanding Notes as contemplated in the Registration Statement, will be legally binding and valid obligations of the Company, entitled to the benefits of the Indenture and enforceable against the Company in accordance with their terms.
2. The guarantees by the Guarantors to be endorsed on the Exchange Notes, when the Exchange Notes are issued, authenticated and delivered by the Company and the Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Indenture, and when issued as contemplated in the Registration Statement, will be legally binding and valid obligations of the Guarantors enforceable against each of them in accordance with their terms.

In rendering this opinion, we have reviewed and relied upon the Indenture, the Outstanding Notes, the form of Exchange Notes and such documents, records, and other instruments of the Company and the Guarantors as we have deemed necessary.

The opinions set forth above are subject to the following qualifications:

(i) The opinions are subject to and may be limited by (a) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, fraudulent conveyance or transfer, moratorium, reorganization, or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally; (b) general equitable principles and rules of law governing specific performance, estoppel, waiver, injunctive relief, and other equitable remedies (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity), and the discretion of any court before which a proceeding may be brought; (c) duties and standards of good faith, reasonableness and fair dealing imposed on creditors and parties to contracts; and (d) a court determination that any fees payable pursuant to a provision requiring the payment of attorneys' fees is reasonable.

(ii) We have assumed: (a) the genuineness of the signatures and the authenticity of documents submitted to us as originals, and the conformity to originals of all documents submitted to us as certified or photostatic copies; (b) that such documents accurately describe the mutual understanding of the parties as to all matters contained therein and that no other agreements or undertakings exist between the parties that would affect the documents relating to the transactions contemplated by such documents and agreements; (c) the due authorization, execution, and delivery of the documents discussed herein by all parties thereto except the Company and the Guarantors, that such documents will be valid and binding upon, and enforceable in accordance with their terms against, all parties thereto except the Company and the Guarantors, and that the execution, delivery, and performance of such documents by parties other than the Company and the Guarantors will not violate any provision of any charter document, law, rule, regulation, judgment, order, decree, agreement or other document binding upon or applicable to such other parties or their respective assets; (d) the accuracy, completeness, and genuineness of all representations and certifications made to or obtained by us, including those of public officials; and (e) the accuracy and completeness of records of the Company and the Guarantors.

(iii) We express no opinion regarding compliance by the Company or any Guarantor with any financial covenants required to be maintained by them under any agreement or document, or as to the financial ability of the Company or any Guarantors to meet its obligations under the documents described herein.

(iv) This opinion letter is limited to the matters stated herein and no opinion is implied or may be inferred beyond the matters expressly stated. Without limiting the foregoing, the opinions expressed in this letter are based upon the law and facts as we understand them in effect on the date hereof, and we assume no obligation to revise or supplement this opinion should such law be changed by legislative action, judicial decision, or otherwise, or should any facts or other matters upon which we have relied be changed.

We hereby consent to the filing of the opinion as an exhibit to the Registration Statement and to the use of our name in the Registration Statement.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Snell & Wilmer L.L.P.

PROPERTY MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS PROPERTY MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into as of June 30, 2000 among Twelve SAC Self-Storage Corporation, a Nevada corporation, with its principal place of business at 715 South Country Club Drive, Mesa, AZ 85210 ("Owner"), and the property managers signatory hereto (each such property manager is respectively referred to herein as "U-Haul").

RECITALS

A. Owner owns the real property and self-storage related improvements thereon as identified by city, state and "U-Haul" store number specified on Exhibit A hereto (hereinafter, collectively the "Property").

B. Owner intends that the Property be rented on a space-by-space retail basis to corporations, partnerships, individuals and/or other entities for use as self-storage facilities.

C. Owner desires that U-Haul manage the Property and U-Haul desires to act as the property manager for the Property, all in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and as more specifically designated on Exhibit A hereto.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained, Owner and U-Haul hereby agree as follows.

1. Employment.

(a) Owner hereby retains U-Haul, and U-Haul agrees to act as manager of the Property upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

(b) Owner acknowledges that U-Haul, and/or U-Haul affiliates, is in the business of managing self-storage facilities, both for its own account and for the account of others. It is hereby expressly agreed that notwithstanding this Agreement, U-Haul and such affiliates may continue to engage in such activities, may manage facilities other than those presently managed by U-Haul and its affiliates (whether or not such other facilities may be in direct or indirect competition with Owner) and may in the future engage in other business which may compete directly or indirectly with activities of Owner.

(c) In the performance of their respective duties under this Agreement, each U-Haul property manager shall occupy the position of an independent contractor with respect to Owner. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as making the parties hereto (or any of them) partners or joint venturers, nor (except as expressly otherwise provided for herein) construed as making U-Haul an agent or employee of Owner or of any other U-Haul property manager hereunder.

2. Duties and Authority of U-Haul.

(a) GENERAL DUTIES AND AUTHORITY. Subject only to the restrictions and limitations provided in paragraphs (o) and (p) of this Section 2 and the right of Owner to terminate this Agreement as provided in Section 6 hereof, U-Haul shall have the sole and exclusive authority to fully manage the Property and supervise and direct the business and affairs associated or related to the daily operation thereof, and, to that end on behalf of Owner, to execute such documents and instruments as, in the sole judgment of U-Haul, are reasonably necessary or advisable under the circumstances in order to fulfill U-Haul's duties hereunder. Such duties and authority shall include, without limitation, those set forth below.

(b) RENTING OF THE PROPERTY. U-Haul shall establish policies and procedures for the marketing activities for the Property, and may advertise the Property through such media as U-Haul deems advisable, including, without limitation, advertising with the Yellow Pages. U-Haul shall have the sole discretion, which discretion shall be exercised in good faith, to establish the terms and conditions of occupancy by the tenants of the Property, and U-Haul is hereby authorized to enter into rental agreements on behalf and for the account of Owner with such tenants and to collect rent from such tenants. U-Haul may jointly advertise the Property with other properties owned or managed by U-Haul, and in that event, U-Haul shall reasonably allocate the cost of such advertising among such properties.

(c) REPAIR, MAINTENANCE AND IMPROVEMENTS. U-Haul shall make, execute, supervise and have control over the making and executing of all decisions concerning the acquisition of furniture, fixtures and supplies for the Property, and may purchase, lease or otherwise acquire the same on behalf of Owner. U-Haul shall make and execute, or supervise and have control over the making and executing of all decisions concerning the maintenance, repair, and landscaping of the Property. U-Haul shall, on behalf of Owner, negotiate and contract for and supervise the installation of all capital improvements related to the Property, provided, however, that U-Haul agrees to secure the prior written approval of Owner on all such expenditures in excess of $5,000.00 for any one item, except monthly or recurring operating charges and/or emergency repairs if in the opinion of U-Haul such emergency-related expenditures are necessary to protect the Property from damage or to maintain services to the tenants as called for in their respective leases.

(d) PERSONNEL. U-Haul shall select all vendors, suppliers, contractors, subcontractors and employees with respect to the Property and shall hire, discharge and supervise all labor and employees required for the operation and maintenance of the Property. Any employees so hired shall be employees of U-Haul, and shall be carried on the payroll of U-Haul. Employees may include, but will not be limited to, on-site resident managers, on-site assistant managers, and relief managers located, rendering services, or performing activities on the Property in connection with its operation and management. The cost of employing such persons shall not exceed prevailing rates for comparable persons performing the same or similar services with respect to real estate similar to the Property.

(e) AGREEMENTS. U-Haul shall negotiate and execute on behalf of Owner such agreements which U-Haul deems necessary or advisable for the furnishing of utilities, services, concessions and supplies, for the maintenance, repair and operation of the Property and such other agreements which may benefit the Property or be incidental to the matters for which U-Haul is responsible hereunder.

(f) OTHER DECISIONS. U-Haul shall make all decisions in connection with the daily operation of the Property.

(g) REGULATIONS AND PERMITS. U-Haul shall comply in all material respects with any statute, ordinance, law, rule, regulation or order of any governmental or regulatory body, having jurisdiction over the Property, respecting the use of the Property or the maintenance or operation thereof. U-Haul shall apply for and attempt to obtain and maintain, on behalf of Owner, all licenses and permits required or advisable (in the sole judgment of U-Haul) in connection with the management and operation of the Property.

(h) RECORDS AND REPORTS OF DISBURSEMENTS AND COLLECTIONS. U-Haul shall establish, supervise, direct and maintain the operation of a system of record keeping and bookkeeping with respect to all receipts and disbursements in connection with the management and operation of the Property. The books, records and accounts shall be maintained at the U-Haul office or at such other location as U-Haul shall determine, and shall be available and open to examination and audit quarterly by Owner, its representatives, any mortgagee of the Property, and such mortgagee's representative. On or before thirty (30) days after the close of each quarter, U-Haul shall cause to be prepared and delivered to Owner, a monthly statement of receipts, expenses and charges, together with a statement of the disbursements made by U-Haul during such period on Owner's behalf.

(i) [Reserved].

(j) COLLECTION. U-Haul shall be responsible for the billing and collection of all accounts receivable and for payment of all accounts payable with respect to the Property and shall be responsible for establishing policies and procedures to minimize the amount of bad debts.

(k) LEGAL ACTIONS. U-Haul shall cause to be instituted, on behalf and in the name of Owner, any and all legal actions or proceedings U-Haul deems necessary or advisable to collect charges, rent or other income due to Owner with respect to the Property and to oust or dispossess tenants or other persons unlawfully in possession under any lease, license concession agreement or otherwise, and to collect damages for breach thereof or default thereunder by such tenant, licensee, concessionaire or occupant.

(l) INSURANCE. U-Haul shall use its best efforts to assure that there is obtained and maintained in force, fire, comprehensive liability and other insurance policies in amounts generally carried with respect to similar facilities. U-Haul may in its discretion obtain employee theft or similar insurance in amounts and with such deductibles as U-Haul deems appropriate. U-Haul shall promptly provide Owner with such certificates of insurance as Owner may reasonably request in writing, evidencing such insurance coverage.

(m) TAXES. During the term of this Agreement, U-Haul shall pay from Owner's funds, prior to delinquency, all real estate taxes, personal property taxes, and all other taxes assessed to, or levied upon, the Property. If required by the holder of any note secured by the Property, U-Haul will set aside, from Owner's funds, a reserve from each month's rent and other income collected, in an amount required by said holder for purposes of payment of real property taxes.

(n) RESTRICTIONS. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 2, U-Haul shall not be required to do, or cause to be done, anything for the account of Owner (i) which may make U-Haul liable to third parties; (ii) which may not be commenced, undertaken or completed because of insufficient funds of Owner; or, (iii) which may not be commenced, undertaken or completed because of acts of God, strikes, governmental regulations of laws, acts of war or other types of events beyond the control of U-Haul, whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing.

(o) LIMITATIONS ON U-HAUL AUTHORITY. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 2, U-Haul shall not, without obtaining the prior written consent of Owner, (i) rent storage space in the Property by written lease or agreement for a stated term in excess of one year, (ii) alter the building or other structures of the Property in any material manner; (iii) make any other agreements which exceed a term of one year and are not terminable on thirty day's notice at the will of Owner, without penalty, payment or surcharge; (iv) act in violation of any law; or (v) act in violation of any duty or responsibility of Owner under any mortgage loan secured by the Property.

(p) SHARED EXPENSES. Owner acknowledges that certain economies may be achieved with respect to certain expenses to be incurred by U-Haul on behalf of Owner hereunder if materials, supplies, insurance or services are purchased by U-Haul in quantity for use not only in connection with the Property but in connection with other properties owned or managed by U-Haul or its affiliates. U-Haul shall have the right to purchase such materials, supplies, insurance and/or services in its own name and charge Owner a pro rata allocable share of the cost of the foregoing; provided, however, that the pro rata cost of such purchase to Owner shall not result in expenses greater than would otherwise be incurred at competitive prices and terms available in the area where the Property is located; and provided further, U-Haul shall give Owner access to records so Owner may review any such expenses incurred.

(q) DEPOSIT OF GROSS REVENUES. All Gross Revenues (as hereinafter defined) shall be deposited into a "lock box account" maintained by U-Haul International, Inc., parent company of U-Haul, in accordance with the terms of a certain Cash Management Agreement dated as of the date hereof among Owner, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (as lender and agent) and U-Haul (the "CMA"). Borrower and U-Haul each hereby covenant and agree that they shall comply with the terms and provisions of the CMA.

3. Duties of Owner.

Owner hereby agrees to cooperate with U-Haul in the performance of U-Haul's duties under this Agreement and to that end, upon the request of U-Haul, to provide, at such rental charges, if any, as are deemed appropriate, reasonable office space for U-Haul employees on the premises of the Property and to give U-Haul access to all files, books and records of Owner relevant to the Property. Owner shall not unreasonably withhold or delay any consent or authorization to U-Haul required or appropriate under this Agreement.

4. Compensation of U-Haul.

(a) MANAGEMENT FEE. Owner shall pay to U-Haul as the full amount due for the services herein provided a fee (the "Management Fee") equal to six percent (6%) of the "Gross Revenue" derived from or connected with the Property so managed by U-Haul hereunder. The term "Gross Revenue" shall mean all receipts (excluding security deposits unless and until Owner recognizes the same as income) of Owner (whether or not received by U-Haul on behalf or for the account of Owner) arising from the operation of the Property, including without limitation, rental payments of lessees of space in the Property, vending machine or concessionaire revenues, maintenance charges, if any, paid by the tenants of the Property in addition to basic rent, parking fees, if any, and all monies whether or not otherwise described herein paid for the use of the Property. "Gross Revenue" shall be determined on a cash basis. The Management Fee shall be paid promptly at the end of each calendar quarter and shall be calculated on the basis of the "Gross Revenue" of such preceding quarter. The Management Fee shall be paid to each U-Haul property manager herein identified based on the Gross Revenue of each respective Property for which such property manager is responsible as set forth on Exhibit

A hereto. Each property manager agrees that its monthly Management Fee shall be subordinate to that month's principal balance and interest payment on any first lien position mortgage loan on the Property.

It is understood and agreed that the Management Fee will not be reduced by the cost to Owner of those employees and independent contractors engaged by or for Owner, including but not limited to the categories of personnel specifically referred to in Section 2(d). Except as provided in this Section 4, it is further understood and agreed that U-Haul shall not be entitled to additional compensation of any kind in connection with the performance by it of its duties under this Agreement.

(b) REIMBURSEMENT OF CERTAIN EXPENSES. In addition to the Management Fee described above, U-Haul shall be entitled to reimbursement from Owner, on a quarterly basis, for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by U-Haul hereunder in connection with the management and operation of the Property, including, without limitation, taxes, insurance, operational expenses, overhead, litigation and dispute resolution related expenses, capital improvement expenses, and costs of sales.

5. Use of Trademarks, Service Marks and Related Items.

Owner acknowledges the significant value of the "U-Haul" name in the operations of Owner's property and it is therefore understood and agreed that the name, trademark and service mark, "U-Haul", and related marks, slogans, caricatures, designs and other trade or service items shall be utilized for the non-exclusive benefit of Owner in the rental and operation of the Property, and in comparable operations elsewhere. It is further understood and agreed that this name and all such marks, slogans, caricatures, designs and other trade or service items shall remain and be at all times the property of U-Haul and its affiliates, and that, except during the term hereof and as expressly provided herein, Owner shall have no right whatsoever therein. Owner agrees that during the term of this agreement the sign faces at the property will have the name "U-Haul." The U-Haul sign faces will be paid for by Owner. Upon termination of this agreement at any time for any reason, all such use by and for the benefit of Owner of any such name, mark, slogan, caricature, design or other trade or service item in connection with the Property shall, in any event, be terminated and any signs bearing any of the foregoing shall be removed from view and no longer used by Owner. In addition, upon termination of this Agreement at any time for any reason, Owner shall not enter into any new leases of Property using the U-Haul lease form or use other forms prepared by U-Haul. It is understood and agreed that U-Haul will use and shall be unrestricted in its use of such name, mark, slogan, caricature, design or other trade or service item in the management and operation of other storage facilities both during and after the expiration or termination of the term of this Agreement.

6. Termination.

Owner or U-Haul may terminate this Agreement with or without cause by giving not less than sixty days' written notice to the other party pursuant to Section 11 hereof. In addition, if Owner fails to pay U-Haul any amounts owed under this Agreement when due, U-Haul may terminate this Agreement by giving Owner not less than ten days written notice pursuant to Section 11 hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, U-Haul shall not resign as property manager of the Property until a nationally recognized and reputable successor property manager is available and prepared to assume property management responsibilities with respect to the Property in question. Upon termination of this Agreement, U-Haul shall promptly return to Owner all monies, books, records and other materials held by U-Haul for or on behalf of Owner. In addition, if U-Haul has contracted to advertise the Property in the Yellow Pages, Owner shall, at the option of U-Haul, continue to be responsible for the cost of such advertisement and shall either (i) pay U-Haul the remaining amount due under such contract in a lump sum; or (ii) pay U-Haul monthly for the amount due under such contract.

