AMERCO Announces Common Stock Repurchase Program Increase

March 9, 2007

AMERCO (Nasdaq: UHAL), the parent company of U-Haul International, Inc., Oxford Life Insurance Company, Republic Western Insurance Company and Amerco Real Estate Company, announced today that its Board of Directors has authorized an increase in the Company's common stock repurchase program to a total aggregate amount, net of brokerage commissions, of $115 million (which amount is inclusive of the $50 million common stock repurchase program approved by the Board of Directors in 2006). As with the original program, the Company may repurchase stock from time to time on the open market until October 31, 2007.

The extent to which the Company repurchases its shares and the timing of such purchases will depend upon market conditions and other corporate considerations. The purchases will be funded from available working capital.

AMERCO is the parent company of AMERCO Real Estate Company, Republic Western Insurance Company, Oxford Life Insurance Company and U-Haul International, Inc., North America's most preferred do-it-yourself moving and storage operator. With a network of over 15,400 locations in all 50 United States and 10 Canadian provinces, the Company is chosen first by consumers. U-Haul has the largest consumer truck-rental fleet in the world, with over 93,000 trucks, 80,675 trailers and 33,500 towing devices.

U-Haul also has been a leader in the storage industry since 1974, with more than 380,000 rooms and more than 33.5 million square feet of storage space at more than 1,050 owned - and - managed facilities throughout North America.
