Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On December 2, 2021, AMERCO, a Nevada corporation (the “Company”), entered into a Note Purchase Agreement with the purchasers named therein (the “Purchase Agreement”) in connection with the private placement of the Company’s senior unsecured notes (the “Notes”). Under the Purchase Agreement, the Company sold an aggregate of $600 million of its Notes, consisting of (a) $100 million aggregate principal amount of its 2.55% Senior Notes, Series A due January 27, 2030, (b) $100 million aggregate principal amount of its 2.60% Senior Notes, Series B due January 27, 2031, (c) $100 million aggregate principal amount of its 2.68% Senior Notes, Series C due January 27, 2032, (d) $150 million aggregate principal amount of its 2.73% Senior Notes, Series D due January 27, 2033, and (e) $150 million aggregate principal amount of its 2.88% Senior Notes, Series E due January 27, 2035. The issue price for the Notes was 100% of the aggregate principal amount thereof.

These notes funded on January 27, 2022.

The Notes bear interest on the outstanding principal balance at the stated rates per annum from the date of issuance, payable semiannually on January 27 and July 27 of each year, commencing with the January 27 or July 27 next succeeding the date of the Note, until such principal becomes due and payable. The Notes are senior unsecured obligations of the Company and rank at least pari passu in right of payment with all other unsecured senior indebtedness of the Company.

Pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, the Company may, at its option, upon notice to each holder of the Notes, prepay at any time all, or from time to time any part of, the Notes, in an amount not less than 5% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding in the case of a partial prepayment, at 100% of the principal amount so prepaid, and the Make - Whole Amount (as defined in the Purchase Agreement) determined for the prepayment date with respect to such principal amount, as set forth in the Purchase Agreement.

The obligations of the Company under the Notes will be guaranteed by each of the Company’s subsidiaries that guarantees or otherwise becomes liable at any time, whether as a borrower or an additional or co - borrower or otherwise, for or in respect of any indebtedness under any Material Credit Facility (as defined in the Purchase Agreement).

The Purchase Agreement contains customary covenants, including, among others, limitations on the Company’s ability to consolidate, merge, or transfer all or substantially all of its assets, transact with affiliates, and create or incur liens on assets. The Purchase Agreement also includes the following financial covenants, subject to certain qualifications, (i) a minimum fixed charge coverage ratio, (ii) a minimum unencumbered property value ratio, and (iii) a maximum subsidiary unencumbered leverage ratio.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary events of default, including but not limited to non-payment, breach of covenants, representations or warranties, cross defaults, bankruptcy or other insolvency events, judgments, Employee Retirement Income Security Act 1974 (ERISA) events, and failure of a guaranty agreement. If an event of default occurs, the holders of notes will be entitled to take various actions, including the acceleration of amounts due under the Purchase Agreement and the Notes.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement and the Notes is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Purchase Agreement (which attaches the forms of the Notes), a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated herein by this reference.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the issuance of the Notes for general corporate purposes. The Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and were offered and sold in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act.