7. Indemnification.

Owner hereby agrees to indemnify and hold each of U-Haul, all persons and companies affiliated with U-Haul, and all officers, shareholders, directors, employees and agents of U-Haul and of any affiliated companies or persons (collectively, the "Indemnified Persons") harmless from any and all costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, suits, liabilities, judgments, damages, and claims in connection with the management of the Property (including the loss of use thereof following any damage, injury or destruction), arising from any cause except for the willful misconduct or gross negligence on the part of the Indemnified Persons. In addition, no Indemnified Person shall be liable for any error of judgment or for any mistake of fact or law, or for anything which it may do or refrain from doing hereafter, except in cases of willful misconduct or gross negligence. U-Haul hereby agrees to indemnify and hold Owner harmless from any and all costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, suits, liabilities, judgments, damages and claims in connection with the management of the Property arising from the willful misconduct of, gross negligence of, or breach of this Agreement by the Indemnified Persons. In addition, U-Haul shall not be liable to Owner for the acts or omissions of U-Haul's officers, shareholders, directors, employees, and agents except for U-Haul's own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

8. Assignment.

This Agreement may be assigned by Owner in connection with any mortgage loan on the Property, whether pursuant to a conditional or unconditional, absolute assignment. U-Haul shall have the right to assign this Agreement to an affiliate or a wholly or majority owned subsidiary, provided, however, any such assignee must assume all obligations of U-Haul hereunder, Owner's rights hereunder will be enforceable against any such assignee and U-Haul shall not be released from its liabilities hereunder unless Owner shall expressly agree thereto in writing.

9. Headings.

The headings contained herein are for convenience of reference only and are not intended to define, limit or describe the scope or intent of any provision of this Agreement.

10. Governing Law.

The validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the parties shall be governed by the internal laws of the State of Arizona.

11. Notices.

Any notice required or permitted herein shall be in writing and shall be personally delivered or mailed first class postage prepaid or delivered by an overnight delivery service to the respective addresses of the parties set forth below their signatures on the signature page thereof, or to such other address as any party may give to the other in writing. Any notice required by this Agreement will be deemed to have been given when personally served or one day after delivery to an overnight delivery service or five days after deposit in the first class mail.

12. Severability.

Should any term or provision hereof be deemed invalid, void or unenforceable either in its entirety or in a particular application, the remainder of this Agreement shall nonetheless remain in full force and effect and, if the subject term or provision is deemed to be invalid, void or unenforceable only with respect to a particular application, such term or provision shall remain in full force and effect with respect to all other applications.

13. Successors.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective parties hereto and their permitted assigns and successors in interest.

14. Attorneys' Fees.

If it shall become necessary for any party hereto to engage attorneys to institute legal action for the purpose of enforcing their respective rights hereunder or for the purpose of defending legal action brought by the other party hereto, the party or parties prevailing in such litigation shall be entitled to receive all costs, expenses and fees (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by it in such litigation (including appeals).

15. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

16. Scope of Property Manager Responsibility.

The duties, obligations and liability of each property manager identified herein shall extend only so far as to relate to the Property for which such property manager is managing located in the domicile state of such property manager, as more specifically described on Exhibit A hereto, and no individual property manager hereunder shall be liable for the acts or omissions of any other property manager hereunder. Each property manager shall use its best efforts to assist Owner in fulfilling Owner's obligations arising under any loan to Owner that is secured by the Property, including but not limited to preparing and providing financial and accounting reports, and maintaining the Property. Each property manager agrees that it will perform its obligations hereunder according to reasonable industry standards, in good faith, and in a commercially reasonable manner. U-Haul agrees that, in discharging its duties hereunder, it will not have any relationship with any of its affiliates that would be less favorable to Owner than would reasonably be available in a transaction with an unaffiliated party.

U-Haul shall have the right to purchase such materials, supplies, insurance and/or services in its own name and charge Owner a pro rata allocable share of the cost of the foregoing; provided, however, that the pro rata cost of such purchase to Owner shall not result in expenses greater than would otherwise be incurred at competitive prices and terms available in the area where the Property is located; and provided further, U-Haul shall give Owner access to records so Owner may review any such expenses incurred.

(q) DEPOSIT OF GROSS REVENUES. All Gross Revenues (as hereinafter defined) shall be deposited into a "lock box account" maintained by U-Haul International, Inc., parent company of U-Haul, in accordance with the terms of a certain Cash Management Agreement dated as of the date hereof among Owner, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (as lender and agent) and U-Haul (the "CMA"). Borrower and U-Haul each hereby covenant and agree that they shall comply with the terms and provisions of the CMA.

3. Duties of Owner.

Owner hereby agrees to cooperate with U-Haul in the performance of U-Haul's duties under this Agreement and to that end, upon the request of U-Haul, to provide, at such rental charges, if any, as are deemed appropriate, reasonable office space for U-Haul employees on the premises of the Property and to give U-Haul access to all files, books and records of Owner relevant to the Property. Owner shall not unreasonably withhold or delay any consent or authorization to U-Haul required or appropriate under this Agreement.

4. Compensation of U-Haul.

(a) MANAGEMENT FEE. Owner shall pay to U-Haul as the full amount due for the services herein provided a fee (the "Management Fee") equal to six percent (6%) of the "Gross Revenue" derived from or connected with the Property so managed by U-Haul hereunder. The term "Gross Revenue" shall mean all receipts (excluding security deposits unless and until Owner recognizes the same as income) of Owner (whether or not received by U-Haul on behalf or for the account of Owner) arising from the operation of the Property, including without limitation, rental payments of lessees of space in the Property, vending machine or concessionaire revenues, maintenance charges, if any, paid by the tenants of the Property in addition to basic rent, parking fees, if any, and all monies whether or not otherwise described herein paid for the use of the Property. "Gross Revenue" shall be determined on a cash basis. The Management Fee shall be paid promptly at the end of each calendar quarter and shall be calculated on the basis of the "Gross Revenue" of such preceding quarter. The Management Fee shall be paid to each U-Haul property manager herein identified based on the Gross Revenue of each respective Property for which such property manager is responsible as set forth on Exhibit

A hereto. Each property manager agrees that its monthly Management Fee shall be subordinate to that month's principal balance and interest payment on any first lien position mortgage loan on the Property.

It is understood and agreed that the Management Fee will not be reduced by the cost to Owner of those employees and independent contractors engaged by or for Owner, including but not limited to the categories of personnel specifically referred to in Section 2(d). Except as provided in this Section 4, it is further understood and agreed that U-Haul shall not be entitled to additional compensation of any kind in connection with the performance by it of its duties under this Agreement.

(b) REIMBURSEMENT OF CERTAIN EXPENSES. In addition to the Management Fee described above, U-Haul shall be entitled to reimbursement from Owner, on a quarterly basis, for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by U-Haul hereunder in connection with the management and operation of the Property, including, without limitation, taxes, insurance, operational expenses, overhead, litigation and dispute resolution related expenses, capital improvement expenses, and costs of sales.

5. Use of Trademarks, Service Marks and Related Items.

Owner acknowledges the significant value of the "U-Haul" name in the operations of Owner's property and it is therefore understood and agreed that the name, trademark and service mark, "U-Haul", and related marks, slogans, caricatures, designs and other trade or service items shall be utilized for the non-exclusive benefit of Owner in the rental and operation of the Property, and in comparable operations elsewhere. It is further understood and agreed that this name and all such marks, slogans, caricatures, designs and other trade or service items shall remain and be at all times the property of U-Haul and its affiliates, and that, except during the term hereof and as expressly provided herein, Owner shall have no right whatsoever therein. Owner agrees that during the term of this agreement the sign faces at the property will have the name "U-Haul." The U-Haul sign faces will be paid for by Owner. Upon termination of this agreement at any time for any reason, all such use by and for the benefit of Owner of any such name, mark, slogan, caricature, design or other trade or service item in connection with the Property shall, in any event, be terminated and any signs bearing any of the foregoing shall be removed from view and no longer used by Owner. In addition, upon termination of this Agreement at any time for any reason, Owner shall not enter into any new leases of Property using the U-Haul lease form or use other forms prepared by U-Haul. It is understood and agreed that U-Haul will use and shall be unrestricted in its use of such name, mark, slogan, caricature, design or other trade or service item in the management and operation of other storage facilities both during and after the expiration or termination of the term of this Agreement.

6. Termination.

Owner or U-Haul may terminate this Agreement with or without cause by giving not less than sixty days' written notice to the other party pursuant to Section 11 hereof. In addition, if Owner fails to pay U-Haul any amounts owed under this Agreement when due, U-Haul may terminate this Agreement by giving Owner not less than ten days written notice pursuant to Section 11 hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, U-Haul shall not resign as property manager of the Property until a nationally recognized and reputable successor property manager is available and prepared to assume property management responsibilities with respect to the Property in question. Upon termination of this Agreement, U-Haul shall promptly return to Owner all monies, books, records and other materials held by U-Haul for or on behalf of Owner. In addition, if U-Haul has contracted to advertise the Property in the Yellow Pages, Owner shall, at the option of U-Haul, continue to be responsible for the cost of such advertisement and shall either (i) pay U-Haul the remaining amount due under such contract in a lump sum; or (ii) pay U-Haul monthly for the amount due under such contract.

7. Indemnification.

Owner hereby agrees to indemnify and hold each of U-Haul, all persons and companies affiliated with U-Haul, and all officers, shareholders, directors, employees and agents of U-Haul and of any affiliated companies or persons (collectively, the "Indemnified Persons") harmless from any and all costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, suits, liabilities, judgments, damages, and claims in connection with the management of the Property (including the loss of use thereof following any damage, injury or destruction), arising from any cause except for the willful misconduct or gross negligence on the part of the Indemnified Persons. In addition, no Indemnified Person shall be liable for any error of judgment or for any mistake of fact or law, or for anything which it may do or refrain from doing hereafter, except in cases of willful misconduct or gross negligence. U-Haul hereby agrees to indemnify and hold Owner harmless from any and all costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, suits, liabilities, judgments, damages and claims in connection with the management of the Property arising from the willful misconduct of, gross negligence of, or breach of this Agreement by the Indemnified Persons. In addition, U-Haul shall not be liable to Owner for the acts or omissions of U-Haul's officers, shareholders, directors, employees, and agents except for U-Haul's own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

8. Assignment.

This Agreement may be assigned by Owner in connection with any mortgage loan on the Property, whether pursuant to a conditional or unconditional, absolute assignment. U-Haul shall have the right to assign this Agreement to an affiliate or a wholly or majority owned subsidiary; provided, however, any such assignee must assume all obligations of U-Haul hereunder, Owner's rights hereunder will be enforceable against any such assignee and U-Haul shall not be released from its liabilities hereunder unless Owner shall expressly agree thereto in writing.

9. Headings.

The headings contained herein are for convenience of reference only and are not intended to define, limit or describe the scope or intent of any provision of this Agreement.

10. Governing Law.

The validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the parties shall be governed by the internal laws of the State of Arizona.

11. Notices.

Any notice required or permitted herein shall be in writing and shall be personally delivered or mailed first class postage prepaid or delivered by an overnight delivery service to the respective addresses of the parties set forth below their signatures on the signature page thereof, or to such other address as any party may give to the other in writing. Any notice required by this Agreement will be deemed to have been given when personally served or one day after delivery to an overnight delivery service or five days after deposit in the first class mail.

12. Severability.

Should any term or provision hereof be deemed invalid, void or unenforceable either in its entirety or in a particular application, the remainder of this Agreement shall nonetheless remain in full force and effect and, if the subject term or provision is deemed to be invalid, void or unenforceable only with respect to a particular application, such term or provision shall remain in full force and effect with respect to all other applications.

13. Successors.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective parties hereto and their permitted assigns and successors in interest.

14. Attorneys' Fees.

If it shall become necessary for any party hereto to engage attorneys to institute legal action for the purpose of enforcing their respective rights hereunder or for the purpose of defending legal action brought by the other party hereto, the party or parties prevailing in such litigation shall be entitled to receive all costs, expenses and fees (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by it in such litigation (including appeals).

15. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

16. Scope of Property Manager Responsibility.

The duties, obligations and liability of each property manager identified herein shall extend only so far as to relate to the Property for which such property manager is managing located in the domicile state of such property manager, as more specifically described on Exhibit A hereto, and no individual property manager hereunder shall be liable for the acts or omissions of any other property manager hereunder. Each property manager shall use its best efforts to assist Owner in fulfilling Owner's obligations arising under any loan to Owner that is secured by the Property, including but not limited to preparing and providing financial and accounting reports, and maintaining the Property. Each property manager agrees that it will perform its obligations hereunder according to reasonable industry standards, in good faith, and in a commercially reasonable manner. U-Haul agrees that, in discharging its duties hereunder, it will not have any relationship with any of its affiliates that would be less favorable to Owner than would reasonably be available in a transaction with an unaffiliated party.

PROPERTY MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS PROPERTY MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into as of June 8, 2001 among Fourteen SAC Self-storage Corporation, a Nevada corporation, with its principal place of business at 715 South Country Club Drive, Mesa, AZ 85210 ("Owner"), and the property managers identified on Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference (each such property manager is respectively referred to herein as "U-Haul").

RECITALS

- A. Owner owns the real property and self-storage related improvements thereon located at the street addresses identified on Exhibit A hereto (hereinafter, collectively the "Property").
- B. Owner intends that the Property be rented on a space-by-space retail basis to corporations, partnerships, individuals and/or other entities for use as self-storage facilities.
- C. Owner desires that U-Haul manage the Property and U-Haul desires to act as the property manager for the Property, all in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and as more specifically designated on Exhibit A hereto.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained, Owner and U-Haul hereby agree as follows.

1. Employment.

- (a) Owner hereby retains U-Haul, and U-Haul agrees to act as manager of the Property upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.
- (b) Owner acknowledges that U-Haul, and or U-Haul affiliates, is in the business of managing self-storage facilities, both for its own account and for the account of others. It is hereby expressly agreed that notwithstanding this Agreement, U-Haul and such affiliates may continue to engage in such activities, may manage facilities other than those presently managed by U-Haul and its affiliates (whether or not such other facilities may be in direct or indirect competition with Owner) and may in the future engage in other business which may compete directly or indirectly with activities of Owner.
- (c) In the performance of their respective duties under this Agreement, each U-Haul property manager shall occupy the position of an independent contractor with respect to Owner. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as making the parties hereto (or any of them) partners or joint venturers, nor (except as expressly otherwise provided for herein) construed as making U-Haul an agent or employee of Owner or of any other U-Haul property manager hereunder.

2. Duties and Authority of U-Haul.

(a) GENERAL DUTIES AND AUTHORITY. Subject only to the restrictions and limitations provided in paragraphs (o) and (p) of this Section 2 and the right of Owner to terminate this Agreement as provided in Section 6 hereof, U-Haul shall have the sole and exclusive authority to fully manage the Property and supervise and direct the business and affairs associated or related to the daily operation thereof, and, to that end on behalf of Owner, to execute such documents and instruments as, in the sole judgment of U-Haul, are reasonably necessary or advisable under the circumstances in order to fulfill U-Haul's duties hereunder. Such duties and authority shall include, without limitation, those set forth below.

(b) RENTING OF THE PROPERTY. U-Haul shall establish policies and procedures for the marketing activities for the Property, and may advertise the Property through such media as U-Haul deems advisable, including, without limitation, advertising with the Yellow Pages. U-Haul shall have the sole discretion, which discretion shall be exercised in good faith, to establish the terms and conditions of occupancy by the tenants of the Property, and U-Haul is hereby authorized to enter into rental agreements on behalf and for the account of Owner with such tenants and to collect rent from such tenants. U-Haul may jointly advertise the Property with other properties owned or managed by U-Haul, and in that event, U-Haul shall reasonably allocate the cost of such advertising among such properties.

(c) REPAIR, MAINTENANCE AND IMPROVEMENTS. U-Haul shall make, execute, supervise and have control over the making and executing of all decisions concerning the acquisition of furniture, fixtures and supplies for the Property, and may purchase, lease or otherwise acquire the same on behalf of Owner. U-Haul shall make and execute, or supervise and have control over the making and executing of all decisions concerning the maintenance, repair, and landscaping of the Property. U-Haul shall, on behalf of Owner, negotiate and contract for and supervise the installation of all capital improvements related to the Property; provided, however, that U-Haul agrees to secure the prior written approval of Owner on all such expenditures in excess of $5,000.00 for any one item, except monthly or recurring operating charges and/or emergency repairs if in the opinion of U-Haul such emergency-related expenditures are necessary to protect the Property from damage or to maintain services to the tenants as called for in their respective leases.

(d) PERSONNEL. U-Haul shall select all vendors, suppliers, contractors, subcontractors and employees with respect to the Property and shall hire, discharge and supervise all labor and employees required for the operation and maintenance of the Property. Any employees so hired shall be employees of U-Haul, and shall be carried on the payroll of U-Haul. Employees may include, but will not be limited to, on-site resident managers, on-site assistant managers, and relief managers located, rendering services, or performing activities on the Property in connection with its operation and management. The cost of employing such persons shall not exceed prevailing rates for comparable persons performing the same or similar services with respect to real estate similar to the Property.

(e) AGREEMENTS. U-Haul shall negotiate and execute on behalf of Owner such agreements which U-Haul deems necessary or advisable for the furnishing of utilities, services, concessions and supplies, for the maintenance, repair and operation of the Property and such other agreements which may benefit the Property or be incidental to the matters for which U-Haul is responsible hereunder.

(f) OTHER DECISIONS. U-Haul shall make all decisions in connection with the daily operation of the Property.

(g) REGULATIONS AND PERMITS. U-Haul shall comply in all material respects with any statute, ordinance, law, rule, regulation or order of any governmental or regulatory body, having jurisdiction over the Property, respecting the use of the Property or the maintenance or operation thereof. U-Haul shall apply for and attempt to obtain and maintain, on behalf of Owner, all licenses and permits required or advisable (in the sole judgment of U-Haul) in connection with the management and operation of the Property.

(h) RECORDS AND REPORTS OF DISBURSEMENTS AND COLLECTIONS. U-Haul shall establish, supervise, direct and maintain the operation of a system of record keeping and bookkeeping with respect to all receipts and disbursements in connection with the management and operation of the Property. The books, records and accounts shall be maintained at the U-Haul office or at such other location as U-Haul shall determine, and shall be available and open to examination and audit quarterly by Owner, its representatives, any mortgagee of the Property, and such mortgagee's representative. On or before thirty (30) days after the close of each quarter, U-Haul shall cause to be prepared and delivered to Owner, a monthly statement of receipts, expenses and charges, together with a statement of the disbursements made by U-Haul during such period on Owner's behalf.

(i) [Reserved].

(j) COLLECTION. U-Haul shall be responsible for the billing and collection of all accounts receivable and for payment of all accounts payable with respect to the Property and shall be responsible for establishing policies and procedures to minimize the amount of bad debts.

(k) LEGAL ACTIONS. U-Haul shall cause to be instituted, on behalf and in the name of Owner, any and all legal actions or proceedings U-Haul deems necessary or advisable to collect charges, rent or other income due to Owner with respect to the Property and to oust or dispossess tenants or other persons unlawfully in possession under any lease, license concession agreement or otherwise, and to collect damages for breach thereof or default thereunder by such tenant, licensee, concessionaire or occupant.

(l) INSURANCE. U-Haul shall use its best efforts to assure that there is obtained and maintained in force, fire, comprehensive liability and other insurance policies in amounts generally carried with respect to similar facilities. U-Haul may in its discretion obtain employee theft or similar insurance in amounts and with such deductibles as U-Haul deems appropriate. U-Haul shall promptly provide Owner with such certificates of insurance as Owner may reasonably request in writing, evidencing such insurance coverage.

(m) TAXES. During the term of this Agreement, U-Haul shall pay from Owner's funds, prior to delinquency, all real estate taxes, personal property taxes, and all other taxes assessed to, or levied upon, the Property. If required by the holder of any note secured by the Property, U-Haul will set aside, from Owner's funds, a reserve from each month's rent and other income collected, in an amount required by said holder for purposes of payment of real property taxes.

(n) [RESERVED].

(o) LIMITATIONS ON U-HAUL AUTHORITY. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 2, U-Haul shall not, without obtaining the prior written consent of Owner, (i) rent storage space in the Property by written lease OR agreement for a stated term in excess of one year, (ii) alter the building or other structures of the Property in any material manner; (iii) make any other agreements which exceed a term of one year and are not terminable on thirty day's notice at the will of Owner, without penalty, payment or surcharge; (iv) act in violation of any law; or (v) act in violation of any duty or responsibility of Owner under any mortgage loan secured by the Property.

(p) SHARED EXPENSES. Owner acknowledges that certain economies may be achieved with respect to certain expenses to be incurred by U-Haul on behalf of Owner hereunder if materials, supplies, insurance or services are purchased by U-Haul in quantity for use not only in connection with the Property but in connection with other properties owned or managed by U-Haul or its affiliates. U-Haul shall have the right to purchase such materials, supplies, insurance and/or services in its own name and charge Owner a pro rata allocable share of the cost of the foregoing; provided, however, that the pro rata cost of such purchase to Owner shall not result in expenses greater than would otherwise be incurred at competitive prices and terms available in the area where the Property is located; and provided further, U-Haul shall give Owner access to records so Owner may review any such expenses incurred.

(q) DEPOSIT OF GROSS REVENUES. All Gross Revenues (as hereinafter defined) shall be remitted by U-Haul (or its parent company) on a daily basis to a bank account maintained by UBS Warburg Real Estate Investments Inc. ("Lender") (or an affiliate thereof) and the funds therein shall be applied in the manner specified in that Cash Management Agreement dated the date hereof among Owner, U-Haul and Lender. U-Haul shall maintain such records and systems as are necessary or appropriate to enable U-Haul to clearly identify the amount of Gross Revenue generated by each Property on a daily basis.

3. Duties of Owner.

Owner hereby agrees to cooperate with U-Haul in the performance of U-Haul's duties under this Agreement and to that end, upon the request of U-Haul, to provide, at such rental charges, if any, as are deemed appropriate, reasonable office space for U-Haul employees on the premises of the Property and to give U-Haul access to all files, books and records of Owner relevant to the Property. Owner shall not unreasonably withhold or delay any consent or authorization to U-Haul required or appropriate under this Agreement.

4. Compensation of U-Haul.

(a) MANAGEMENT FEE. Owner shall pay to U-Haul as the full amount due for the services herein provided a fee (the "Management Fee") equal to six percent (6%) of the "Gross Revenue" derived from or connected with the Property so managed by U-Haul hereunder. The term "Gross Revenue" shall mean all receipts (excluding security deposits unless and until Owner recognizes the same as income) of Owner (whether or not received by U-Haul on behalf or for the account of Owner) arising from the operation of the Property, including without limitation, rental payments of lessees of space in the Property, vending machine or concessionaire revenues, maintenance charges, if any, paid by the tenants of the Property in addition to basic rent, parking fees, if any, and all monies whether or not otherwise described herein paid for the use of the Property. "Gross Revenue" shall be determined on a cash basis. The Management Fee shall be paid promptly at the end of each calendar quarter and shall be calculated on the basis of the "Gross Revenue" of such preceding quarter. The Management Fee shall be paid to each U-Haul property manager herein identified based on the Gross Revenue of each respective Property for which such property manager is responsible as set forth on Exhibit-A hereto. Each property manager agrees that its monthly Management Fee shall be subordinate to that month's principal balance and interest payment on any first lien position mortgage loan on the Property.

It is understood and agreed that the Management Fee will not be reduced by the cost to Owner of those employees and independent contractors engaged by or for Owner, including but not limited to the categories of personnel specifically referred to in Section 2(d). Except as provided in this Section 4, it is further understood and agreed that U-Haul shall not be entitled to additional compensation of any kind in connection with the performance by it of its duties under this Agreement.

(B) REIMBURSEMENT OF CERTAIN EXPENSES. In addition to the Management Fee described above, U-Haul shall be entitled to reimbursement from Owner, on a quarterly basis, for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by U-Haul hereunder in connection with the management and operation of the Property, including, without limitation, taxes, insurance, operational expenses, overhead, litigation and dispute resolution related expenses, capital improvement expenses, and costs of sales.

5. Use of Trademarks, Service Marks and Related Items.

Owner acknowledges the significant value of the "U-Haul" name in the operations of Owner's property and it is therefore understood and agreed that the name, trademark and service mark, "U-Haul", and related marks, slogans, caricatures, designs and other trade or service items shall be utilized for the non-exclusive benefit of Owner in the rental and operation of the Property, and in comparable operations elsewhere. It is further understood and agreed that this name and all such marks, slogans, caricatures, designs and other trade or service items shall remain and be at all times the property of U-Haul and its affiliates, and that, except during the term hereof and as expressly provided herein, Owner shall have no right whatsoever therein. Owner agrees that during the term of this agreement the sign faces at the property will have the name "U-Haul." The U-Haul sign faces will be paid for by Owner. Upon termination of this agreement at any time for any reason, all such use by and for the benefit of Owner of any such name, mark, slogan, caricature, design or other trade or service item in connection with the Property shall, in any event, be terminated and any signs bearing any of the foregoing shall be removed from view and no longer used by Owner. In addition, upon termination of this Agreement at any time for any reason, Owner shall not enter into any new leases of Property using the U-Haul lease form or use other forms prepared by U-Haul. It is understood and agreed that U-Haul will use and shall be unrestricted in its use of such name, mark, slogan, caricature, design or other trade or service item in the management and operation of other storage facilities both during and after the expiration or termination of the term of this Agreement.

6. Termination.

Owner or U-Haul may terminate this Agreement with or without cause by giving not less than thirty days' written notice to the other party pursuant to Section 11 hereof. In addition, if Owner fails to pay U-Haul any amounts owed under this Agreement when due, U-Haul may terminate this Agreement by giving Owner not less than ten days written notice pursuant to Section 11 hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, U-Haul shall not resign as property manager of the Property until a nationally recognized and reputable successor property manager is available and prepared to assume property management responsibilities with respect to the Property in question. Upon termination of this Agreement, U-Haul shall promptly return to Owner all monies, books, records and other materials held by U-Haul for or on behalf of Owner. In addition, if U-Haul has contracted to advertise the Property in the Yellow Pages, Owner shall, at the option of U-Haul, continue to be responsible for the cost of such advertisement and shall either (i) pay U-Haul the remaining amount due under such contract in a lump sum; or (ii) pay U-Haul monthly for the amount due under such contract.

7. Indemnification.

Owner hereby agrees to indemnify and hold each of U-Haul, all persons and companies affiliated with U-Haul, and all officers, shareholders, directors, employees and agents of U-Haul and of any affiliated companies or persons (collectively, the "Indemnified Persons") harmless from any and all costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, suits, liabilities, judgments, damages, and claims in connection with the management of the Property (including the loss of use thereof following any damage, injury or destruction), arising from any cause except for the willful misconduct or gross negligence on the part of the Indemnified Persons. In addition, no Indemnified Person shall be liable for any error of judgment or for any mistake of fact or law, or for anything which it may do or refrain from doing hereafter, except in cases of willful misconduct or gross negligence. U-Haul hereby agrees to indemnify and hold Owner harmless from any and all costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, suits, liabilities, judgments, damages and claims in connection with the management of the Property arising from the willful misconduct of, gross negligence of, or breach of this Agreement by the Indemnified Persons. In addition, U-Haul shall not be liable to Owner for the acts or omissions of U-Haul's officers, shareholders, directors, employees, and agents except for U-Haul's own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

8. Assignment.

This Agreement may be assigned by Owner in connection with any mortgage loan on the Property, whether pursuant to a conditional or unconditional, absolute assignment. U-Haul shall have the right to assign this Agreement to an affiliate or a wholly or majority owned subsidiary; provided, however, any such assignee must assume all obligations of U-Haul hereunder, Owner's rights hereunder will be enforceable against any such assignee and U-Haul shall not be released from its liabilities hereunder unless Owner shall expressly agree thereto in writing.

9. Headings.

The headings contained herein are for convenience of reference only and are not intended to define, limit or describe the scope or intent of any provision of this Agreement.

10. Governing Law.

The validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the parties shall be governed by the internal laws of the State of Arizona.

11. Notices.

Any notice required or permitted herein shall be in writing and shall be personally delivered or mailed first class postage prepaid or delivered by an overnight delivery service to the respective addresses of the parties set forth below their signatures on the signature page thereof, or to such other address as any party may give to the other in writing. Any notice required by this Agreement will be deemed to have been given when personally served or one day after delivery to an overnight delivery service or five days after deposit in the first class mail.

12. Severability.

Should any term or provision hereof be deemed invalid, void or unenforceable either in its entirety or in a particular application, the remainder of this Agreement shall nonetheless remain in full force and effect and, if the subject term or provision is deemed to be invalid, void or unenforceable only with respect to a particular application, such term or provision shall remain in full force and effect with respect to all other applications.

13. Successors.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective parties hereto and their permitted assigns and successors in interest.

14. Attorneys' Fees.

If it shall become necessary for any party hereto to engage attorneys to institute legal action for the purpose of enforcing their respective rights hereunder or for the purpose of defending legal action brought by the other party hereto, the party or parties prevailing in such litigation shall be entitled to receive all costs, expenses and fees (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by it in such litigation (including appeals).

15. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

16. Scope of Property Manager Responsibility.

The duties, obligations and liability of each property manager identified herein shall extend only so far as to relate to the Property for which such property manager is managing located in the domicile state of such property manager, as more specifically described on Exhibit A hereto, and no individual property manager hereunder shall be liable for the acts or omissions of any other property manager hereunder. Each property manager shall use its best efforts to assist Owner in fulfilling Owner's obligations arising under any loan to Owner that is secured by the Property, including but not limited to preparing and providing financial and accounting reports, and maintaining the Property. Each property manager agrees that it will perform its obligations hereunder according to reasonable industry standards, in good faith, and in a commercially reasonable manner. U-Haul agrees that, in discharging its duties hereunder, it will not have any relationship with any of its affiliates that would be less favorable to Owner than would reasonably be available in a transaction with an unaffiliated party.

PROMISSORY NOTE

Maximum principal amount of dated as of May 7, 1999 $10,000,000

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the undersigned SAC Holding Corporation, a Nevada corporation (the "Maker" or the "undersigned"), promises to pay to the order of Oxford Life Insurance Company, an Arizona corporation, ("Payee"), at the principal office of the Payee at 2721 North Central Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona 85004 or at such other place or places as the holder hereof may from time to time designate in writing, the principal sum of up to Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000), or, if less, the aggregate unpaid principal amount of the Loan made by Payee to Maker, with Interest on the principal balance outstanding from time to time, all as hereinafter set forth.

1. Definitions. As used in this Note, each of the following terms shall have the following meanings, respectively:

"Accrual Rate": shall mean the annual interest rate of eight and one-half percent (8.5%).

"Additional Interest": shall mean and include both Cash Flow Contingent Interest and Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest.

"Adjusted Operating Expenses": shall mean Operating Expenses

(i) to account for all actual or required Operating Expenses as opposed to escrowed or estimated payments made pursuant to the Senior Loans and

(ii) such other adjustments to Operating Expenses to adjust for seasonal, extraordinary or non-customary expenses and costs and other abnormalities.

"Affiliate": of any specified Person shall mean (i) any other Person controlling or controlled by or under common control with such specified Person and (ii) any limited partner of such Person if such Person is a limited partnership, any shareholder of such Person if such Person is a corporation, or any member of such Person if such Person is a limited liability company. For the purposes of this definition, "control," when used with respect to any specified Person, means the power to direct the management and policies of such person, directly or indirectly, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise; and the terms "controlling" and "controlled" have meanings correlative to the foregoing.

"Basic Interest": shall have the meaning given it in Section 2(a) and 2(b) below.

"Borrowers": collectively, are the following: Six-A SAC Self-Storage Corporation, Six-B SAC Self-Storage Corporation, Six-C SAC Self-Storage Corporation, Eight SAC Self-Storage Corporation, Nine SAC Self-Storage

Corporation, Ten SAC Self-Storage Corporation and Eleven SAC Self-Storage Corporation, each Nevada corporations.

"Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest": shall have the meaning given it in Section 2(h)(i) below.

"Cash Flow Contingent Interest": shall have the meaning given it in Section 2(e) below.

"Catch-Up Payment": shall have the meaning given it in Section 2(d).

"Debt Papers": shall mean the documents and instruments included within the definition of the term "Debt Papers" as provided in Section 14 below.

"Deferred Interest": shall have the meaning given it in Section 2(a).

"GAAP": shall mean generally accepted accounting principles as used and understood in the United States of America from time to time.

"Gross Income": shall equal Gross Receipts for the applicable twelve (12) month period less (i) sale tax and other similar taxes, (ii) condemnation awards, (iii) casualty or other insurance proceeds, (iv) proceeds of any borrowing, (v) proceeds of any or sale of any Mortgaged Properties, (vi) proceeds of any sale of assets outside the ordinary course of business, (vii) revenues relating to equipment or vehicle rentals and (viii) any revenue generated other than in connection with the use of the Mortgaged Properties.

"Gross Receipts": shall mean, for any period all gross receipts, revenues and income of any and every kind collected or received by or for the benefit or account of Maker and the Borrower during such period arising from the ownership, rental, use, occupancy or operation of the Project or any portion thereof. Gross Receipts shall include, without limitation, all receipts from all tenants, licensees and other occupants and users of the Project or any portion thereof, including, without limitation, rents, security deposits and the like, interest earned and paid or credited on all Maker's or the Borrowers' deposit accounts related to the Project, all proceeds of rent or business interruption insurance, and the proceeds of all casualty insurance or eminent domain awards to the extent not (i) applied, or reserved and applied within six (6) months after the creation of such reserve, to the restoration of the Project in accordance with the Mortgage, (ii) paid to Holder to reduce the principal amount of the Loan or (iii) paid to reduce the principal amount of the Senior Loans. Gross Receipts shall include the net commission payable from U-Haul International, Inc. for the rental of its equipment (whether or not such equipment is owned by the Owner of the Mortgaged Property) at any Mortgaged Property; provided however that such net commissions payable shall not be included in Gross Receipts until the 15th day of the month following the month in which such rental occurred, all in accordance with the customary procedure for the payment of net commission. Gross Receipts shall not include any capital contributed to Maker, whether in the form of a loan or equity, or any proceeds from any loan made to Maker. For the purpose of calculating the permitted Management Fee and the Capital Expenditure Reserve Deposit, Gross Receipts shall also exclude sales taxes collected by the Maker in connection with the operation of the Project and held in trust for payment to the taxing authorities. Further, in calculating the Management Fee, Gross Receipts shall be further modified as provided for in the Property Management Agreement. Any receipt included within Gross Receipts in one period shall not be included within Gross Receipts for any other period (i.e., no item of revenue or receipts shall be counted twice).

"Highest Lawful Rate": shall mean the maximum rate of interest which the Holder is allowed to contract for, charge, take, reserve, or receive under applicable law after taking into account, to the extent required by applicable law, any and all relevant payments or charges hereunder.

"Holder": shall mean at any particular time, the Person which is then the holder of this Note.

"Interest": shall mean Additional Interest, Basic Interest and Deferred Interest.

"Loan": shall mean the mortgage loan in the amount of up to $10,000,000.00 made by Payee to Maker and evidenced by the Note or up to such amount as may have been advanced by Payee to Maker from time to time.

"Loan Year": shall mean a year commencing on the date of this Note, or an anniversary thereof, and ending 365 days (or 366 days in a leap year) thereafter.

"Management Fee": shall mean the fee paid to the Project Manager pursuant to the Property Management Agreement which fee shall in no event exceed six percent (6.0%) of Gross Receipts.

"Material Adverse Effect": shall mean the likely inability or reasonably anticipated inability of Maker to pay the Loan and perform its other obligations in compliance with the terms of the Debt Papers.

"Maturity Date": shall mean the first to occur of the Stated Maturity Date and the earlier date (if any) on which the unpaid principal balance of, and unpaid Interest on, this Note shall become due and payable on account of acceleration by the Holder hereof.

"Mortgage": shall mean collectively the Deeds of Trust (and Mortgages, and Deeds to Secure Debt), Assignment of Leases and Rents, Security Agreement and Financing Statement securing the promissory note representing the Senior Loans, as the same may be amended, modified or restated from time to time and together with all replacements and substitutions therefor. The Mortgage is more fully identified in Section 14 below.

"Mortgaged Properties": shall mean the properties of the Borrowers encumbered by the Senior Loan Documents.

"Net Capital Proceeds": shall have the meaning given it in Section 2(h)(iv) below.

"Net Cash Flow": shall mean, for any period, the amount by which the Gross Receipts for such period exceed the sum of Interest paid during such period, Operating Expenses paid for and with respect to such period, and interest paid under and on account of the Senior Loans during such period; but Net Cash Flow for any period shall not be less than zero.

"Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service": shall mean, for any period, the amount by which the Gross Receipts for such period exceed the Operating Expenses for and with respect to such period.

"Net Operating Income": shall mean the "Gross Income" generated by the Project less Adjusted Operating Expenses, adjusted to reflect a ninety-five (95%) percent occupancy on a per Mortgaged Property basis for of the Project.

"Note": shall mean this Promissory Note as it may be amended, modified, extended or restated from time to time, together with all substitutions and replacements therefor.

"Operating Expenses": shall mean, for any period, all cash expenditures of Maker or the Borrowers actually paid (and properly payable) during such period for (i) payments into escrow pursuant to the Debt Papers for real and personal property taxes; (ii) real and personal property taxes on the Project (except to the extent paid from escrowed funds); (iii) premiums for liability, property and other insurance on the Project; (iv) the Capital Expenditure Reserve Deposit; (v) the Management Fee; (vi) sales and rental taxes relating to the Project (except to the extent paid from the Tax and Insurance Escrow Account); and (vii) normal, reasonable and customary operating expenses of the Project. In no event shall Operating Expenses include amounts distributed to the partners or shareholder's of Maker or the Borrowers, payments to Affiliates not permitted under Section 7(c) below, any payments made on the Loan or any other loan obtained by Maker, amounts paid out of any funded reserve expressly approved by Holder, non-cash expenses such as depreciation, or any cost or expense related to the restoration of the Project in the event of a casualty or eminent domain taking paid for from the proceeds of insurance or an eminent domain award or any reserve funded by insurance proceeds or eminent domain awards.

"Pay Rate": shall mean the annual interest rate of two percent (2.0%).

"Pay Rate Interest": shall mean for any period the amount of Basic Interest payable for such period less the amount of Deferred Interest which accrued during such period.

"Person": shall mean any corporation, natural person, firm, joint venture, general partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, trust, unincorporated organization, government or any department or agency of any government.

"Present Value": shall have the meaning given such term in Section 4(c) below.

"Project": shall mean the real estate, the improvements and the personal property encumbered pursuant to the Senior Loan Documents, taken together collectively.

"Project Manager": shall have the meaning given it in Section 6(j) below.

"Property Management Agreement": shall have the meaning given such term in Section 6(j) below.

"Requirements of Law": shall mean, as to any Person, requirements as set out in the provisions of such Person's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws (in the case of a corporation) partnership agreement and certificate or statement of partnership (in the case of a partnership) or other organizational or governing documents, or as set out in any law, treaty, rule or regulation, or final and binding determination of an arbitrator, or determination of a court or other federal, state or local governmental agency, authority or subdivision applicable to or binding upon such Person or any of its property or to which such Person or any of its property is subject, or in any private covenant, condition or restriction applicable to or binding upon such Person or any of its property or to which such Person or any of its property is subject.

"Sale": shall mean any direct or indirect sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance, lease (except for leases of terms not exceeding 1 year to tenants in the ordinary course of business complying with standards and in a form approved by Payee) or disposition of any kind whatsoever of the Project, or of any portion thereof or interest (whether legal, beneficial or otherwise) or 25% or more (in the aggregate of all such sales, transfers, assignments, etc., made at any time or from time to time, taken together) of all equity interests in Maker.

"Security Documents": shall mean the documents and instruments included within the definition of the term "Security Documents" as provided in Section 14 below.

"Senior Loan Documents": shall mean and include, at any time, all promissory notes, mortgages and other documents and instruments which create, evidence or secure all or any part of the Senior Loans.

"Senior Lender" shall mean Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells"), GE Capital Corporation ("GE") and/or First Union National Bank, N.A. ("First Union"), as the context may so require, in their respective capacities as the lenders under the Senior Loans.

"Senior Loans": shall mean, collectively, (i) that certain loan in the amount of $32,100,000.00 made by the Wells to the Eleven SAC Self Storage Corporation; (ii) that certain loan in the amount of $9,626,000.00 made by the GE to the Eight SAC Self Storage Corporation; (iii) that certain loan in the amount of $8,945,000.00 made by the GE to the Nine SAC Self Storage Corporation; (iv) that certain loan in the amount of $10,272,000.00 made by the GE to the Ten SAC Self Storage Corporation; (v) that certain loan in the amount of $9,675,000.00 made by the First Union to the Six-A SAC Self Storage Corporation; (vi) that certain loan in the amount of $9,423,000.00 made by the First Union to the Six-B SAC Self Storage Corporation; and (vii) that certain loan in the amount of $10,513,000.00 made by the First Union to the Six-C SAC Self Storage Corporation.

"Stated Maturity Date": shall mean May 7, 2019, or the date on which all of the Property Management Agreements are terminated in accordance with Section 6 thereof, or on demand by Payee.

"Tax and Insurance Escrow Account": shall mean any impound account established pursuant to the Senior Loans, or any of them.

"Triggering Event": shall have the meaning given it hi Section 2(h)(ii) below.

"Yield Maintenance Premium": shall have the meaning given such term in Section 4(b) below.

2. Interest.

(a) Basic Interest Rate Prior to Maturity. Prior to the Maturity Date, interest ("Basic Interest") shall accrue on the principal balance of the Note outstanding from time to time at the Accrual Rate. Such interest shall be paid as follows: quarterly in arrears, on the first day of each calendar quarter. Maker shall pay to Holder an amount calculated by applying the Pay Rate to the principal balance outstanding hereunder; and, the remainder of the Basic Interest accrued hereunder at the Accrual Rate during such quarter through the last day of such quarter ("Deferred Interest") shall be deferred, shall be payable as and at the time provided in Section 2(d) below, and commencing on the day payment of Basic Interest at the Pay Rate is due for such quarter, interest shall accrue on such Deferred Interest at the Accrual Rate (and any accrued interest thereon, shall be considered part of Deferred Interest).

(b) Post-Maturity Basic Interest. From and after the Maturity Date interest ("Post Maturity Basic Interest") shall accrue and be payable on the outstanding principal balance hereof until paid in full at an annual rate equal to fifteen percent (15%) and such Post Maturity Basic Interest shall be payable upon demand.

(c) Computations. All computations of interest and fees payable hereunder shall be based upon a year of 360 days for the actual number of days elapsed.

(d) Deferred Interest. Deferred Interest shall be paid as follows:

(i) On each quarterly date for the payment of Basic Interest, Maker shall pay an amount (the "Catch-Up Payment") equal to the lesser of (i) the aggregate outstanding Deferred Interest on the last day of the quarter for which such payment is being made and (ii) ninety percent (90%) of the result of subtracting from Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for that quarter the sum of principal and interest paid on the Senior Loans by the borrowers thereunder for such period plus an additional amount equal to twice the Pay Rate Interest for such period;

(ii) All unpaid Deferred Interest shall be paid on the Maturity Date; and

(iii) No payment of Deferred Interest may, when added to all other payments of interest or payments construed as interest, shall exceed the Highest Lawful Rate.

(e) Cash Flow Contingent Interest. In addition to Basic Interest and Deferred Interest, on each date on which Basic Interest is payable hereunder, Maker shall pay to Holder interest ("Cash Flow Contingent Interest") in an amount equal to the amount (if any) by which ninety percent (90%) of the result of subtracting from Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for that quarter the sum of principal and interest paid on the Senior Loans for such period plus an additional amount equal to twice the Pay Rate Interest for such period each calculated as of that date exceeds the Catch-Up Payment paid on that date by Maker to Holder. Additionally, at the time of the closing of any impound accounts established pursuant to the Senior Loan Documents, deposits into which are considered Operating Expenses, Cash Flow Contingent Interest shall be due to the Holder on the balances in those accounts except to the extent such balances are paid to the Senior Lender.

(f) Quarterly Statements; Adjustment of Payments. On the due date for each payment of Basic Interest, Maker shall deliver to Holder a certified statement of operations of the Project for the calendar quarter or other period with respect to which such Basic Interest is due, showing in reasonable detail and in a format approved by Holder respective amounts of, and the method of calculating, the Gross Receipts, Gross Income, Operating Expenses, Net Cash Flow, Catch-Up Amount and Cash Flow Contingent Interest for the preceding calendar quarter, as well as (if requested by Holder) all data necessary for the calculation of any such amounts. Maker shall keep and maintain at all times full and accurate books of account and records adequate to correctly reflect all such amounts. Such books and records shall be available for at least five years after the end of the calendar quarter to which they relate. Holder shall have the right to inspect, copy and audit such books of account and records during reasonable business hours, and upon reasonable notice to Maker, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any payments made on account of Cash Flow Contingent Interest. The costs of any such audit will be paid by Holder, except that Maker shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of any such audit which discloses that any amount properly payable by maker to Holder hereunder exceeded by five percent (5%) or more the amount actually paid and initially reported by maker as being payable with respect thereto.

(g) Prorations of Cash Flow Contingent Interest. Cash Flow Contingent Interest shall be equitably prorated on the basis of a 365-day year for any partial calendar quarter in which the term of the Loan commences or in which the Note is paid in full. If the payment of Cash Flow Contingent Interest due on the Maturity Date is made before the delivery to Holder of the quarterly statement for the then current calendar quarter, then Maker shall pay to Holder on Maturity Date an estimate of such amount. Maker shall subsequently deliver to Holder an operating statement as required by Section 2(f) for the quarter in which the Maturity Date occurred, and an appropriate adjustment of the estimated amount previously paid by Maker shall be made by the parties within ten (10) days after the operating statement for such final quarter is delivered to Holder.

(h) Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest.

(i) Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest Defined. Maker shall pay to Holder, in addition to Basic Interest, Deferred Interest and Cash Flow Contingent Interest, at the time or times and in the manner hereinafter described, an amount equal to ninety percent (90%) of the Net Capital Proceeds resulting from, or determined at the time of, any of the Triggering Events described below (collectively, "Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest").

(ii) Events Triggering Payment of Net Capital Proceeds. Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be due and payable concurrently with the occurrence of each and every one of the following events (collectively "Triggering Events", and individually, a "Triggering Event"):

(A) Project Sale or Financing. The closing of any Sale of the Project (any such event is hereinafter collectively referred to as a "Sale or Financing"):

(B) Default Occurrence. The occurrence of any Event of Default which is not fully cured within the period of time, if any, expressly provided for cure herein, and the acceleration of the maturity of the Loan on account thereof (hereinafter collectively referred to as a "Default Occurrence"); and

(C) Maturity Occurrence. The occurrence of the Maturity Date or the prepayment by Maker (if permitted hereunder) of all principal and accrued Basic Interest (including, without limitation, Deferred Interest) and Cash Flow Contingent Interest outstanding on the Loan (the "Maturity Occurrence").

(iii) Notice of Triggering Event: Time for Payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. Maker shall notify Holder of the occurrence of a Triggering Event, and shall pay Holder the full amount of any applicable Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest which is payable in connection therewith, as follows:

(A) In the case of any Sale or Financing or the Maturity Occurrence, Maker shall give Holder written notice of any such Triggering Event not less than seventy five (75) days before the date such Triggering Event is to occur. Any Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest due Holder on account of any Sale or Financing or the Maturity Occurrence shall be paid to Holder on the date such Triggering Event occurs.

(B) In the case of a Default Occurrence, no notice of such a Triggering Event need be given by Maker. In such event, payment of any and all Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest on account of the Default Occurrence shall be immediately due and payable upon acceleration of the maturity of the Loan.

(iv) Determination of Net Capital Proceeds. Prior to the occurrence of a Triggering Event (or, in the event of a Default Occurrence, within a reasonable time thereafter), the "Net Capital Proceeds" resulting from such Triggering Event shall be determined as follows:

(A) Net Capital Proceeds From Sale or Financing. Except as provided in Section 2(h)(iv)(B) below, in the event of a Sale or Financing, "Net Capital Proceeds" shall be the amount which is equal to: (I) either (x) the Gross Capital Proceeds (as hereinafter defined) realized from the Project, or (y) the fair market value of the Project determined pursuant to Section 2(h)(v) below, if Holder in its discretion requires such a determination, minus (II) the sum of: (aa) reasonable brokerage commissions (excluding any payments to any Affiliate of Maker to the extent such payments exceed those which would have been due as commissions to a non-Affiliate broker rendering identical services), title insurance premiums, documentary transfer taxes, escrow fees and recording charges, appraisal fees, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, and sales taxes (if any), in each case actually paid or payable by Maker in connection with the Sale or Financing, plus (bb) all payments of principal and Deferred Interest paid to Holder an account of this Note from the proceeds of such Sale or Financing, plus (cc) an amount equal to all payments of principal and interest on the Senior Loans made from the proceeds of such Sale or Financing, plus (dd) any amount paid as Yield Maintenance Premium as a result of such Sale or Financing. For purposes of this Section 2(h), "Gross Capital Proceeds" shall mean the gross proceeds of whatever form or nature payable directly or indirectly to or for the benefit or account of Maker in connection with such Sale or Financing, including, without limitation: cash; the outstanding balance of any financing which will remain as a lien or encumbrance against the Project or any portion thereof following such Sale or Financing (but only in the case of a Sale, and not in the case of an encumbrance); and the cash equivalent of the fair market value of any non-cash consideration, including the present value of any promissory note received as part of the proceeds of such Sale or Financing (valued at a market rate of interest, as determined by an independent investment banker designated by Holder).

(B) Net Capital Proceeds In Connection With a Default or Maturity Occurrence. In the event of a Default Occurrence or the Maturity Occurrence when no Sale or Financing has occurred, the "Net Capital Proceeds" shall equal: (I) the fair market value of the Project determined as of the date of such Triggering Event in accordance with Section 2(h)(v) below, minus (II) the sum of (aa) the outstanding principal balance plus Deferred Merest on the Note plus (bb) the outstanding principal balance of, and accrued but unpaid interest on, the Senior Loans.

(v) Determination of Fair Market Value. The fair market value of the Project shall be determined for purposes of this Note as follows:

(A) Partial Sale. In the event of a Sale of a portion of the Project, Holder shall select an experienced and reputable appraiser to prepare a written appraisal report of the fair market value of the Project in accordance with clause (C) below, and the appraised fair market value submitted to Holder by such appraiser shall be conclusive for purposes of this Note.

(B) Other Occurrences. In all other circumstances the fair market value of the Project shall be deemed to equal the result of dividing the Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for the immediately preceding fiscal year by ten percent (10%). However, if the Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service for the immediately preceding fiscal year has been lowered because of unusually high Operating Expenses during such fiscal year the fair market value of the Project may, at the option of the Maker be determined by dividing by ten percent (10%) the mean average of the Net Cash Flow Before Debt Service of the Project for the 3 immediately preceding fiscal years of the Project.

(C) Appraisal Standards and Assumptions. In making any determination by appraisal of fair market value, the appraiser(s) shall assume that the improvements then located on the Project constitute the highest and best use of the property. If the Triggering Event is a Sale or Financing, the appraiser(s) shall take the sales price into account, although such sales price shall not be determinative of fair market value. Each appraiser selected hereunder shall be an independent MAI-designated appraiser with not less than ten years' experience in commercial real estate appraisal in the general geographical area where the Project is located.

(vi) Effect on Holder's Approval Rights. Nothing contained in this Section 2(h) shall be deemed or construed to waive, restrict, impair, or in any manner affect Holder's rights hereunder or under any provisions of the Debt Papers to consent (or withhold its consent) to: any prepayment of the Loan in whole or in part; sales or other transfers of all or any portion of the Project or any interest therein; sales or other transfers of any ownership interests in Maker; any refinancing of all or any portion of the Loan; any junior financing; or, any other matters which require Holder's consent.

(vii) Statement, Books and Records. With each payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest, Maker shall furnish to Holder a statement setting forth Maker's proposed calculation of Net Capital Proceeds and Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest and shall provide a detailed breakdown of all items necessary for such calculation. For a period of five years after each payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest, Maker shall keep and maintain full and accurate books and records adequate to correctly reflect each such item. Said books and records shall be available for Holder's inspection, copying and audit during reasonable business hours following reasonable notice for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of the payments made on account of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. The costs of any such audit will be paid by Holder, except that Maker shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of any such audit which discloses that any amount properly payable by Maker to Holder hereunder exceeded by five percent (5%) or more the amount actually paid and initially reported by maker as being payable with respect thereto.

(viii) Negative Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Holder shall not be responsible or liable in any respect to Maker or any other Person for any reduction in the fair market value of the Project or for any contingency, condition or occurrence that might result in a negative number for Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest. If at any time it is calculated, Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be a negative amount, no Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall at that time be payable to Holder, but Holder shall in no way be liable for any such negative amount and there shall be no deduction or offset for such negative amount at any time when Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest shall be subsequently calculated.

(ix) No payment of Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest may, when added to all other payments of interest or payments construed as interest, shall exceed the Highest Lawful Rate.

3. Usury Savings Clause. The provisions of this Section 3 shall govern and control over any irreconcilably inconsistent provision contained in this Note or in any other document evidencing or securing the indebtedness evidenced hereby. The Holder hereof shall never be entitled to receive, collect, or apply as interest hereon (for purposes of this Section 3. the word "interest" shall be deemed to include Basic Interest, Additional Interest and any other sums treated as interest under applicable law governing matters of usury and unlawful interest), any amount in excess of the Highest Lawful Rate (hereinafter defined) and, in the event the Holder ever receives, collects, or applies as interest any such excess, such amount which would be excessive interest shall be deemed a partial prepayment of principal and shall be treated hereunder as such; and, if the principal of this Note is paid in full, any remaining excess shall forthwith be paid to Maker. In determining whether or not the interest paid or payable, under any specific contingency, exceeds the Highest Lawful Rate, Maker and the Holder shall, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, (i) characterize any nonprincipal payment as an expense, fee, or premium rather than as interest, (ii) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof, and (iii) spread the total amount of interest throughout the entire contemplated term of this Note; provided, that if this Note is paid and performed in full prior to the end of the full contemplated term hereof, and if the interest received for the actual period of existence hereof exceeds the Highest Lawful Rate, the Holder shall refund to Maker the amount of such excess or credit the amount of such excess against the principal of this Note, and, in such event, the Holder shall not be subject to any penalties provided by any laws for contracting for, charging, or receiving interest in excess of the Highest Lawful Rate.

4. Payments.

(a) Interest and Principal. Maker promises to pay to the Holder hereof Basic Interest, Deferred Interest and Additional Interest as, in the respective amounts, and at the respective times provided in Section 2 hereinabove. Each payment of Basic Interest (including without limitation, Deferred Interest), and Additional Interest on, or any other amounts of any kind with respect to, this Note shall be made by the Maker to the Holder hereof at its office in Phoenix, Arizona (or at any other place which the Holder may hereafter designate for such purpose in a notice duly given to the Maker hereunder), not later than noon, Eastern Standard Time, on the date due thereof; and funds received after that hour shall be deemed to have been received by the Holder on the next following business day. Whenever any payment to be made under this Note shall be stated to be due on a date which is not a business day, the due date thereof shall be extended to the next succeeding business day, and interest shall be payable at the applicable rate during such extension.

(b) Late Payment Charges. If any amount of Interest, principal or any other charge or amount which becomes due and payable under this Note is not paid and received by the Holder within five business days after the date it first becomes due and payable, Maker shall pay to the Holder hereof a late payment charge in an amount equal to five percent (5%) of the full amount of such late payment, whether such late payment is received prior to or after the expiration of the ten-day cure period set forth in Section 8(a). Maker recognizes that in the event any payment secured hereby (other than the principal payment due upon maturity of the Note, whether by acceleration or otherwise) is not made when due, Holder will incur extra expenses in handling the delinquent payment, the exact amount of which is impossible to ascertain, but that a charge of five percent (5%) of the amount of the delinquent payment would be a reasonable estimate of the expenses so incurred. Therefore, if any such payment is not received when due and payable, Maker shall without prejudicing or affecting any other rights or remedies of the trustee under those certain Junior Deeds of Trust (or Junior Mortgages, or Junior Deeds to Secure Debt), Assignment of Leases and Rents, Security Agreement, Financing Statement and Fixture Filing of even date herewith or Holder pay to Holder to cover expenses incurred in handling the delinquent payment, an amount calculated at five percent (5%) of the amount of the delinquent payment.

(c) No Prepayment. Maker shall have the right to prepay this Note at any time, but only subject to the requirements and conditions set forth below. If under any circumstances whatsoever (other than pursuant to Section 3 above) this Note is paid in whole or in part, whether voluntarily, following acceleration after the occurrence of an Event of Default, with the consent of Holder, by Holder's application of any condemnation or insurance proceeds to amounts due under the Note, by operation of law or otherwise, and whether or not such payment prior to the Stated Maturity Date results from the Holder's exercise of its rights to accelerate the indebtedness evidenced hereby, then Maker shall pay to the Holder the Yield Maintenance Premium (defined hereinbelow) in addition to paying the entire unpaid principal balance of this Note and all Interest which has accrued but is unpaid except with the written consent of the Holder.

A Yield Maintenance Premium in an amount equal to the greater of (A) one percent (1.0%) of the principal amount being prepaid, and (B) the positive excess of (1) the present value ("PV") of all future installments of principal and interest due pursuant to Section 4(a) of this Note absent any such prepayment including the principal amount due at the Stated Maturity Date (collectively, "All Future Payments"), discounted at an interest rate per annum equal to the sum of (a) the Treasury Constant Maturity Yield Index published during the second full week preceding the date on which such Yield Maintenance Premium is payable for instruments having a maturity coterminous with the remaining term of this Note, and (b) One Hundred Forty (140) basis points, over (2) the then outstanding principal balance hereof immediately before such prepayment [(PV of All Future Payments) (Principal balance at the time of prepayment) = Yield Maintenance Premium]. "Treasury Constant Maturity Yield Index" shall mean the average yield for "This Week" as reported by the Federal Reserve Board in Federal Reserve Statistical Release H.15 (519). If there is no Treasury Constant Maturity Yield Index for instruments having a maturity coterminous with the remaining term of this Note, then the index shall be equal to the weighted average yield to maturity of the Treasury Constant Maturity Yield Indices with maturities next longer and shorter than such remaining average life to the maturity, calculated by averaging (and rounding upward to the nearest 1/100 of 1% per annum, if the average is not such a multiple) the yields of the relevant Treasury Constant Maturity Yield Indices (rounded, if necessary, to the nearest 1/100 of 1% with any figure of 1/200 of 1% or above rounded upward). In the event that any Yield Maintenance Premium is due hereunder, Holder shall deliver to Maker a statement setting forth the amount and determination of the Yield Maintenance Premium and, provided that Holder shall have in good faith applied the formula described above, Maker shall not have the right to challenge the calculation or the method of calculation set forth in any such statement in the absence of manifest error, which calculation may be made by Holder on any day during the thirty (30) day period preceding the date of such prepayment. Holder shall not be obligated or required to have actually reinvested the prepaid principal balance at the Treasury Constant Maturity Yield Index or otherwise as a condition to receiving the Yield Maintenance Premium. No Yield Maintenance Premium or premium shall be due or payable in connection with any prepayment of the indebtedness evidenced by this Note made on or after any date after June 1, 2005. In addition to the aforesaid Yield Maintenance Premium if, upon any such prepayment (whether prior to or after any date that is after June 1, 2005, the aforesaid prior written notice has not been received by Holder, the Yield Maintenance Premium shall be increased by an amount equal to the lesser of (i) thirty (30) days' unearned interest computed in the outstanding principal balance of this Note, so prepaid and (ii) unearned interest computed on the outstanding principal balance of this Note so prepaid for the period from, and including, the date of prepayment through the otherwise Stated Maturity Date of this Note.

Without limiting the scope of the foregoing provisions, the provisions of this paragraph shall constitute, within the meaning of any applicable state statute, both a waiver of any right Maker may have to prepay the Note, in whole or in part, without premium or charge, upon acceleration of the maturity of the Note, or otherwise, and an agreement by Maker to pay the prepayment charge described in this Note, whether such prepayment is voluntary or upon or following any acceleration of this Note, or otherwise, and for such purpose Maker has separately initialed this provision in the space provided below, and Maker hereby declares that Holder's agreement to make the Loan to Maker at the interest rate and for the term set forth in the Note constitutes adequate consideration, of individual weight, for this waiver and agreement by Maker.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, or anything else in this Note to the contrary, it is agreed that in the event this Note becomes due and payable as a result of the termination of all of the Property Management Agreements, Maker shall not be subject to the Yield Maintenance Premiums or other prepayment premiums contemplated herein and Maker shall only be required to repay the outstanding principal balance of this Note and accrued but unpaid Basic Interest and Deferred Interest through the date of such prepayment, it being agreed that in such event, Maker shall not be required to pay any Capital Proceeds Contingent Interest or Cash Flow Contingent Interest.

Maker's Initials: [ILLEGIBLE]

5. Representations and Warranties of Maker. Maker represents and warrants to Payee, as of the date hereof, that:

- (a) Due Authorization. Maker is a corporation duly organized under the laws of the state of its organization, with the authority to own the Project and enter into the Debt Papers and consummate the transactions contemplated thereby;
- (b) No Violation. Maker's execution, delivery and performance of its obligations under the Debt Papers do not and will not violate the articles of incorporation or by-laws of Maker and will not violate, conflict with or constitute a default under any agreement to which Maker is a party or by which the Project is bound or encumbered, or violate any Requirements of Law to which Maker or the Project is subject;
- (c) Consents. No consents, approvals, filings, or notices of, with or to any Person are required on the part of Maker in connection with Maker's execution, delivery and performance of its obligations under the Debt Papers that have not been duly obtained, made or given, as the case may be;
- (d) Enforceability. The Debt Papers are valid, binding and enforceable in accordance with their terms, except as the enforceability thereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization or similar laws relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally.
- (e) Compliance with Laws. Each Mortgaged Property is in compliance in all material respects with all applicable Requirements of Law;
- (f) Zoning and Other Laws. The Project and the use thereof as a self-storage facility, separate and apart from any other properties, constitutes a legal and conforming use under applicable zoning regulations and each such Project is in compliance in all material respects with all applicable Requirements of Law;
- (g) Litigation. No litigation, investigation or proceeding or notice thereof before any arbitrator or governmental authority, agency or subdivision is pending or, to Maker's best knowledge, threatened, against Maker or the Project;
- (h) Utilities; Licenses. All utilities required by Requirements of Law or by the normal and intended use of the Project are installed to the property line and connected by valid permits and the Maker possesses, or will possess as and when necessary, all patents, patent rights or licenses, trademarks, trade names, trade name right, service marks, copyrights, licenses, permits and consents (or rights thereto) which are required to conduct its business as it is now conducted or as it is presently proposed to be conducted, or which are required by any governmental entity or agency;

(i) Easements. Maker has obtained and has encumbered in favor of Holder pursuant to the Mortgage all easements, appurtenances and rights of way necessary for access to and the normal uses of the Project; and

(i) Place of Business. Maker's principal place of business is located at 715 South Country Club Drive, Mesa, AZ 85210, and that address is its only place of business or its chief executive office.

6. Affirmative Covenants. Maker hereby covenants and agrees that, so long as any indebtedness under the Note remains unpaid, Maker shall:

(a) Use of Proceeds. Use the proceeds of the Loan to repay certain indebtedness presently outstanding against the Project and held by Payee.

(b) Financial Statements. Deliver or cause to be delivered to Holder:

(i) As soon as available and in any event within 90 days after the end of each calendar year, annual financial reports on the Project showing all income and expenses certified to be accurate and complete by an officer of the Maker; and

(ii) As soon as available and in any event within 45 days after the end of each of the first three calendar quarters of each year, (1) a detailed comparative earnings statement for such quarter and for the period commencing at the end of the previous fiscal year and ending with the end of such quarter, and (2) financial reports on the Project showing all income and expenses, certified to be accurate and complete by an officer of the managing general partner of Maker (or, if Maker is a corporation, of Maker); and

(iii) Promptly, such additional financial and other information (including, without limitation, information regarding the Project) as Holder may from time to time reasonably request.

(c) Inspection of Property; Books and Records; Discussions. Keep proper books of record and account in which full, true and correct entries in conformity with GAAP and all Requirements of Law shall be made of all dealings and transactions in relation to its business and activities and, upon reasonable notice, permit representatives of Holder to examine and make abstracts from any of its books and records at any reasonable time and as often as may reasonably be desired by Holder and to discuss the business, operations, properties and financial and other conditions of Maker with officers and employees of Maker and with its independent certified public accountants. In addition, on the last day of each calendar month on which an Interest payment is due, Maker shall furnish to Holder a certified statement of operations of the Project for the calendar month in which such Interest payment is due, showing in reasonable detail and in a format approved by Holder the Gross Receipts, Operating Expenses, and Net Cash Flow, as well as (if required by Holder) all data necessary for the calculation of any such amounts. Maker shall keep and maintain at all times full and accurate books of account and records adequate to correctly reflect all such amounts. Such books and records shall be available for at least five (5) years after the end of the relevant calendar month. Holder shall have the right to inspect, copy and audit such books of account and records at Holder's expense, during reasonable business hours, and upon reasonable notice to Maker, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any principal payments made. The costs of any such audit will be paid by Holder, except that Maker shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of any such audit which discloses that any amount properly payable by Maker to Holder hereunder exceeded by five percent (5%) or more the amount actually paid and initially reported by Maker as being payable with respect thereto.

(d) Notices. Give prompt written notice to Holder of (a) any claims, proceedings or disputes (whether or not purportedly on behalf of Maker) against, or to Maker's knowledge, threatened or affecting Maker or the Project which, if adversely determined, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect (without in any way limiting the foregoing, claims, proceedings, or disputes involving in the aggregate monetary amounts in excess of $15,000 not fully covered by insurance shall be deemed to be material, exclusive of deductibles in an amount not to exceed $1,000), or (b) any proposal by any public authority to acquire the Project or any portion thereof.

(e) Expenses. Pay all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including fees and disbursements of counsel, including special local counsel) of Holder, incident to any amendments, waivers and renewals relating to the Debt Papers and the protection of the rights of Holder under the Debt Papers whether by judicial proceedings or otherwise, including, without limitation, in connection with bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganization, moratorium or other similar proceedings involving Maker or a "workout" of the Loan. The obligations of Maker under this Section 6(e) shall survive repayment of the Loan.

(f) Debt Papers. Comply with and observe all terms and conditions of the Debt Papers.

(g) INDEMNIFICATION. INDEMNIFY AND HOLD HARMLESS HOLDER AND ITS DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, ATTORNEYS AND AGENTS (THE "INDEMNIFIED PARTIES") FROM AND AGAINST ALL DAMAGES AND LIABILITIES (COLLECTIVELY AND SEVERALLY, "LOSSES") ASSESSED AGAINST ANY OF THEM RESULTING FROM THE CLAIMS OF ANY PARTY RELATING TO OR ARISING OUT OF THE DEBT PAPERS OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED THEREBY, EXCEPT FOR LOSSES CAUSED BY THE GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT OF SUCH INDEMNIFIED PARTY, AND REIMBURSE EACH INDEMNIFIED PARTY FOR ANY EXPENSES (INCLUDING THE FEES AND DISBURSEMENTS OF LEGAL COUNSEL) REASONABLY INCURRED IN CONNECTION WITH THE INVESTIGATION OF, PREPARATION FOR OR DEFENSE OF ANY ACTUAL OR THREATENED CLAIM, ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING THEREFROM (INCLUDING ANY SUCH COSTS OF RESPONDING TO DISCOVERY REQUEST OR SUBPOENAS), REGARDLESS OF WHETHER HOLDER OR SUCH OTHER INDEMNIFIED PERSON IS A PARTY THERETO. WITHOUT DEROGATING THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 20 BELOW, IT IS ACKNOWLEDGED AND AGREED BY MAKER THAT THE INDEMNIFICATION RIGHTS OF THE INDEMNIFIED PARTIES HEREUNDER ARE IN ADDITION TO AND CUMULATIVE WITH ALL OTHER RIGHTS OF THE INDEMNIFIED PARTIES. WITH REFERENCE TO THE PROVISIONS SET FORTH ABOVE IN THIS SECTION 6(g) FOR PAYMENT BY MAKER OF ATTORNEYS' FEES INCURRED BY THE INDEMNIFIED PARTIES IN ANY ACTION OR CLAIM BROUGHT BY A THIRD PARTY, MAKER SHALL, IF IT ADMITS LIABILITY HEREUNDER TO ANY INDEMNIFIED PARTY, DILIGENTLY DEFEND SUCH INDEMNIFIED PARTY AND DILIGENTLY CONDUCT THE DEFENSE. IF HOLDER OR ANY OTHER SUCH INDEMNIFIED PARTY DESIRES TO ENGAGE SEPARATE COUNSEL, IT MAY DO SO AT ITS OWN EXPENSE; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT SUCH LIMITATION ON THE OBLIGATION OF MAKER TO PAY THE FEES OF SEPARATE COUNSEL FOR SUCH INDEMNIFIED PARTY SHALL NOT APPLY IF SUCH INDEMNIFIED PARTY HAS RETAINED SAID SEPARATE COUNSEL BECAUSE OF A REASONABLE BELIEF THAT MAKER IS NOT DILIGENTLY DEFENDING IT AND/OR NOT DILIGENTLY CONDUCTING THE DEFENSE AND SO NOTIFIES MAKER. THE OBLIGATIONS OF MAKER UNDER THIS SECTION 6(g) SHALL SURVIVE REPAYMENT IN FULL OF THE INDEBTEDNESS EVIDENCED HEREBY. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED, IT IS THE INTENT OF THIS SECTION 6(g) THAT THE MAKER SHALL INDEMNIFY AND HOLD HARMLESS THE INDEMNIFIED PARTIES FROM LOSSES OCCASIONED BY THE ACTS OR OMISSIONS, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, NEGLIGENCE, OF THE INDEMNIFIED PARTIES.

MAKER'S INITIALS [ILLEGIBLE]

(g) Co-operation. Execute and deliver to Holder any and all instruments, documents and agreements, and do or cause to be done from time to time any and all other acts, reasonably deemed necessary or desirable by Holder to effectuate the provisions and purposes of the Debt Papers.

(h) Requirements of Law. Comply at all times with all Requirements of Law.

(i) Management Agreement. Cause or permit the Project to be initially managed by a subsidiary of U-Haul International, Inc. and to be at all times managed by a nationally recognized self-storage property management company (the "Project Manager") approved by the Holder, which Project Manager shall be employed pursuant to an agreement (the "Property Management Agreement") approved by the Holder. In no event shall the fees paid (or required to be paid) to the Project Manager exceed six percent (6%) of Gross Receipts for any time period. The Maker agrees, upon request of the Holder, to exercise its right to terminate any Project Manager upon the occurrence and continuance of (i) an Event of Default, (ii) a Sale of U-Haul International, Inc. or such Project Manager, (iii) a breach by such Project Manager of its respective Property Management Agreement, or (iv) the Net Cash Flow prior to subtracting Interest shall fall twenty percent (20%) or more for one complete Loan Year.

7. Negative Covenants. Maker hereby agrees that, as long as any indebtedness under the Note remains unpaid, Maker shall not, directly or indirectly:

(a) Indebtedness. Create, incur or assume any Indebtedness except for: (i) the Loan; (ii) Maker's contingent obligations under the Senior Loans; (iii) for non-delinquent taxes; and (iv) unsecured debt incurred in the ordinary course of business.

(b) Consolidation and Merger. Liquidate or dissolve or enter into any consolidation, merger, partnership, joint venture, syndicate or other combination (except for a merger or consolidation for the purpose of, and having the effect of changing Maker's jurisdiction of organization).

(c) Transactions with Affiliates. Purchase, acquire or lease any property from, or sell, transfer or lease any property to, or lend or advance any money to, or borrow any money from, or guarantee any obligation of, or acquire any stock, obligations or securities of, or enter into any merger or consolidation agreement, or any management or similar agreement with, any Affiliate, or enter into any other transaction or arrangement or make any payment to (including, without limitation, on account of any management fees, service fees, office charges, consulting fees, technical services charges or tax sharing charges) or otherwise deal with, in the ordinary course of business or otherwise, any Affiliate on terms which are unreasonably burdensome or unfair, except (i) transactions relating to the sharing of overhead expenses, including, without limitation, managerial, payroll and accounting and legal expenses, for which charges assessed against Maker are not greater than would be incurred by Maker in similar transactions with non-Affiliates, or (ii) fair and reasonable transactions between Maker and U-Haul International, Inc. and its related companies.

(d) Sale of Interests in the Project or in the Maker. Without obtaining the prior written consent of Holder (which Holder may withhold or condition in its sole and absolute discretion), cause, permit or acquiesce in any Sale or Financing.

(e) Distributions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Note or the Debt Papers, Maker shall not make any distributions to any of its partners, except for distributions of amounts not in excess of (i) the Catch-Up Amount for any quarter, (ii) any Net Cash Flow for any quarter remaining after the payment to Holder of all Interest and the Catch-Up Amount payable for and with respect to such quarter, and (iii) upon the Sale or Financing any Net Sale or Financing proceeds remaining after payment to Holder of the amounts to which Holder is entitled hereunder in connection therewith.

(f) Business. Engage, directly or indirectly, in any business other than that arising out of the issuance of this Note, entering into the Debt Papers, taking the actions required to be performed under the Debt Papers and operating the Mortgaged Properties.

(g) No Bankruptcy Filing. To the extent permitted by law, without the unanimous consent of the Board of Directors of the Maker (for these purposes such Board of Directors will not include any committee thereof) voluntarily file any petition for bankruptcy, reorganization, assignment for the benefit of creditors or similar proceeding.

(h) No Joint Venture. Engage in a joint venture or become a partner with any other Person.

8. Event of Default; Remedies. Any one of the following occurrences shall constitute an Event of Default under this Note:

(a) The failure by the undersigned to make any payment of principal, Interest or Yield Maintenance Premium upon this Note as and when the same becomes due and payable in accordance with the provisions hereof, and the continuation of such failure for a period of ten (10) days after notice thereof to the Maker;

(b) The failure by the Maker to deposit in any account established and maintained pursuant to the Collection Account Agreement any amount required to be deposited in such account within 2 days of when required pursuant to the terms of the Collection Account Agreement;

(c) Any representation, warranty or certification made by Maker under any Debt Paper or in any report, certificate or financial statement delivered to the Holder under or in connection with any Debt Paper is materially inaccurate or incomplete as of the date made; provided, however, that such inaccurate or incomplete representation, warranty or certification is material and cannot be cured without material prejudice to the Holder within 30 days written notice thereof to the Maker;

(d) The failure by Maker to perform any obligation under, or the occurrence of any other default with respect to any provision of, this Note other than as described in any of the other clauses of this Section 8, and the continuation of such default for a period of 30 days after written notice thereof to the Maker;

(e) The occurrence of any Default under the Mortgage, under the Security Agreement and Assignment (Management Agreement), or under any of the other Debt Papers;

(f) (i) Maker shall file, institute or commence any case, proceeding or other action (A) under any existing or future law of any jurisdiction, domestic or foreign, relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors, seeking to have an order for relief entered with respect to it, or seeking to adjudicate it a bankrupt or insolvent, or seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, winding-up, liquidation, dissolution, composition or other relief [ILLEGIBLE] it or its debts, or (B) seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or any substantial part of its assets, or Maker shall make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or (ii) there shall be filed, instituted or commenced against Maker any case, proceeding or other action of a nature referred to in clause (i) above which (A) results in the entry of any order for relief or any such adjudication or appointment, or (B) remains undismissed undischarged for a period of 60 days; or (iii) there shall be commenced against Maker any case, proceeding or other action seeking issuance of a warrant of attachment, execution, distraint or similar process against all or substantially all of its assets which results in the entry of an order for any such relief which shall not have been vacated, discharged, stayed, satisfied, or bonded to Holder's satisfaction pending appeal, within 60 days from the first entry thereof; or (iv) Maker shall take any action in furtherance of, or indicating its consent to, approval of, or acquiescence in, any of the acts described in any of the preceding clauses (i), (ii) or (iii); or (v) Maker shall not, or shall be unable to, or shall admit in writing its inability to, pay its debts as they become due, or shall in writing admit that it is insolvent;

(g) One or more judgments or decrees in an aggregate amount exceeding $1,000,000.00 shall be entered against Maker and all such judgments or decrees shall not have been vacated, discharged, stayed, satisfied, or bonded to Holder's satisfaction pending appeal within 60 days from the first entry thereof; or

(h) The occurrence of a Event of Default under the Promissory Notes evidencing the Senior Loans.

Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder: the entire unpaid principal balance of, and any unpaid Basic Interest and Additional Interest then accrued on, this Note together with the Yield Maintenance Premium, if any, and other charges payable pursuant to the Debt Papers shall, at the option of the Holder hereof and without demand or notice of any kind to the undersigned or any other person, immediately become and be due and payable in full (except that such acceleration shall occur automatically upon the occurrence of any Event of Default described in the preceding clause (e) of this Section 8, without further action or decision by Holder); and the Holder shall have and may exercise any and all rights and remedies available at law or in equity and also any and all rights and remedies provided in the Mortgage and any of the other Security Documents.

9. Offset. In addition to (and not in limitation of) any rights of offset that the Holder hereof may have under applicable law, upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder the Holder hereof shall have the right, immediately and without notice, to appropriate and apply to the payment of this Note any and all balances, credits, deposits, accounts or moneys of the Maker then or thereafter with or held by the Holder hereof.

10. Allocation of Balances or of Payments. At any and all times until this Note and all amounts hereunder (including principal, Interest, and other charges and amounts, if any) are paid in full, all payments (whether of principal, Interest or other amounts) made by the undersigned or any other person (including any guarantor) to the Holder hereof may be allocated by the Holder to principal, Interest or other charges or amounts as the Holder may determine in its sole, exclusive and unreviewable discretion (and without notice to or the consent of any person).

11. Captions. Any headings or captions in this Note are inserted for convenience of reference only, and they shall not be deemed to constitute a part hereof, nor shall they be used to construe or interpret the provisions of this Note.

12. Waiver.

(a) Maker, for itself and for its successors, transferees and assigns and all guarantors and endorsers, hereby waives diligence, presentment and demand for payment, protest, notice of protest and nonpayment, dishonor and notice of dishonor, notice of the intention to accelerate, notice of acceleration, and all other demands or notices of any and every kind whatsoever (except only for any notice of default expressly provided for in Section 8 of this Note or in the Security Documents) and the undersigned agrees that this Note and any or all payments coming due hereunder may be extended from time to time in the sole discretion of the Holder hereof without in any way affecting or diminishing their liability hereunder.

(b) No extension of the time for the payment of this Note or any payment becoming due or payable hereunder, which may be made by agreement with any Person now or hereafter liable for the payment of this Note, shall operate to release, discharge, modify, change or affect the original liability under this Note, either in whole or in part, of the Maker if it is not a party to such agreement.

(c) No delay in the exercise of any right or remedy hereunder shall be deemed a waiver of such right or remedy, nor shall the exercise of any right or remedy be deemed an election of remedies or a waiver of any other right or remedy. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the failure of the Holder hereof promptly after the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder to exercise its right to declare the indebtedness remaining unmatured hereunder to be immediately due and payable shall not constitute a waiver of such right while such Event of Default continues nor a waiver of such right in connection with any future Event of Default on the part of the undersigned.

13. Payment of Costs. The undersigned hereby expressly agrees that upon the occurrence of any Event of Default under this Note, the undersigned will pay to the Holder hereof, on demand, all costs of collection or enforcement of every kind, including (but not limited to) all attorneys' fees, court costs, and other costs and expenses of every kind incurred by the Holder hereof, on demand, all costs of collection or enforcement of every kind, including (but not limited to) all attorneys' fees, court costs, and other costs and expenses of every kind incurred by the Holder hereof in connection with the protection or realization of any or all of the security for this Note, whether or not any lawsuit is ever filed with respect thereto.

14. The Debt Papers. This Note is unsecured. The Senior Loans are secured by, inter alia, certain Deeds of Trust (and Mortgages, and Deeds to Secure Debt), Assignment of Leases and Rents, Security Agreement and Financing Statement, made and granted by subsidiaries of Maker to or for the benefit of the Senior Holders, respectively, which create liens on real estate in the Project and which also creates a security interest in personal property located thereat or utilized in connection therewith, and each and every additional document or instrument which may at any time be delivered to the Senior Holders as security under the Senior Loans, as any of the same may at any time or from time to time be amended, modified or restated, and together with all substitutions and replacements therefor, are sometimes referred to collectively herein as the "Security Documents"). Reference should be made to the Mortgage and the other Security Documents for a description of the property encumbered thereby and the nature and extent of the security thereof. This Note, the Security Documents and all other documents executed in connection with the Note and the Security Documents are sometimes referred to collectively herein as the "Debt Papers". This Note, the Mortgage, and the other Debt Papers (if any) are hereby incorporated by reference into this Note in their entirety, as though the complete text of each of them were set out in full here in the body of this Note. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, this Note is not indebtedness of, and is not secured, whether directly or indirectly, by any collateral or property owned or operated by the Borrowers, or any of them.

15. Notices. All notices, demands and other communications hereunder to either party shall be made in writing and shall be deemed to have been given when actually received or, if mailed, on the first to occur of actual receipt or the third business day after the deposit thereof in the United States mails, by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

If to the Maker: SAC Holding Corporation 715 South Country Club Drive Mesa, AZ 85210

If to the Holder: Oxford Life Insurance Company 2721 North Central Avenue Phoenix, Arizona 85004 Attention: Treasurer

or to either party at such other address as such party may designate as its address for the receipt of notices hereunder in a written notice duly given to the other party.

16. Time of the Essence. Time is hereby declared to be of the essence of this Note and of every part hereof.

17. Governing Law. This Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Arizona.

18. Jurisdiction. In any controversy, dispute or question arising hereunder or under the other Debt Papers, the Maker consents to the exercise of jurisdiction over its person and property by any court of competent jurisdiction situated in the State of Arizona (whether it be a court of the State of Arizona, or a court of the United States of America situated in the State of Arizona), and in connection therewith, agrees to submit to, and be bound by, the jurisdiction of such court upon the Holder's mailing of process by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, within or without the State of Arizona, to the Maker at its address for receipt of notices under this Note.

19. HOLDER NOT PARTNER OF MAKER. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WHATSOEVER SHALL THE HOLDER OF THIS NOTE BE DEEMED TO BE A PARTNER OR A CO-VENTURER WITH MAKER OR WITH ANY OTHER PERSON. MAKER SHALL NOT REPRESENT TO ANY PERSON THAT THE MAKER AND THE HOLDER HEREOF ARE PARTNERS OR CO-VENTURERS. ANY AND ALL ACTIONS BY THE HOLDER HEREOF IN EXERCISING ANY RIGHTS, REMEDIES OR PRIVILEGES HEREOF OR IN ENFORCING THIS NOTE OR THE OTHER DEBT PAPERS WILL BE EXERCISED BY THE HOLDER SOLELY IN FURTHERANCE OF ITS ROLE AS A SECURED LENDER.

20. Limitation of Personal Liability. Except for fraud or knowing misrepresentations, neither Maker nor any partner in Maker shall be liable personally to pay this Note or the indebtedness evidenced hereby, and the Holder shall not seek any personal or deficiency judgment on this Note except for fraud or knowing misrepresentations, and the sole remedy of the Holder hereunder or under any of the other Debt Papers shall (except for fraud, misappropriation of funds or knowing misrepresentations) be under the Security Documents for enforcement thereof or shall otherwise be against the Collateral (defined for purposes hereof as defined in the Mortgage) and any other property at any time securing any or all of the Liabilities (defined for purposes hereof as defined in the Mortgage); provided, however, that the foregoing shall not in any way diminish or affect (i) any rights the Holder may have (as a secured party or otherwise) to, against or with respect to the Collateral or any other property at any time securing any of the liabilities, (ii) any rights of the Holder against the Maker with respect to any fraud, misappropriation of funds or knowing misrepresentation, or (iii) any rights of the Holder under or with respect to any guaranty at any time furnished to the Holder relating to or concerning any of the Liabilities.

21. JURY TRIAL. THE MAKER HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING TO ENFORCE OR DEFEND ANY RIGHTS UNDER THIS NOTE OR ANY DEBT PAPERS TO WHICH IT IS A PARTY, OR UNDER ANY AMENDMENT, INSTRUMENT, DOCUMENT OR AGREEMENT DELIVERED OR WHICH MAY IN THE FUTURE BE DELIVERED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH OR THEREWITH OR ARISING FROM ANY RELATIONSHIP EXISTING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS NOTE OR ANY DEBT PAPERS, AND AGREES THAT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE TRIED BEFORE A COURT AND NOT BEFORE A JURY.

22. Entire Agreement. This Note and the other Security Documents constitute the entire agreement between Maker and Payee. No representations, warranties, undertakings, or promises whether written or oral, expressed or implied have been made by the Payee or its agent unless expressly stated in this Note or the Security Documents.

[THIS SPACE INTENTIONALLY LEFT BLANK]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed and delivered this Note, pursuant to proper authority duly granted, as of the date and year first above written.

PLEASE READ THE ACCOMPANYING INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Exchange Offer, the undersigned hereby tenders to the Company the principal amount of Outstanding Notes indicated in the box entitled “Description of Outstanding Notes Tendered.” Subject to, and effective upon, the acceptance for exchange of the Outstanding Notes tendered hereby, the undersigned hereby irrevocably sells, assigns and transfers to or upon the order of the Company all right, title and interest in and to such Outstanding Notes, and hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Exchange Agent the true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact of the undersigned (with full knowledge that said Exchange Agent also acts as the agent of the Company and as Trustee under the indenture governing the Outstanding Notes and the Exchange Notes) with respect to such Outstanding Notes, with full power of substitution (such power of attorney being deemed to be an irrevocable power coupled with an interest) to (a) receive all benefits and otherwise to exercise all rights of beneficial ownership of such Outstanding Notes, all in accordance with the terms of the Exchange Offer, and (b) present such Outstanding Notes for transfer on the books of the Company or the trustee under the Indenture (the “Trustee”) for such Outstanding Notes.

The undersigned acknowledges that prior to this Exchange Offer, there has been no public market for the Outstanding Notes or the Exchange Notes. If a market for the Exchange Notes should develop, the Exchange Notes could trade at a discount from their principal amount. The undersigned is aware that the Company does not intend to list the Exchange Notes on a national securities exchange and that there can be no assurance that an active market for the Exchange Notes will develop.

THE EXCHANGE OFFER IS NOT BEING MADE TO ANY BROKER-DEALER WHO PURCHASED OUTSTANDING NOTES DIRECTLY FROM THE COMPANY FOR RESALE PURSUANT TO RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OR ANY PERSON THAT IS AN “AFFILIATE” OF THE COMPANY WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 405 UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT. THE EXCHANGE OFFER IS NOT BEING MADE TO, NOR WILL TENDERS BE ACCEPTED FROM OR ON BEHALF OF, HOLDERS OF THE OUTSTANDING NOTES IN ANY JURISDICTION IN WHICH THE MAKING OF THE OFFER OR ACCEPTANCE THEREOF WOULD NOT BE IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE LAWS OF SUCH JURISDICTION OR WOULD OTHERWISE NOT BE IN COMPLIANCE WITH ANY PROVISION OF ANY APPLICABLE SECURITY LAW.

The undersigned represents that (a) it is not an “affiliate,” as defined under Rule 405 of the Securities Act, of the Company or any of the Guarantors (as defined in the Prospectus), (b) it does not have an arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in a distribution of the Exchange Notes, (c) it is not a broker-dealer that owns Outstanding Notes acquired directly from the Company or an affiliate of the Company; (d) it is acquiring the Exchange Notes in the ordinary course of its business, and (e) it is not acting on behalf of any other person that could not truthfully make the representations set forth herein. In addition, if the undersigned is participating in the Exchange Offer for the purpose of distributing the Exchange Notes it cannot rely on the interpretations of the staff of the Commission discussed under the caption “The Exchange Offer — Purposes and Effects” and may only sell the Exchange Notes acquired by it pursuant to a registration statement containing the selling security holder information required by Item 507 or 508 of Regulation S-K under the Securities Act.

If the undersigned is a broker-dealer that will receive Exchange Notes for its own account in exchange for Outstanding Notes that were acquired as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities, it acknowledges that it will deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale of such Exchange Notes; however, by so acknowledging and by delivering a prospectus, the undersigned will not be deemed to admit that it is an “underwriter” within the meaning of the Securities Act.

Each broker-dealer making the representations contained in the above paragraph (a “Participating Broker-Dealer”), by tendering the Outstanding Notes and executing this Letter of Transmittal, agrees that, upon receipt of notice from the Company of the occurrence of any event or the discovery of any fact which makes any statement contained or incorporated by reference in the Prospectus untrue in any material respect or which causes the Prospectus to omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained or incorporated by reference therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading or of the occurrence of certain other events specified in the Registration Rights Agreement, such Participating Broker-Dealer will suspend the sale of Exchange Notes pursuant to the Prospectus until the Company has amended or supplemented the Prospectus to correct such misstatement or omission and has furnished copies of the amended or supplemented Prospectus to the Participating Broker-Dealer or the Company has given notice that the sale of the Exchange Notes may be resumed, as the case may be.

Each Participating Broker-Dealer should check the box herein under the caption “For Participating Broker-Dealers Only” in order to receive additional copies of the Prospectus, and any amendments and supplements thereto, for use in connection with resales of the Exchange Notes, as well as any notices from the Company to suspend and resume use of the Prospectus. By tendering its Outstanding Notes and executing this Letter of Transmittal, each Participating Broker-Dealer agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to notify the Company or the Exchange Agent when it has sold all of its Exchange Notes. If no Participating Broker-Dealers check such box, or if all Participating Broker-Dealers who have checked such box with subsequently notify the Company or the Exchange Agent that all their Exchange Notes have been sold, the Company will not be required to maintain the effectiveness of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement or to update the Prospectus and will not provide any Holders with any notices to suspend or resume use of the Prospectus.

The undersigned understands and acknowledges that the Company reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to purchase or make offers for any Outstanding Notes that remain outstanding subsequent to the Expiration Date or to terminate the Exchange Offer and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, purchase Outstanding Notes in the open market, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise. The terms of any such purchases or offers may differ from the terms of the Exchange Offer.

The undersigned hereby represents and warrants that (a) the undersigned accepts the terms and conditions of the Exchange Offer, (b) the undersigned has a net long position within the meaning of Rule 14e-4 under the Exchange Act (“Rule 14e-4”) equal to or greater than the principal amount of Outstanding Notes tendered hereby, (c) the tender of such Outstanding Notes complies with Rule 14e-4 (to the extent that Rule 14e-4 is applicable to such exchange), (d) the undersigned has full power and authority to tender, exchange, assign and transfer the Outstanding Notes tendered hereby, and (e) when the same are accepted for exchange by the Company, the Company will acquire good and unencumbered title thereto, free and clear of all liens, restrictions, charges and encumbrances and not subject to any adverse claim or right. The undersigned will, upon request, execute and deliver any additional documents deemed by the Exchange Agent or the Company to be necessary or desirable to complete the sale, assignment and transfer of the Outstanding Notes tendered hereby.

The undersigned understands that tenders of the Outstanding Notes pursuant to any one of the procedures described in the Prospectus under the caption “The Exchange Offer — Procedures for Tendering” and in the instructions hereto will constitute a binding agreement between the undersigned and the Company in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions of the Exchange Offer.

The undersigned agrees that all authority conferred or agreed to be conferred by this Letter of Transmittal and every obligation of the undersigned hereunder shall be binding upon the successors, assigns, heirs, executors, administrators, trustees in bankruptcy and legal representatives of the undersigned and shall not be affected by, and shall survive, the death or incapacity of the undersigned. The undersigned also agrees that, except as stated in the Prospectus, the Outstanding Notes tendered hereby cannot be withdrawn.

The undersigned understands that by tendering Outstanding Notes pursuant to one of the procedures described in the Prospectus and the instructions thereto, the tendering holder will be deemed to have waived the right to receive any payment in respect of interest on the Outstanding Notes accrued up to the date of issuance of the Exchange Notes.

The undersigned recognizes that, under certain circumstances set forth in the Prospectus, the Company may not be required to accept for exchange any of the Outstanding Notes tendered. Outstanding Notes not accepted for exchange or withdrawn will be returned to the undersigned at the address set forth below unless otherwise indicated under the box entitled “Special Delivery Instructions” below.

Unless otherwise indicated under the box entitled “Special Delivery Instructions” below, Exchange Notes, and Outstanding Notes not validly tendered or accepted for exchange, will be returned to the undersigned at the address shown below the signature of the undersigned.

The undersigned understands that the delivery and surrender of the Outstanding Notes is not effective, and the risk of loss of the Outstanding Notes does not pass to the Exchange Agent, until receipt by the Exchange Agent of this Letter of Transmittal, or facsimile hereof, properly completed and duly executed, with any required signature guarantees, together with all accompanying evidences of authority and any other required documents in form satisfactory to the Company. All questions as to the validity, form, eligibility (including time of receipt), and withdrawal of the tendered Outstanding Notes will be determined by the Company in its sole discretion, which determination will be final and binding. The Company reserves the absolute right to reject any and all Outstanding Notes not properly tendered or any Outstanding Notes the Company’s acceptance of which would, in the opinion of counsel for the Company, be unlawful. The Company also reserves the right to waive any irregularities or conditions of tender as to particular Outstanding Notes. The Company’s interpretation of the terms and conditions of the Exchange Offer (including the instructions in this Letter of Transmittal) will be final and binding. Unless waived, any defects or irregularities in connection with tenders of Outstanding Notes must be cured within such time as the Company shall determine. Neither the Company, the Exchange Agent nor any other person shall be under any duty to give notification of defects or irregularities with respect to tenders of Outstanding Notes, nor shall any of them incur any liability for failure to give such notification. Tenders of Outstanding Notes will not be deemed to have been made until such irregularities have been cured or waived. Any Outstanding Notes received by the Exchange Agent that are not properly tendered and as to which the defects or irregularities have not been cured or waived will be returned without cost to such holder by the Exchange Agent to the tendering holders of Outstanding Notes, unless otherwise provided in this Letter of Transmittal, as soon as practicable following the Expiration Date.

In order to complete this Letter of Transmittal properly, a Holder must (i) complete the box entitled “Description of Outstanding Notes Tendered,” (ii) complete the box entitled “Method of Delivery” by checking one of the four boxes therein and supplying the appropriate information, (iii) if such Holder is a Participating Broker-Dealer and wishes to receive additional copies of the Prospectus for delivery in connection with resales of Exchange Notes, complete the box entitled “For Participating Broker-Dealers Only,” (iv) sign this Letter of Transmittal by completing the box entitled “Please Sign Here,” (v) if appropriate, check and complete the boxes relating to the “Special Issuance Instructions” and “Special Delivery Instructions” and (vi) complete the Substitute Form W-9. Each Holder should carefully read the detailed Instructions below prior to the completing this Letter of Transmittal. See “The Exchange Offer — Procedures for Tendering” in the Prospectus.

Your bank or broker can assist you in completing this form. The instructions included with this Letter of Transmittal must be followed. Questions and requests for assistance or for additional copies of the Prospectus, this Letter of Transmittal and the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery may be directed to the Exchange Agent, whose address and telephone number appear on the front cover of this Letter of Transmittal.

INSTRUCTIONS FORMING PART OF THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE OFFER AND THE SOLICITATION

1. Delivery of This Letter of Transmittal and Certificates; Guaranteed Delivery Procedures. To be effectively tendered pursuant to the Exchange Offer, the Outstanding Notes, together with a properly completed Letter of Transmittal (or facsimile thereof), duly executed by the registered holder thereof, and any other documents required by this Letter of Transmittal, must be received by the Exchange Agent at one of its addresses set forth on the first page of this Letter of Transmittal. If the beneficial owner of any Outstanding Notes is not the registered holder, then such person may validly tender his or her Outstanding Notes only by obtaining and submitting to the Exchange Agent a properly completed Letter of Transmittal from the registered holder. OUTSTANDING NOTES SHOULD BE DELIVERED ONLY TO THE EXCHANGE AGENT AND NOT TO THE COMPANY OR TO ANY OTHER PERSON.

THE METHOD OF DELIVERY OF OUTSTANDING NOTES AND ALL OTHER REQUIRED DOCUMENTS TO THE EXCHANGE AGENT IS AT THE ELECTION AND RISK OF THE HOLDER. IF SUCH DELIVERY IS MADE BY MAIL, IT IS SUGGESTED THAT THE HOLDER USE PROPERLY INSURED, REGISTERED MAIL WITH RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED AND THAT SUFFICIENT TIME SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO ASSURE TIMELY DELIVERY. NO ALTERNATIVE, CONDITIONAL OR CONTINGENT TENDERS OF OLD NOTES WILL BE ACCEPTED.

SUFFICIENT TIME SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO ASSURE TIMELY DELIVERY TO THE EXCHANGE AGENT BY 5:00 P.M., NEW YORK CITY TIME, ON THE EXPIRATION DATE.

If a holder desires to tender Outstanding Notes and such holder's Outstanding Notes are not immediately available or time will not permit such holder's Letter of Transmittal, Outstanding Notes or other required documents to reach the Exchange Agent on or before the Expiration Date, such holder's tender may be effected if:

- (a) the tender is made through an Eligible Institution (as defined herein);
- (b) prior to the Expiration Date, the Exchange Agent receives from such Eligible Institution a properly completed and duly executed Notice of Guaranteed Delivery (by facsimile transmission, mail or hand delivery) setting forth the name and address of the holder of the Outstanding Notes, the certificate number or numbers of such Outstanding Notes and the principal amount of Outstanding Notes tendered, stating that the tender is being made thereby, and guaranteeing that, within three business days after the Expiration Date, the Letter of Transmittal (or facsimile thereof) together with the certificate(s) representing the Outstanding Notes to be tendered in proper form for transfer and any other documents required by the Letter of Transmittal will be deposited by the Eligible Institution with the Exchange Agent; and
- (c) such properly completed and executed Letter of Transmittal (or facsimile thereof), properly completed and validly executed with any required signature guarantees, an Agent's Message, together with the certificate(s) representing all tendered Outstanding Notes in proper form for transfer and all other documents required by the Letter of Transmittal are received by the Exchange Agent within three business days after the Expiration Date.

2. Withdrawal of Tenders. Tendered Outstanding Notes may be withdrawn at any time prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date, unless previously accepted for exchange.

To be effective, a written or facsimile transmission notice of withdrawal must (a) be received by the Exchange Agent at one of its addresses set forth on the first page of this Letter of Transmittal prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date, unless previously accepted for exchange, (b) specify the name of the person who tendered the Outstanding Notes, (c) contain the description of the Outstanding Notes to be withdrawn, the certificate numbers shown on the particular certificates evidencing such Outstanding Notes and the aggregate principal amount represented by such Outstanding Notes and (d) be signed by the holder of such Outstanding Notes in the same manner as the original signature appears on this Letter of Transmittal (including any required signature guarantees) or be accompanied by evidence sufficient to have the Trustee with respect to the Outstanding Notes register the transfer of such Outstanding Notes into the name of the holder withdrawing the tender. The signature(s) on the notice of withdrawal must be guaranteed by an Eligible Institution unless such Outstanding Notes have been tendered

(a) by a registered holder of Outstanding Notes who has not completed the box entitled “Special Delivery Instructions” on this Letter of Transmittal or (b) for the account of an Eligible Institution. All questions as to the validity, form and eligibility (including time of receipt) of such withdrawal notices shall be determined by the Company, whose determination shall be final and binding on all parties. If the Outstanding Notes to be withdrawn have been delivered or otherwise identified to the Exchange Agent, a signed notice of withdrawal is effective immediately upon receipt by the Exchange Agent of a written or facsimile transmission notice of withdrawal even if physical release is not yet effected. In addition, such notice must specify, in the case of Outstanding Notes tendered by delivery of certificates for such Outstanding Notes, the name of the registered holder (if different from that of the tendering holder) to be credited with the withdrawn Outstanding Notes. Withdrawals may not be rescinded, and any Outstanding Notes withdrawn will thereafter be deemed not validly tendered for purposes of the Exchange Offer. However, properly withdrawn Outstanding Notes may be retendered by following one of the procedures described under “The Exchange Offer — Procedures for Tendering” in the Prospectus at any time on or prior to the applicable Expiration Date.

3. Signatures on This Letter of Transmittal, Bond Powers and Endorsements; Guarantee of Signatures. If this Letter of Transmittal is signed by the registered holder(s) of the Outstanding Notes tendered hereby, the signature must correspond exactly with the name(s) as written on the face of the certificates without any change whatsoever.

If any Outstanding Notes tendered hereby are owned of record by two or more joint owners, all such owners must sign this Letter of Transmittal.

If any Outstanding Notes tendered hereby are registered in different names on several certificates, it will be necessary to complete, sign and submit as many separate copies of this Letter of Transmittal as there are different registrations of certificates.

When this Letter of Transmittal is signed by the registered holder or holders specified herein and tendered hereby, no endorsements of certificates or separate bond powers are required unless Exchange Notes are to be issued, or certificates for any untendered principal amount of Outstanding Notes are to be reissued, to a person other than the registered holder.

If this Letter of Transmittal is signed by a person other than the registered holder(s) of any certificate(s) specified herein, such certificate(s) must be endorsed or accompanied by appropriate bond powers, in either case signed exactly as the name(s) of the registered holder(s) appear(s) on the certificate(s).

If this Letter of Transmittal or a Notice of Guaranteed Delivery or any certificates or bond powers are signed by trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, attorneys-in-fact, officers of corporations or others acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, such persons should so indicate when signing, and unless waived by the Company, evidence satisfactory to the Company of their authority so to act must be submitted with this Letter of Transmittal.

Except as described below, signatures on this Letter of Transmittal or a notice of withdrawal, as the case may be, must be guaranteed by an Eligible Institution. Signatures on this Letter of Transmittal or a notice of withdrawal, as the case may be, need not be guaranteed if the Outstanding Notes tendered pursuant hereto are tendered (a) by a registered holder of Outstanding Notes who has not completed the box entitled “Special Delivery Instructions” on this Letter of Transmittal or (b) for the account of an Eligible Institution. In the event that signatures on this Letter of Transmittal or a notice of withdrawal, as the case may be, are required to be guaranteed, such guarantee must be by a firm which is a member of a registered national securities exchange or a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or by a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States (each as “Eligible Institutions”).

IF THIS LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL IS EXECUTED BY A PERSON OR ENTITY WHO IS NOT THE REGISTERED HOLDER, THEN THE REGISTERED HOLDER MUST SIGN A VALID BOND POWER WITH THE SIGNATURE OF SUCH REGISTERED HOLDER GUARANTEED BY A PARTICIPANT IN A RECOGNIZED MEDALLION SIGNATURE PROGRAM (A “MEDALLION SIGNATURE GUARANTOR”).

4. Special Delivery Instructions. Tendering holders should indicate in the box the name and address to which certificates for Exchange Notes and/or substitute certificates evidencing Outstanding Notes for the principal amounts not exchanged are to be issued or sent, if different from the name and address of the person signing this Letter of Transmittal. In the case of issuance in a different name, the employer identification or social security number of the person named must also be indicated. If no such instructions are given, any Outstanding Notes not exchanged will be returned to the name and address of the person signing this Letter of Transmittal.

5. Tax Identification Number Withholding. Federal income tax law of the United States requires that a holder of Outstanding Notes whose Outstanding Notes are accepted for exchange provide the Company with the holder's correct taxpayer identification number, which, in the case of a holder who is an individual, is his or her social security number, or otherwise establish an exemption from backup withholding. If the Company is not provided with the correct taxpayer identification number, the exchanging holder of Outstanding Notes may be subject to a $50 penalty imposed by the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS"). In addition, interest on the Exchange Notes acquired pursuant to the Exchange Offer may be subject to backup withholding in an amount up to 28% of any interest payment. If withholding occurs and results in an overpayment of taxes, a refund may be obtained.

To prevent backup withholding, an exchanging holder of Outstanding Notes must provide his correct taxpayer identification number by completing the Substitute Form W-9 provided in this Letter of Transmittal, certifying that the taxpayer identification number provided is correct (or that the exchanging holder of Outstanding Notes is awaiting a taxpayer identification number) and that either (a) the exchanging holder has not yet been notified by the IRS that such holder is subject to backup withholding as a result of failure to report all interest or dividends or (b) the IRS has notified the exchanging holder that such holder is no longer subject to backup withholding.

Certain exchanging holders of Outstanding Notes (including, among others, all corporations and certain foreign individuals) are not subject to these backup withholding requirements. A foreign individual and other exempt holders other than foreign individuals (e.g., corporations) should certify, in accordance with the enclosed "Guidelines for Certification of Taxpayer Identification Number on Substitute Form W-9," to such exempt status on the Substitute Form W-9 provided in this Letter of Transmittal. Foreign individuals should complete and provide Form W-8 to indicate their foreign status.

6. Transfer Taxes. Holders tendering pursuant to the Exchange Offer will not be obligated to pay brokerage commissions or fees or to pay transfer taxes with respect to their exchange under the Exchange Offer unless the Exchange Notes are to be issued to any person other than the holder of the Outstanding Notes tendered for exchange. The Company will pay all other charges or expenses in connection with the Exchange Offer. If holders tender Outstanding Notes for exchange and the Exchange Offer is not consummated, certificates representing the Outstanding Notes will be returned to the holders at the Company's expense. If a transfer tax is imposed for any reason other than the exchange of Outstanding Notes pursuant to the Exchange Offer, then the amount of any transfer taxes (whether imposed on the registered Holder or any other persons) will be payable by the tendering Holder. If satisfactory evidence of payment of such taxes or exemption therefrom is not submitted herewith the amount of taxes will be billed directly to such tendering Holder.

Except as provided in this Instruction 6, it will not be necessary for transfer tax stamps to be affixed to the certificate(s) specified in this Letter of Transmittal.

7. Inadequate Space. If the space provided herein is inadequate, the aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes being tendered and the certificate numbers (if available) should be listed on a separate schedule attached hereto and separately signed by all parties required to sign this Letter of Transmittal.

8. Partial Tenders. Tenders of Outstanding Notes will be accepted only in integral multiples of $1. If tenders are to be made with respect to less than the entire principal amount of any Outstanding Notes, fill in the total principal amount of Outstanding Notes which are tendered in the appropriate box on the cover entitled "Description of Outstanding Notes Tendered." In the case of partial tenders, new certificates representing the Outstanding Notes in fully registered form for the remainder of the principal amount of the Outstanding Notes will be sent to the person(s) signing this Letter of Transmittal, unless otherwise indicated in the appropriate place on this Letter of Transmittal, as promptly as practicable after the expiration or termination of the Exchange Offer.

9. Mutilated, Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Outstanding Notes. Any holder whose Outstanding Notes have been mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed should contact the Exchange Agent at the address indicated above for further instructions.

10. Request for Assistance or Additional Copies. Requests for assistance or additional copies of the Prospectus or this Letter of Transmittal may be obtained from the Exchange Agent at its telephone number set forth on the first page of this Letter of Transmittal.

IMPORTANT TAX INFORMATION

Under federal income tax law, the Exchange Agent may be required to withhold, at the relevant withholding rate which is currently 28%, a portion of certain payments made to Holders of the Exchange Notes. To prevent backup withholding on reportable payments made with respect to Exchange Notes received pursuant to the Exchange Offer, a tendering Holder is required to provide the Exchange Agent with (i) the Holder's correct TIN by completing the form below, certifying that the TIN provided on the Substitute Form W-9 is correct (or that such Holder is awaiting a TIN) and that (A) such Holder is exempt from backup withholding, (B) the Holder has not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") that the Holder is subject to backup withholding as a result of failure to report all interest or dividends or (C) the IRS has notified the Holder that the Holder is no longer subject to backup withholding, or (ii) if applicable, an adequate basis for exemption. If such Holder is an individual, the TIN is his or her social security number. If the Exchange Agent is not provided with the correct TIN, a $50 penalty may be imposed by the IRS and payments, including any Exchange Notes, made to such Holder with respect to Exchange Notes received pursuant to the Exchange Offer may be subject to backup withholding.

For purposes of backup withholding, the relevant withholding rate is currently 28% for reportable payments made in the remainder of 2004 and thereafter. Certain Holders (including, among others, all corporations and certain foreign persons) are not subject to these backup withholding and reporting requirements but may be subject to other withholding requirements. Exempt Holders should indicate their exempt status on the Substitute Form W-9. A foreign person may qualify as an exempt recipient by submitting to the Exchange Agent a properly completed IRS Form W-8 signed under penalties of perjury, attesting to that Holder's exempt status. A Form W-8 can be obtained from the Exchange Agent. See the enclosed "Guidelines for Certification of Taxpayer Identification Number on Substitute Form W-9" for additional instructions. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors to determine whether they are exempt.

If backup withholding applies, the Exchange Agent is required to withhold, at the relevant withholding rate, a portion of any reportable payments made to the holder of the Exchange Notes or other payee. Backup withholding is not an additional Federal income tax. Rather, the Federal income tax liability of persons subject to backup withholding will be reduced by the amount of tax withheld. If withholding results in an overpayment of taxes, a refund may be obtained from the IRS.

WHAT NUMBER TO GIVE THE EXCHANGE AGENT

The Holder is required to give the Exchange Agent the TIN (e.g., social security number or employer identification number) of the registered holder of the Exchange Notes. If the Exchange Notes will be held in more than one name or are held not in the name of the actual owner, consult the enclosed "Guidelines for Certification of Taxpayer Identification Number on Substitute Form W-9" for additional guidance on which number to report.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The undersigned hereby tender(s) to the Company, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Prospectus, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the principal amount of Outstanding Notes set forth below, pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedures set forth in the Prospectus under the caption “The Exchange Offer — Guaranteed Delivery Procedures.” By so tendering, the undersigned does hereby make, at and as of the date hereof, the representations and warranties of a tendering Holder of Outstanding Notes set forth in the Letter of Transmittal.

Subject to and effective upon acceptance for exchange of the Outstanding Notes tendered herewith, the undersigned hereby sells, assigns and transfers to or upon the order of the Company all right, title and interest in and to, and any and all claims in respect of or arising or having arisen as a result of the undersigned’s status as a holder of, all Outstanding Notes tendered hereby. In the event of a termination of the Exchange Offer, the Outstanding Notes tendered pursuant thereto will be returned promptly to the tendering Outstanding Note holder.

The undersigned hereby represents and warrants that the undersigned accepts the terms and conditions of the Prospectus and the Letter of Transmittal, has full power and authority to tender, sell, assign and transfer the Outstanding Notes tendered hereby and that the Company will acquire good and unencumbered title thereto, free and clear of all liens, restrictions, charges and encumbrances and not subject to any adverse claim. The undersigned will, upon request, execute and deliver any additional documents deemed by the Exchange Agent or the Company to be necessary or desirable to complete the sale, assignment and transfer of the Outstanding Notes tendered.

All authority herein conferred or agreed to be conferred by this Notice of Guaranteed Delivery shall survive the death or incapacity of the undersigned and every obligation of the undersigned under this Notice of Guaranteed Delivery shall be binding upon the heirs, personal representatives, executors, administrators, successors, assigns, trustees in bankruptcy and other legal representatives of the undersigned.

TENDERS OF 9.0% SECOND LIEN SENIOR SECURED NOTES DUE 2009 MAY ONLY BE WITHDRAWN UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES DESCRIBED IN THE PROSPECTUS AND THE LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL.

_____, 2004

To Our Clients:

Enclosed for your consideration is the Prospectus dated _____, 2004 (the "Prospectus") and the related Letter of Transmittal and instructions thereto (the "Letter of Transmittal") in connection with the offer (the "Exchange Offer") of AMERCO, a Nevada corporation ("the Company"), to exchange $1 principal amount of its registered 9.0% Second Lien Senior Secured Notes due 2009 (the "Exchange Notes") for each $1 principal amount of its outstanding unregistered 9.0% Second Lien Senior Secured Notes due 2009 (the "Outstanding Notes").

Consummation of the Exchange Offer is subject to certain conditions described in the Prospectus. Capitalized terms used herein but not defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Prospectus.

WE ARE THE REGISTERED HOLDER OF OUTSTANDING NOTES HELD BY US FOR YOUR ACCOUNT. A TENDER OF ANY SUCH OUTSTANDING NOTES CAN BE MADE ONLY BY US AS THE REGISTERED HOLDER AND PURSUANT TO YOUR INSTRUCTIONS. THE LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL IS FURNISHED TO YOU FOR YOUR INFORMATION ONLY AND CANNOT BE USED BY YOU TO TENDER OUTSTANDING NOTES HELD BY US FOR YOUR ACCOUNT.

Accordingly, we request instructions as to whether you wish us to tender any or all such Outstanding Notes held by us for your account pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Prospectus and the Letter of Transmittal. We urge you to read carefully the Prospectus and the Letter of Transmittal before instructing us to tender your Outstanding Notes.

Your instructions to us should be forwarded as promptly as possible in order to permit us to tender Outstanding Notes on your behalf in accordance with the provisions of the Exchange Offer. THE EXCHANGE OFFER WILL EXPIRE AT 5:00 P.M., NEW YORK CITY TIME ON _____, 2004 (THE "EXPIRATION DATE"), UNLESS EXTENDED. Outstanding Notes tendered pursuant to the Exchange Offer may only be withdrawn under the circumstances described in the Prospectus and the Letter of Transmittal.

Your attention is directed to the following:

1. The Exchange Offer is for the entire aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Notes.
 2. Consummation of the Exchange Offer is conditioned upon the conditions set forth in the Prospectus under the caption "The Exchange Offer — Conditions of the Exchange Offer."
 3. The Exchange offer and withdrawal rights will expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time on _____, 2004, unless extended. Tendering holders may withdraw their tender at any time until 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date.

4. Any transfer taxes incident to the transfer of Outstanding Notes from the tendering holder to the Company will be paid by the Company, except as provided in the Prospectus and the instructions to the Letter of Transmittal.

5. The Exchange Offer is not being made to (nor will the surrender of Outstanding Notes for exchange be accepted from or on behalf of) holders of Outstanding Notes in any jurisdiction in which the making or acceptance of the Exchange Offer would not be in compliance with the laws of such jurisdiction.

6. The acceptance for exchange of Outstanding Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn and the issuance of Exchange Notes will be made as promptly as practicable after the Expiration Date. However, subject to rules promulgated pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), the Company expressly reserves the right to delay acceptance of any of the Outstanding Notes or to terminate the Exchange Offer and not accept for purchase any Outstanding Notes not theretofore accepted if any of the conditions set forth in the Prospectus under the caption "The Exchange Offer — Conditions of the Exchange Offer" shall not have been satisfied or waived by the Company.

7. The Company expressly reserves the right, in its sole discretion, (i) to delay accepting any Outstanding Notes, (ii) to extend the Exchange Offer, (iii) to amend the terms of the Exchange Offer or (iv) to terminate the Exchange Offer. Any delay, extension, amendment or termination will be followed as promptly as practicable by oral or written notice to the Exchange Agent and the Company will mail to the registered holders an announcement thereof, each prior to 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the next business day after the previously scheduled Expiration Date. Except as otherwise provided in the Prospectus, withdrawal rights with respect to Outstanding Notes tendered pursuant to the Exchange Offer will not be extended or reinstated as a result of an extension or amendment of the Exchange Offer.

8. Consummation of the Exchange Offer may have adverse consequences to non-tendering Outstanding Note holders, including that the reduced amount of Outstanding Notes as a result of the Exchange Offer may adversely affect the trading market, liquidity and market price of the Outstanding Notes.

If you wish to have us tender any or all of the Outstanding Notes held by us for your account, please so instruct us by completing, executing and returning to us the instruction form that follows. IF YOU DO NOT INSTRUCT US TO TENDER YOUR OUTSTANDING NOTES, THEY WILL NOT BE TENDERED.

To Brokers, Dealers, Commercial Banks, Trust Companies and other Nominees:

We have been appointed by AMERCO, a Nevada corporation (the "Company"), to act as the Exchange Agent in connection with the offer (the "Exchange Offer") of the Company to exchange $1 principal amount of its registered 9.0% Second Lien Senior Secured Notes due 2009 (the "Exchange Notes") for each $1 principal amount of its unregistered 9.0% Second Lien Senior Secured Notes due 2009 (the "Outstanding Notes"), upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Prospectus dated November 6, 2003 (the "Prospectus") and in the related Letter of Transmittal and the instructions thereto (the "Letter of Transmittal").

Enclosed herewith are copies of the following documents:

1. The Prospectus;
2. The Letter of Transmittal for your use and for the information of clients, together with guidelines of the Internal Revenue Service for Certification of Taxpayer Identification Number on Substitute Form W-9 providing information relating to backup federal income tax withholding;
3. Notice of Guaranteed Delivery to be used to accept the Exchange Offer if the Notes and all other required documents cannot be delivered to the Exchange Agent on or prior to the Expiration Date (as defined);
4. A form of letter which may be sent to your clients for whose account you hold the Notes in your name or in the name of a nominee, with space provided for obtaining such clients' instructions with regard to the Exchange Offer; and
5. A return envelope addressed to the Exchange Agent.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THE EXCHANGE OFFER WILL EXPIRE AT 5:00 P.M., NEW YORK CITY TIME ON _____, 2004 (THE "EXPIRATION DATE"), UNLESS EXTENDED. WE URGE YOU TO CONTACT YOUR CLIENTS AS PROMPTLY AS POSSIBLE.

The Company will not pay any fees or commission to any broker or dealer or other person (other than to the Exchange Agent) for soliciting tenders of the Notes pursuant to the Exchange Offer. You will be reimbursed for customary mailing and handling expenses incurred by you in forwarding the enclosed materials to your clients.

Additional copies of the enclosed materials may be obtained by contacting the Exchange Agent as provided in the enclosed Letter of Transmittal.

Very truly yours,

Wells Fargo Bank, Minnesota, NA

NOTHING CONTAINED HEREIN OR IN THE ENCLOSED DOCUMENTS SHALL CONSTITUTE YOU OR ANY OTHER PERSON THE AGENT OF THE COMPANY OR THE EXCHANGE AGENT OR AUTHORIZE YOU OR ANY OTHER PERSON TO GIVE ANY INFORMATION OR MAKE ANY REPRESENTATION ON BEHALF OF ANY OF THEM WITH RESPECT TO THE EXCHANGE OFFER NOT CONTAINED IN THE PROSPECTUS OR THE LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL.

GUIDELINES FOR CERTIFICATION OF TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER ON SUBSTITUTE FORM W-9

A. TIN — The Taxpayer Identification Number for most individuals is their social security number. Refer to the following chart to determine the appropriate number:

For this type of account:	Give the SOCIAL SECURITY number or EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION number of:
1. Individual	The individual
2. Two or more individuals (joint account)	The actual owner of the account or, if combined funds, the first individual on the account(1)
3. Custodian account of a minor (Uniform Gift to Minors Act)	The minor(2)
4. a. Revocable savings trust (grantor is also trustee)	The grantor-trustee(1)
b. So-called trust account that is not a legal or valid trust under State law	The actual owner(1)
5. Sole proprietorship	The owner(3)
6. A valid trust, estate or pension trust	Legal entity(4)
7. Corporate	The corporation
8. Association, club, religious, charitable, educational or other tax exempt organization	The organization
9. Partnership	The partnership
10. A broker or registered nominee	The broker or nominee
11. Account with the Department of Agriculture in the name of a public entity that receives agricultural program payments.	The public entity

- (1) List first and circle the name of the person whose number you furnish.
- (2) Circle the minor's name and furnish the minor's name and social security number.
- (3) Show the individual's name. You may use either your Social Security number or your employer identification number.
- (4) List first and circle the name of the legal trust, estate, or pension trust. Do not furnish the identifying number of the personal representative or trustee unless the legal entity itself is not designated in the account title.

NOTE: If no name is circled when there is more than one name, the number will be considered to be that of the first name listed.

B. Exempt Payees — The following lists exempt payees. If you are exempt, you must nonetheless complete the form and provide your TIN in order to establish that you are exempt. Check the box in Part II of the form, sign and date the form.

For this purpose, Exempt Payees include: (1) a corporation; (2) an organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), or an individual retirement plan (IRA) or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7); (3) the United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities; (4) a state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions, or instrumentalities; (5) a foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies or instrumentalities; (6) an international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities; (7) a foreign central bank of issue; (8) a dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the U.S. or a possession of the U.S.; (9) a real estate investment trust; (10) an entity or person registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940; (11) a common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a); (12) a financial institution; (13) a trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947; (14) a futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission; and (15) a middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian.

C. Obtaining a Number — If you do not have a taxpayer identification number or you do not know your number, obtain Form SS-5, application for a Social Security Number, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, at the local office of the Social Security Administration or the Internal Revenue Service and apply for a number.

D. Privacy Act Notice — Section 6109 requires most recipients of dividend, interest or other payments to give taxpayer identification numbers to payors who must report the payments to the IRS. The IRS uses the numbers for identification purposes.

Payors must be given the numbers whether or not payees are required to file tax returns. Payors must generally withhold, at a maximum rate of 31%, a portion of taxable interest, dividend and certain other payments to a payee who does not furnish a taxpayer identification number. Certain penalties may also apply.

E. Penalties —

- (1) Penalty for Failure to Furnish Taxpayer Identification Number. If you fail to furnish your taxpayer identification number to a payor, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect.
- (2) Civil Penalty for False Information with Respect to Withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis which results in no imposition of backup withholding, you are subject to a penalty of $500.
- (3) Criminal Penalty for Falsifying Information. Falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.
